Following the request of the U. S. Food Administration for an increase in hog production for marketing in the fall of 1918 and the spring of 1919 the increase may yield not less than 1,000,000,000 pounds more of pork products than were available last year. Without this increase the shipping program arranged by Mr. Hoover regarding animal food products would have been impossible.

The dressed hog products during the three months ending September 30, 1917, amounted to 968,172,000 pounds, while for the corresponding months of 1918 the dressed hog products totaled 1,277,589,000, an increase of over 374,000,000 pounds for the quarter.

During the same period for 1917 the records of inspected slaughter of dressed beef showed 1,268,000,000 pounds as against 1,454,000,000 pounds for the three month period ending September 1, this year.

America's Pledge of Food Gave Heart to the Allies In Their Darkest Hour

Whatever is necessary America will send. That was America's pledge to the interallied food council. And because the American food army had hitherto made good they took heart and went forward.

FAITH JUSTIFIED BY EVENTS.

I do not believe that drastic force need be applied to maintain economic distribution and sane use of supplies by the great majority of American people, and I have learned a deep and abiding faith in the intelligence of the average American business man, whose aid we anticipate and depend on to remedy the evils developed by the war.—Herbert Hoover, August 10, 1917.

SUGAR SHOWED OUR BACKBONE

American Willingness to Give Up Luxury Demonstrated Nation's War Conscience.

STAND WITH THE ALLIES.

By Reducing Consumption People of the United States Averted a Famine at Home in Spite of Low Supplies.

The fact that the people of the United States were able to reduce by more than one-half million tons their July, August, September and October consumption of sugar proves conclusively that their war conscience was thoroughly awakened and that the country as a whole stood ready to follow the injunctions of the Government.

Our normal consumption of sugar in the four-month period beginning with July has been 400,000 tons per month, a total of 1,600,000, for the quarter year.

In July, when our sugar stringency began to reach its height, consumption was reduced to 260,000 tons. In August only 325,000 tons went into distribution and in September only 279,000 tons. In October the distribution fell to 230,000 tons.

If the general public had failed to observe the injunctions of the Food Administration this country would have been in the throes of a sugar famine before the end of August. Our visible supplies were so low as to bring great anxiety to those familiar with the sugar situation. They feared that it would be absolutely impossible to reduce consumption to a point where sugar would no longer be a mere luxury in the American diet.

Few accomplishments of the Food Administration will stand forth so predominantly as this reduced consumption of sugar. By it we have been able to bridge over the period of stringency until the new beet and Louisiana cane sugar crops were in sight.

Now the nation is in a position so that if we choose we may return to our normal home use of sugar, and Europe, with the release of ships to go far afield, can maintain its recent restricted rations. If, however, those nations are to increase their use of sugar very considerably it must be by our continued sharing with them through limiting our own consumption.

AMERICAN SPIRIT RELIED ON TO WIN.

In the light of succeeding events it is interesting to recall the confidence with which the United States Food Administrator viewed the gloomy outlook in July of 1917, when this country had been in the war for less than four months and the Germans were steadily sending the western front nearer and nearer to Paris.

"Even though the situation in Europe may be gloomy today," he declared in a public statement, "no American who has knowledge of the results already obtained in every direction need have one atom of fear that democracy will not defend itself in these United States."

LOYALTY IN LITTLE THINGS LAST PROOF OF PATRIOTISM

Americans without murmuring cut their sugar allowance from four pounds a month to three and then as long as need be to two pounds for loyalty's sake.

Food Will Win the World.

America earned the gratitude of allied nations during war by sharing food. America under peace may win the world's good will by saving to share.

DEMOCRACY VS. AUTOCRACY.

"There is no royal road to food conservation. We can only accomplish this by the voluntary action of our whole people, each element in proportion to its needs. It is a matter of equality of burden."

The truth of this statement, made by the United States Food Administrator soon after we entered the war, has been borne out by the history of our exports. Autocratic food control in the lands of our enemies has broken down, while democratic food sharing has maintained the health and strength of this country and of the Allies.

Returns From German Prison Camp

August Hoffman received another telegram Tuesday from Washington dated Dec. 9th. stating his son Private Frank Hoffman was officially reported released from a German prison camp and had returned to France in good health.

This is certainly good news for the family and friends of Private Hoffman and it is hoped Mr. Hoffman will arrive home in safety.

Severely Wounded

J. M. Ryan received a telegram Monday stating his son, Henry, had been severly wounded and was in a hospital. The telegram was dated Washington, Dec. 2, and reads as follows:

"Corporal Henry M. Ryan, Co. F. 38th Infantry, severely wounded in action under date of Oct. 5th, 1918, that he was in Base Hospital 85, A. E. F., under treatment for severe gunshot wound in right leg and left hand."

The above telegram was delayed a few days in reaching Mr. Ryan on account of a poor address and was first sent to Thief River Falls and then returned here, but we are unable to explain the delay in its being sent out from Washington.

Mr. Ryan received a letter from his son dated Oct. 23rd, in which he stated he was then able to sit up in bed while writing, but that he could not sit up very long at a time as it made him dizzy.

Before being wounded Corporal Ryan wrote home that he expected to eat Christmas dinner with his folks here. Altho they are now denied that privelege, they are thankful his life has been spared and that he will be able to return home later.

Death of Johnny Folden

Johnny, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Folden, died Tuesday forenoon at the hospital in Thief River Falls, about an hour after being operated upon for the removal of a large tumor. The operation itself was a success and he regained consciousness afterwards but the shock from it was more than the little fellow could stand and he expired peacefully and without any pain.

Mr. and Mrs. Folden had gone to Thief River Falls the day before and decided to risk an operation as it was certain he could not live with the tumor and neither could he be removed to his home in the condition in which he was. The Parents returned home Wednesday and brot back here the body of their beloved little son for the last sad rites of the funeral.

Johnny Robert Folden was born March 21st 1911 and was 7 years 8 months and 19 days old when he died. He was a bright little fellow and was loved by everybody and will be greatly missed in the family.

The funeral will be conducted by Rev. Kilen next Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock at the home and at 3 o'clock at the Folden cemetery where the interment will be made.

We wish to join with their many friends in extending heartfelt sympathy to the grief stricken parents and the other members of the family.

P. P. Reierson was a Thief River Falls visitor Friday.

Miss Amanda Mickelson has been working in the bank this week.

Ed. Nelson visited friends a few days this week in Thief River Falls.

Nils Engebretsen and family were Sunday guests at the Andrew Hanson home.

Child Welfare.

Baby's Drinking Water

The baby needs plenty of cool, answeetened water to drink. It is safe to boil all the drinking water for a baby, which should be given to a young baby lukewarm, never ice cold. Never put sugar or anything else in it. Offer it to the baby between feedings, in summer especially he needs to drink frequently. A "runabout" baby is constantly exercising while awake and requires a great deal of water. Fretful babies, especially those who are cutting teeth, are often quieted by a cool drink.

Mrs. Racine Olson accompanied by her sister Amanda Mickelson went to T. R. Falls Thursday where the former entered the Oakland Park Sanatorium for treatment.

Dr. Gambell was called Monday to see the following people, who had the flu: Gilbert Johnson and family, Nels Johnson, Iver Engebretsen family, Dan Nelson and the Fred Larson family.

GERMAN RETREAT BRINGS NEW WORK FOR RED CROSS

In France the retreat of the German armies and the redemption of wide territory has produced a tremendous expansion of all Red Cross activities. The German retreat widens the systematic destruction not only of cities and villages, but of practically everything in the evacuated territory.

It will be necessary to provide at once for the housing of homeless refugees in the devastated areas and in the temporary reconstruction of villages. It will be necessary to provide also [illegible] supplies, sewing machines, in addition to foodstuffs and medical supplies, throughout all this territory.

With the coming again of winter, the fight against tuberculosis must be taken up with renewed energy. Seventy-six tuberculosis hospitals have been completed and are in operation, but requirements have been made for ninety-six provisional hospitals, all to be in operation before winter. The Red Cross has adopted as a slogan "to visit every baby in France." It is estimated that 80,000 French babies died last year, 40,000 of whom might have been saved. One of the immediate objects of the Red Cross is to save those 40,000 babies in 1919.

Shoes for Belgian Children.

Faced with the fact that Belgian children are no different from any other in their ability to wear out shoes, the American Red Cross, figuratively, has gone in the shoe manufacturing business at Limoges, France. It will endeavor to make shoes for all the children in the various colonies in France which it is maintaining.

RED CROSS TAKES HOME TO THE BOYS

The French soldiers have furloughs which they can spend at home. The English fighters go back to Blighty. But our boys have the ocean between them and home. They cannot come home on furlough, and it remains for the American Red Cross to try and take home to them.

This is particularly true in regard to the convalescent homes. Here all reversion to hospital life is avoided. Books, games, music, social evenings and home-like surroundings help them to throw off the grim business of war until they are really able to recover. The housekeeper is always a motherly woman, usually American, who looks after the comfort of her charges and helps them to pack up all imaginary troubles in the old kit bag.

The American Red Cross now has six of these homes in operation.

AMERICAN GIRLS BRING CHEER TO WOUNDED.

"My wound hurts like h——, but I don't intend to pass up this chance to talk to an American girl."

This sentiment, voiced by an American soldier, reflected the feelings of many of his wounded comrades when they arrived in Paris after the recent Franco-American drive north of Verdun, according to reports just received by the American Red Cross from workers in Paris. These reports, testifying to the wonderful cheerfulness of the wounded men, say that many of them refused to continue their journey to the hospital until they had a chance to chat with the American women in charge of the canteens.

Experimental Red Cross Dairy.

The American Red Cross has established an experimental dairy at one of the base hospitals in France. The French government has loaned 1,000 cows for this purpose and it is expected enough milk will be produced to supply some 20,000 injured fighters daily. For army doctors agree that fresh milk is vital in the speedy convalescence of the wounded men.

Work for the Refugees.

At Leghorn, Italy, there is a little shoe factory, which is furnishing work for the refugee families who are under the protection of the American Red Cross. It is but a little factory, but it is providing work, which means salaries, food and clothing for more than two dozen families from Sprezlano every month.

A Lady in Texas Tells How She Regained and Keeps Her Health.

Every household should have at hand all the time a dependable remedy with which to fight catarrh and catarrhal conditions.

The experience of Mrs. M. E. Berkley, No. 1322 27th St., Galveston, Tex., is not unique, but her letter does carry a vigorous "safety first" suggestion to every American home: "I wish to tell you of the good Peruna has been to me. I have used it five years and have never found it other than satisfactory as a remedy for colds, catarrh, indigestion and many other ailments. I am never without Peruna."

Coughs, colds, catarrh, grip and influenza cannot safely be neglected. Any disease due to catarrhal inflammation of the mucous lining, whether of the nasal passages, throat, lungs, stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder or other organs, is to be feared. Catarrh is always a menace to the general health and on account of its prevalence must be fought and fought hard all the time.

Thousands place their entire dependence upon the well known time-tried remedy, Peruna. Dr. Hartman began selling Peruna for catarrh forty-five years ago. Try Peruna first and avoid possible disappointment and expense.

Acid-Stomach Ruins Health of Millions

Besides those painful attacks of indigestion; that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and downright stomach misery that you who have experienced it know so well; besides disgusting belching, food-repeating, sour stomach and distressing heartburn—besides all this, ACID-STOMACH undermines the health and saps the strength of millions.

If you don't get rid of those stomach miseries there is no telling where your stomach troubles will end, for it is a well known scientific fact that many serious ailments have their start in an acid-stomach.

Start now—this very day to get rid of your stomach miseries—take EATONIC—the wonderful remedy that absorbs the excess acid from the stomach and brings INSTANT relief. You simply have no idea how much better, stronger and brighter you feel at once. It drives out all the gas and bloat, puts an immediate stop to belching and heartburn, ends stomach suffering and makes it cool, sweet, comfortable and strong.

There can be no further excuse for you to allow acid-stomach to wreck your health—pile up misery upon misery until you get to the point where you feel down and out and that life has lost all its joys. Remember, just as acid-mouth ruins teeth, so acid-stomach ruins health.

Take EATONIC. It's good, just like a bit of candy and makes the stomach feel fine. You can then eat the things you like and, what is more, every mouthful you eat will count in creating power and energy. You'll feel so much better—have punch and pep—the power and will to do things and get results, and your stomach misery will be gone.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhœa, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

Queens and Tobacco.

There are queens hostile to the use of tobacco, such as Queen Mary of England; there are others, and more numerous, who do not disdain to smoke in their intimacy a good number of cigarettes.

Queen Amelia of Portugal, for instance was wedded to tobacco. She undoubtedly had this passion for tobacco from her mother, the countess of Paris, who even smoked cigars, and one day took to the pipe.

The dowager empress of Russia likewise enjoyed smoking, and her daughter-in-law, the tsaritzh, when drinking te consumed innumerable cigarettes.

Queen Nathalia of Serbia, the queen of Roumania and in general all Balkan princesses worship Turkish tobacco and the whole day long smoke perfumed cigarettes.

Under Control of U. S. Troops to Maintain Order Ahead of Army's Arrival.

REDS MENACE BERLIN

Machine Guns Placed As Liebnecht Addresses Crowd—10,000 Red Guard Ordered to Quell Riots in Capital.

Washington, Dec. 10.—General Dupont of the French army has arrived in Berlin, according to advices received here, and has established his headquarters in the palace formerly occupied by the French embassy. General Dupont has been entrusted with the transport and repatriation of French prisoners held in Germany.

With the Americans in Prussia, Dec. 10.—American troops are in Coblenz. The detachment comprises about 1,000 men.

The remainder of the Third Army will come up as planned. The Second Battalion will declare martial law in Coblenz and guard public utilities.

Copenhagen, Dec. 10.—Ten thousand members of the Republican guard were ordered under arms in Berlin to quell rioting there, according to dispatches received from that city.

The best Bolshevik organizers from Russia are arriving in Berlin to lead the Spartacus group. Among them is said to be "Lewine."

Machine Guns Command Streets.

Berlin, Dec. 10.—Eager to make members of the Spartacus party martyrs as the result of previous rioting, Dr. Karl Liebknecht, leader of this faction, lost no time staging a spectacular open air meeting at the Tiergarten. His call for the meeting brought forth 4,000 munition workers who had responded to the demand for a general walkout.

These men and women marched through Unter den Linden to the Tiergarten until they reached the point where the avenue of Victory intersects the base of one of the granite statues erected in honor of the Hohenzollerns and made an address. The semi-circle of Dr. Liebknecht's auditors was flanked on all sides by machine guns mounted on motor trucks which commanded all approaches. Dr. Liebknecht harangued the crowd in his familiar style, indicting Frederick Ebert, the premier, Philipp Scheidemann and other "Kaiser Socialists" of complicity in the rioting. He called upon the masses to organize Red Guards and beat off the attacks of counter revolutionists.

At a late hour Berlin was absolutely quiet. It is estimated by the Tageblatt that the number of deserters that Berlin is feeding exceeds 60,000. Premier Ebert and his cabinet held a secret session with the executive committee of the soldiers and workmen's council discussing the rioting. Over 19 mass meetings of conflicting parties were announced.

BREST TO WELCOME WILSON

Unique Celebration Being Arranged for His Arrival.

Brest, Dec. 10.—Brest is preparing to outdo itself in the reception of President Wilson when he lands.

"The importance of an event unique in the history of the world will escape none of us," the mayor's proclamation says. "Breaking with the tradition of isolation the new world sends to the old continent, the cradle of its ancestors, the eminent man who is the incarnation of the ideal of free America. A universal union of peoples is in preparation after the downfall of the powers of carnage and oppression."

The committee in charge of the fete intends to have a group of Breton men and women wearing picturesque costumes on the wharf to greet the president when he lands.

All the rooms in the hotels of the city have been reserved for the day of the president's arrival.

Harden Asserts He Is Coward and Did Not Call War.

London, Dec. 10.—Maximilian Harden, editor of the Berlin Zukunft, in an interview with the correspondent of the Express, declared the impression abroad concerning former Emperor William is a false one. He said he himself had suffered too much through the former emperor to incur a charge of partiality, but it was fact that William Hohenzollern had no personal part in willing the war, but was a tool in the hands of the military party, by which he was regarded as a coward.

Germans Surrendering Airplanes.

London, Dec. 10.—The surrender of 2,000 German airplanes has been proceeding during the past week and it is expected the full complement of enemy machines will shortly be in the Allies' hands. Certain difficulties and attempted evasions connected with the precise proportion of the various types of aircraft to be turned over and the air worthiness of some of the machines surrendered are now being adjusted in response to firm representations by Marshal Foch on behalf of the Allies.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Is Prepared For Woman's Use.

A visit to the laboratory where this successful remedy is made impresses even the casual looker-on with the reliability, accuracy, skill and cleanliness which attends the making of this great medicine for woman's ills.

Over 350,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually and all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their natural juices and medicinal substances are at their best.

The most successful solvents are used to extract the medicinal properties from these herbs.

Every utensil and tank that comes in contact with the medicine is sterilized and as a final precaution in cleanliness the medicine is pasteurized and sealed in sterile bottles.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

The letters from women who have been restored to health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which we are continually publishing attest to its virtue.

HAD EXAMPLE BEFORE HIM

Lop-Eared Youth Could Not Doubt That Some People Could Speak Fast Without Stuttering.

A venerable citizen of the Straddle Ridge neighborhood entered a lunchroom in Polkville, dragging after him a gander-necked, lop-eared youth.

"What kind o' pie have ye got yere?" he asked of the brisk waitress.

"Peach, apple, mince, raisin, punkin, apercot, mince, raisin and cokernut custard!" she answered with considerable rapidity.

"Ptu—which?" returned the old fellow.

The young lady repeated the list with still greater speed.

"Please say that over ag'in, if you'd jest as liv'," requested the ancient man.

"Say, lookee here!" demanded the waitress. "Can't you understand anything?"

"Oh, yes'm; I understand all right!" He turned to the lop-eared youth. "There now, Emmett!" he triumphantly said. "You see, it's jest as I told you; a person kin talk as fast as he pleases without stutterin', if he'll only take keer!"—Judge.

STATE BREVITIES

Ortonville.—Nels Lindgren, the first settler in Ortonville township, is dead. He settled on his claim here in 1870 and the log house in which he resided is still in existence. He leaves eleven children.

Keewatin. — The "flu" situation in this section is greatly improved. There were one or two new cases reported the first of the week, but they are on the road to recovery. The village hospital has discharged two cases.

St. Cloud.—The St. Cloud Commercial club adopted a resolution in favor of prohibiting the teaching of German in public schools throughout the United States. A committee to be elected later will take steps to make this a national measure.

St. Cloud.—St. Cloud has been divided into four sections for the Red Cross membership drive. Milton Guthman, chairman, and Walter Niskern and F. A. R. Moore, who form the central committee for Stearns county, have mapped out the local work.

Stillwater.—A farmer named Louis Zeiger was fined $250 and given four months in the county jail here for calling Wilson a vile name and for saying he would rather throw his money into the St. Croix river than to put it into Liberty bonds. Zeiger pleaded guilty under the espionage act.

Anoka.—A peace celebration will be held here Dec. 16 in the Armory, with a seating capacity of 5,000. President M. L. Burton of the University of Minnesota and Former Representative J. Adam Bede have been invited to speak, and state officials are asked to join in the celebration.

St. Paul.—The state of Minnesota derives a total revenue this year of $4,465,107 from the iron ore properties, an increase of more than 18 per cent over 1917, according to a statement issued by the tax commission. Including taxes for state, county, school and municipal purposes, the taxes on the mineral properties aggregate $10,564,890 for 1918, payable in 1919.

Grand Rapids.—Lewis Dane loaded five mutton lambs into the tonneau of his automobile, wired them in with woven wire and took the animals to the market at Nashwauk. Farmers who wish to take the trouble to haul their produce, etc., to the range towns, according to the reports, and to hunt up a market for the same, are usually well repaid for time and energy.

Moorhead.—In Clay county, during the last crop year, 2,616,574 bushels of wheat was produced, according to reports filed with A. C. O'Banion, the county farm agent, by the threshermen in compliance with the orders of the Federal food administration. The reports give the wheat acreage for the county at 113,904 acres, making an average wheat production of 22.97 bushels an acre.

Hill City.—This place is experiencing another siege of the "flu." This time it appears in the form of a sore throat followed by a high fever. Seven new cases were reported in the Woodenware factory and many local cases are again appearing. Undertaker O. F. Williams and Miss Laura Fuhrman, local school teacher, are among those confined to their homes with the disease.

Chisholm. — Chisholm's pledge of $35,500 to the United War Work fund, which was made by the local defense league and which covered the village quota of $28,400 plus 25 per cent, which was to make up for the deficit which would result from no subscription being made in the district swept by forest fires, has practically been paid through heavy contributions made by the mining companies, according to D. C. Hackett, secretary of the defense league.

Cloquet.—Cloquet's fire-fighting quartet, who with their chief constitute the village's department, have decided to become metropolitan. They insisted on the double platoon system, which would allow them twelve hours' liberty in twenty-four, and, failing to accomplish results by their insistence, they quit. "We can't take chances on living all day and all night in the shack they call the fire station," said Alfred Galerneu. Galerneu is one of the members who quit. The others are Ed. Blake, John Johnson and Ray Goodman. "If they'll put the double platoon system in effect," said Galerneu, "we'll go back." Chief Maghan is now Cloquet's fire department.

St. Paul.—Donald Stearns, Blue Earth, treasurer-elect of Faribault county, has had thrust on him the distinction of being the first discharged soldier to be elected to public office in Minnesota, according to reports at the Capitol. Enlisting in the air service, Young Stearns went into training at Kelly Field, near San Antonio, Texas, and in an accident lost the sight of one eye. He was honorably discharged and returned to his home in Blue Earth shortly before the election, according to the report. Friends there, in recognition of his patriotism, ran him with "stickers" for county treasurer, and he defeated M. J. Haase, who had held the office for many years.

Winona.—George Norris finished 51 years' service on the Northwestern railroad when he stepped from the cab of his locomotive at Tracy, after completing his run from Waseca. He formerly ran into Winona. He was 70 on Oct. 15 and was the oldest engineer on the road in point of service.

Virginia.—According to word from the Twin Cities the body of Al G. Flournoy, well known Virginian, which was taken to St. Paul Thursday, was cremated following funeral exercises conducted by the St. Paul Elks, and the ashes were buried in the Flournoy family plot, St. Paul.

Minneapolis.—On account of the influenza situation the convention of the State Horticultural society, to have been held in the West hotel, has been postponed.

Baudette. — T. J. Clauson sold forty acres of cedar stumpage in Rapid River township to Ernest Erickson of Roseau. Mr. Erickson will commence cutting the timber at once.

St. Peter.—With nearly 100 cases of influenza and a shortage of nurses and other help, a serious situation at the St. Peter state hospital for insane was reported to the state board of control.

Stillwater.—Lieut. Richard F. Kaiser has cabled his family from Bordeaux, France, that he will sail for the United States some time in December. Lieut. Kaiser is a member of the 338th field artillery.

Stillwater.—Nels N. Johnson, a former well known resident of Stillwater, who died suddenly at Minneapolis, aged 76 years, was the superintendent in charge of the Stillwater Gas & Electric Light Co. here for about thirty years.

East Grand Forks.—Hard coal is coming into the city in small lots. One dealer received two carloads of nut coal, with instructions from fuel headquarters to distribute it in one-ton lots to the signers so that everyone would have at least a small amount to burn until more can reach the city.

Dilworth.—Herman Kemp, 35, a local merchant, has been missing from his home eleven days, and officials have been searching the past three days for him without success. Several weeks ago he was found wandering about the fields near Dilworth and was placed in a Moorhead hospital for observation. He subsequently was released.

Cloquet.—The J. P. Olson estate, owners of the Northeastern hotel on Dunlap island, has sold the property to the Cloquet lodge of the Scandinavian Fraternity of America. The lodge has leased the building to the Minnesota Commission of Public Safety to be used as a hospital while needed in the fire-devastated regions of Carlton county.

Minneapolis.—No trace of incendiarism in the fire which destroyed the shell casing plant of the Minneapolis Steel & Machinery company, with a loss of $500,000, has been discovered. Many of the 1,500 men thrown out of work by the fire have been given employment through the United States employment service, George L. Weaver, local director, said.

St. Paul.—More than $86,000 of contributions to the state forest fire relief fund have passed through Governor Burnquist's office. Late contributions include $472.35 from Martin county citizens; $100 from the Red Cross at Armstrong, Iowa; $37 from Willmar; $40 from Huntley; $14 from Perley; $5 each from Cold Spring Eyota and Zumbrota, and $3 from Jud, N. D.

Thief River Falls.—Arthur J. Cloutier, 35 years of age, a fireman in the employ of the Soo railroad, died of pneumonia following influenza. Mrs Cloutier, who had been in constant attendance on her husband during his illness, also contracted the disease and died. The sudden calling of this young couple leaves four children, the eldest 11 and the youngest 3 years parentless.

Mankato.—A brewery, operated for sixty years by a German refugee and his descendants, will probably be torn down soon as a result of the beer prohibition order. After the revolution of 1849 in Germany failed, William Bierbauer fled to the United States. With other refugees, he came to Mankato, which was just being settled. In 1858, Bierbauer built a brewery. Since that time the plant has continuously been in operation. It was shut down on Nov. 30.

St. Paul.—Two members of the state board of law examiners resigned and the vacancies were filled by order of the state supreme court. John H. Ray, Jr., of Minneapolis, resigned after obtaining a commission in the military insurance department at Washington. He is succeeded by William M. Jerome of Minneapolis. Gustaf Youngquist of Crookston resigned after being commissioned in the judge advocate's office at Washington. His seat is given N. F. Fiedl of Fergus Falls.

St. Paul.—Minnesota is mobilizing to play a leading role in the nation wide drive to find suitable employment for the nation's fighters as they are demobilized. All the great government and private organizations in the United States which have been actively concerned with the prosecution of the war and in particular with the welfare of the soldiers here and overseas are being enlisted and united in a great drive to assure a proper job for each man.

St. Paul.—Payment of $14,413.3 was made to the state in settlement of state timber claims against R. L. Horr & Co., International Falls. The settlement was accepted by Attorney General Clifford L. Hilton on the recommendation of Oscar Arneson, state superintendent of timber. The suits were brought to recover under alleged short scales. Rescales were made in some instances and found impossible in others because of fires. For that reason it was deemed best to accept the settlement offered.

Winona.—Brig.-Gen. G. H. McManus who was mentioned in the dispatches as embarkation officer at the port of New York, is a brother of O. J. McManus of this city, and the news of Gen. McManus' elevation in rank from colonel to brigadier came to his brother in Winona from reading the dispatch.

Bemidji.—The board of directors of the Red Cross decided to employ a stenographer and secure suitable quarters for the mass of work that is confronting the chapter officials to carry on civilian relief work for families of soldiers.

BERLIN TROOPS URGE REPUBLIC

WANT EBERT AS HEAD

Chancellor, When Asked to Head New Republic, Says He Cannot Without Consent of the Present Government.

Copenhagen, Dec. 9.—The "German republic and her first president, Comrade Ebert," have been hailed by an organized demonstration of soldiers and sailors at Berlin. The Wolff bureau, the semi-official news agency, thus described the incident:

"On Friday evening soldiers and sailors armed with rifles demonstrated before the chancellor's palace. Their leaders spoke as follows:

"German stands on the brink of a catastrophe. We demand a national assembly be summoned on December 20. The executive council must no longer be able to put pressure on the government. Long live the German republic and her first president, Comrade Ebert."

Ebert Urges Patience.

Chancellor Ebert replied that the administration must remain in the hands of the government. He counselled patience until the congress of the workmen's and soldiers' councils had decided regarding the convocation of a national assembly.

A sailor from Kiel spoke up: "I will put a straight question, whether Comrade Ebert will agree to our selection of him as president of the German republic."

The chancellor replied:

"Not without conferring with the government."

The soldiers and sailors then marched away.

Parading Soldiers Slain.

There was a lively exchange of shots resulting in the killing of 16 persons and the wounding of 15 others when soldiers parading in Berlin as a demonstration against not being represented on the executive council of the soldiers and workmen, refused to disperse.

Newspapers in the German capital say that soldiers on leave and desert-ert were holding a meeting to protest at not being represented on the soldiers' council when they heard the announcement that the executive commitee of the Berlin soldiers' and workmen's council had been arrested. The meeting organized a demonstration which was broken up by soldiers with machine guns.

ASQUITH WANTS COMPLETE UNDERSTANDING WITH U. S.

Former Premier on Record for League of Nations and Punishment for Criminal War Lords.

London, Dec. 9.—Herbert H. Asquith, former prime minister, speaking at Rochdale, Lancashire, Saturday, ranged himself alongside those who have declared that the men responsible for the war and the atrocities shall receive adequate punishment.

The allied powers, he said, had announced their joint intention of summoning the late heads of the German government and state before some kind of international tribunal.

Insists on Justice.

There was a broad distinction between errors, even lying and wicked errors, of policy and a deliberate and systematic refraction of rules which rest for their sanction not only on international usage, but on the incidents which atended the devastation of Belgian territory, the sinking of passenger ships and the almost incredible brutality of the maltreatment of allied prisoners of war.

"We ought to insist that justice be done," declared Mr. Asquith, "and that not only the forms, but the spirit, of justice—the meting out to the wrong doer of his due, not less and not more—should be scrupulously observed."

Favors League of Nations.

Referring to the significance of the visit of President Wilson to Europe, Mr. Asquith said that for permanent purposes the world was a new one. These purposes, he contended, would not only not have been achieved, but there would have been no advance toward their achievement, unless before the president returned a league of nations had begun to be translated from formula into fact.

In his judgment the best security against the dangers which beset the coming conference was the maintenance in its fullest and freest sense of real understanding between the allies and the United States.

McAdoo to Lose Two Weeks' Pay.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Secretary McAdoo, who quit the cabinet because his salary was insufficient, now faces the predicament of working two weeks for the government for nothing. He will retire as secretary of treasury, December 16, and his pay at the rate of $12,000 a year will stop. Until January 1, however, he will continue as director general of the railroads, for which he receives nothing, although his regional directors receive $40,000 a year. From December 16 to January 1 he will be off the payroll.

T OF MANY RACES ED CROSS MAKES ONE

NE of the greatest services which the Red Cross is performing in this war is the unification of the races of which America is composed through the Home Service, ich, through its 10,000 committees, looking after the welfare of the soldiers' families in every corner of the ntry. America has always been lled the Melting Pot, and truly, but process has been slow. The war s accelerated it. The Indians of the st, the negroes of the south, the Italians and Eastern Europeans of our industrial centers, the Mexicans of the uthwest, Armenians and Swedes and rwegians and Japanese and Icelanders—all are now enlisted under one g, and were whole heartedly in the ar because it was America's war and ey are Americans.

That they feel this is patent to those who have seen and talked with these en. Witness the Italian, who in the sembly hall of one of our mobilization camps was waiting with a group his fellows to take the oath of allegiance. He stepped forward suddenly with tears in his eyes and with a vivid gesture pressed a corner of the American flag that hung over the desk front of him to his lips. A group of native born soldiers who had been looking on with amused indifference broke into applause and cheers. From then on these Italians were their brother Americans.

Such work as this is valuable not only for the morale of the men; it is binding the nation into one organic whole as it has never been bound before. To give concrete expression to this unity the Red Cross plans through its Christmas Roll Call, to be held the week beginning December 16, to increase its membership from 22,000,000 to the limit of available membership. It wishes to give in this way notice to the world that every American, irrespective of creed or birth, stands squarely and uncompromisingly for the principles for which we have been fighting—that America is one and indivisible pledged solidly for honor and mercy and good faith.

SICK FOLKS HUSTLE FOR THE RED CROSS

Through the National Tuberculosis Association and the Journal of the Outdoor Life, its official magazine, a campaign is being organized to get tuberculosis patients of the country to enlist every fellow "cure chaser" as a member of the Red Cross during the coming Red Cross Christmas Roll Call. Special campaigns have been organized in all of the large sanatoria, of which there are nearly 600 scattered throughout the United States. Efforts will be made to enroll one hundred per cent in each institution and also to go after all patients and enroll them as well. Every patient in the sanatorium will be responsible to get one more patient. The movement will be a contribution of the tuberculosis patients of the country to the Red Cross.

Since the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated agencies are being supported by the Red Cross through direct appropriation during the year 1919, this effort of the tuberculosis patients is considered to be an unusually appropriate one.

RED CROSS CARRIES TONS OF FOOD TO BELGIANS

American Red Cross trucks are constantly in action along the Belgian front. This report of the work of these trucks was recently received by the Commission for Belgium:

"In the last two weeks we handled 280 tons of foodstuffs and a large quantity of salvaged material.

"We have been saving the effects of people in the shelled towns, Furnes, Rhoele, Coxyde, La Panne, Alveringhem, Oost-Dunrick, the Trappist Farm, St. Jennie-Biezen and Reninghelst. On nearly all occasions when work was in progress in the last named it has been shelled, but fortunately without injuries to trucks or drivers."

For Better Drinking Water.

Because of the necessity for better drinking water in Italy the American Red Cross is manufacturing a large number of water sterilizers and disinfecting plants which are to be turned over to the Italian military authorities at home and used according to their [illegible]

RED CROSS AIDS FARMING IN ITALY

Through efforts of the American Red Cross scientific farming is now being taught the younger generation of Italy, thus eliminating considerable waste and replacing old-fashioned implements with modern American-made machinery.

Schools of agriculture have been established, and the Department of Civil Affairs of the American Red Cross, co-operating with a similar Italian organization, known as the "Comitato per gli Orfani de Constadini Morti in Guerra," has opened a school of farming, conducted by Salesian Fathers, in fields just outside the Porta Furia, one of the historic gateways of Rome.

The boys of the school, all orphans of peasant soldiers, are given training in scientific and practical farming, the object being to strengthen their attachment to the soil, also to convert them into good and intelligent farmers. Lectures and classroom instruction are accompanied by field work with modern tools under the direct supervision of the younger Fathers of the institution, who work side by side with the boys in the fields, teaching and demonstrating.

BISHOP JOHN J. O'CONNOR TELLS OF RED CROSS APPEAL

Bishop John J. O'Connor of Newark thus expresses his approval of the Red Cross Christmas roll call:

"A citizen of the United States can offer no valid excuse for failure to enroll himself in the American Red Cross Society. An organization whose one great principle is humanity has the right to call all men to its standard. The Red Cross appeals to the common human in us. It aims at giving fine words, like sympathy and pity and mercy, some practical value. The world has waited a long time for an organization which could give to vague feelings of sympathy wide, practical application. The American Red Cross fulfills every requirement of a broadly humanitarian association. It accepts only universally admitted principles. It limits its operations to no particular class. It sides with no party. It asks of its members but two things—that they have pity on suffering wherever found and that they have the will to relieve misfortune.

"The appeal of the Red Cross for an increased membership should be instantly heeded. The man who fails to heed this call places himself outside the pale. He does not feel with his native land. He is not one with his kind. Here is an opportunity to join in a work which gives to religion and its teaching present value. Place your names on the rolls of the American Red Cross."

WHY AMERICA NEEDS CHRISTMAS ROLL CALL

George E. Scott, general manager of the American Red Cross, thus explains the necessity for the Christmas Roll Call:

"The response that the people of the United States make when the Christmas Roll Call summons them to a universal membership in the American Red Cross will, if that response is nation wide, accomplish these things:

"It will give exalted purpose and high resolve to the Soldiers and Sailors of America.

"It will give encouragement and renewed devotion to those who are working here at home.

"It will give inspiration and courage to those of our people who are laboring overseas."

When the Soldiers Are Getting Well.

The convalescent soldiers are being cared for in Italy by the American Red Cross. There are sixteen hospitals already in operation and twenty-nine others in process of construction. At these hospitals, in addition to the care of their wounds and their general health, the soldiers are being taught useful trades. There are typewriters, sewing machines and tools for cabinet making at each hospital, and the soldiers find that, in addition to supplying them with a useful trade when they are well, the use of these "toys" gives them hours of pleasure during the tedious period of getting well.

SENDS BOYS MESSAGE

Governor Gives Greeting to Minnesota Lads Over There.

Tells Them They Will Be Given Fair Chance When They Return—Endorses United Campaign.

"The people of Minnesota are proud of their boys at the front. I have yet to hear of a Minnesota boy in the expeditionary forces guilty of any disgraceful act, but the stories of heroism and sacrifice are so numerous that they become commonplace."

This is a part of the message that Governor J. A. A. Burnquist has sent to the Minnesota boys at the front through Cass Connaway, an Indianapolis attorney, who will carry the greeting overseas.

Connaway adjourned his practice for the period of the war to don the Y. M. C. A. uniform and follow in the wake of his two soldier sons. He will visit the huts, hotels, shelters and dugouts of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., War Camp Community Service, National Catholic War Council (K. of C.), Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army—the seven accredited welfare agencies that have joined in a United War Work Campaign, November 11-18, to raise $170,500,000 to carry on their work for soldiers, sailors and marines at home and abroad. Wherever he comes across a man from Minnesota Connaway will give him the home folks' greeting.

Governor Burnquist's message reads:

"Tell the boys that whatever stories they may see in the newspapers about seditious utterances, about slackers of various kinds, about war profiteers, are exceptional cases and in no way represent the average American. These happenings are printed as news simply because they are exceptional. I am convinced that it is unfair to say that any class or race of people of any section of our country is disloyal. The instant and ungrudging response which our people have given to all war demands is proof of this. They have subscribed to all three Liberty Loans, they have given more than was asked to the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other war funds, and they have without complaint obeyed the requests of the food administration for the production and conservation of food.

"Tell the Minnesota boys also that everything possible will be given to give them a fair chance when they get home. I am glad to see that not only the federal government, but leading men all over the country are already taking up the problem of getting the men in our army back into the civil life with the least possible hardship. I shall be glad to co-operate in that work in any way I can."

GREAT EFFORT FOR WOMEN

Taught to Industrial Women of France by Y. W. C. A.

To help establish the position of French women in industry—to bring to them a realization of their economic responsibility and independence, which American womanhood regards as its natural heritage, is one of the purposes of the Y. W. C. A., the only distinctively woman's organization among the welfare agencies united to raise $170,500,000 in the great drive to be held November 11-18. A large portion of its allotment from the total fund will be used for the enlargement of the facilities of its foyers, where French girls are learning the industrial value of leadership, executive initiative and co-operation. A Blue Triangle worker at one of these foyers, in writing of the work, says:

"We cannot fully appreciate the privilege of working with these French women and girls. Along with the rest of the world, through the ordeal of this war, they are learning many lessons of sympathy and courage, of co-operation and leadership—and the value of these things in the new place accorded to women for the first time. In France, there are comparatively few women in administrative positions. We are training up leaders of women, and I hope that when the time comes to go home to America, we may slip out unnoticed, as far as the work itself is concerned. The girls are now thinking and planning by themselves, with very little outside direction, and they are very efficient. They will need our help more than ever when hostilities cease."

LEMONADE SAVES MANY LIVES

Salvation Army Lassies Make and Serve It to Soldiers.

Lemonade furnished to wounded American troops during the fighting near Chateau-Thierry saved hundreds of lives, say surgeons at the front, owing to the soothing drink fending off the fever that attends serious wounds at the critical moment.

This precious ministry was the work of three Salvation Army lassies who prepared the lemonade and served it while under fire, without a sign of fear.

"They were working in an exposed position with shells exploding here and there, but they paid no more attention to them than you might to the barking of a Pomeranian pup. They moved about among the wounded and supplied each with lemonade which, to their parched palates, was the nectar of the gods."

This is the purpose of the War-Welfare Campaign—to furnish funds for just such merciful service as these given by welfare workers of one of the seven participating agencies.

Army and Navy News

Reported Missing

The following telegram was received Tuesday by Mrs. Martin Mattson and probably refers to her brother, Alfred C. Olson who's in France. A mistake in the name could easily be made in relaying the telegram from one station to another.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 16,
Mrs. Martin Mattion,
Holt, Minn.,

"Deeply regret to inform you that Private Fred Coles, infantry, is officially reported as missing in action since Nov. 4th. Further information when received."

Harris,
Adj. Gen.

The last letter received from Alfred was dated Nov. 2nd. At that time he was well and was not then on the firing line. In the absence of further information, it is supposed that he has been taken prisoner and that he will soon be heard from again. All hope to hear soon that he has been returned to the Americans uninjured and in good health.

Among The Wounded

Nels Gudvangen received a letter last week stating his brother, Richard, was admitted to a hospital in France, Sept. 30th, suffering from a gunshot wound in right leg and arm. This is the third time Private Gudvangen has been wounded and he has five wounds on his body as a proof that he has been a brave soldier in the thickest of the battles for humanity.

Hans J. Olson is in the hospital among the wounded. He was hit in the head by a piece of shrapnel shell on Nov. 2nd and only his helmet saved his life.— John Sathre was wounded on Oct. 23rd having an arm shattered by a high explosive. He has since been in a hospital convalescing.—M. R. Pioneer.

First War Baby

John Swanson and his sister Anna came last Saturday from Petersburg Alaska to enjoy a visit with Chas. Smith and family.

Death of Nels Larson.

Nels Larson died Friday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson. He had been sick for a few days with pneumonia, but no one realised the end was so near and the news of his death was a great shock to the community. He died peacefully, praying for himself and others and believing God to be merciful.

The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon by Rev. Ordahl, at the home and at the Holt cemetery where the interment was made. One of the sad features of the funeral was that no one in the home was able to attend the services at the grave, as they have all been sick with the influenza.

We wish to join their many friends in extending sincere sympathy to them in their time of sorrow.

Nils Larson was born in North Dakota, April 26th, 1895, and moved with his parents to Holt, Minn., in 1901 and had lived here ever since. He was a jovial, good natured young man and will be greatly missed, not only by the family, but also by all his acquaintances.

SAYS ATROCITY PUT U. S. IN WAR

President in Paris Speech Claims Full Fellowship of America With All Liberty Lovers.

TO SPEED PEACE PACT

Has Indicated to Allied Leaders His Earnest Desire to Get Down to Work of Conference as Soon as Possible.

Paris, Dec. 17.—President Wilson delivered an address at the city hall where ceremonies had been arranged. The president replied to the greeting extended him.

"Your greeting has raised many emotions within me," the president began.

"It is with no ordinary sympathy that the people of the United States, for whom I have the privilege of speaking, have viewed the sufferings of the people of France. Many of our own people have been themselves witnesses of those sufferings. We were the more deeply moved by the wrongs of the war because we knew the manner in which they were perpetrated.

America an "Eyewitness."

"I beg that you will not suppose that because a wide ocean separated us in space we were not in effect eyewitnesses of the shameful ruin that was wrought and the cruel and unnecessary sufferings that were brought upon you. These sufferings have filled our hearts with indignation. We know what they were, not only, but we knew what they signified, and our hearts were touched to the quick by them; our imaginations filled with the whole picture of what France and Belgium in particular had experienced.

Country's Heart Moved.

"When the United States entered the war, therefore, they entered it not only because they were moved by a conviction that the purposes of the Central Empires were wrong and must be resisted by men everywhere who loved liberty and the right, but also because the illicit ambitions which they were entertaining and attempting to realize had led to the practises which shocked our hearts as much as they offended our principles.

"Our resolution was formed because we knew how profoundly great principles of right were affected, but our hearts moved also with our resolution.

Nation Rightly Interpreted.

"You have been exceedingly generous in what you have been gracious enough to say about me, generous far beyond my personal deserts, but you have interpreted with real insight the motives and resolution of the people of the United States. Whatever influence I exercise, whatever authority I speak with, I derive from them. I know what they have thought, I know what they have desired, and when I have spoken what I know was in their minds it has been delightful to see how the conscience and purposes of free men everywhere responded.

U. S. Right to Fellowship.

"We have merely established our right to the full fellowship of those people here and throughout the world who reverence the right of genuine liberty and justice."

Eager to Get to Work.

President Wilson has indicated to the Allied leaders his desire to get down to work as soon as possible.

The president and Premier Clemenceau exchanged ideas on the course of procedure in a conference yesterday. It is understood the American delegates are in favor of the preliminaries being conducted by President Wilson and one representative each from France, Italy and Great Britain.

This body would formulate a series of proposals which would be submitted to open conference of full delegates of all the Entente belligerents for debate, prior to drafting the final treaty.

Great Throngs Pack Streets to Greet Distinguished Visitor—French Troops in Solid Array Line Route.

Brest, France, Dec. 16.—The George Washington will return to the United States immediately. The crew is expected to reach home before Christmas.

Paris, Dec. 16.—President Wilson made his entrance into Paris at 10:15 a. m. The president's arrival at the capital was greeted with a salvo of artillery in salute.

President Greets Wilson.

Huge crowds were massed around the Bois De Boulogne station awaiting the president's coming. As he alighted from his train a roar of welcome went up that left no doubt of the cordiality of the welcome given by Paris to its latest guest.

President Wilson was greeted by President and Mme. Poincare, Premier Clemenceau, Andre Tardieu, French high commissioner to the United States, and other high officials.

Goes to Paris Residence.

The formalities of the greeting over, the president entered a carriage with President Poincare. Mrs. Wilson with Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, followed in another carriage accompanied by Mme. Poincare. The party drove immediately to the residence of Prince Murat in the Rue De Monceau, where the president will reside while in the French capital.

The route to the presidential residence was lined with French troops in solid array along its entire length. The welcome given by the crowds as the president drove by was vociferous and hearty. The city was making a vast fete of the president's coming.

Cheers Ring Out in Night.

The passage of the presidential train from Brest to Paris gave evidence of the interest the population attached to the president's visit. At every station along the railway crowds of men, women and children waited through the night for the passing of the train, hoping to catch a glimpse of the American executive.

Through the night along the route their cheers could be heard as the train slid by in the darkness.

Papers "Play Up" Wilson.

The front pages of the newspapers are devoted to details of the reception to be accorded President Wislon by Paris. Pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are printed by all the newspapers. Long editorials recounting the characteristics of the president, outlining his policies and describing his work during the war fill the journals. In addition considerable attention is paid to the part Americans have played in the war, the battles of Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Argonne being described.

This amount is paid to the farmer for live stock, by Swift & Company alone, during the trading hours of every business day.

All this money is paid to the farmer through the open market in competition with large and small packers, shippers, speculators and dealers.

The farmer, feeder, or shipper receives every cent of this money ($300,000 an hour, nearly $2,000,000 a day, $11,500,000 a week) in cash, on the spot, as soon as the stock he has just sold is weighed up.

Some of the money paid to the farmer during a single day comes back to the company in a month from sale of products; much does not come back for sixty or ninety days or more. But the next day Swift & Company, to meet the demands made by its customers, must pay out another $2,000,000 or so, and at the present high price levels keeps over $250,000,000 continuously tied up in goods on the way to market and in bills owed to the company.

This gives an idea of the volume of the Swift & Company business and the requirements of financing it. Only by doing a large business can this company turn live stock into meat and by-products at the lowest possible cost, prevent waste, operate refrigerator cars, distribute to retailers in all parts of the country—and be recompensed with a profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to have any noticeable effect on the price of meat or live stock.

Canada made me Prosperous

—that's what thousands of farmers say, who have gone from the U. S. to settle on homesteads or buy land in Western Canada. Canada's invitation to every industrious worker to settle in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta is especially attractive. She wants farmers to make money and happy, prosperous homes for themselves by helping her raise immense wheat crops to feed the world.

You Can Get a Homestead of 160 Acres Free or other lands at very low prices. Where you can buy good farm land at $15 to $30 per acre that will raise 20 to 45 bushels of $2 wheat to the acre—it's easy to become prosperous. Canadian farmers also grow wonderful crops of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed Farming is fully as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses, full of nutrition, are the only food required either for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools and churches; markets convenient; climate excellent. MAKE YOUR FUTURE SECURE

Easy Farming Methods in Western Canada and Certain Financial Benefits.

With your crop harvested and marketed, with the disposal of your cattle and hogs completed, you are ready to prepare your financial statement for the year. You will soon know what you have gained, and if the gain made in your farming operatons has been up to your expectations and will meet your requirements. Probably you may have been the loser. Your land may have been productive, but it may have been too high priced. The cost of production has been too great. If you have had the remuneration you sought and are satisfied this article may not interest you. If your returns have not been satisfactory, or if your ambition leads you to the laudable desire of bettering your condition, if you have dependents for whose future you have anxiety, you will naturally look around for some place, some opportunity that offers greater advantages and brings satisfactory returns. To the north and west of you lie hundreds of thousands of unbroken acres in Western Canada awaiting the husbandman, and ready to give of its richness to place you where you desire to be placed. For thousands of farmers from nearly every state in the Union the prairies of Western Canada have afforded wealth beyond what they had been led to expect. The excellence of the soil of Western Canada, which comprises the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, can only partially be told by the knowledge of some facts.

Every year for some years past the world's highest prizes for wheat, oats and barley have been carried off by grain grown on Western Canadian Prairies. Beef fattened on the grasses of these same prairies recently brought the highest prices ever paid on the Chicago market. Throughout the entire world the quality of Canadian grain, and Canadian beef and mutton, is recognized. To recite what individual farmers have done, the riches they have acquired would fill volumes. The case of James Wishart of Portage la Prairie is not an exceptional one. His wheat crop this past season yielded him forty-five bushels per acre, and the land upon which it was grown was broken forty-four years ago, and it has been continuously under crop except for an occasional summer fallow. At Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, samples of the wheat of 1918 weighed 68 pounds to the bushel, others 66 and some 65½ pounds. Wheat crops at Coaldale, Alberta, went as high as 38 bushels acre, while wheat crops near Barons, Alberta, had yields of from 25 to 30 bushels.

Records such as these speak in glowing terms of the excellence of the soil of Western Canada.

The war is over, and we are all settling down to a peace basis. There is a great world beyond the seas to feed and clothe, and thus is afforded the opportunity to lend a hand in the great work. Aside from the philanthropy in which you can play a part, there is the satisfaction of knowing you are amply providing for yourself and for the future of those who may be dependent upon you. Greater progress can be made in this and your own development by availing yourself of the advantages that Western Canada offers in its low-priced lands and high yielding values. There are good schools, desirable social conditions, low taxation (none on improvements) with an enjoyable climate, and the satisfaction of possessing a well tilled soil capable of producing abundant crops for which good prices prevail, at easily accessible marketing places.—Advertisement.

Dick Was Charitable.

At the funeral services for an elderly negro of Richmond, Va., the following colloquy was overheard:

"There ain't no use in talkin'," said Mose Barker; "Dick Williams, he was the most charitable man dis town ever seen."

"I reckon dat's so," said the darkey to whom Mr. Barker imparted this information. And he paused as if waiting for evidence on this point.

"Yessuh," continued Mr. Barker, "Dick Williams, he always owned a plug hat, and durin' my time I ain't never heard that Dick ever refused to lend dat hat to anybody."

Dog Had Something to Say.

Mr. Davis tells the story of a very small boy who was trying to lead a big St. Bernard up a busy thoroughfare. "Where are you going to take that dog, my little chap?" inquired a passerby. "I—I'm going to see where —where he wants to go first," was the breathless reply.

Relics of Aztecan Era.

Near Phoenix, within the Salt river valley, are to be found seven communal settlements of the same pre-Aztecan era, with central buildings that were far larger than that at Casa Grande, a writer in the Christian Science Monitor states. To the northward and northeast every river valley retains evidence of the passage of at least a portion of these peoples, for some reason leaving their cities and their irrigated fields on the plains and seeking the mountains and the upper plateaus.

DECLARE "XMAS" IS PROPER

Milwaukee (Wis.) Clergymen Say Abbreviation Has Origin in Greek Spelling of "Christ."

Use of the word Xmas in abbreviation of Christmas is not irreverent or sacrilegious, but is of ancient and classical origin.

"This was the consensus of opinion expressed by representative clergy of a number of denominations throughout the city, says the Milwaukee Sentinel.

The letter "X" as used in connection with the word Xmas to express Christmas is the first letter in the Greek name for Christ, which in English letters is spelled "Xristos," explained Rev. Herbert C. Noonan, S. J., president of Marquette university. "Because of this, the letter "X" long has been a symbol for Christ, and has been used as such for generations since the Christian era.

"An illustration of the common use of the term is the custom, still prevalent among some men, of signing letters 'Yours in Xto,' in this case the 'to' following the letter being the Latin ending of the name of Christ."

A similar opinion was expressed by Rev. R. S. Donaldson, pastor of Perseverance Presbyterian church.

"I know many ministers who use the letter 'X' to express Christ in writing their sermons," he said. "The custom is of ancient and honorable origin."

"It is a quite common practice among theological students to use the letter in preference to the full name," declared Rev. E. Reginald Williams, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church. "I always write it that way myself."

Rev. W. T. Dorward, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, declared that he did not consider the term irreverent, but personally preferred the use of the full word.

When Christmas Comes

When Christmas comes, I never mind the cold,
I like to get up prompt an' go to school,
An' do my sums,
An' clean the walks 'thout waitin' to be told—
Though I like sleddin' better, as a rule,
Or buildin' forts— But nothin' ain't so bad,
When Christmas comes.

When Christmas comes, I'd just as lief give half
My cooky to the baby, an' take care
About the crumbs.
It's fun to make the little fellow laugh,
An' I don't mind his taggin' ev'rywhere.
He can't help bein' little! I'm not mad.
When Christmas comes.

When Christmas comes, I don't forget to give
My shoes a wipe, an' scrub my ears a lot
Till my head hums.
An' mother says, "That boy's too good to live!"
But I'm not 'fraid of dyin', 'cause I'm not
No different from always—only glad When Christmas comes!
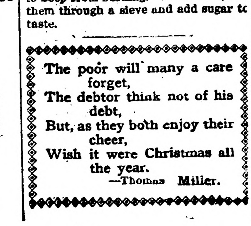
—Abigal Williams Burton.

Christmas Bells.

There are some festivals, like birthdays, for example, which affect a single family; others, like national holidays, embrace the nation; and some there are which girdle the entire globe. But Christmas Day lifts at one leap a line of connection between earth and heaven. If there be one day on earth on which above another the gates of heaven are more widely opened, it is the day when joy-bells ring in memory of the birth of the Babe of Bethlehem. This is the day of the Christmas bells!—Bishop Vincent.

No Apology Needed.

Never apologize for a Christmas gift. Never say it is cheaper than what you would have liked to give, or not as pretty as you thought it, or anything of the sort. A Christmas gift is supposed to be an expression of good will. If there is kindness enough back of the giving, no apology is necessary.



Christmas Plums

Christmas—co-operation, cheer!

* * *

It is a catching affair—this spirit of Christmas—and the nearer it approaches the more contagious it becomes.

* * *

Every time that Christmas comes around again we wonder why we haven't cultivated the Christmas spirit all the year.

* * *

Here's hoping that all our soldier boys, on land and sea, will have a few Christmas plums on the day of good will—even though this year they may be mostly in the pudding.

* * *

Probably the girls are saying the same thing this year that they have said every year in the past—"Well, I'm going to start making presents right away for next Christmas."

* * *

We get most of the enjoyment of Christmas out of the dreams that come before and after. Oh, to dream of it before it comes, to enjoy it while it is here, and to appreciate it when it has gone!

* * *

At least we are reasonably sure of one thing—which is that no soldier will have to go without a good Christmas dinner. Well, this is as it should be, since—to paraphrase our old friend, Mr. Dryden—surely the brave deserve the fare.

* * *

Not namin' any names, we are willing to admit that there are folks in this world whose Christmas dinner doesn't interest us in the least—except that we hope they'll have plenty of food for reflection, and that after the meal is over they'll get their just desserts.

WRAPPING ADDS TO THE GIFT

Home Art Specialist Suggests Use of White Ribbon and Tissue Paper With Bits of Foliage.

The wrapping of a Christmas gift is an expression of the giver as much as the gift itself, asserts Miss Araminta Holman, instructor in home art in the Kansas State Agricultural college.

"A pretty gift will lose much of its charm if it is wrapped carelessly," said Miss Holman. "As much care should be taken in the wrapping as in the selection of the gift.

"The wrappings should be dainty and inconspicuous, and in harmony with the gift and the sentiment that the giver wishes to accompany the gift. White tissue paper tied with white ribbon with a bit of foliage for color, makes a prettier and neater wrapping than colored paper and colored ribbon. If the gift is to be sent through the mail, the outside wrappings must necessarily be of strong paper, but if tied neatly and securely with tinsel Christmas cord, the package will make an attractive appearance, and at the same time will protect the gift."

Personal touches, such as original sketches on the gift card or a spray of foliage from the region of the giver's home convey a deep sentiment and thoughtfulness on the part of the giver, according to Miss Holman. While holly and mistletoe are the emblematic Christmas foliage, a spray of hemlock, bittersweet, pepper bough, or any pretty native foliage may be used.

ROAST GOOSE FOR CHRISTMAS

How to Prepare Fowl Which for Hundreds of Years Has Been Conventional Holiday Dinner Dish.

For hundreds of years goose has been an important conventional Christmas dinner dish. Select a young, tender goose, for its palatability greatly depends on this, one weighing about eight or ten pounds, says an experienced housekeeper.

For the dressing take four cupfuls of hot mashed potatoes, two and one-half tablespoonfuls of finely chopped onions, one cupful of English walnut meats chopped moderately fine; one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt, one-half cupful of cream, two tablespoonfuls of butter and the yolks of four eggs and a teaspoonful of sage.

Stuff the body with the dressing and sew up the openings. Bring the legs and wings close to the body and tie with a white string, which must be removed just before serving.

Put the goose in the dripping pan with two cupfuls of boiling water and roast for nearly two hours, according to size of fowl, basting often and freely. Remove the goose to a hot platter, pour off the oil in the pan and make a gravy with flour that has been browned. Always serve apple sauce with roast goose.

Select juicy, tart apples and pare, slice and stew with just enough water to keep from burning. When done, rub them through a sieve and add sugar to taste.

The poor will many a care forget,
The debtor think not of his debt,
But, as they both enjoy their cheer,
Wish it were Christmas all the year.
—Thomas Miller.

MERCIER NEVER LOST FAITH

Persecuted Belgian Cardinal Always Confident That God Would Save the Unhappy Country.

Cardinal Mercier, archbishop of Malines, Belgium, was not actually imprisoned by the Germans, but his freedom was restrained. His offense was the issuing of a pastoral letter to his people in January, 1915, in which he said: "I have gone through most of the places in my diocese which have been wasted. . . . What I have seen of the ruins and the ashes passes anything that, in spite of my most acute fears, I could ever have imagined. . . . Churches, schools, charitable institutions, hospitals, convents, to a considerable number, are unfit for use or are in ruins. Whole villages have almost disappeared. . . . God will save Belgium, my brothers, we cannot doubt it. Let us say, rather, he is saving her. Is there a single patriot who does not feel that glory has come to Belgium? Which of us would have the courage to tear out the last page of our history? Which of us can look without pride on the splendor of the glory that our murdered country has won?"

HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES IF YOUR BACK ACHES

Do you feel tired and "worn-out?" Are you nervous and irritable? Don't sleep well at night? Have a "dragged out," unrested feeling when you get up in the morning? Dizzy spells? Bilious? Bad taste in the mouth, backache, pain or soreness in the loins, and abdomen? Severe distress when urinating, bloody, cloudy urine or sediment? All these indicate gravel or stone in the bladder, or that the poisonous microbes, which are always in your system, have attacked your kidneys.

You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The oil soaks gently into the walls and lining of the kidneys, and the little poisonous animal germs, which are causing the inflammation, are immediately attacked and chased out of your system without inconvenience or pain.

Don't ignore the "little pains and aches," especially backaches. They may be little now but there is no telling how soon a dangerous or fatal disease of which they are the forerunners may show itself. Go after the cause of that backache at once, or you may find yourself in the grip of an incurable disease.

Do not delay a minute. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In 24 hours you will feel renewed health and vigor. After you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two Capsules each day so as to keep in first-class condition, and ward off the danger of future attacks. Money refunded if they do not help you. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand, and thus be sure of getting the genuine.—Adv.

The day the armistice was signed Miss Hannah Turner of West Pittsfield, Mass., finished her one hundredth sweater for the navy. She began knitting in December, 1917, which means that she produced one sweater in every three days. In her spare moments she also made one or two mufflers and some wristlets. She had never done any knitting before she undertook this wartime work.

WAS GOOD ENOUGH REASON

Accused Man's Lawyer Asserted His Client's Innocence, So What Was There for Jury to Do?

"The following story either shows extreme ignorance on the part of a juror, or it shows what a wonderful charm some lawyers exercise on a jury," said a former marshal of a southern Indiana city.

"A murder was committed and it was not long before we had the man who we were sure had committed the deed. But he had money and he retained the best lawyers. The two lawyers we will call White and Black, because White and Black are not their real names. The jury was made up largely of men who tilled the soil. They were of the honest sort. White and Black, especially White, so presented their client's case, telling how he could not do such a horrible deed, using their handkerchiefs occasionally in the telling, that the jurors were carried away and voted for acquittal.

"Later I met one of the jurors and I said to him: 'Jones, why did you vote to acquit the prisoner? The evidence showed clearly that he was guilty.'

"'No, sir, that man was not guilty,' said Jones. 'What makes you think so?' I countered. 'Why, because Mr. White said he wasn't!' concluded Jones."

Until Aunt May came to her house to visit, eight-year-old Marian cried for everything she wanted. Aunt May with the intention of curing her niece formed the habit of singing (as Marian wept): "Don't cry, little girl, don't cry, etc." All to Marian's disgust.

One night when father was fussy, Auntie proved that there was a song to suit him. Sweetly she sang: "Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and smile, smile, smile."

A few nights later a bachelor of very uncertain age came to call on Aunt May. Auntie was very happy until suddenly from the next room victrola came:

"Darling, I Am Growing Old."

Marian had seized her chance to prove that there were songs for all occasions.

Fight Two Fights

BY ENROLLING IN THE

Red Cross Christmas Roll Call

1—A Fight for Democracy

The Red Cross brought heroic France the first help from America to turn back the onrush of democracy's foes.

Then it provided healing care and comforts to strengthen America's great democratic army.

Also it fights now beside our soldiers over there by looking after the needs of their loved ones over here.

2—A Fight for Health

By sending health workers to Italy and France—by appropriating millions for fighting tuberculosis both there and in America, the Red Cross gives every member a share in a winning war for health.

Red Cross funds enable American tuberculosis associations to combat the disease that most of all kills those needed as workers and soldiers.

You are not asked to buy Red Cross Christmas Seals this year. They are awarded to you as a Red Cross member for helping in the health fight.

SERVICE ON WHEELS

In modern warfare there is much portable relief work done. Instead of carrying the wounded man to hospital and canteen, canteen and hospital are moved to him. The first thing that is done for a man after the battle is to give him something to eat. The American Red Cross has rolling canteens that take hot bouillon, coffee, tea, cocoa, lemonade and sandwiches right to the front line trenches. To the man who is wounded there is a mobile hospital brought to his very elbow. This is the "autochir," a special motor truck that carries a complete surgical hospital right to the front.

These are some of the things that the people of America are doing for the comfort and welfare of the boys over there by enrolling their names in the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call. The Red Cross button and the Red Cross Service Flag should everywhere be in evidence during the week of December 16th to the 23d as outward symbols of this annual rededication to Red Cross service.

RED CROSS SUNDAY

The Red Cross Christmas Roll Call week begins with a special Red Cross Sunday on December the fifteenth. From every pulpit throughout the country will be told the message of the American Red Cross. Special programs should be arranged in the Sunday Schools on this day.

The Sunday School room should flame with Red Cross posters and emblems, and there should be prominently displayed both a Red Cross flag and a Red Cross Service flag. Teachers and pupils should carry home this Red Cross message to the members of their families and see to it that each one of these is wearing the Red Cross membership button before the week is over. The Christmas spirit should express itself in Red Cross service and sacrifice.

GERMAN PRISONERS REBUILD BELGIAN HOMES.

German prisoners were used to construct homes for Belgian refugees in the village which the American Red Cross is constructing for families rendered homeless by the German invasion of Belgium. Many prisoners have been put to work in the fields of France in this section, harvesting wheat and other crops and thus lessening the burden on the women and very old men who have been operating the farms while their men are fighting at the front.

In France
Nov. 22, 1918

Dear Father:

It is all over, over here, that is for some of the boys, but not for all of us. Next letter you receive from me is very likely to be headed, "Some where in Germany." We are among the picked troops that are to occupy Germany. It is going to delay our returning home and God knows we are sure anxious to get back to civilization again. But this army life is not run on likes and dislikes. So its up to us to stay if they say so.

We went into action July 8th and never had a bit of relief until it was all over Nov. 11th The firing ceased at 11 A. M. Nov 11th. Believe me it was a happy moment.

Our brigade (composed of regiments of 155 millimeter guns) more commonly called 6 inch rifles, with a range of 14 miles, certainly have made some record for themselves.

I have seen some horrible sights during the past five months. Sights that I hope no human will ever again have to endure or witness, as they surely were awful.

Am in good health except for a little touch of rheumatism in my kness and legs. But after the next couple of weeks is over I expect to be able to take better care of myself.

Not counting my 5 weeks in the hospital with the mumps, I have slept in a bed twice in 10 months.

The weather here is about same as Sept. and Oct. at home. No snow yet, but sharp frosts and thin ice in the mornings.

Altho this adds another burden to the teachers, we think it well worth the the time and work as we can already notice an improvement in the standard of the schools and parents are urged to co-operate so as to make it easier for the children to keep up this standard and raise it if possible.

The school attendance is not yet up to normal, and we hereby urge parents to send children as soon as conditions will allow, that they may not loose any more time than is absolutely necessary.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. PROVED SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY

Voluntary Basis of Food Saving Showed Heart of America Beat True for Freedom.

To the voluntary service and sacrifice of the American people must be attributed the continued health, strength and morale of the Allied armies and the civil populace.

Upon this spirit of service and sacrifice will depend Europe's fate in the months to come. In the past year we have carried out an export program, the magnitude of which is almost beyond comprehension. But with the new demands that have come, with the liberation of nations freed from German oppression, our exports must be almost doubled. Instead of 11,820,000 tons, we must ship twenty million tons of food to Europe in the coming year—as much as can be pushed through our ports.

If the Allies had not been fed by America, it would have been impossible for them to maintain their defense against Germany.

Meeting this world need on a purely voluntary basis, the American people have conclusively proved that democracy is a success and that in time of need it will rise to its own defense.

If there were no other accomplishment to its credit the very fact that it has shown the strength of democracy has in itself more than justified the existence of the Food Administration in the eyes of the world.

Less than four months after the United States declared war the United States Food Administrator expressed his determination to meet America's food problem on a basis of voluntary action and reiterated his confidence that awakened democracy would prove irresistible.

"Many thinking Americans," said Mr. Hoover, "and the whole world have been watching anxiously the last four months in the fear that democratic America could not organize to meet autocratic Germany. Germany has been confident that it could not be done. Contrary proof is immediately at our door, and our people have already demonstrated their ability to mobilize, organize, endure and prepare voluntarily and efficiently in many directions and upon the mere word of inspiration aside from the remarkable assemblage of our Army and finances."

The history of the Food Administration has clearly shown that the trust of those who put their faith in democracy has not been misplaced.

EBERT CABINET WINS SANCTION

Socialist Parliament Gives Its O. K. to Government Now In Power.

PLAN STATE INDUSTRY

New Seat of Government Proposed—Sentiment That Berlin Is Not Germany Receives Marked Applause.

Berlin, Dec. 23.—The revolutionary parliament, which adjourned Friday afternoon, gave the cabinet the fullest authority to manage affairs. The prestige of Chancellor Friederich Ebert and Philipp Scheidemann has been greatly enhanced by the appointment of a national central executive committee of 27 soldiers and workingmen, comprised wholly of majority Socialists. The committee is largely a body with parliamentary functions on a small scale. It can eject obstreperous cabinet members and has a restricted veto power.

State Industries Planned

The congress devoted its closing hours to problems of socialization. It approved of state control for such industries "as are ripe" for the experiment and a start will be made with the coal pits, afterward the steel and chemical industries and the alkali mines will be in line for seizure.

Although the bulk of sentiment was for leaving such complex problems to the national assembly, Mile Barth of the Ebert cabinet urged that an immediate start be made with the coal mines on account of the economic situation, as industries were being menaced by the chronic unrest in the Silesian and Rhenish mining districts.

Berlin Is Not Germany.

Herr Rickelt proposed Weimar, capital of the grand duchy of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, as the seat of the first constituent assembly.

The general makeup of the congress was pronouncedly mediocre as the majority of members were from local soldiers' and workmen's councils hurriedly organized in the early days of the revolution. The fact that the congress convened at Berlin was responsible for some embarassing episodes, such as invasions by soldiers and laborers.

Herr Scheidemann was loudly cheered by the country members when, in the course of his address, he declared that Berlin was not Germany.

DANGER IN 5 OF 14 POINTS

Senate Hears Criticism of President's Plans by Senator Lodge.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Five of President Wilson's 14 principles of peace were held in the senate by Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, as questions which might lead to division among the nations which have conquered Germany, and which certainly should be postponed until after the peace conference. They are the first four and the last of the points enunciated by the president in his speech January 8, 1918, and relate to secret diplomacy, freedom of the seas, economic barriers, reduction of armaments and the league of nations.

The senator delivered a prepared address on the problems of the peace conference in which he spoke of the heavy responsibility of the senate in the work of making peace, recalled that no treaty can become binding upon the United States without the senate's consent and declared that untoward results could be avoided only if the senate expressed itself frankly in advance.

"To bring forward propositions not inseparably connected with the immediate and difficult task of making a binding peace with Germany," Senator Lodge said, "may ruin all by trying to do too much at once." Such propositions, he said, were the five points enumerated.

TAX BILL GETS SENATE O. K.

All Provisions Being Forced Through Upper House.

Washington, Dec. 23.—By a strict party vote the senate last Saturday adopted all provisions in the war revenue bill prescribing tax rates for 1920, which Democrats advocated and Republicans opposed, but failed to reach a final vote on the measure, and adjournment was taken until today, when its passage is expected.

Action was taken virtually on a test vote in disposing of the provision reducing the individual income normal tax rate to 8 per cent in 1920. On a motion by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, Republican, to strike out this section, 37 Democrats voted to retain it and 31 Republicans were recorded for its elimination.

Hotels Again Given Free Rein.

Fargo, N. D., Dec. 23.—Patrons of North Dakota hotels and restaurants may eat as much as their pocketbooks and consciences will permit beginning with breakfast today, according to an order received by Al H. Leimbacher, chairman of the hotel and restaurant division of the national food administration for this state. The telegram from Washington urges the importance of continued conservation, however, and requests that in announcing the abrogation of rules the need of further food saving be also made plain.

Roseau.—Sheriff Rice took Gorman McEldowney to Stillwater prison to begin a five-year term at the penitentiary for stealing an automobile from the Ramstad Auto Company at Greenbush last summer.

St. Cloud.—Fire in Rice totally destroyed the large livery barn owned by the St. Cloud Brewing Company. In the barn were six horses, a number of buggies and a sled belonging to J. Werner, which were consumed.

Stillwater.—The members of the Washington County Holstein Breeders' Association held a meeting at the civic club rooms, this city, which was addressed by H. R. Leonard, state secretary of the Holstein association.

International Falls.—The telephone line between this place and Ericsburg will soon be completed. The farmers of the Ericsburg district and those living along the Elwell highway, over which the line is strung, built it.

Minneapolis.—Nick Claus, 50, a well-known trapper living alone in an old cottage on "Eight Mile Creek," at the end of Lyndale avenue south, near the Mississippi river, was found dead by a neighbor, who went to visit him.

Warren.—W. H. Dixon has sold his horse barn, sheds and second-hand store here to William Bradley. Mr. Dixon goes out of the horse dealing business, in which he had been engaged in Warren for seventeen years.

Melrose.—Funeral services have been held for ex-Mayor Edlebrock, of Melrose, a prominent business man of western Stearns county, who died at his home here, aged 58 years. He was a pioneer merchant. He is survived by his wife and three sons and a daughter.

Brainerd.—The annual meeting of the Crow Wing County Farm bureau, which was to be held on Dec. 18, has been indefinitely postponed because of the influenza situation. It is probable the meeting will be held some time in January in connection with the annual meeting of the Livestock Shipping Association.

St. Paul.—Resolutions protesting against any increase in telephone rates in Minnesota were passed unanimously at a mass meeting here by twenty-six representatives of Minnesota municipalities, all members of the telephone users' defense committee. A copy of the resolutions was presented to the state railroad and warehouse commission at the continuation of the telephone hearing at the capitol.

Montrose.—Half a dozen persons were injured, one seriously, when Great Northern passenger train No. 22 split a switch near here. The engine passed over the switch safely, but the baggage car, following, took the siding and piled on the engine of a freight train which had sidetracked for the passenger. The smoking car, next to the baggage car, turned over on its side and the passenger car following left the rails.

St. Paul.—Charges that St. Paul is a vice-ridden city, that automobile thieves reaching proportions of an organized gang, are stealing machines and bringing them to St. Paul and selling them, and that gambling and disorderly houses run rampant in the city with the apparent knowledge of the police, are contained in a report made public by the Ramsey county grand jury. The county attorney's office also is criticised for alleged laxness in prosecutions.

Howard Lake.—Michael Cavanaugh, engineer of the passenger train, was killed, and passengers and members of the crew were shaken up, when Great Northern passenger train No. 13 and a freight train collided head-on at the depot here. The engines on both the passenger and freight trains were smashed and the smoking car of the former train was damaged. Only one of the passengers was seriously hurt. Cavanaugh was a veteran engineer.

Minneapolis.—Six Minneapolis and St. Paul women will lead the movement for obtaining better working conditions for the women and children of Minnesota. They will constitute the legislative committee of the woman's committee of Council of National Defense. The members of the committee are Mrs. Charles P. Noyes, of St. Paul, chairman, and Mmes. Daniel Coonan, Andreas Ueland, David Simpson and Carlyle Scott, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Frances Buell Olson, of St. Paul. The committee has been appointed by Mrs. T. G. Winter, state chairman of the woman's committee, in accordance with a vote at the last executive meeting. It will handle all legislative matters referred to the Council of National Defense.

Little Falls.—After a campaign of one week the Polish people of this city raised $1,520 toward the Polish relief fund that is being raised all over the country for relief of the stricken people of Poland. The allotment set for this city was $1,000, which was raised entirely among the Polish citizens.

St. Paul.—Lawrence W. Kine has resigned as rate supervisor on the staff of C. Louis Weeks, state insurance commissioner, to take a position with a private insurance company. He will be succeeded by Z. Z. Savory of Minneapolis.

Walker.—M. McAneney, connected with a local bank, is to take a similar position in Devils Lake, N. D.

East Grand Forks.—Joseph Tierien, of Bygland township, has returned to his old home in Montreal, after an absence of twenty-three years.

Chisholm.—The village council has increased the pay of the chief of police and day and night sergeant $5 per month and policemen and firemen $10.

Hastings.—Harry Johnson, second cook at the state hospital here, who weighed 350 pounds, died from influenza complications. His body was sent to his old home at Rayne, Ill.

Ivanhoe.—The Lincoln county board in session here has contributed an additional $5,000 to the relief fund of the Tyler tornado sufferers. The original amount contributed by the county was $12,000.

Bemidji.—County Auditor-elect A. D. Johnson returned from St. Paul, where he severed his connection with the M. & I. railroad, preparatory to assuming his new office of auditor of Beltrami county.

St. Cloud.—Supt. Boerger, of the county schools, has sent a check for $10 to the fire relief sufferers fund in northern Minnesota. It came from the school of Luxemburg, of which Sr. M. Olga is the principal.

Virginia.—Tony Vidac, of Biwabik, sentenced to sixty-five days on the county work farm by Judge Milbrook, of Biwabik, charged with making false and defamatory remarks about Johane Rebic, was taken to Duluth by a deputy sheriff.

Virginia.—This city will not forget the little folks this yuletide, as the usual community Christmas tree will be set up in the middle of Chestnut street, opposite the Elks building. Tiny vari-colored electric globes will be strung along its branches.

Virginia.—Ralph M. Spink, foreman of the composing room of the Virginia Enterprise several years ago, has been killed in action in France, acquaintances in Virginia have learned. Mr. Spink left Virginia some time ago. He worked for a time as a printer on the International Falls Journal.

Crookston.—A. D. Stephens received a report from the state director of the Fourth Liberty Loan which shows that the percentage of bonds sold in Polk county, based on the allotment, was 108, and the distribution of bonds per capita was 24.9 per cent, or one bond to every fourth person in the county.

Moorhead.—The demurrer in the $5,000 slander suit of Rosa Stella against John and Mike Kondolis, of Dilworth, has been overruled by Judge Bert Fesler, of Duluth, who heard the case. The case grew out of the charge made by the defendants to Sheriff Dan W. McDonald, that Stella had stolen money from them, and that he was not obeying the "work or fight" order.

St. Paul.—The office of Federal fuel administration engineer in each state will cease to exist January 15, 1919, according to notification received by H. J. Meyer, fuel engineer for Minnesota, from H. A. Garfield, Federal fuel administrator. Mr. Meyer said the government had decided to retain the conservation bureau of the fuel administration, and is planning to educate the public to keep up fuel saving for its own benefit.

Crookston.—E. M. McMahon, general secretary of the St. Paul association, was the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Crookston association and in the course of his remarks paid special tribute to the enterprise of the farmers and business men of the valley in making possible the erection of the building for the promotion of the livestock industry, and evidenced that the Twin Cities were keenly interested.

Hastings.—Testimony in the election contest of Alfred E. Rietz against P. H. O'Keefe for county attorney of Dakota county, has closed here. The case is to be argued by a representative from the attorney general's office before Judge C. J. Rockwood, in Minneapolis, at a date to be announced later, when the question of legality of the soldier vote will be considered and alleged errors in ballots cast at the recent election will be taken up.

Pipestone.—According to information received here, one of Uncle Sam's big new battleships will be named Pipestone. The information was from Chairman Rogers, of the Ninth Regional Liberty Loan Committee. This county will receive the distinction because it was one of the four counties in the Ninth Federal Reserve district to have the highest standing in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign. The total subscription of the county was $1,045,100.

Virginia.—The armory building question again bobbed up at the city council meeting, a new angle to the protracted controversy being introduced when City Attorney George Shea gave it as his opinion that the state cannot force the city to provide quarters for the military organization, contradicting the claim of a state official recently made that the city must furnish drilling quarters and headquarters for the National Guards. The matter went over till next meeting, when Mayor Edward Johnson will outline his plans for a combined city hall and auditorium, the latter to be used by the National Guard.

Hibbing.—Local Elks, after several weeks' idleness because of the ban, will resume activities after the holidays. The biggest initiation of the year will take place at the armory on the second Monday in January, when a large class will be put through, with visiting delegations from Chisholm, Duluth and Virginia present. An athletic program and lunch is planned.

Virginia.—Charged eighteen months ago with grand larceny while acting as collector for a publishing concern, H. S. Torence, former Virginian, has been arrested in Minneapolis and brought back to face the charge.

CANADA'S NEW DEVELOPMENT

After the War a Period of Prosperity.

It is evident that the Government of the Dominion in its programme of reconstruction and development is undertaking a work of tremendous importance. There will be available the labor for work that has been silent since 1914, and the rehabilitation of this labor will entail the thought and energy of most capable heads. The transition period from war to peace will be rapid and thorough, and, instead of Canada sinking into a state of lethargy, there will be a continued period of wakefulness that will give employment to the unemployed, and render to the capitalist and producer ample return for his money, effort and enterprise.

The agricultural potentialities of the great Canadian West possess illimitable acres of the best of soil, capable of producing millions of bushels of the best of grain. The cost of growing this is lower than any place on the continent. There will be a greater demand than ever for these lands, the consequent production will be heavier and the profits attractive. Cattle industry will be one of the chief developments, and the encouragement of it will lie in the continued high prices that beef products will bring. European countries have been depleted of cattle, and the demand for beef, cattle and dairy products will tax the efforts of the producer for years to come.

In the Canadian West plans are being laid for the development of electrical power which can be produced cheaply. There is an abundance of coal and water power that could be used in developing this useful energy. What cheap power produced in this way will mean to the farmer and development of industrial enterprises cannot be estimated in figures.

More extensive development of the water power at Niagara, on the St. Lawrence and at waterfalls all over the country, is ready to be launched.

Peace will see new mine fields opened up, and it is equally certain that shipbuilding, railway equipment, steel production, and many of the industries will go forward with a bound.

Canadian industries will be required in the reconstruction of Europe, and already the Canadian Government has sent across the seas a commission for the purpose of securing orders. Canada took an early and prominent part in the war, and in the days of peace will be found equally active. She feels that by the valor and loyalty of her people she has earned a large share of the business and prosperity that will follow the war period, and she proposes to get it.—Advertisement.

One of Little Faith.

The old farmer had no faith in "physic," but he became so sick that he was eventually induced to see a doctor. A few days after his visit the doctor met him and remarked that he looked better.

"Yes, zur," said the farmer. "I am a lot better than I was."

"So the medicine did you some good after all, then?" said the physician.

"I dunno, zur, I dunno," the farmer went on. "'Tis like this 'ere, you see. Soon as I got outside your place I drinked one-half and throwed away the other—but I can't tell which done me the most good."—Tit-Bits.

Get New Kidneys!

The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen.

One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion; irritation, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's disease, for which there is said to be no cure.

Do not delay a minute. At the first indication of trouble in the kidney, liver, bladder or urinary organs start taking Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules, and save yourself before it is too late. Instant treatment is necessary in kidney and bladder troubles. A delay is often fatal.

You can almost certainly find immediate relief in Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this famous preparation has been an unfailing remedy for all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles.

It is the pure, original Haarlem Oil your great-grandmother used. About two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Get it at any drug store, and if it does not give you almost immediate relief, your money will be refunded. Be sure you get the GOLD MEDAL brand. None other genuine. In boxes, three sizes.—Adv.

To Water Hanging Plant.

Place a small funnel in the center of the basket, leaving the cup part above the soil, but hidden by the foliage. Fill this with water daily. The water will soak into the soil gradually and will not run through onto the floor below, spoiling carpets or waxed floors.

Killing Pests With Gas.

Bean and pea weevils—which annually destroy millions of dollars' worth of valuable seed, food and feed in the form of beans, peas and cowpeas in storage—have not yet discovered the advantages of gas masks, and those who expect trouble from weevils can successfully kill them by a gas attack immediately after the crops are harvested. Carbon disulphid should be used. Place the seed in an air-tight container, such as a tin can, barrel or bin, and over the top pour a small amount of the chemical (two to four pounds to over 500 cubic feet of space to be fumigated), cover the seed and fumigate from 24 to 48 hours. The seed should then remain in air-tight containers, and should be inspected frequently to see that the weevils do not reappear. In case they do, repeat the gas treatment.

WILSON EXPECTS A JUST SOLUTION

President, in Interview, Shows Confidence in Good Results at Versailles.

NO BOSSES THERE, SAID

Congress Must Be Representative, Executive Believes—No Master Mind Great Enough to Be Entitled to Control.

Paris, Dec. 21.—"I am confident that the big council of statesmen of the world will be able to reach a just and reasonable solution of the problems that will be presented to them, and thus earn the gratitude of the world for the most critical and necessary service which has ever been rendered it," said President Wilson yesterday in an interview, referring to the approaching peace conference.

"Bosses" at Vienna

The congress of Vienna, the correspondent says, President Wilson told him, was congress of "bosses." The delegates were concerned more with their own interests and the classes they represented than the wishes of their peoples.

"Versailles, as President Wilson said, "must be a meeting place of the servants of the peoples represented by delegates and he added 'there is no master mind which can settle the problems of today. If there is anybody who thinks he knows what is in the mind of all people, that man is a fool. We have all got to put our heads together and pool everything we have got for the benefit of the ideals which are common to all.'"

British Navy Helped

Asked whether he would visit the grand fleet, President Wilson replied he would not have time, adding that he fully realized that behind the great armies there was the strong, silent and watchful support of the British navy in securing the communications of the allies.

STILL AFTER MEAT PACKERS

Federal Trade Chairman Says Retail Competition Will Cease.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Retail and wholesale groceries on a competitive basis will be wiped out within a few years unless present tendencies in the meat packing industry are eliminated, Chairman Colver of the federal trade committee told the house interstate commerce committee yesterday at hearings on the administration bill to regulate the packing business.

"The wholesale grocery business on a competitive basis will disappear in five or six years," said Mr. Colver. "In 10 or 12 years the retail grocers also will disappear as individuals to be supplanted by a great chain of stores."

The cause, he contended, was that the packers had obtained control of numerous industries not directly related to the packing industry. He asserted the consumer pays more and the producer gets less, due to the control of the packing industry by big concerns.

ALASKAN MORTALITY IS HIGH

Death Takes Heavy Toll Among Eskimo Population.

Nome, Alaska, Dec. 21.—Estimates compiled by the health authorities and relief workers of the bureau of education here place the mortality among the Eskimo population of Seward peninsula, due to pneumonia resulting from Spanish influenza, at nearly 1,000.

In the outlying sections of the peninsula the disease continues to take an appalling toll of life among the natives, the adult population of some half dozen villages in the Nome vicinity having been wiped out. In other towns reports of relief workers show Eskimo children are the principal survivors, and many of these have been found partially frozen in remote settlements owing to the death of their parents.

RAIL HEADS OPPOSE PLAN

Do Not Favor McAdoo's Suggestion for Continued Federal Control.

New York, Dec. 21.—Director General McAdoo's proposed plan to extend federal control over the railroads for a period of five years is to meet the vigorous opposition of the executive officials of the nation's leading railroads. Robert S. Binkerd, assistant chairman of the railway executives advisory committee, authorized the announcement that the executives were opposed to the extension of control beyond the 21 months fixed by law.

Marshall Discusses Peace League.

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 21.—Vice President Marshall in an address here last night before the Carlisle chamber of commerce said on the question of a world league to prevent war, that, in his opinion, until all men are of good will wars will not cease unless nations desire peace at any price. The vice president said it was furthest from his thought to utter a single word which might in any manner be construed as endeavoring to affect the negotiations of the president in Europe.

PERSONAL STOCK-TAKING

Dawn of New Year a Good Time to Bolster Up Weak Spots

NOW'S the time for a personal stock taking. The habit is in the air around Christmas. The kiddie lives a miserable life from the first of December trying to do his best so that old Santa will be good to him. The average man starts in around Christmas to think about the New Year resolutions he is going to make. All his friends, wise and otherwise, proffer advice gratis until the poor chap isn't sure whether the New Year is coming or going and he himself is hopelessly lost. If he's wise he will go off by himself to a quiet corner and turn over the events of the past year and strike a balance on the results. The chances are that he will feel as chipper as a squirrel in May when the job is finished. There will be many instances where the "might have been" will condemn what was.

Life has many lessons that are hard to learn.

One is that you can't put your ability in cold storage until needed for some great scoop. Your present job may be no compliment to your ability, but you dare not slight it for that reason. To keep yourself fit you must constantly employ your talents to the limit. As soon as you begin to go easy on them you start to decline. Unused potentialities deteriorate. Labor saving devices and man-made expedients won't work out with the Divine masterpiece. God never intended ability to be held in reserve for spectacular purposes. The wise man takes stock daily to see whether or not he is measuring up to his privileges. This is the season to begin the practice of it.

Much that he does in this line is not appreciated. The knowledge of this kills some folks at the start. Most men do their best when the thing they advocate is popular. A few indomitable souls are fired to the heroic point by opposition. It takes the big souled man to struggle on when he sees few results and gets little thanks. He works for the sake of the thing to be done, and that is the evidence of the master-workman. It takes the stalwart to keep on the job in cloud and sunshine with his best always as the goal. If you are willing to take stock and profit by the results shown, you may be in that class soon.

The fellow that is honest in his stock taking will find many loose connections in his past efforts.

He has failed to keep the pace because his ideals and ability did not mix properly; or he has been short on one or both of these essentials. There are many sincere souls that are failures because they have gone at high speed with a bolt loose somewhere. No wonder they wrack themselves to death. The stock taking will help them to see where their personal mechanism needs repairs. Weakness in any one part hinders the best work of the whole. For the sake of a temporary gain you dare not endanger your future usefulness. The past has been of your making. If it does not please you find what has been the matter and make sure of a better record for 1919. It's unfair to blame your competitors for lack of success. If you had been able to deliver the goods you would doubtless have had your share of the trade. They have won because you have failed somewhere. Most failures begin with the mental apparatus. Look well to yours for the New Year. There is no time for adjustments after the race starts.

When the head is supplied with right thinking the body is apt to be best fitted for its tasks.

To be sure the care of the body influences the thinking, but even that needs right thinking to help it. If your head is off you can't give your body a square deal. You can't booze all night and have a clear head the next day. You can't dance until daybreak and have elasticity and sprightliness of body when the rush is on the next afternoon. You can't fill your stomach with cheap candies, creams and chemically preserved fruits and be happy and obliging to a trying customer in busy times. You must have the whole human mechanism working in harmony if you are going to get the most out of the coming year. That's why your old uncle is asking for a mental and physical examination. He's concerned for your welfare and wants you to make good.

Wishing You All Every Success for a Prosperous and Happy New Year

If you haven't measured up to expectations during 1918 you must find the reason.

The truth will doubtless jar your self-opinion a little, and you would hate to see the analysis in the newspaper. But the results will be just as public if you fail and men who read between the lines know the facts. So if you're concerned about the future you will respect the verdict and honestly set out to avoid the foolish things done in 1918. You will make your corrections at once. If you continue in error you will damage your working ability, not to speak of your reputation and character. It isn't business to toy with things costly. You can better afford to down a foolish self-pride than be downed by tasks too big for you. If you make the corrections to your life at once even the balance of this year will profit by the stock taking and you will start the year with a little practice.

The best assurance of success is found in taking stock of the means of attaining it.

Many worthy projects are blasted by over-zeal. Faith does wonders, but it's a healthy process to mix considerable good judgment with it. Promises to pay are of no value without the ability to redeem them. You must count the cost before beginning the new enterprise. Scan your personal fitness before undertaking new ventures. If you stand the test you are bound to win. You have no reason to expect that simply because you attempt something beyond you some mysterious power is going to pull you through. The New Year will be full of challenges and for that reason I want you to take stock and be ready for the testing when it comes.

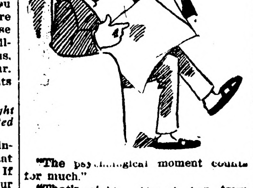
It's just as foolish to attempt jobs too big for you as it is to be afraid of what you can do easily. There are some organizations that put on campaigns these days to help people find themselves. If you want the same results without the publicity go after your own case and don't be too easy with the subject. The coming year will be full of great opportunities and you won't know what to do when they come unless you take stock in advance. To be sure some lucky turn of fortune's wheel may put you in a high place, but you are far more likely to stay at the top if you rise by merit.

You owe yourself and your friends your best record for the coming year.

It should be a matter of satisfaction to know that you have the ability to do big things. It's equally important to know your weakness if you should be confronted with big things. In any case failure does not add to your credit. Many of life's failures could be avoided if men would only take stock. This is business, and you should not shirk it if you want to succeed. Rise to power and criticism go together. You will escape most of the latter if you take time to find yourself and fit yourself for being your best. Take stock before others take it for you and corrections are too late.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL MOMENT.



"The psychological moment counts for much."

THE DEATH OF THE OLD YEAR.

Full knee-deep lies the winter snow,
  And the winter winds are wearily sighing:
Toll ye the church bell sad and slow,
And tread softly, and speak low,
  For the Old Year lies a-dying.
Old Year, you must not die;
  You came to us so readily,
  You lived with us so steadily
Old Year, you shall not die.

His face is growing sharp and thin,
  Alack! our friend is gone.
Close up his eyes; tie up his chin;
Step from the corpse, and let him in
That standeth there alone,
  And waiteth at the door,
There's a new foot on the floor, my friend,
And a new face at the door, my friend,
  A new face at the door.

—Alfred Tennyson.

Only Today Is Ours.

The opening of the year is everybody's birthday. God has let us share his work. God has gifts for days to come. We may send our thoughts back through the ways of memory; we must send them forth through opening paths of faith and hope. The past will come no more, but today is ours and tomorrow is in the hands of everybody's birthday, then, bring joy and courage! May God's spirit help us, each and everyone, to walk with God and spend a joyful year in the service of his Kingdom.

Acid-Stomach Makes Millions Suffer

What a lot of misery they cause! How Acid-Stomach, with its day-after-day sufferings, does take the joy out of life! Not only that — Acid-Stomach is always undermining one's health. Think of what acid does to the teeth—how the acid eats through the enamel, causing them to decay. Is it any wonder, then, that Acid-Stomach saps the strength of the strongest bodies and wrecks the health of so many people?

You see ACID-STOMACH victims everywhere always ailing. They can't tell exactly what is the matter; all they say is, "I don't feel well"—"I'm all in; tired, sickly." If they only knew it, nine times out of ten it is Acid-Stomach that is ailing them. It surely makes good digestion difficult, causes food to sour and ferment in the bowels, weakens the blood and fills the system with poisons. It prevents one from getting the full strength out of their food.

Take EATONIC and get rid of your Acid-Stomach. This wonderful modern remedy actually takes the excess acid out of the stomach. It quickly and positively relieves bloat, heartburn, belching, food repeating, sour, gassy stomach, and the pains of indigestion. Makes the stomach cool and comfortable—keeps it sweet and strong. Banishes all stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. You can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort, without fear of distressing after-effects. EATONIC helps you get full strength out of every mouthful you eat—and that is what you must have to be well and strong—full strength from your food.

Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist TODAY. We authorize him to guarantee EATONIC to please you. If it fails in any way, take it back; he will refund your money. If your druggist does not keep EATONIC, write to us and we will send you a big 50c box. You can send us the 50c after you receive it. Address H. L. Kramer, President, Eatonic Remedy Company, South Wabash, Chicago, Ill.

The Name Gutta Percha.

Gutta percha derives its name from the Malayan words gueta, a gum, and percha, a cloth. It was introduced to the civilized world in 1842 by Doctor Montgomery, a Scottish surgeon.

P. A. Riesberg went to Thief River Falls Monday for a short visit with relatives there, departing the next day for Gardena, N. D., to spend Christmas with the H. Pavek family.

Oscar Bottom took his seven year old son to the Thief River Falls hospital Saturday, and Monday he was operated upon for abscess of the ears. At last report the little boy was improving nicely.

Carl Johnson was over at Warren last week and succeeded in landing another ditch contract, altho he had few others to bid against. The ditch is in the neighborhood of the one they worked on the past summer, on which they have about six weeks work to do when the season opens again.

SAVE 16,000,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT THAT FORMERLY WAS LOST IN THRESHING

Farmers, Urged by Food Administration, Provide Seven Extra Loaves of Bread for Every American.

By adopting cleaner threshing methods and by literally combing harvest fields to gather grain formerly wasted, threshermen and farmers of the United States this year saved fully 16,000,000 bushels of wheat, estimated as equivalent to about seven one-pound loaves of bread for every person in the country. This result, accompanied by corresponding savings of barley, oats, rye and other grains, is shown by reports from 33 grain states to the U. S. Food Administration. Other states, although not prepared to furnish definite figures of conservation in the grain fields, report greatly reduced harvest losses.

This rural food saving achievement, accomplished in scarcely six months' time, was in direct response to requests by the Food Administration, which asked farmers and threshermen to reduce harvest losses from about [illegible] per cent.—the estimated average in normal times—to the lowest possible minimum. Country grain threshing committees carried into every grain growing community the official recommendations for accomplishing the results desired.

In numerous instances drivers of racks with leaky bottoms were sent from the fields to repair their equipment and frequently bad order threshing machines were stopped until the cause of waste was removed. But in proportion to the number of persons engaged in gathering the nation's grain crop, cases of compulsion were comparatively rare. The Food Administration freely attributes the success of the grain threshing campaign to patriotic service by farmers, threshermen and their crews. Incidentally grain growers of the United States are many millions of dollars "in pocket" as a result of the grain saved.

NO ONE SUFFERED HERE.

The marvel of our voluntary food saving, now that we are "getting results," is that no one ever actually suffered any hardship from it; that we all are better in health and spirit and better satisfied with ourselves because of our friendly self-denial.

Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. ALLIES' NEED OF FOOD GREAT

To Win the War They Are Making Sacrifices and Must Continue To.

AMERICANS MUST HELP TO THE LIMIT

Hoover Confident United States Home Folk Won't Be Food Slackers.

America's allies in Europe are denying themselves food in greater measure than ever before. They will have to go on doing so, even if Herbert Hoover's promise to send across 17,550,000 tons of food this year is carried out. Remembering what they—France, Belgium, Italy and Great Britain—have endured in the four years of war in pain and hunger, the call is to every man, woman and child in America to save food as never before—to eat enough to maintain health and strength, but to eat no more, and to waste not a scrap either by overeating or by the garbage can route.

The call is made ten times more imperative when it is remembered that it is seconded with emphasis by our own soldier sons now fighting in France, Belgium and Italy.

Here are the figures of the needs of Europe as compiled by Mr. Hoover, showing the amounts of food America has promised to save for shipment to Europe by next fall:

Meats and Fats—(Beef, pork, dairy, poultry and vegetable oil products) ..	2,600,000	1,050,000
Bread Stuffs—(Wheat and substitutes in terms of grain)	10,400,000	3,600,000
Sugar—(From United States and West Indies) ..	1,850,000	330,000
Feed Grains—(Mostly army oats)	2,700,000	750,000
Totals	17,550,000	5,730,000

Discussing the needs of the Allies further, Mr. Hoover says:

"At best the Allied table will be less than ours, for the Allied peoples are denying themselves more in order to transport our soldiers. We can do no less than fill the ships they send us.

"Of our imports, we shall apparently have sufficient sugar to maintain the present consumption and take care of the extra drain of the Allies from our markets, instead of compelling them to send their ships to the far East. We can secure in sailing vessels the coffee we need, if no one makes an over-brew. Of our own products we must secure a reduction in consumption and waste in the two great groups of, first, breadstuffs; and second, meats and fats—that is, in all bread and cereals, beef, pork, poultry, dairy and vegetable-oil products. The average consumption of our people of breadstuffs amounts to about six pounds per week and of meats and fats to four pounds a week for each person. A reduction in consumption of less than one-half pound per week per person in each of these two great groups of foods would accomplish our purpose. We wish to emphasize, however, that we do not want curtailment in the use of milk for children.

"Some of our homes by reason of limited incomes cannot now provide more food than they should have to maintain health in the family. They cannot rightfully be asked to make the suggested reduction in consumption. But the great majority of our homes can do more than suggested.

This year as last I believe we can accomplish the necessary ends by voluntary action of our own people. The willingness to assume individual responsibility in this matter by the vast majority is one of the greatest proofs of the character and idealism of our people, and I feel it can be constantly relied upon. Our simple formula for this year is to further reduce consumption and waste of all food.

"It is necessary that every family in the United States study its food budget and food ways to see if it cannot buy less, serve less, return nothing to the kitchen and practice the gospel of the clean plate."

A STATE WIDE WAR ON RATS

Food Administration and College of Agriculture Urge Public to Fight the Pests.

THEY COST STATE $3,000,000 A YEAR

Agricultural College Issues a Bulletin as Guide for Local Rat Campaigns.

A campaign to rid Minnesota of rats has been begun by the federal food administration for Minnesota and the division of entomology and economic zoology of the Minnesota College of Agriculture.

Rats eat about $3,000,000 worth of Minnesota foodstuffs every year. This means an annual tax on every resident of Minnesota of $2, for which there is absolutely no return. Besides, rats are carriers of disease and there is no telling to what extent they increase the burdens of the people in this respect.

What Rats Cost the U. S.

The figures for the whole United States are still more striking. Rats cost the United States annually not less than $200,000,000, to say nothing of disease spread by them.

Rats eat valuable foodstuffs; they cause disastrous fires; they spread bubonic plague, trichinosis, and other maladies; they eat grain in the fields and in warehouses; they take unprotected food from stock; they eat eggs and young chickens; and the eggs of many birds which are exterminators of insect pests; they destroy fruits and vegetables, and they multiply with tremendous rapidity, increasing the annual toll of food and life.

These are the reasons behind the action of the food administration and the Minnesota College of Agriculture.

Campaigns Must Be Co-operative.

A campaign must be widespread to be effective. One farmer or one merchant cannot rid his premises of rats if his neighbor harbors rats. A war against rats must be co-operative. For this reason, local campaigns are to be encouraged and it is suggested that county agents and county chairmen of the Council of Defense, boy scout directors, school authorities, commercial clubs, school clubs, and similar organizations organize to exterminate the pest.

Bulletin as a Guide.

The College of Agriculture has just issued a bulletin as a guide to those promoting local campaigns. This bulletin is by F. L. Washburn. It urges that prevention is the best method. Prevention can be effected by covering basement windows of buildings with one-fourth inch galvanized screens and the bottom of outside doors, particularly of stables and of markets, groceries, and food warehouses, with similar wire netting. Sills of such buildings may be made rat proof. Corn cribs may be protected by raising them at least three feet from the ground on posts with projecting metal guards over which the rats cannot climb. Rat-holes may be closed with cement containing bits of broken glass. Breeding places may be broken up or destroyed by the removal of rubbish and litter of all sorts. These and other methods are recommended by the bulletin, copies of which may be had by addressing Office of Publications, University Farm, St. Paul.

Traps and Poisons.

Where rats are already well established and doing their vicious thieving and germ-spreading, rats may be trapped or poisoned.

What is known as the guillotine trap, made entirely of metal, is regarded as the best. A large number of traps should be used at once, not just one or two as is commonly the practice. By using a considerable number at the outset a big catch is more likely than after the rats learn to be suspicious of anything like a trap.

Barium carbonate (barytes) is recommended as a poison because it acts slowly and rats which have taken it with their food leave buildings to go in search of water. This prevents their dying in buildings and causing objectionable odors. Bartyes is cheap and may be used by mixing it ground fine with cornmeal, 1 part of barytes to 4 parts of cornmeal with sweet oil added. It may also be made into a stiff dough with oatmeal and water or may be spread on buttered bread or on fish. Other methods of poisoning are outlined in Mr. Washburn's bulletin.

Rat-Proof Buildings Needed.

Having made plans for the extermination of rats, measures should be adopted for preventing their return by rat-proofing all buildings. This may be done by constructing concrete foundations and by the use of wire mesh already referred to. Farmers' Bulletin No. 461, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, on the "Uses of Concrete on the Farm," tells how to construct such foundations. Farmers' Bulletin No. 896, by the same department, contains further information as to rat extermination.

EBERT OUSTED, HAGUE REPORT

Liebknecht to Take Reins and Form New Cabinet, Says Word From Berlin.

NEWS CONTRADICTORY

German Cable Reports Surrender of Mutineers and Hindenburg Said To Be On Way to Capital to Restore Order.

The Hague, Dec. 30.—The Ebert government virtually has been overthrown, according to a dispatch filed in Berlin and received here.

The dispatch says Philip Scheidemann, socialist member of the government, has fled from the city.

It is predicted that a new cabinet will be formed, including Karl Liebknecht and George Ledebour, and that the central soviet will be summoned.

Radical Commands City.

London, Dec. 30.—Brutus Molkenshur, supporter of Karl Liebknecht, has been made commandant at Berlin, according to a dispatch from that city to the Daily Mail.

Says Mutineers Surrender.

Berlin, Dec. 30.—Government troops renewed bombardment of the royal palace, killing several of the mutinous sailors entrenched there. The defenders finally surrendered.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg, with an army of loyal troops, is reported to be marching on Berlin to restore order. The bolsheviks still control the former social newspaper Vorwaerts.

Wants Soviets to Take Charge.

Berlin, Dec. 30.—While the government continues to deny the existence of a crisis, developments appear to be rapidly approaching the point where the Ebert-Haase cabinet will no longer be able to assert its authority. The Vossische Zeitung says that the six men who sign for the government are no longer the government, and it calls upon the newly created central council of soldiers and workers to assume the responsibility.

Under the terms of the resolution the house requests the peace conference to create a League of Nations at the earliest possible moment. It quotes from President Wilson's utterances on the subject.

WOMEN JOIN IN GERMAN REVOLT

Wives of Mutinous German Sailors Seize Rifles and Help Defend Palace.

BERLIN FACES ANARCHY

Fighting in Hun Capital Expected to Continue With Two Separate Contests Under Way—Ebert's Position Uncertain.

London, Dec. 28.—Wives of the mutinous German sailors have seized rifles and joined in defense of the Royal palace against the civil guards, according to a dispatch filed in Berlin and received by the Express.

Although the sailors have technically surrendered, they refuse to leave the city, and have announced they will continue to support Chancellor Ebert, who permits them to remain.

"The city is on the verge of anarchy and fighting is expected to continue," the dispatch said.

Two distinct conflicts are now under way in the city—the armed opposition of the sailors and their women to orders transferring the men to Coastal cities and the efforts of the rejuvenated Spartacides to overthrow the Ebert-Scheidemann government.

The Spartacides, under leadership of Karl Liebknecht, have announced their intention of forcing the present ministry to resign. The dispatch said they continue in possession of the Vorwaerts plant, from which they are issuing the "Red Vorwaerts."

Machine Guns in Position.

The building is defended by 18 machine guns and an armored car.

A portion of the palace was still held by the sailors, while the government held the remainder. It was believed that Ebert, fearing the sudden growth in power of the Spartacides, would halt the attack against the sailors and seek to enlist them on his side.

Many of them have already openly declared their loyalty to the chancellor, in view of his disposition to defer enforcement of the orders transferring them.

BRAVERY WAS CAMOUFLAGE

Kaiser and Hindenburg Fooled People With Movies.

Spa, Belgium, Dec. 28.—The former headquarters of the kaiser and his general staff is disclosing some extraordinary queer facts about the men who engineered the world war. Take for one, Hindenburg, Germany's superman, around whom reams of poetry has been written hailing him as a fearless Napoleon. As a matter of fact, he spent a great deal of time in a wonderfully constructed "funk hole," or dugout, underneath the grounds of his villa here.

Spa, it may be noted, is almost on the German border and so far from where battle-lines used to be that it was almost a day's journey in a fast motor-car to get within sound of the big guns. The kaiser, too, had a similar hiding place at Neu Bois, near a comic opera trench system, about which he is said to have paraded for the benefit of motion pictures.

WHEAT GUARANTY COSTLY

Big Loss to Government Next Year Is Seen.

Washington, Dec. 28.—The keeping of Uncle Sam's war promises to his farmers is going to cost $500,000,000 and perhaps more.

It will take this amount to pay the difference between the market price of the forecast 1,000,000,000 bushels 1919 wheat crop and the price of $2.26 set by the president during wartime, Chairman A. F. Lever of the house agricultural committee estimated.

Lever had in first stages of preparation a bill extending the life of the United States Grain corporation and increasing its capital stock from $150,000,000 to about $600,000,000. The bill is the result of a joint recommendation of the food administration and agricultural department.

DRASTIC ORDERS ARE ISSUED

British Will Shoot Bolsheviks in the German Navy.

Amsterdam, Dec. 28.—The British admiralty is prepared to take drastic measures against the propagation of bolshevism in that part of the German fleet remaining in German hands, according to a Berlin dispatch. The text of the order attributed to the British admiralty reads:

"Vessels under the red flag will be sunk without warning. Vessels without officers will be dealt with in accordance with the laws of war. If a single man is caught propagating bolshevik ideas, the entire crew of the vessel in question will be shot."

Praised for Relief Work.

New York, Dec. 28.—The gratitude and good will felt by the people of Bethlehem, Nazareth and Jerusalem, toward the Sunday schools of America for their relief efforts is expressed in a cablegram received here by the American committee for relief in the Near East through the State department. General Allenby, commanding the British army forces, sent Christmas greetings "to every scholar, teacher and officer, thanking them for last year's offerings instead of giving each other presents."

Cattle Buying for Swift & Company

Swift & Company buys more than 9000 head of cattle, on an average, every market day.

Each one of them is "sized up" by experts.

Both the packer's buyer and the commission salesman must judge what amount of meat each animal will yield, and how fine it will be, the grading of the hide, and the quantity and quality of the fat.

Both must know market conditions for live stock and meat throughout the country. The buyer must know where the different qualities, weights, and kinds of cattle can be best marketed as beef.

If the buyer pays more than the animal is worth, the packer loses money on it. If he offers less, another packer, or a shipper or feeder, gets it away from him.

If the seller accepts too little, the livestock raiser gets less than he is entitled to. If he holds out for more than it is worth, he fails to make a sale.

A variation of a few cents in the price per hundred pounds is a matter of vital importance to the packer, because it means the difference between profit and loss.

Backache? Rheumatism?

Those of us who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime-salts in the arteries, veins and joints. We often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. There is no longer the slightest need of this, however, as the new prescription, "Anuric," is bound to give immediate results as it is many times more potent than lithia, in ridding the impoverished blood of its poisons by way of the kidneys. It can be obtained at almost any drug store, by simply asking for "Anuric" for kidneys or backache. It will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant arising from bed at night.

MADERA, CAL.—"I recommend Doctor Pierce's Anuric very highly. I have suffered for the last three years with catarrh of the bladder, having tried every remedy I heard of but without relief. I saw Anuric advertised in the paper, and like a drowning man grabbing at a straw I thought I would try it also, which I did with great success, as it relieved me almost immediately, before I had taken all of the trial package, and having great confidence in the remedy I immediately sent to the drug store and bought a full-size package. I can say to all suffering from any disease of the kidneys or uric acid troubles, try this remedy and suffer no longer. I have great faith in Dr. Pierce's remedies."—S. P. HENSLEY.

St. Paul.—Rev A. C. Haase, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church here, received a letter threatening him with death and the destruction of his church if he continued to preach in German. The letter, which was turned over to Federal authorities, was in the form of a hand and the back of it was smeared with blood. It was written in French and signed by the "Committee on Vengeance"

Stillwater.—Testimony for both contestee and contestant in the matter of the election contest brought by Senator George H Sullivan of Stillwater against W. W. Wilcox, of the town of Oneka, for senatorship of Washington county, has ended, both announcing that they had no more witnesses to offer. The next hearing of the case will come up before the Minnesota state senate when the contest will probably be referred to the committee on elections.

Grand Marais.—Epidemic of "flu" which has not spared this section of Minnesota, a number of deaths being reported in Cook county from the resulting pneumonia, took a heavy toll in the Beargrease family, one of the best known Indian families of this section. Recently Mrs. John Beargrease died. Then several days later her son, George, 20, native of Cook county, one of the most prominent young men of the county, gave up his life and the same day his uncle, Peter Beargrease, 60, also died.

Minneapolis After checking over their stock, officers of the American Jewelry company here said the four armed robbers who held up the place escaped with jewelry and other valuables worth $25,000. The loot included $1,100 in Liberty bonds, $857 in cash and $125 worth of War Savings Stamps. The loss is covered by insurance.

WORLD NEEDS FOOD

Demand Makes Opportunity for Returning Soldiers.

Thousands Will See Glorious Possibilities in Settlement of Available Farm Land in This Country and in Canada.

The war is over, peace will soon be signed, the fighting nations have sheathed their swords, and the day of reconstruction has come.

What of it?

Hundreds of thousands of men, taken from the fields of husbandry, from the ranks of labor, from the four walls of the counting house, and the confines of the workshop, taken from them to do their part, their large part, in the prevention of the spoliation of the world, and in the meantime removed from the gear of common everyday life, will be returning, only to find in many cases old positions filled, the machinery with which they were formerly attached dislocated.

Are they to become aimless wanderers, with the ultimate possibility of augmenting an army of menacing loafers? If they do it is because their ability to assist in laying new foundations, in building up much-required structures, is underestimated. Men who fought as they fought, who risked and faced dangers as they did, are not of the caliber likely to flinch when it comes to the restoration of what the enemy partially destroyed, when it comes to the reconstruction of the world, the ideals of which they had in view when they took part in the great struggle whose divine purpose was to bring about this reconstruction.

Inured to toil, thoughtless of fatigue, trained in initiative and hardened by their outdoor existence, they will return better and stronger men, boys will have matured and young men will have developed.

They will decide for themselves lines of action and thought, and what their future should and will be. On the field of battle they developed alertness and wisdom, and they will return with both shedding from every pore.

Action was their watchword, and it will stand them in good stead now that the din of the battle no longer rings in their ears, or the zero hour signals them to the fray, and it will continue during their entire existence.

But if they return to find their old avocations gone, their places filled, the institutions with which they were connected no longer existing, new walks of life and employment must be opened to them. It may be that the counting house, the factory, the workshop will have lost their attraction. The returned soldier will look elsewhere for employment; within his reach there is always the "Forward-to-the-Land" necessity. In this lies the remedy that will not only take care of a multitude of those who may not be able to return to their former occupations, whose desires are not to do so, whose health prohibits them from indoor life or whose outdoor habits from the past one, two, three or four years have given them such a taste and desire for it that confinement would be unbearable Farm life will thus appeal to them, and the indications are that it will be taken advantage of by thousands. It means much to them as well as to the continent of America that provides the opportunity to the world at large, and to the stricken and famished nations of Europe, who, not only today, but for years to come, will require the sustenance that can only largely be supplied by the United States and Canada. By following the pursuit of agriculture the returned soldier will continue the cause he so greatly advanced when fighting on the field of battle. Both countries have undeveloped areas yet open to settlement.

There is little need here to direct attention to the wealth that has come to the farmers of Canada within the past few years. It is not only in grain growing that unqualified and almost unequaled success has followed honest effort, but the raising of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs has been a large source of profit. These are facts that are well known to the many friends and acquaintances of the thousands of farmers from the United States who have acquired wealth on the prairies of Western Canada. Farms of from one hundred and sixty to six hundred and forty acres of the richest soil may be secured on reasonable terms, and with an excellent climate, with a school system equal to any in the world, and desirable social conditions, little else could be asked.

Canadian statesmen are today busily engaged planning for the future of the returned soldier with a view to making him independent of state help after the immediate necessary assistance has been granted, the main idea being to show in the fullest degree the country's appreciation of the services he has rendered.

But now that the war is ended, and the fact apparent that of all avocations the most profitable and independent is that of the farmer, there will be a strong desire to secure farm lands for cultivation. Canada offers the opportunity to those seeking, not as speculation but as production. The deepest interest is taken by Federal and Provincial authorities to further the welfare of the farmer and secure a maximum return for his efforts. Large sums of money are spent in educational and experimental work. Engaged on experimental and demonstration farms, and in the agricultural colleges, are men of the highest technical knowledge and practical experience, some being professors of international reputation. The results of experiments and tests are free and available to all. Educational opportunities for farmers are the concern of the government and appreciation is shown by the number of farmers who attend the free courses.

Agriculture in Canada has reached a high standard, notwithstanding which lands are low in price.

Thus upon the United States and Canada for many years will rest the great burden of feeding the world. With free interchange of travel, difficulties of crossing and recrossing removed, Canada may look for a speedy resumption of the large influx of settlers from the United States which prevailed previous to the war. During the war period there was a dread of something, no one seemed to know what. If the American went to Canada he might be conscripted, put in prison, or in his attempt to cross the border he would meet with innumerable difficulties, most of which, of course, was untrue. These untruths were circulated for a purpose by an element, which, it was discovered, had an interest in fomenting and creating trouble and distrust between two peoples whose language and aims in life should be anything but of an unfriendly character. The draft law of the United States, adopted for the carrying out of the high purposes had in view by the United States, kept many from going to Canada during the period of the war. The citizen army of the United States was quickly mobilized, and contained a large percentage of the young men from the farms. In this way many were prevented from going to Canada.

That is all over now. There are no real or imaginary restrictions; there is no draft law to interfere. On the contrary, there is an unfathomable depth of good feeling, and the long-existing friendship is stronger than ever. This has been brought about by the knowledge of what has been done in the recent great struggle, each vying with the other in giving credit for what was accomplished. In thought and feeling, in language, in aims in life, in work, in desire to build up a new world, there has been bred a kinship which is as indissoluble as time itself.—Advertisement.

SAFE, GENTLE REMEDY CLEANSES YOUR KIDNEYS

For centuries GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been a standard household remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and stomach trouble, and all diseases connected with the urinary organs. The kidneys and bladder are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers of your blood. If the poisons which enter your system through the blood and stomach are not entirely thrown out by the kidneys and bladder, you are doomed.

Weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, headache, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, difficulty when urinating, cloudy and bloody urine, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago, all warn you to look after your kidneys and bladder. All these indicate some weakness of the kidneys or other organs or that the enemy microbes which are always present in your system have attacked your weak spots. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are what you need.

They are not a "patent medicine," nor a "new discovery." For 200 years they have been a standard household remedy. They are the pure, original imported Haarlem Oil your great-grandmother used, and are perfectly harmless. The healing, soothing oil soaks into the cells and lining of the kidneys and through the bladder, driving out the poisonous germs. New life, fresh strength and health will come as you continue the treatment. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day; they will keep you in condition and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not delay a minute. Delays are especially dangerous in kidney and bladder trouble. All druggists sell GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They will refund the money if not as represented. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They are prepared in correct quantity and convenient form, are easy to take and are positively guaranteed to give prompt relief. In three sizes, sealed packages. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL. Accept no substitutes.—Adv.

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. CRUMLING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. ELISE HEIM, R. No. 6, Box 83, Lowell, Mich.

BIT OF HOME WITHIN THE CAMP

A long, low building of frame construction, attractively planned, with wide verandas and a homelike aspect. Outside are hanging the flags—the Stars and Stripes, which must soon be taken in as it is nearly sunset, and another flag bearing a little triangle of blue and the letters Y. W. C. A. It is a fall afternoon and the air is a bit sharp. Through the front windows of the house the woman approaching up the walk can see the cheerful glow of an open fireplace. There is the sound of a piano and some one is singing.

The woman, who is slight and young and tired-looking, puts her heavy suitcase down on the walk and shifts the baby she is carrying to the other arm. She listens a minute, then picks up the luggage and walks bravely up to the front door. Some one has heard her coming and is there to meet her. Some one always is in places like this. The door is thrown open and a kind woman's voice says: "Oh, do come in and rest. Let me take the baby." The baby is passed over and the stranger, worn from a long journey, tired and sad, is given the welcome which only the Y. W. C. A. hostesses know how to give.

She explains that she has come to see John before he leaves for the front. She has been saving her money for traveling expenses, and has come to surprise him. John has never seen the baby, and now maybe he never will, for she has discovered that John has just left on a two days' furlough to surprise her. Before she could get a train back to her home John's furlough will have expired and he will be on his way back to camp. The little mother does not know how to meet the situation and tears of fatigue and disappointment begin to flow.

"Well, that's too bad," says the sympathetic Y. W. C. A. worker. "But cheer up. You can just stay here for a couple of days. We'll send a wire to John at the first place his train stops and tell him to take the next train back. He can enjoy his furlough here."

This is done and the little family has a glorious day of it.

The Young Women's Christian association has established 92 hostess houses of this character for American soldiers and sailors and their families. In this brief bulletin of news lies one of the most potent factors in the winning of this war. Our boys are fighting for their homes. The Y. W. C. A. with its hostess work in this country and in France is helping to keep the ideal of American home life constantly before the men who are protecting it. These men had to go away from their individual homes, but there is a home which follows them—a place where they can go when they are off duty and meet their families and rest. There is a room in every Y. W. C. A. hostess house with a real fireplace in it and a domestic hearth. There are chairs with cushions on them; the china is not of the iron-bound bucket variety necessary in camps; and best of all, the boys say, there are nice women to talk to. No boy in camp would hesitate to ask his mother or sister or the girl he thinks most of to meet him at a Y. W. C. A. house, for he knows that the women she will see there are of the right kind. The very fact that it is known that there is a real, homey place near each camp authorized by the war department and presided over by dignified and refined women, has served very largely to discourage the other type of woman and keep her away from the men she formerly preyed upon.

The Y. W. C. A. houses are not established with any view to marking class lines, however, although many of the hostesses who assist led lives of greatest ease and luxury before the war. Democracy rules at the sign of the little Blue Triangle.

A story is told of a great merchant's wife whose individual fortune mounts to the million mark. This lady is a member of one of the Y. W. C. A. committees, and on one occasion she was helping in the cafeteria of a hostess house at the Great Lakes naval training station. A little shopgirl who had a "day off" from her work in the basement of the great store owned by the Y. W. C. A. worker's husband, and who had come to see her sailor brother, was in a State street hurry for service. She sharply ordered the merchant's wife to "look alive with these forks, girlie."

The lady addressed as "girlie" quite humbly saw to it that the pile of forks was replenished. Then she went over and talked to the girl, helped her to locate her brother and sent her away happy. The shopgirl never knew that she had been talking to her employer's wife.

There are two hostess houses at the Great Lakes station, and it is a wonderful sight to see the crowds of women relatives and friends of the sailors who throng to them on the Wednesday drill afternoons. From 1,000 to 3,000 persons a day are cared for in the cafeterias, and the nurseries are full of sailor babies, whose mothers can leave them there safely while they are on the grounds.

In addition to the hostess house work in this country the Y. W. C. A. has established the famous Hotel Petrograd in Paris as a center for transient women war workers overseas. There are also many foyers or recreation centers in France where girl munitions workers, signal corps girls and others are refreshed and brightened by association with the play leaders of the Y. W. C. A. who have introduced American gymnasium classes into French life.

Huseth and Olia Sovde came down from Greenbush Monday and before returning home the next day, Mr. Sovde had traded 40 acres of land, just outside the incorporation of Greenbush, and other valuable consideration to Mr. Huseth for his confectionery building on main street, which is at preent occupied by Jacob Nelson, who will move out at once. Mr. Sovde expects to arrive in Holt to-morrow and will immediately make arrangements for starting a restaurant, lunch counter and confectionery. He comes well recommended and is experienced in the line which he will soon open up, having been engaged in the same business at Greenbush and sold out to join the army, from which he has but very recently been discharged, and is naturally anxious to get back into business again.

We understand Mr. Sovde has a widowed sister who will assist him in the business and we join with the good people of Holt in extending them a hearty welcome and in wishing them success.

(Too late for last week)

Ye correspondent wishes all the readers of this paper a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Christmas was spent in a very quiet way owing to a number of cases of the "flu."

Among those who have been sick with the influenza the past two weeks are the families of Jacob Klungness, Ole Johnson, C. Gutterud, S. Moe, Mike Johnson, L. Williams, W. Wendt and A. Molstad. Reports are to the effect that they are nicely improving.

Mrs. G. Nustvold and family were Sunday visitors at the Albert Klungness home.

Miss Clara Larson who teaches at Golden Valley spent her holiday vacation at her home.

A fire started in the G. A. Soiney home on Saturday, which proved quite an excitement to the neighborhood, but was luckily put out before much damage was done.

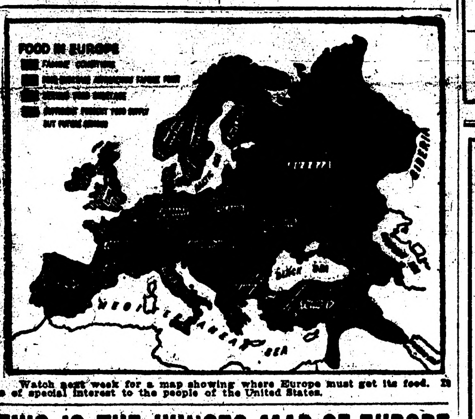
In winter, prepare for summer.



Watch next week for a map showing where Europe must get its food. It is of special interest to the people of the United States.

THIS IS THE HUNGER MAP OF EUROPE

LOOK AT IT WELL—OBSERVE ITS MARKINGS AND WHAT EACH MARKING MEANS AND THEN ASK YOURSELF IF YOU WILL SAVE.

Here is the hunger map of Europe. Study it well and then determine for yourselves whether there is need for food saving in America this coming year.

Just before Herbert Hoover, United States Food Administrator, sailed for Europe on Saturday, Nov. 16, he made this statement:

"The food problem in Europe today is one of extreme complexity. Out of 420,000,000, practically but three areas—those of South Russia, Hungary, and Denmark, which comprise some 40,000,000—have sufficient food supplies to last until next harvest without imports. Some of these must have immediate relief. We can acquire a surplus of some 18,000,000 to 20,000,000 tons of food in the United States if we are economical. The food situation abroad can be handled if this and the other small surpluses in the world can be transported.

"Arrangements have been made long since whereby the big Allies—France, England and Italy—will be provisioned. This covers 125,000,000 people. Our first and deepest concern NOW must be for the little Allies—Belgians, Serbians, Roumanians, Greeks, Zecks, Jugo-Slavs and others. They represent another 75,000,000 people, and must be helped at once.

"Our next concern must be to relax blockade measures as far as possible that the neutral states in Europe, all of whom now are on short rations, may be able to care for their people and so prevent the growth of anarchy. This takes another group of 40,000,000.

"Still another concern, which confronts the countries where food is plentiful, is to be found in North Russia, where there are 50,000,000 people, many, many millions of whom face starvation this winter because, through anarchy and the breaking down of transportation, they may not be reached.

"Finally, there is a great problem in the situation of the enemy people—some 90,000,000. This problem is not one of going to their relief but of relaxing the water-tight blockade (which continues through the armistice) to such an extent that they may secure for themselves the bare necessities that will give stable government. Famine is the mother of anarchy. Justice requires that a government be established which is able to make amends for wrongs done and it cannot be accomplished through the spread of anarchy. I would certainly approach this problem with mixed feelings, having long been a witness to the robbery of food from women and children and the destruction of millions of tons of food at sea and to the misery suffered under the German yoke. Unless anarchy can be put down and stability of government can be obtained in these enemy states, there will be nobody with whom to make peace and nobody to pay the bill to France and Belgium for the fearful destruction that has been done."

Something over 200,000,000 people now are in social disorder. LIBERTY IS NOT SAFE as long as social disorder exists. The best boys of the world have FOUGHT—and DIED—for LIBERTY. Will you continue to SAVE for it?

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhœa, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

In 1848 Sir Arthur Garrod proved that in gout (also true in rheumatism) there is deficient elimination on the part of the kidneys and the poisons within are not thrown off.

Prof. H. Strauss attributes a gouty attack to the heaping up of poisons where there is an abundance of uric acid which is precipitated in the joints and sheaths, setting up inflammation. Before the attack of gout or rheumatism there is sometimes headache, or what is thought to be neuralgia, or rheumatic conditions, such as lumbago, pain in the back of the neck, or sciatica. As Prof. Strauss says, "The excretion of uric acid we are able to effect by exciting diuresis." Drink copiously of water, six or eight glasses per day, hot water before meals, and obtain Anuric tablets, double strength, for 60 cts., at the nearest drug store and take them three times a day. If you want a trial package send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Anuric" (anti-uric) is a recent discovery of Dr. Pierce and much more potent than lithia, for it will dissolve uric acid as hot tea dissolves sugar.

EX-PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DIED SUNDAY NIGHT

Fact of His Death Discovered by Mrs. Roosevelt About 4 O'Clock Monday A. M.

END WAS UNEXPECTED

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died in his sleep early today at his home on Sagamore Hill.

The colonel suffered a severe attack of rheumatism and sciatica on New Year's day, but none believed his illness would likely prove fatal. The former president sat up most of Sunday and retired at 11 o'clock last night. About 4 a. m. Mrs. Roosevelt, who was the only other member of the family at Oyster Bay, went to her husband's room and found that he had died during the night.

New York, Jan. 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died at his home in Oyster Bay early today. News of the death of the former president was received here by Miss Josephine Striker, the colonel's secretary, in a telephone message from Mrs. Roosevelt.

Miss Striker said that the colonel had suffered an attack of inflammatory rheumatism on New Year's day and had since been more or less confined to his room.

The attack of rheumatism settled mainly in Colonel Roosevelt's right hand and Mrs. Roosevelt sent at once for a nurse in the village of Oyster Bay. His condition did not at first seem to be alarming and the turn for the worse is believed not to have come until last night.

In announcing Colonel Roosevelt's death Miss Striker said:

"Mrs. Roosevelt called me on the telephone shortly before 7 o'clock, saying that the colonel had died early today. She did not give me any particulars and I am leaving at once for Oyster Bay.

"The attack must have been very sudden. On New Year's day inflammatory rheumatism developed in Colonel Roosevelt's right hand, which became much swollen. Mrs. Roosevelt sent for a nurse in the village and the colonel was made as comfortable as possible. It did not occur to me at that time that he was seriously ill."

Was Unexpected.

Miss Striker went to Oyster Bay last Saturday to pay the colonel a visit. She said:

"At that time the colonel was sleeping in his room and I did not see him, and there was nothing in the circumstances of his illness at that time to indicate to me that death was near. When Mrs. Roosevelt called me this morning and told me of the colonel's death, I could hardly believe it.

It is understood that only Mrs. Roosevelt and the nurse were with him at the time of his death. The other members of the family are in other parts of the country or abroad.

Colonel Roosevelt's last illness may be said to date from last February. On February 5 it was announced that he had been removed from his home in Oyster Bay to the Roosevelt hospital in this city, following an operation on one of his ears. Soon after his arrival at the hospital he underwent two more operations for the removal of the diseased tissue in his infected ear, and it was admitted at the time that he was seriously ill. He remained at the hospital until March 3.

During May and June the colonel made a number of addresses, speaking at Springfield, Mass., and in New York. In June he made a tour of the west during which he suffered a slight attack of erysipelas in one of his legs, but refused to give up his engagements. Early in November the colonel was taken to Roosevelt hospital in this city for treatment of rheumatism and sciatica. While in the hospital reports became current that the colonel was more seriously ill than his physicians would admit. Colonel Roosevelt returned to his home at Oyster Bay on Christmas day, remarking as he stepped to the porch that he was "feeling bully."

President Receives Rare Gift.

Rome, Jan. 6.—Pope Benedict Saturday presented to President Wilson a handsome mosaic, reproducing Guido Reni's famous picture of St. Peter. The mosaic was made in the Vatican grounds by the ancient mosaic factory of the Vatican and is a yard square.

This mosaic has been valued at $40,000. Cardinal Gasparri, the papal secretary of state, presented President Wilson with two copies of the modification of the canon law compiled by Cardinal Gasparri. One copy is bound in white parchment and contains an autographed dedication to President Wilson. The other is in red leather and bears the following autograph: "Homage to Princeton University from Pietro Cardinal Gasparri, Vatican, Rome." President Wilson thanked the pope and Cardinal Gasparri heartily for their gifts.

DEPUTIES HEAR WILSON SPEAK

President Delivers an Address to Italian Lawmakers in Parliament House.

REMARKS ARE CHEERED

American Executive's Statement That The Balance of Power Has Been Found Wanting Results in Great Ovation.

Rome, Jan. 6.—President Wilson has been made a citizen of Rome. The ceremony took place in the historic capitol, designed by Michael Angelo and redolent with suggestions of ancient and mediaeval Rome. Assisting in the services were King Victor Emanuel and Queen Helena, members of the Italian cabinet, members of the diplomatic corps, including Ambassador and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page and municipal and military authorities.

Rome, Jan. 6.—President Wilson, in his speech before the Italian chamber of deputies, declared the balance of power has been found wanting because it won't stay balanced, and the ovation which broke forth in the historic gallery at the end of the statement lasted until he had passed out of the building.

Outside the throngs in the street took up the demonstration which followed the American executive all the way until the doors of the quirinal closed behind him.

From early morning there was lively animation throughout the city. There was a parade of troops returning from the front, which brought forth warm demonstrations. Particularly enthusiastic was the greeting given the troops from the Piave front.

The weather was warmer and more balmy than the Presidential party had experienced in France and England and there was a feeling of relief in the party. The President met with really the first touch of sustained sunshine he had seen since coming to Europe, and he made the remark during the day that the weather reminded him of that at home.

Can't Visit Battle Field.

The President expressed regret that he would be unable to visit the Italian battle front owing to lack of time and the necessity of returning to Paris as soon as possible for the work of the peace conference.

Among those who welcomed the presidential party at the railway station was the duchess of Aosta. Both the duchess and Queen Helena greeted Mrs. Wilson and Miss Margaret Wilson with extreme cordiality.

In the parliament house a joint reception was given President Wilson by the members of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies. The function was an impressive one. The large and distinguished gathering listened with interest as the President spoke.

The visit of President Wilson to Pope Benedict at the Vatican was regarded as one of the most important events of the president's Italian visit. It was believed that a clear understanding would be reached regarding the church's attitude toward vital principles of the peace settlement.

Previous to his audience with the pope, the president conferred with Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, on certain angles of political subjects that were later taken up with the pope.

Senator Sherman Says Cables Are Used for Other News.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Senator Sherman of Illinois, Republican, critized in an address what he described as the use of trans-Atlantic cables for the transmission of detailed reports of President Wilson's visit abroad, while parents were anxiously endeavoring, with little success, to obtain information relative to the welfare of their sons now in the American army overseas.

GERMANS ARE OUTNUMBERED

Three Battalions Oppose That Many Bolshevik Divisions.

Terms "Sea Freedom" Vague.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Senator Charles S. Thomas of Colorado, Democratic member of the foreign relations committee, said in the Senate that "freedom of the seas is a vague and indefinable term." He said the President declares for absolute freedom of navigation upon the seas outside of territorial waters, alike in peace and war. The speaker said that since the submarine has "come to stay international regulation for its use is imperative"

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

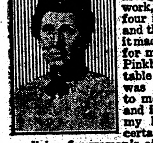
What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.



Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Moorhead.—Moorhead may be without a charter commission, it developed at a meeting of the commission, when the proposed construction of a city hall and a school building was considered. To construct the city hall will require an amendment to the city charter to permit increased bonding. Hibbing.—According to Indian Agent Ellis, who conducted a raid in Alice, 1,032 bottles of Jamaica ginger and a lot of Hoffman drops were confiscated to be held pending a reply from the department of justice, as to what disposition to be made of the stuff. The Home Guard should be continued, General Rhinow said, under the command of a brigadier-general and divided into regiments.

AMERICANS WIN ANOTHER BATTLE

FIGHT IN DEEP SNOW

Shells Falling On Frozen Ground Spread Their Zones of Destruction Twice as Far as Under Normal Conditions.

With Allied Army of the Dvina, Jan. 7.—Bolshevik troops, which made an advance near Kadish village, have been driven back by American forces after desperate fighting.

The Bolshevists also launched attacks on the Onega sector and bombarded the Allied front. The Americans came into battle along the Petrograd road and in the frozen swamps that border it. The battle was fought in snow from two to four feet in depth.

Wounded Given Special Care.

Special care has been taken of the American wounded and the body of an American officer was taken back 100 miles by sledge and then sent to Archangel for burial. There were some casualties on Monday, but they were small in comparison to those inflicted upon the enemy.

On Tuesday, the Bolshevists opened a terrific fire from three and six-inch guns and launched a counter attack against the buildings held by Americans in Kadish. So hot was the artillery fire that the Americans withdrew temporarily from the village. The line, however, was not moved very far and the new positions were firmly held.

Shells Doubly Destructive.

The enemy did not occupy Kadish because the barrage fire from the American guns made the place untenable. Shells falling on the frozen ground spread their zones of destruction twice as far as they would under normal conditions.

Later, under the protection of artillery fire, American detachments again swept forward and reoccupied the town. The men engaged in the advance were from infantry and trench mortar units.

Saturday morning word came from headquarters that the American positions are now about 450 yards south of the village, which is the line marking the furthest advance made by the Americans late in October before they retired to the north of Kadish.

Bolshevists Fight Savagely.

Here and there are graves where are buried Americans who fell in the struggle that went on during the first advance. They are not many in number, but, for the troops involved, they gave evidence that the Americans have been in the hardest fighting that has been going on here. The Bolshevists are fighting more savagely here than elsewhere to hold their positions.

POLISH LEADERS DISAGREE

Paderewski and Pilsudski Cannot Come to Terms.

Warsaw, Jan. 7.—Ignace Jan Paderewski has found General Joseph Pilsudski, the Polish military dictator, will not give up his authority in Poland at the present time. The two Polish leaders have had an interview which, it is indicated, was unsatisfactory. Paderewski came to Poland as the representative of 4,000,000 Poles from whom he has received plenary powers, he says. He claims to have power to make loans to the Polish government and also to be the representative at Paris of the Polish committee.

FLAGS PUT AT HALF MAST

Lowered On All Buildings, Ships and Camps for Roosevelt.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Flags were halfmasted at the White House, the capitol and all public buildings upon the announcement of the death of Colonel Roosevelt and in respect to the memory of the former president and commander-in-chief. Secretary Josephus Daniels and General P. C. March ordered flags at halfmast on every ship and shore station of the navy and at every army post and camp at home and abroad. The announcement of the colonel's death has been cabled to President Wilson.

Norway Lost 829 Ships.

Christiania, Jan. 7.—Naval statistics show the losses to Norway's commercial shipping through the war were 829 ships of a total gross tonnage of 1,240,000. The number of sailors who lost their lives was 1,155.

To Rehabilitate the Blind.

New York, Jan. 7.—Practically every soldier who has lost his sight because of the war may be rehabilitated and become an asset rather than a drag upon the world that he has helped to save, said Sir Arthur Pearson, noted philanthropist, who, blind himself, is chairman of the Blinded Soldiers' Care committee of England, in telling of the purpose of his visit to this country. Sir Arthur will act in an advisory capacity for the Red Cross in the care of American blinded soldiers

After the "Flu"—Fever or Cold

Clean the Acidity and Toxic Poisons Out of the Digestive Tract

Millions are now suffering from the after effects of the deadly "flu," a fever or a cold. Their appetites are poor; they are weak, and they are waiting for their strength to come back.

If these people could only realize that the return to health and strength would be greatly helped by giving attention to the stomach—that is, removing the acidity and toxic poisons from the entire digestive tract, making it act naturally, so that the body will receive the full strength of the food eaten—a great deal of suffering would be saved to humanity.

Everyone knows that the disease itself, and the strong medicines that have been taken, upset the stomach, leave it hot and feverish, the mouth dry, the tongue coated, a nasty taste, and no desire to eat. This is a poor foundation to build new strength on.

Now, tens of thousands of people all over this country are using EATONIC for the purpose of cleaning these poisonous after-effects right out of the system and they are obtaining wonderful results—so wonderful that the amazingly quick benefits are hardly believable, just as shown in the remarkable letter which is published upon the request of this sturdy old Civil War veteran. He is 77 years old. Read what he says EATONIC did for him:

"I am an old soldier, past seventy-seven years. I had the Spanish Influenza and it left my stomach in an awful shape. I tried three different doctors but got no relief. As a last resort I sent and got a box of EATONIC and to my greatest surprise the very first tablet I took helped me. I can now eat anything I want, and feel fine."
Yours thankfully,
Fowler, Indiana
Dec. 4, 1918 O. S. Martin

P. S.: If you can make any use of this letter for suffering humanity, you are at liberty to do so.
O. S. M.

This is only one case out of thousands. You should make the EATONIC test in your own case at once. You have everything to gain—not a penny can you lose, for we take all the risk. Your own common sense, your own feelings, tell you that a good appetite, good digestion, a good stomach, with the fever poisons and effects of strong medicines out of your system, will put you on the road to strong, robust health again.

You want to enjoy life again after you have battled with the "flu," fever or colds, or any other illness that has taken your strength. You want to get back your old-time vigor, be full of pep and enthusiasm—be able to work with ease, instead of listlessly, half-heartedly dragging out a mere existence.

So be sure to take a box of EATONIC home with you today. We cannot urge this too strongly. If EATONIC fails to give you positive beneficial results, it will not cost you a penny. There is no risk—the benefit is surely all for you.

TAKE EATONIC TODAY FOR YOUR ACID-STOMACH

NOTE—Over 20,000 drug stores throughout the United States sell and guarantee EATONIC. If you cannot obtain EATONIC quickly at your drug store, do not be without it. Italy's Efforts in the World War

HOISTING HEAVY ARTILLERY UP THE FACE OF A MOUNTAIN

BARRACKS ON THE FACE OF A PRECIPICE

A TRENCH DIGGING AFTER A MOUNTAIN SNOW STORM

By DR. FELICE FERRERO,
Director Italian Bureau of Public Information.

The blood and treasure of Italy were freely spent in the successful effort to put Austria-Hungary out of the war. While Italy's efforts were not confined to the Austrian front, her contribution to allied success was greater here than in the other places where her troops fought the battle for civilization. Her financial and industrial efforts have been equal to her military effort, and in all these directions Italy has not lagged behind her allies. That the nature and extent of these efforts may be better understood by the American public, I wish to review them briefly.

In considering Italy's military contributions, let me emphasize the fact that her soldiers have not confined their fighting to their own soil. Like those of her allies, they have gone far afield. They contributed largely to the glorious victory on the Balkan front. A large contingent in France first gave powerful aid in the defense of Rheims, then took part in the advance of the allied forces.

Italy Had 5,500,000 Under Arms.

Since the beginning of the war Italy has called to the colors little less than 5,500,000 men and has suffered a loss of almost 1,500,000 of them. Of that loss nearly 350,000 died in battle, and 100,000 from disease. Over 550,000 are totally incapacitated, either by blindness, loss of limb or tuberculosis. At the present moment the strength of the Italian army is 4,025,000, including the class of men born in 1900, who have been called to the colors recently. It may be said, then, that the nation's man-power has suffered a permanent loss of nearly a million.

But, serious as is this loss, Italy has inflicted an even greater punishment upon the foe. In Austrian prisoners alone she has taken approximately a million. The Austrian loss in killed and wounded is, of course, unknown to us, but even the most conservative estimates make it far greater than ours. In the June offensive on the Piave alone over 200,000 Austrian dead were left on the field.

Fighting Under Extreme Difficulties.

Aside from their achievements in other theatres of the war, Italy's soldiers have fought through fifteen furious offensives on the Isonzo and the Piave, inflicting terrible losses on the foe in each. These campaigns were carried on in mountainous regions and under rigorous weather conditions that taxed to the utmost the genius of the military engineers and the endurance of the troops. The foe, when hostilities opened, were entrenched in carefully prepared and seemingly impregnable positions, backed by a network of military roads and railroads. On the Italian side were deep gorges, unscalable cliffs, almost impassable glaciers, passes filled with snow and commanded by Austrian guns. There were no suitable roads or bridges. The surmounting of these difficulties has challenged the admiration of the engineering world.

Over 2,500 miles of roads have been constructed on the mountains of Italy and of Albania, and 1,000 miles of aerial cable railroads (Teleferiche) have been built to carry food, ammunition and guns over deep ravines.

Economic Difficulties.

The magnitude of this military effort can be fully appreciated only when one takes into consideration the economic structure of the nation and the nature and number of its population. One must remember that out of 36,000,000 inhabitants in Italy at the beginning of the war only 17,000,000 were male. This seeming disproportion is caused by emigration, which was largely composed of male adults. Out of those 17,000,000 only 9,000,000 were adults economically productive. Consequently the subtraction of the mobilized forces has had an acute reaction on the economic life of the nation. It is estimated that on an average only 100 adults remained in each town or village to provide in each case for some 320 children below the age of fifteen.

Furthermore, the traditions of Italian family life render the work of their women an economic factor of less importance than in some other countries, though it has been utilized to the utmost and is becoming more available as old traditions give way to war's necessity.

No Troops From Colonies.

Italy got no help from colonial contingents. On the contrary, the scarcity of native troops in Italy's colonies compelled the government to reinforce them with troops from the mother country. Nor has help come to Italy through the co-operation of workmen of neutral or allied countries. Italy, on the other hand, sent a large contingent of skilled workmen to France, thus allowing her to release valued elements for war. Furthermore, nearly 500,000 of our male adults residing in America gave to this great nation direct contribution to her economic and military efforts.

To meet their military obligations, therefore, the Italian people have been compelled to cut into the most urgent needs of agriculture and industry. Her continuous lack of labor has made the task of feeding the army and providing it with munitions a most difficult one.

And yet Italy, lacking labor and industrial development, lacking almost entirely coal and raw materials, has by a miracle of energy been able to create almost from nothing a powerful organization of war industries.

Difficult to Obtain Goods.

The very act of entering the war cut off Italy from one of the sources of supply of manufactured products. It is not necessary here to enlarge upon the well known fact that Italian markets were largely under the domination of Germany and Austria. That is a situation that is as well known to Americans as it is and was distasteful to Italians. And it might be said in passing that it is a situation that must be guarded against by allied co-operation and sympathetic economic relationship when peace comes.

Mr. Francis H. Sisson, vice president of the Guaranty Trust Company, in a recent article on the economic situation of Italy points out that while Germany before the war dominated the foreign trade of Italy so far as manufactures were concerned, that country was one of the best customers of the United States in raw materials and foodstuffs. That writer also points out that it was the adjustment of her industrial and commercial life to the burdensome new conditions that has created an entirely new economic fabric in Italy.

"Italy's devotion of her resources to war purposes has been complete," says Mr. Sisson. "Her pre-eminence in the production of certain articles of commerce marked her as the chief source of supply for similar products of a warlike nature. Her ordinary production of automobiles, aeroplanes, turbines and heavy oil engines has merely been intensified and modified in the direction of such a standardization as would permit quantity production."

Financially Italy Responded Well.

Financially Italy also has responded to the demands of war with an openhandedness that has surprised even herself. From the first of August, 1914, to the end of 1917 the total expenditures of the state were $8,895,000,000. Calculating on the basis of a monthly average expenditure for the war of $240,000,000, the total cost of the war to Italy would be more than $12,000,000,000.

A further proof of the financial effort Italy made for the war, notwithstanding her small means, are the five national loans. The first one yielded about $200,000,000, and it seemed a great struggle, yet still others were launched, all giving greater returns, and the last one, after the disaster of October, 1917, yielded about $1,300,000,000.

It must be remembered, too, that labor shortage has meant a food shortage. It has established a vicious circle. Our fighters and industrial workers have accomplished their work while forced to endure a regime of restricted diet that has meant real and continuous suffering such as p is not to be found anywh the other belligerent peo

Dear Father:

All the subchasers left here quite a while ago, twelve destroyers left here recently for the states and more are leaving soon, also the Dixie a big ship similar to ours, has left the station here. It is uncertain as to the date we leave but it will be several weeks yet.

All together there were about 1000 sailors here at different stations. Also there was a large station here for the sea planes. Our hospital is quite large and does excellent work and everybody who goes there says its like home. They have American nurses and the best of food and Red Cross articles are given to any of the sick members.

Our club is about the best on this side of the water. We have everything that goes with it, reading room restaurant, gymnasium, etc. and movie shows every night. But they are to leave soon as they are for Allied forces. There are two other Y. M. C. A.s here, English and American, so we are not out of them altogether.

Your loving son
Willie.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. THE UNITED STATES THE WORLD'S PANTRY

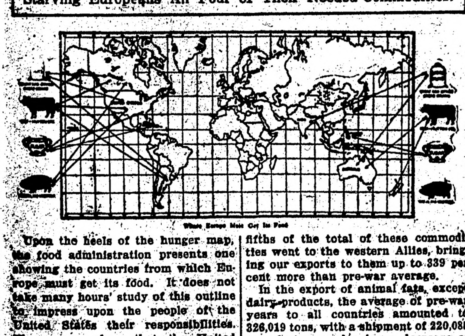
Map of the World's Food Shows the U. S. Alone Is Able to Send Starving Europeans All Four of Their Needed Commodities.



Where Europe Must Get Its Food

Upon the heels of the hunger map, the food administration presents one showing the countries from which Europe must get its food. It does not take many hours' study of this outline to impress upon the people of the United States their responsibilities. The arrows show that the United States alone can furnish a part of each commodity needed. Canada will send bread stuffs, meat, and animal and vegetable fat, the United States can send bread stuffs, meat, sugar—not only from its own immediate territory but from Cuba, Hawaiian Islands, and the Philippines—and both animal and vegetable fats; the Argentine will contribute bread stuffs and meat; India will send bread stuffs; Australia will send meat and bread stuffs; and New Zealand will contribute its share of meat.

Coincident with the sending of this map the food administration is publishing a summary showing the increasing extent to which farmers of the United States today are supplying foreign markets with food. The farmer who makes a study of these figures will understand more fully the need of the producer for keeping well-informed on food conditions abroad if sufficient of the commodities, greatest in demand, are to be produced.

The average export of cereals to all countries for the three years preceding the war amounted to 4,694,406 tons. For the last fiscal year ending July, 1918, our producers shipped to all countries 7,541,006 tons of cereals representing an increase of 60.6 per cent. During this time the cereal exports to the three great western Allies, the United Kingdom, France, and Italy, increased more than 260 per cent and were about 30 per cent larger than our total average of pre-war exports to all countries.

The average three pre-war years showed a shipment of meat and fish to countries amounting to 277,874. The last fiscal year showed a shipment of 986,508 tons—an increase per cent. More than four-fifths of the total of these commodities went to the western Allies, bringing our exports to them up to 339 per cent more than pre-war average.

In the export of animal fats, except dairy products, the average of pre-war years to all countries amounted to 326,019 tons, with a shipment of 220,085 tons last year showing a decrease of 32.5 per cent. In the pre-war years a little less than one-third of our total in these exports went to the United Kingdom, France, and Italy. Last year these countries received nearly one-half of our available surplus of this commodity.

In the exports of vegetable oils, oil cake, and meal, 1,088,611 tons represented our average pre-war shipment. The last fiscal year shows we shipped 151,620 tons, representing a decrease of 86 per cent, the exports to the Allies showing a decrease of 62 per cent.

The average of three pre-war years' exports of dairy products to all countries totals 13,019 tons. Last year's exports were 295,908 tons, or an increase of 2,173 per cent. The increase of dairy products to the Allies was more than 13,000 per cent, making our total to them nearly 15 times as great as the pre-war average of the exports to all countries.

In addition to these exports the war has developed some of its own. Sugar, molasses, and sirup, during the pre-war years, were sent on an average of 230,092 tons. Last year our shipments were increased 74 per cent in these commodities or 400,395 tons. The exporting of dried fruits and vegetables which had amounted to 152,118 tons before the war, was increased to 195,369 tons or a 28.4 per cent increase.

The climax of statistics being in the grand total, the producers will be interested in knowing that the average three pre-war years' shipments in these various groups represented 6,782,139 tons. During the last year the American producers have sent instead 9,790,891 tons and this year's pledge, made before millions of additional sufferers were liberated, represents a shipment of 20,000,000 tons.

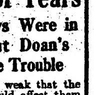
Back and Kidneys Were in Bad Shape, But Doan's Removed all the Trouble

"My kidneys were so weak that the least cold I caught would affect them and start my back aching until I could hardly endure the misery," says Mrs. D. C. Ross, 973 Fulton St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "In the morning when I first got up, my back was so lame, I could hardly bend over and any move sent darts of pain through my kidneys. It was hard for me to walk up stairs or stoop, and to move while lying down sent darts of pain through me.



MRS. ROSS

"The kidney secretions were scanty and distressing and the water remained in my system, making my feet and hands swell. There were dark circles under my eyes and I became so dizzy I could hardly see. I had rheumatic pains in my knees and it was all I could do to get around. For years I was in that shape and I wore plasters and used all kinds of medicine to no avail until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. They rid me of the trouble and strengthened my back and kidneys. When I have taken Doan's since, they have always benefited me."

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. A Coated Tongue? What it Means

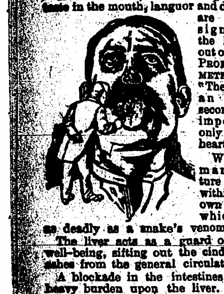
A bad breath, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, languor and debility, are usually signs that the liver is out of order. PROF. HEMMETER says: "The liver is an organ secondary in importance only to the heart."



We can manufacture poisons within our own bodies which are as deadly as a snake's venom.

The liver acts as a guard over our well-being, sifting out the cinders and ashes from the general circulation.

A blockade in the intestines piles a heavy burden upon the liver. If the intestines are choked or clogged up, the circulation of the blood becomes poisoned and the system becomes loaded with toxic waste, and we suffer from headache, yellow-coated tongue, bad taste in mouth, nausea, or gas, acid dyspepsia, languor, debility, yellow skin or eyes. At such times one should take a pleasant laxative. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloe, jalap, put into ready-to-use form by Doctor Pierce, nearly fifty years ago, and sold for 25 cents by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

STOCKTON, CALIF.—"For constipation, sick headache, an inactive liver, indigestion and biliousness there is nothing to equal Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I have tried other things but like the 'Pellets' best of any."—MRS. F. CAMPBELL, 229 S. Grant Street.

U. S. TROOPS MAY FIGHT IN POLAND

America Ready to Assist Poles in Defeating Bolsheviki, According to Paris Paper.

OFFERS TWO DIVISIONS

Rebel Leaders Taken in Capture of Spartacan Offices in Berlin—1,500 Spartacans Killed Since Outbreak in Capital Began.

Paris, Jan. 14.—America has informed the Allied governments, according to the Temps, that it is ready to send an American Expeditionary Corps to Poland. This force, the newspaper states, would be able to "at least double the support given by two Polish divisions to be sent from the western front and enable the Poles to victoriously resist the bolshevists."

Berlin, Jan. 14.—Rosa Luxemberg, associated with Dr. Karl Liebknecht in the leadership of the rebellious spartacan forces in Berlin, has been arrested by government soldiers, according to a report in the Taegliche Rundschau.

The arrest is said to have been made when the troops were cleaning out the central office of the spartacans, when Dr. Liebknecht's son also is reported to have been taken.

Police Station Shelled.

The capture of the spartacan office was effected by the free use of hand grenades. The soldiers burned in the street an immense quantity of bolshevik literature found in the headquarters.

Government forces have captured the police headquarters after a short bombardment.

When the fighting began, the troops fired a few shells and then waited to see what effect had been made upon the spartacans.

Fire on White Flag.

When the latter failed to show signs of yielding two men were sent forward with a white flag demanding the surrender of the spartacans. They were fired upon and killd.

Artillery fire then was resumed. The spartacans began to flee. The soldiers thereupon stormed the building and took several hundred prisoners. The bolshevists are believed to have suffered the loss of 50 killed and many wounded.

1,300 Spartacans Killed.

London, Jan. 14.—The armistice between the contending factions at Berlin has been broken and fighting has been resumed, according to Copenhagen advices received here.

Reports from Berlin indicate, it is said, that the spartacan forces have lost 1,300 killed since the outbreak of the revolution and that there are many more wounded.

Insurgent Leaders Disappear.

There is no confirmation of the report that Dr. Liebknecht has been killed. He has, however, faded from sight with Chief of Police Eichhorn.

Spartacan forces outside of Berlin have been to a certain extent able to interfere with the arrival of government reinforcements.

MINNESOTA SENATOR DIES

Carleton L. Wallace Succumbs to Pneumonia After Few Days' Illness.

Minneapolis, Jan. 13.—Senator Carleton L. Wallace is dead at his home in this city. He had been ill for several days with bronchial pneumonia.

Senator Wallace, who represented the Thirty-fourth district, comprising the Eighth ward, in the upper branch of the legislature, has served in many Minnesota legislative sessions. He was a member of the House of Representatives in 1899, 1901, extra session in 1902, 1905 and 1909. He was later elected a state senator and has served in the upper body eight years. He was re-elected last fall.

Senator Wallace is the second member of the state Senate to pass away since the session opened. Senator Harry F. Weis died last week.

REED ACT BARS IMPORTS

Liquor, Even for Personal Use, Banned From Dry Territory.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The supreme court holds that the Reed "bone dry" prohibition amendment prohibits interstate transportation into dry states of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes even when intended for personal use.

Justice McReynolds, in a dissenting opinion, concurred in by Justice Clark, declared the Reed amendment was not an interstate commerce regulatory measure, but a direct intermeddling with a state's affairs and beyond federal power.

As interpreted by the court, the law nullifies state statutes permitting limited amounts of liquor to be brought in for personal use.

Drifted 24 Days in Lifeboat.

Honolulu, Jan. 14.—Eleven survivors of the steamer Dumaru, destroyed by lightning and fire off Guam October 16, have arrived here from the Philippines, where they landed in a life boat. Three others remained in Manila. There were 32 men in the boat when it left the Dumaru. Two of these were drowned, several who became insane jumped into the sea and were said to have been attacked by sharks, and the remainder of the missing died of hunger during the 24 days the lifeboat drifted.

NO ROOM FOR PESSIMISM

Canada as a Nation Builder.

With Canada's great task in the war before the public, the burdens that she so willingly took and so ably carried, and her recent victory in subscribing $175,000,000 to the 5th Victory Bond Loan more than she asked, he would be a skeptic who would associate the word pessimism with her present condition. Canada deplores the heavy human loss which she has suffered, but even those akin to those lost in battle say with cheerfulness that while the sacrifice was great, the cause was wonderful, and accept their sufferings with grace. It may well be said there is no room in Canada today for the pessimist. The agricultural production of the country has doubled in four years. $140,000,000 are the railway earnings today or 8½ times what they were ten years ago, while the bank deposits are now $1,733,000,000 as compared with $183,000,000 thirty years ago.

There is a wonderful promise for the future.

It is with buoyancy that Canada faces an era of peace. She has triumphed over the soul-testing crisis of war. Before the war Canada was a borrower, and expected to continue so for many years. For the past year and a half we have seen her finance herself. She has also been furnishing credits to other nations.

A recent article in the "Boston Transcript" says:

"The people at home have not been lagging behind the boys at the front in courage, resourcefulness and efficiency. The development of Canada's war industry is an industrial romance of front rank. American Government officials can testify to the efficiency of the manufacturing plant Canada has built up in four short years. In Department after Department where they found American industry failed them they were able to turn to Canada. The full story may be revealed some day."

The same paper says:

"It is a new Canada that emerges from the world war in 1918—a nation transformed from that which entered the conflict in 1914.

"The war has taken from Canada a cruel toll. More than 50,000 of her bravest sons lie in soldiers' graves in Europe. Three times that number have been more or less incapacitated by wounds. The cost of the war in money is estimated to be already $1,100,000,000. These are not light losses for a country of 8,000,000 people. Fortunately there is also a credit side. Canada has found herself in this war. She has discovered not merely the gallantry of her soldiers, but the brains and capacity and efficiency of her whole people. In every branch, in arms, in industry, in finance, she has had to measure her wits against the world, and in no case has Canada reason to be other than gratified."—Advertisement.

P. Trickett, manager of the Minneapolis Traffic association, from Director E. A. Prouty of the United States Public Service division.

PROPER CARE OF THE SICK

Nurse's Duties Are Onerous, but They Must Be Recognized as Highly Necessary.

It is important that the mother or nurse attending a child with a contagious disease should take a long walk in the fresh air every day. The best way for her to arrange this is to keep a change of clothing in the room next to the sick room. She should also bathe before leaving the house or in fact before she comes in contact with anyone. If a bathroom has been set aside for quarantine, she should use this; if not, a screen and a basin must answer. She can then slip into the next room and change her clothing.

She should leave the house by the back way, or, at any rate, avoid coming in contact with any of the occupants of the house. Once on the street she should not use the street cars nor enter another house and, if possible, should avoid touching anyone.

The fumigation of a sick room after a contagious illness is done by the board of health upon request of the family physician.—Exchange.

Why Meat Prices Vary in Different Stores

Prime steers	$19.90@20.35
Good to choice steers	17.00@19.85
Common to medium steers	10.75@16.75
Yearlings, fair to fancy	16.00@19.90
Fat cows and heifers	8.35@15.35
Canning cows and heifers	7.25@ 8.25
Bulls, plain to best	6.50@12.50
Poor to fancy calves	6.75@15.75
Western range steers	10.00@18.00

These newspaper quotations represent live cattle prices in Chicago on December 30th, 1918.

The list shows price ranges on nine general classified groups with a spread of $13.85 per cwt.—the lowest at $6.50 and the highest at $20.35.

Why this variation in price?

As a result of these differences in cattle prices, (due to differences in weights and meat qualities), there is a range of 15 cents in Swift & Company's selling prices of beef carcasses.

These facts explain:

1—Why retail prices vary in different stores.
2—Why it would be difficult to regulate prices of cattle or beef.
3—Why it requires experts to judge cattle and to sell meat, so as to yield the profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to affect prices.

GOPHER SOLONS START SESSION

Forty-First Minnesota Legislature Begins What Promises To Be Busy Sitting.

NOLAN MADE SPEAKER

Session Opens with Singing of Patriotic Songs—Caucus Nominees Chosen to Fill Minor Offices in Both Houses.

St. Paul, Jan. 8.—The singing of patriotic songs marked the opening sitting of the 41st Minnesota legislature Tuesday at noon of what promises to be a busy session. Prayers offered by Rev. A. D. Stowe, Minneapolis, in the senate, and Rev. W. J. Brown, Mora, house chaplain, preceded the singing.

The singing of the national anthem was led by Henry E. Brown of the War Camp Community service. Old patriotic airs were followed by hymns and war camp songs. The patriotic service continued for 15 minutes.

Unlike other opening sessions of Minnesota legislatures, there was no fight for the election of a speaker of the house. W. I. Nolan, Minneapolis, was elected over John A. Urness, of Brandon, Douglas county, candidate of the Nonpartisan league members of the house.

Mr. Nolan was nominated by Ludwig O. Solem, and seconding speeches were made by C. H. Warner, R. J. Parker, Theodore Christianson, Oscar Swenson and T. H. Girling.

House Officials Named.

The slates of the house and senate, drawn up at their caucuses, were carried to the man at the elections which followed the swearing in of the legislators.

After the election of Mr. Nolan to the speakership, Secretary of State Julius A. Schmahl, who presided up to that time, gave up his place, and the election of house officers proceeded.

Oscar Arneson, St. Paul, who for a number of years has been chief clerk of the house, was re-elected without contest. A. W. Olson, Walnut Grove, was elected first assistant. Other elections to positions in the house were: M. E. Altman, Duluth, second assistant clerk; Mark W. Wooley, Park Rapids, enrolling clerk; Ralph E. Norgaard, Wheaton, engrossing clerk; Henry Robel, North Mankato, sergeant-at-arms; Samuel Gammel, Spring Valley, assistant sergeant-at-arms; A. R. Kitts, Fergus Falls, postmaster; Rev. Walter R. Finch, South St. Paul, assistant postmaster; Rev. W. J. Brown, Mora, chaplain.

Senate Opens Session.

Lieutenant Governor Thomas Frankson presided when the initial session of the senate opened. Earlier, he announced the personnel of the senate rules committee, one of the most important committees in the legislature, with Carl L. Wallace of Minneapolis as chairman.

Other members of the committee are: Ole O. Sageng, Dalton; F. D. Vibert, Cloquet; John D. Sullivan, St. Cloud; A. J. Rockne, Zumbrota; Frank E. Putnam, Blue Earth; W. A. Nolan, Grand Meadow; J. A. Jackson, St. Paul, and Henry N. Benson, St. Peter.

The membership of the house rules committee was announced soon after the body convened. A. I. Norton, Minneapolis, is chairman, and the other members are: R. J. Parker, Spring Valley; C. H. Warner, Aitkin; R. A. Wilkinson, Lake Elmo; H. A. Putnam, Battle Creek; Elias Nordgren, Sunrise, and Charles T. Murphy, Aurora.

The slate prepared at the senate caucus went through as scheduled after the elections were under way. George W. Peachey, Owatonna, again was chosen secretary.

Other officers chosen were: G. W. Speath of St. Paul, first assistant secretary; J. P. Paulson of Two Harbors, second assistant secretary; Carl V. Cassen of Gibbon, third assistant secretary; P. W. Pitcher of Mankato, fourth assistant secretary; W. J. McGarry of Walker, engrossing clerk; T. H. Walsh of St. Paul, assistant engrossing clerk; Henry Wester of Faribault, enrolling clerk; J. B. Conway of Carver, assistant enrolling clerk; J. H. Stoneberg of Cambridge, sergeant-at-arms; Rev. A. D. Stowe of Minneapolis, chaplain.

Upon completion of the organization of the house and senate, a committee was chosen to inform Governor J. A. A. Burnquist that the legislature was in session and would be ready to hear his message Wednesday.

St. Paul, Jan. 8.—The 41st Minnesota legislature convened at noon Tuesday in the opening sitting of what promises to be one of the businest sessions the state ever has had. STEADIER HOG MARKETS PLANNED

Hog Producers and Packers Confer With Representatives of the Food Administration and Agricultural Department and Adopt New Plan of Regulation.

In accordance with the policy of the Food Administration since its founda- to consult representative men in the agricultural industry on occasions importance to special branches of the industry, on October 24 there was vened in Washington a meeting of the Live Stock Subcommittee of the icultural Advisory Board and the special members representing the swine stry to consider the situation in the hog market.

The conference lasted for three days, and during this time met with the cutive committee of the fifty packing firms participating in foreign orders pork products and with the members of the Food Administration directing ign pork purchases.

The conclusions of the conference were as follows:

he entire marketing situation has changed since the September joint ference as to necessitate an entire ration in the plans of price stabi- tion. The current peace talk has wned the holders of corn, and there been a price decline of from 25 ts to 40 cents per bushel. The fact the accumulations of low priced n in the Argentine and South Afri- would, upon the advent of peace liberated shipping, become avail- e to the European market has cre- d a great deal of apprehension on part of corn holders. This decline spread fear among swine growers a similar reduction in the price hogs would naturally follow. More- the lower range of corn prices ld, if incorporated in a 13-to-1 ra- obviously result in a continuously [illegible] price for live hogs. In view these changed conditions many producers anticipated lower ces and as a result rushed their s to market in large numbers, and overshipment has added to and ravated the decline.

The information of the Department Agriculture indicates that the sup- of hogs has increased about 8 per , while the highest unofficial esti- does not exceed 15 per cent in- ased production over last year. On other hand, the arrival of hogs ing the last three weeks in the [illegible] markets has been 27 per more than last year, during the responding period, demonstrating unusually heavy marketing of the ailable supply. In the face of the cessive receipts some packers have maintained the price agreed last onth. On the other hand, many the packers have paid over the ices offered to them in an endeavor maintain the agreed price. The re- lt in any event has been a failure maintain the October price basis [illegible] upon at the September con- ence and undertaken by the pack- Another factor contributing to break in prices during the month been the influenza epidemic. It [illegible] curtailed consumption of [illegible] products and temporarily de- [illegible] the labor staff of the packers [illegible]

[illegible] of 130,000,000 pounds pork products for October com- [illegible] 52,000,000 pounds October a year ago, and the [illegible] placeable by the Food Administration for November amount 170,000,000 pounds as contrast- with the lesser exports of ,000,000 for November, 1917. The creased demands of the allies are ntinuing, and are in themselves oof of the necessity for the large roduction for which the Food Admin- tration asked. The increase in ex- rt demands appears to be amply cient to take up the increase in production, but unfavorable [illegible] conditions existing in October af- ford no fair index of the aggregate pply and demand.

It must be evident that the [illegible] shortage in fats in the Central [illegible] and neutral countries would immediately upon peace result in [illegible] demands for pork products which on top of the heavy shipments the Allies, would tend materially increase the American exports [illegible] as no considerable reservoir of supplies exists outside of the United States. It seems probable that the present prospective supplies would be inadequate to meet this world demand with the return to peace. So far as it possible to interpret this fact, it ap- pears that there should be even a stronger demand for pork products after the war, and therefore any alarm hog producers as to the effect of peace is unwarranted by the outlook.

In the light of these circumstances is the conclusion of the conference attempts to hold the price of hogs the price of corn may work out to disadvantage of pork producers. is the conclusion that any interpre- tation of the formula should be a [illegible] gauged policy applied over a period. It is the opinion of the conference that in substitution of the [illegible] plans of stabilization, the Stock Subcommittee of the Agri- Advisory Board, together with specially invited swine representa- should accept the invitation of Food Administration to join with Administration and the packers in determining the prices at which con- trolled export orders are to be placed. This will be regularly done. The in- fluence of these orders will be directed the maintenance of the common ob- namely, the stabilization of the live hogs so as to secure as far [illegible] returns to the producer and the insurance of an adequate future supply.

These foreign orders are placed upon the basis of cost of hogs to the packers.

As the result of long negotiations between this body and the Packers' Committee, representing the 45 to 50 packers participating in foreign orders, together with the Allied buyers, all under the Chairmanship of the Food Administration, the following undertaking has been given by the packers:

In view of the undertakings on the part of the Food Administration with regard to the co-ordinated purchases of pork products, covered in the attached, it is agreed that the packers participating in these orders will undertake not to purchase hogs for less than the following agreed minimums for the month of November, that is a daily minimum of $17.50 per hundred pounds on average of packers' droves, excluding throw-outs. "Throw-outs" to be defined as pigs under 130 pounds, stags, boars, thin sows and skips. Further, that no hogs of any kind shall be bought, except throw-outs, at less than $16.50 per hundred pounds. The average of packers' droves to be construed as the average of the total sales in the market of all hogs for a given day. All the above to be based on Chicago.

We agree that a committee shall be appointed by the Food Administration to check the daily operations in the various markets with a view to supervision and demonstration of the carrying out of the above.

The ability of the packers to carry out this arrangement will depend on there being a normal marketing of hogs based upon the proportionate increase over the receipts of last year. The increase in production appears to be a maximum of about 15 per cent, and we can handle such an increase.

If the producers of hogs should, as they have in the past few weeks, prematurely market hogs in such increasing numbers over the above it is entirely beyond the ability of the packers to maintain these minimums, and therefore we must have the co-operation of the producer himself to maintain these results. It is a physical impossibility for the capacity of the packing houses to handle a similar over-flood of hogs and to find a market for the output. The packers are anxious to co-operate with the producers in maintaining a stabilization of price and to see that producers receive a fair price for their products.

(Signed) THOS. E. WILSON,
Chairman Packers' Committee.

The Food Administrator has appointed a committee, comprising Mr. Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of the Packers' Committee; Mr. Everett Brown, president of the Chicago Livestock Exchange; Major Roy, of the Food Administration; Mr. Louis D. Hall, of the Bureau of Markets, to undertake the supervision of the execution of the plan in the various markets. Commission men are asked to co-operate in carrying out the plan embodied in the packers' agreement. It must be evident that offers by commission men to sell hogs below the minimums established above is not fair, either to the producer or the participating packers. Mr. Brown has undertaken, on behalf of the commission men in the United States that they will loyally support the plan.

It is believed by the conference that this new plan, based as it is upon a positive minimum basis, will bring better results to the producer than average prices for the month. It does not limit top prices, and should narrow the margins necessary to country buyers in more variable markets. It is believed that the plan should work out close to $18 average.

Swine producers of the country will contribute to their own interest by not flooding the market, for it must be evident that if an excessive over percentage of hogs is marketed in any one month price stabilization and control cannot succeed, and it is certain that producers themselves can contribute materially to the efforts of the conferences if they will do their marketing in as normal a way as possible.

The whole situation as existing at present demands a frank and explicit assurance from the conferees represented—namely, that every possible effort will be made to maintain a live hog price commensurate with swine production costs and reasonable selling values in execution of the declared policy of the Food Administration to use every agency in its control to secure justice to the farmer.

The stabilization methods adopt for November represent the best forts of the conference, concurred by the Food Administration and Livestock Subcommittee of the Agricultural Advisory Board, together with special swine members and the representatives of the packers, to improve the present unsatisfactory situation, which has unfortunately resulted because of the injection of uncontrollable factors.

We ask the producer to co-operate with us in a most difficult task.

Tin Wedding

A large crowd of Holt people met by appointment at the Mickelson hotel Wednesday evening and later laden with "goodies" were seen wending their way to the Docken home. An informal invasion was immediately made, surprising the family to a finish. It being Mr. and Mrs. Docken's 10th wedding anniversary, their friends proposed to celebrate it in the good old fashioned way. The principal features of the evening entertainment was the mock wedding, when the wedding procession, headed by the santified looking parson, R. L. Adams, followed by the flower girls, Alice Oien and Hildred Ordahl and last by the bride and groom, marched to the strains of the piano into the front room. The ceremony caused a ripple of merriment again and again among the audience and at the conclusion Miss Newton sang an appropriate solo.

The newly weds were presented with a lovely electric lamp as a token of esteem and in remembrance of the occasion. Later in the evening R. L. Adams gave a reading personating an old lady which capped the climax.

A most delicious lunch was served and everybody seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest extent.

Long live the newly weds and may their pathway be strewn with rice and old shoes which is indicative of health, wealth and happiness.

We understand D. B. Bakke has purchased a couple of acres of land of Mrs. Sollom, just south of her residence, and will build a fine house thereon during the summer. Thus our little village is growing.

Cables just received indicate need more urgent than heretofore realized. Official advices report not more than one-fourth of the four million of deported Armenians can survive winter if quick relief is not sent. Prompt, generous action is necessary to save these ancient Christian races. Many counties have already gone over the top in advance of the Campaign. Can assure you that your effort in saving lives is abundantly worth while.

Back Lame and Achy?

There's little peace when your kidneys are weak and while at first there may be nothing more serious than dull backache, sharp, stabbing pains, headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities, you must act quickly to avoid the more serious trouble, dropsy, gravel, heart disease, Bright's disease. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that is so warmly recommended everywhere by grateful users.

Geo. M. Herr, prop. harness shop, First Ave., E., Roundup, Mont., says: "Up until two years ago I suffered quite a bit with kidney trouble. In fact, when I came to this town nine years ago, I couldn't carry a pail of water. My back ached nearly all the time and the kidney secretions passed too freely. I kept hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills so often, I got a box and started using them. I used more than one box, but it wasn't long before I was cured."

What Doctor Pierce Has Done for Humanity

BY DOCTOR CRIPPS.

It has always seemed to me that Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., should be placed near the top when a list of America's great benefactors is written. He studied and conquered human diseases to a degree that few realize. Whenever he found a remedy that overcame disease, he at once announced it in the newspapers and told where it could be bought at a small price. He did not follow the usual custom of keeping the ingredients secret, so that the rich only could afford to buy the medicine, but openly printed the name of each root and herb he used. And so today the names of Dr. Pierce and his medicines are widely known, and they stand for better health and better citizenship.

One of this great physician's most successful remedies is known as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are little, sugar-coated pills, composed of Mayapple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap—things that Nature grows in the ground. These Pellets are safe because they move the bowels gently, leaving no bad after-effects, as so many pills do. Very often they make a person who takes them feel like a new man or woman, for they cleanse the intestines of hard, decayed and poisonous matter that accumulates when one is costive. If you are constipated, by all means go to your druggist and get some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They may prove to be the very thing your system requires to make you well and happy.

STATE BREVITIES

St. Paul.—Governor Burnquist has announced the appointment of Ezra R. Smith as municipal judge of Crosby to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of D. J. Severance.

Paynesville. — Hoel Bros., proprietors of the Pioneer store here, have purchased the large department store of Baer Bros., at Frazee, Minn., one of the largest in that territory.

East Grand Forks.—Supt. F. E. Lurton of the city schools is preparing an account of "East Grand Forks in the World War," which he hopes to publish in book form and also deposit with the Minnesota State Historical society for future reference.

Bemidji.—Four boys at the Central school, Julius Goldberg, Robert Graham, Lawrence Burns and Owen Webster, enriched the Junior Red Cross fund $3.32 when they secured permission from the principal to give an entertainment of lantern slides.

Minneapolis. — Carleton L. Wallace, state senator from the Thirty-fourth district, comprising the Eighth ward, passed away at his home in this city. Senator Wallace is the second member of this year's senate who has died since the session convened. Senator Harry F. Weis of Le Sueur died previously.

St. Paul.—Maj. J. W. Edwards, St. Paul, has resigned as assistant adjutant general. The resignation was accepted immediately by Adjt. Gen. F. H. Rhinow, who appointed Sergt. J. C. LeClaire, St. Paul, to the position. Capt. M. C. Nolan, son of Senator W. A. Nolan, Grand Meadow, was appointed to fill Sergeant LeClaire's place.

LeSueur.—At a caucus of 150 local citizens, C. N. Cosgrove, who has been connected with the State Fair board, was selected as a candidate to make the race for state senator from Le-Sueur county to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Senator Harry P. Weis. It is expected Governor Burnquist will call a special election soon to select Weis' successor.

St. Paul.—More carloads of immigrant movables passing through Minnesota Transfer during December were consigned to Minnesota points than to destinations in other states, according to Fred D. Sherman, state commissioner of immigration. Out of a total of 150 cars, 66 were to Minnesota points, 23 to Iowa, 17 to Wisconsin, 9 to Illinois and 7 to Canadian stations.

St. Paul.—John B. Sanborn, St. Paul, has resumed the duties of state insurance commissioner, the office from which he resigned early in October to enter military service. C. Lewis Weeks, Minneapolis, state insurance commissioner in the interim, again became deputy attorney general, and Egbert S. Oakley, Duluth, left that office to continue as assistant in the staff of Attorney General Clifford L. Hilton.

Minneapolis. — The annual meeting of the Minnesota Federation of County Fairs was held at the Hotel Dyckman in this city. There were about 175 "fair" men, who had come together from every county in the state. George E. Hanscom of St. Cloud, R. F. Hall of Minneapolis and Charles F. Serline of Mora were re-elected president, secretary and treasurer, respectively. John Stoneburg of Cambridge was elected vice president.

Pine City.—The Pine county board elected Robert Derr of Pine City, chairman. The salary of Sheriff Hawley was raised from $1,700 to $2,000 per year, and the salary of County Attorney Ervin from $1,300 to $1,500 per year, while the salary of County Superintendent of Schools Miller is fixed by law at $12.50 per school, and he will receive about $1,900, besides traveling expenses. The board voted $500 in aid of the county fair society.

St. Paul.—Virtually the whole session of the annual convention of the state association of registers of deeds in St. Paul was devoted to discussion of the fees for handling documents in the smaller counties. It is probable that the next session of the legislature will be asked to increase some of the fees. C. E. Tuttle of Hastings was elected president, A. W. Skog of Minneapolis, vice president, and George W. Thompson, Faribault, secretary.

St. Paul.—Minnesota's 437,400 school children are to join in a national tournament designed to improve the health of the millions of American children who will enter the lists with the idea not only of washing their hands before each meal but of washing their ears and necks at least once daily. The grand tournament in Minnesota, the dates of which are from February 9 to May 24—fifteen weeks—is to be carried out under the joint co-operation of the Minnesota Public Health association, representing the Modern Health Crusaders, the Junior Red Cross, Little Citizens' league, the Boys' and Girls' clubs of the agricultural extension division of the University of Minnesota, and other organizations representative of young America.

Minneapolis.—A petition signed by hundreds of Minnesota agriculturists will be presented to Governor Burnquist asking that the state conspiracy statutes be amended so that farmers may meet with dealers to decide on prices to be paid for farm products, it is reported.

Glencoe.—Dr. Herman A. Bohles, who was forced to carry the American flag at the head of the peace celebration parade last November on account of his un-American attitude during the war, was indicted by the McLeod county grand jury on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Duluth.—George Sprague, 32 years old, of West Duluth, drove head-on with an automobile into a rapidly moving streetcar here and was instantly killed.

Grand Marais. — Miss Schaller, 27, who taught in the local school last season, died from the effects of influenza at Jackson, Mich., recently. She was a daughter of Judge Schaller of St. Paul.

St. Paul.—Receipt by Representative W. A. Pittenger of Duluth, grand master of the state I. O. O. F., of a check for $600 brought the total sum received for the Northern Minnesota fire sufferers from that order to $18,000.

Minneapolis.—With 1,500 chickens, pigeons and rabbits on display, the thirty-third annual show of the Minnesota State Poultry association was held in the armory. Three hundred and fifty pigeons, the biggest exhibit ever seen in the Northwest, were on exhibition.

St. Cloud.—J. M. Leticon, 37, a granite cutter, met instant death while walking with Jack Smith, along the tracks in the Great Northern yards, when a box car which had been shunted onto the track struck him and knocked him down. The wheel passed over his neck, nearly cutting the head from the trunk.

St. Paul.—Seventy thousand workers have been placed in Minnesota by the Federal Employment service since its organization last August, according to reports made to Hugo V. Koch, state director. In addition, approximately 7,000 men and women were recruited in this state for direct war work in other communities.

Hastings. — Following indictments by the Dakota county grand jury on a charge of offering false evidence in the recent election contest against his opponent, Ralph W. Downs of South St. Paul, Peter A. Hoffman of Hastings, former auditor, was arraigned in the district court and his trial set for February 17. He was released on $2,500 bail.

Fergus Falls. — Otter Tail county commissioners adopted a resolution approving the Babcock state highway plan. The board also voted to construct a road from Fergus Falls southwestward to the Douglas county line at a cost of $103,000, having received notice that the United States government would appropriate $45,000 towards the cost of the road.

St. Paul.—The board of directors of the Minnesota State Automobile association at a meeting held at the St. Paul Athletic club adopted resolutions indorsing the plan for a state trunk highway system as proposed by C. M. Babcock, commissioner of highways, and pledged the association to favor an increased tax on motor vehicles in a sufficient sum to finance the proposition.

Grand Rapids. — Sessions of the Northern Minnesota Development association closed with a program devoted to sheep-raising prospects in cutover regions. Cass Lake was selected as the place for the summer meeting and Duluth for next November. The officers elected were R. R. Wise, Brainerd, president; Charles Scheers, Akeley, vice president, and Fred T. Lincoln, Brainerd, secretary.

Roseau.—Theo. Anenson, a young soldier stationed at Camp Forrest, Ga., was brought here in care of another soldier. The young man was ill, mentally, and he was turned over to the county authorities. His mind seemed to be more or less blank and he had only a hazy idea where his folks are located. His home was finally located in Beltrami county, northeast of Roosevelt, and he was taken there.

Duluth.—Ten men, out on their honor for five months after their conviction last fall in federal court here on bootlegging charges, voluntarily returned for sentence. They were given terms in jail ranging from 24 hours to four months by Judge Page Morris. Waino Kutilla, charged with failure to register for the draft, was given 24 hours in jail. He has an aged father whom he supports and the court was lenient with him.

St. Paul. — Regardless of whether jobs are waiting for them, 85,000 men returning to Minnesota from military service, all will be listed in the placement system inaugurated by federal, state and local employment agencies. Community agents will be required to report on each soldier and sailor returning from service to their respective districts. Many reports already have been received and the work is progressing satisfactorily, but no figures are available.

St. Paul.—With nearly $1,000,000 worth of military equipment authorized by the federal government for the Minnesota National guard, assurance that the state military organization will be reorganized under direction of the War department was given by Major H. L. Brady, federal property and disbursing officer for Minnesota, on his return from Washington. The announcement is taken to indicate that the three infantry regiments and the field artillery regiment, the state's former National guard strength, will be recruited soon. Thirty thousand dollars' worth of tentage will be shipped to the state soon, Major Brady said.

Little Falls. — The new Morrison county board of commissioners organized by electing Henry Gassert, chairman, and D. Rocheleau, vice chairman. The county attorney's salary was raised to $2,000 per year and that of the sheriff to $1,900, a raise of $200 per annum in each instance.

East Grand Forks.—Another fire of unknown origin within three weeks broke out in the second story of George Downham's confectionery on De Mers avenue, and for a time threatened to burn it to the ground. The fire department brought the flames under control.

SEE CANADA LANDS

Inspection of Choice Farm Acres Will Be Profitable.

Cost Only a Trifle Compared to Possible Benefit to Be Derived—"Ye Happy Fields, Unknown to Noise and Strife, The Kind Rewarders of Industrial Life"—John Gay.

There are thousands today looking for farms to buy, and with the hundreds of thousands of acres offered for sale, there is no lack of opportunities. But there are all classes of lands, good, bad, and indifferent, much of each. The government of the Dominion of Canada has no land for sale, but within the boundaries of the Dominion there are unlimited acres of choice land owned by railway and land companies and private individuals. It holds no brief for any, nor are any of them clients. But it is to the interest of the Dominion to have the hundreds of thousands of acres placed under cultivation, for every acre thus cultivated adds to the revenue which helps pay the government of the country. It is with the purpose of setting forth the agricultural advantages that Canada, especially Western Canada, possesses, that attention is drawn to the fact. The purpose is to place before the reader truthful statements, and advise the prospective settler as to the necessity to investigate and inspect, leaving to his own deduction the matter of his selection. Once he decides, the government will render him any further information necessary as to location, prices and value of land, and assist him in every way possible to become settled.

The cost of a trip to Western Canada, to any portion of the three provinces—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta—specially indicated in this work, is but a trifle compared with the benefits that a personal inspection may give. Therefore the advice is to do so. Low rates on railways will be arranged and every opportunity afforded for giving the country a thorough and careful examination. It may be that you wish an improved farm, all ready for occupation and cultivation; you may want raw prairie, which only requires plowing and the other preparation necessary for a seed bed, leaving it to yourself to erect your buildings, sink your well, prepare your garden, and ascertain how close you are to school, church, town and market. You may wish to go into mixed farming, combining the raising of stock with the growing of grain. In this case you will look out for some shelter from sun, wind and storm, and want a farm a portion of which may be cultivated for grain, and pasture fields connected with it. You may make this out of the open level prairie, but you will do better to secure a partially wooded lot, where water and pasture are already at hand. You may wish to go into the raising of cattle, or sheep alone; then you will care less for the open prairie, but select something that may cost you less in the more northerly districts. No matter what you may want, unless it be land upon which to grow cotton, bananas or other tropical or semi-tropical products, your inspection trip will reveal to you that Western Canada possesses possibilities beyond which any literature you may read advises you.—Advertisement.

RUSSIAN PLIGHT BEFORE ENVOYS

French Ambassador to Petrograd, Just Returned, Is Heard by Peace Council.

BOLSHEVIKI HOLD KIEV

Much Definite Headway Gained in Composing Plans for League of Nations—President Wilson Is Guest of French Senate.

Paris, Jan. 21.—President Wilson was the guest of the French senate at luncheon. He was greeted by Antonin Dubost, the president, who made an eulogistic address, in which he said that the senate welcomed the president and his ideas.

M. Sazinov, former Russian foreign minister, had numerous conferences with peace conference representatives.

Paris, Jan. 20.—The situation in Russia was taken up by the supreme council of the peace conference at its session. Joseph Moulens, the French ambassador to Russia, was present at the meeting and addressed it on the Russian question.

Official Statement Issued.

The text of the official communique is as follows:

"The president of the United States of America and the prime minister of the Allied governments, assisted by Baron Mikino and the Japanese ambassador in Paris, met at the Quai D'Orsay between 10:30 a. m. and 12 m.

"M. Noulens, the French ambassador to Russia, who returned a few days ago from Archangel, addressed the meeting and gave particulars of the situation in Russia.

"The next meeting will take place Tuesday at 10:30 a. m., to hear the remarks of M. Scavenius, the Danish minister in Petrograd, who left the Russian capital very recently."

League Plans Compared.

Marked progress is being made in the business of comparing various plans for the formation of a League of Nations, and harmonizing them into a unity of ideas which can be taken up as a concrete proposition.

Much headway in this direction was made at a conference at the Murat residence, which was attended by President Wilson, Lord Robert Cecil, the British representative charged with working out of a plan for a League of Nations; Leon Bourgeois, the French proponent of a plan for such an organization, and General Jan Christian Smuts, who has formulated a plan for a league.

Still in Formative Stage.

Preliminary conversations over the structure of the League of Nations are, strictly speaking, still in the stage of being discussed in meetings of the supreme council and are not technically before the peace conference as a whole, but the fact that the congress has advanced this question to the foremost place in its program is taken to indicate that such progress is being made in the supreme council as to warrant the expectation that a definite and somewhat detailed program will be soon evolved.

With a definite plan formed for erecting a structure upon which the nations can agree, there are about 25 working days remaining of the time that President Wilson has allotted himself for work in France before leaving for home. The question being asked is whether he can in this comparatively short time bring the nations together in an agreement for a society of nations.

ASKED TO CUT COST OF FOOD

Resolution in Congress Demands Why Agreements Remain.

Washington, Jan 21. — Congress is being flooded with appeals for action to reduce the cost of living, sent skyward during the war.

There is a storm brewing over the policy in continuing, with the war ended, a high minimum price of foodstuffs under war legislation designed to stimulate production. This agitation is destined to crop out when the administration sends to congress the bill to appropriate $1,250,000,000 for stabilizing the wheat price.

Representative N. J. Gould of New York has introduced a resolution in the house calling upon the food administration to state the "economic reasons which warrant the continuing of agreements that fix the prices of food products, and explain the reasons for continuing a practice which evidently is directly responsible for the high cost of living to the consumer, together with detailed information as to the number and scope of all such existing agreements."

May Free Foe Prisoners.

Amsterdam, Jan. 21.—Replying to a letter from Mathias Erzberger, head of the German armistice delegation, urging the return of German prisoners of war and relaxation of trade restrictions between occupied and unoccupied Germany, Marshal Foch said he intended to recommend the return of prisoners most deserving sympathy and was prepared to permit an exchange of food between occupied and unoccupied Germany to an extent which would obviate unemployment and consequent disturbances.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhœa, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

No Response.

During the period before Christmas when all good boys were waiting for Santa Claus to come, William, age four and the pride of the household at the home of Dr. W. M. McGaughey of Greencastle, was attempting to learn his prayers. The mother worked with him each night, but invariably William would put in a word or leave one out. One night when he was terribly mixed on his prayer his father, who had retired in an adjoining room overheard the mother correct William and tell him to try the prayer once more. This was his answer: "Mother, why can't I just sneak off to bed and not say my prayers like dad does?" "Dad" says there was no response.—Indianapolis News.

Sword Deadlier Than Gun.

In spite of the long casualty lists of the present war, fought with all the fiendish contrivances of modern science, the destruction of life is not so great in proportion to earlier wars when soldiers fought hand-to-hand. The most deadly of all weapons was the Roman short sword. Caesar reported that, at the battle he fought near Namur, his soldiers slew 60,000 of the Nervii. There were no wounded when the weapon was the short sword. As men began to fight at longer range, the death lists grew shorter. It is an axiom of modern war that it costs a marksman his own weight in lead to kill one of the enemy.—People's Home Journal.

400 LOCOMOTIVES SENT TO FRANCE

Dispatched Intact, Ready for Steam, by the Army Transport Service.

1,200 SHIPPED IN SECTIONS

Record of 12 Days Made From Shops in This Country to Lines at the Front—Great Work Is Now Revealed.

Washington.—Shipment of American-built steam locomotives, each weighing 78 tons, and assembled all except the smokestack and the tender, so that they could move away under their own steam within a few hours after their arrival in France, was among the accomplishments of the United States army transport force under stress of war, and has since been continued.

More than 400 of these locomotives were so shipped from New York in a few months, it was learned here with the lifting of the war censorship regulations, and these were in addition to 1,200 which were shipped in sections, nine to a locomotive, packed in cases. The ships used to transport the locomotives complete were of a special type with three holds, each hold measuring 60 by 102 feet, entered by hatches 39 feet wide and 42 feet long.

Into each of the three holds were placed 12 locomotives—36 to a ship. A bed of flooring on which they rested for the voyage required more than 3,000 tons of steel rails. The locomotives when in position were braced with heavy wooden beams and the space between the boilers to the level of the top of the steam dome packed solid with highly compressed baled hay.

Compressed Hay Under Flooring.

On this hay another flooring was laid, and on this floor was placed the tenders—the smokestacks, with more baled hay or other light cargo, packed in the space where coal is to be carried. On top of the tenders was packed still more cargo to the deck level, and during the "rush days" the above-deck space filled with crated airplanes. When completely loaded with the 36 locomotives and other cargo each vessel was carrying a dead weight of 14,000 tons in addition to ship machinery, bunker coal and crew supplies.

The loading of the locomotives is an interesting sight. Steel railroad barges carrying 14 of the steel monsters are made fast alongside a 100-ton capacity floating derrick barge, in turn made fast to the ship. An ordinary sling of steel wire is placed around the forward end of the boilers, another under the supports to the cab, the signal given and the locomotive lifted 40 or 50 feet in the air, swung over and gently loaded into the ship's hold. The whole operation required but 20 minutes, and it was accomplished with the same ease and the same lack of excitement as prevailed on board a steamship at an adjoining dock which was taking on board 500-pound bales of cotton.

The idea of shipping locomotives complete was conceived when army transport officers were informed that England was shipping them across the channel ready to move away on arrival.

"America Can Do It."

"If England can do it, so can America," an officer said, and he straightway commandeered a fleet of ore-carrying vessels which were constructed with hatches large enough to permit the handling of such freight.

When the movement was at its height the following time was recorded for the movement of a locomotive from its builders to its base of action behind the battle lines: Shops to New Jersey terminals, 24 hours; from rail to barges, 6 hours; from terminals to ship side, 6 hours; barge to ship, 20 minutes; New York to France, 9 days; ship to army rail lines and hooked up to a transport train bound for the front, 6 hours; a total of less than 12 days.

Handling of 78-ton locomotives as if they were but one-tenth of their weight is only a small part of the tremendous work that has been under way at army transport piers since the United States transport service attained full swing.

Maj. Dan O'Brien, marine director, an officer who has won his rank by more than 20 years' service in every port of the United States, Cuba, Mexico and the Philippines, where transport facilities of the army were centered, is the man who handled the locomotives.

Thieves Return Loot.

Iowa City, Ia.—When Mrs. Wolfe of this city went down town recently she left her door unlocked. Robbers broke in and stole a sapphire ring, a watch, a necklace and a purse containing $75.

Next day the thieves returned the stolen property, leaving it on her front steps.

Calls "Spade a Spade."

Youngstown, O.—The Mahoning county War Savings stamp committee comes out in plain language and calls a "spade a spade" in talking of those who fail to meet their stamp pledges. "They are refusing to feed the army of occupation in Europe," the announcement says.

EXCUSE FOR FAKE HOLDUP

St. Louis Man Says He Had to "Stall Wife" on Money Spent for Drinks.

St. Louis.—"I had to hand out some kind of a stall to my wife," said Robert E. Morgan of this city to Detectives Lardner and Kaiser when they questioned him concerning the loss of $412 which he reported had been taken from him by three armed highwaymen.

"I got married Saturday," he said, "and promised my wife to buy the furniture."

"With $163 in my pocket I started out. I met several friends and we had some drinks. After paying some bills I found I had just $35 left for the furniture. And I had to hand out some kind of a stall to my wife. I framed up the holdup and she insisted I report it to the police."

Mora.—According to the marriage record sixty-eight marriage licenses were issued by the clerk of court, William W. Tenney, in Kanabec county during the past year, an increase of seven over the year 1917.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this. Adv.

HUSBAND SAVES WIFE

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For many months I was not able to do my work owing to a weakness which caused backache and headaches. A friend called my attention to one of your newspaper advertisements and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness are a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JAS. ROHRBERG, 620 Knapp St., N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should accept Mrs. Rohrberg's suggestion and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

MINNESOTA JOINS DRY PROCESSION

BOARD TO RESCIND ORDERS

State Safety Commission Gives Notice That All Its Edicts Will End Feb. 5th Unless Legislature Acts in Meantime.

St. Paul.—The Minnesota house of representatives has adopted the resolution already passed in the senate, ratifying the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution by a vote of 92 to 36, making Minnesota the 40th state to ratify.

The senate voted for the resolution 48 to 11. The resolution passed in the house without debate under a suspension of the rules.

Asks Aid for Fighters.

Authority to expend unused funds of the State Public Safety commission to aid discharged soldiers and sailors in the state who are without employment or funds was asked of the legislature today by Governor J. A. A. Burnquist in a special message to the two houses.

The commission has available about $200,000 that could be used for this purpose.

Roads Amendment Asked.

The good roads program outlined by C. M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, was placed before the senate and house when Senator Patrick H. McGarry, Walker, and Representative Oscar A. Swenson, Nicollet, introduced a bill asking for a constitutional amendment to permit the adoption of the Babcock plan.

To Rescind Orders.

St. Paul.—All orders of the State Public Safety commission will be rescinded Feb. 5, unless the state legislature acts to continue the orders, it was announced by the commission when it referred to the legislature a measure making its orders inoperative.

Legislative Enactment Suggested.

The reason for the action, the commission said, is the measures were of wartime necessity, and the signing of the armistice makes a renewal of hostilities practically impossible. It is also suggested, should the legislature desire to continue all or some of the orders, it may do so by enactment.

Copies of the rescinding measure were sent to the house, the senate and to Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, with the statement that the rescinding order would become effective Feb. 5 unless the commission was otherwise instructed at its meeting Feb. 4.

Nearly half of the orders of the Public Safety commission still in force have a bearing on the liquor traffic.

Home Guard Retention Sought.

Steps to continue the Minnesota home guard as a part of the state military forces were taken by Adjutant General W. F. Rhinow upon reports that the order of the Safety commission creating the home guard will be made inoperative Feb. 5.

The home guard was created by order No. 3 issued by the Public Safety commission. General Rhinow plans to interview members of the legislature with a view to having the home guard continue in existence by legislative enactment.

St. Paul.—At a short evening session of the senate, Lieutenant-Governor Frankson named the standing committees of the upper house as follows:

Peruna has served the American people for more than forty years. Those who know its value always have it at hand. Why not you?

Food

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

CHEESE.

Why are we not asked to save cheese?

Because we have a plentiful supply on hand in addition to that needed for exports.

How much cheese did we import in 1914?

An average of over 5,000,000 pounds every month.

How much did we import in August, 1917?

Half a million pounds.

What is the food value of 1 pound of cheese?

American pale cheese contains 130.6 grams protein, 162.8 grams fat, 1.35 grams carbohydrates, and furnishes 2,055 calories (according to Atwater and Bryant). It equals 1 pound of fat meat in energy value.

Is cheese made of whole milk or skim milk?

Most of it is made of whole milk.

Since the butter supply is limited, why not make cheese of skim milk and use cream for butter production?

Because cheese is made when there are such quantities of milk on hand that all of it could not be put on the market or consumed as milk or butter. It is really a by-product of the dairy industry.

What per cent of the milk produced is made into butter and what per cent goes into cheese?

Sixty per cent to butter, 5 per cent to cheese.

What is cottage cheese made of?

Skim milk, buttermilk, or sour milk.

Is cottage cheese nourishing food?

Yes. It is rich in protein, and in price it is one of the cheapest protein foods now available.

What does a pound of cottage cheese represent as protein value in terms of other foods?

One pound cottage cheese is equivalent to—

1.27 pounds sirloin steak.
1.37 pounds chuck rib beef.
1.53 pounds fowl.
1.46 pounds fresh ham.
1.58 pounds loin pork chop.

What other products are made of sour milk or buttermilk?

Skim-milk cheese, hard cheese, sour-milk drinks, all of which are wholesome, casein and milk sugar.

What place has cheese in the diet?

It is a substitute for meat, and should be eaten as a dish instead of a tidbit.

DAIRY PRODUCTS.

What are the dairy products?

Milk, cream, butter, cheese, ice cream, etc.

What are the distinctive qualities of milk, butter, and cheese?

Milk is called a "perfect food" because it contains all the food elements in nearly the right proportion for proper nutrition and in the most digestible form; butter is probably the most attractive fat and is 100 per cent digestible; cheese has high protein value and is a good substitute for meat.

Why is the number of dairy cattle in Europe diminishing?

Because Europe has had to eat many dairy animals, because shortage of labor has reduced fodder and help necessary for the herds, and shortage of shipping has limited the amount of imported fodder.

Why do the Allies turn to us for dairy products?

Because supplies reaching them from Scandinavia, Holland, and Switzerland are now largely cut off, and shipping can not be provided to bring food from Australia and New Zealand.

Why should we encourage our dairy industry?

Because children need plenty of milk and butter, because the world faces a shortage of milk and butter, and because dairying is fundamental in much of our agriculture.

How can we use dairy products most wisely?

By using butter only on the table, by using more skim and sour milk and more whole milk; by wasting no milk or butter.

May we use ice cream freely?

Ice cream is a healthful food and offers an excellent way of using milk products. But it contains sugar, which is one of the foods we wish to save. Patronize dealers who use corn sirup and honey in place of sugar, and when making it at home, always use other sweeteners.

How much butter did we export to Europe from July 1, 1915, to July 1, 1916?

[illegible]2,673 pounds, most of which went to the Allies.

How much cheese did we export in the same period?

38,221,450 pounds, most of which went to the Allies.

How much condensed milk did we export in the same period?

[illegible]9,541,098 pounds. All except about 5,000,000 pounds of this went to the Allies.

Have we kept up the immensely increased exports which marked the fiscal year 1916-17?

No; from July 1, 1917, to January 1, 1918, we sent 20,000,000 pounds less butter and 13,000,000 pounds less cheese than in the corresponding period a year ago.

How Good We Feel...

Ever since DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS have been on the market, thousands of people both young and old have been testifying to the merits of this popular and time tried remedy for constipation and stomach disorders.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Simmons of East Columbia, Ohio, are typical examples. Mr. Simmons says:

"I have given DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS a thorough trial and they are the best medicine of any kind I have ever used. They are pleasant to take and pleasant in action and do the work without weakening the digestive tract. My wife has been bothered with constipation more or less all her life. When she began using DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS she got better results than she had ever been able to get with other remedies."

DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS are prepared especially for sufferers of constipation—the ingredients are such that they act surely, but gently on the bowels and assist in restoring healthful regularity. A box of these tablets costs only a few cents at any drug store. They taste like candy. Ask your druggist about them. He knows why they are the ideal laxative for old and young.

MUST PROVIDE FOOD

Duty Devolving on Farmers of This Continent.

Western Canada Well Prepared to Meet the Needs of the Old World—"The Earth Is a Machine Which Yields Almost Gratuitous Service to Every Application of Intellect"—Emerson.

Speaking with one of the commissioners appointed to make a survey of the food situation in the battle-torn countries of Europe the writer was told that the depletion and shortage of food was far greater than anybody had expected. With the investigation, which at that time had merely started, much had been brought to light that had only been surmised. Herds of live stock were completely wiped out, fields that had been prolific yielders of grain, roots and vegetables were terraced and hummocked by bombs and shells, many of them still lying unexploded and dangerous. Until this land can be gone over and cleaned nothing in the way of cultivation can be carried on, and even where that is done the work of leveling and getting under cultivation will take a long time.

Much more devolves upon the farmer on this side of the Atlantic than was at first supposed. Herds of live stock will have to be replenished, and this will take years; the provisioning of the people in the meantime is the task the farmers here will be asked to undertake. Producing countries will be taxed to their utmost to meet this demand; all that can be provided will be needed. This need will continue for some time, and during this period prices will be high. The opinion of those who have given the question most careful thought and study is that food scarcity will be greater than ever before. The Allies will have to feed Germany, Austria, Turkey and Russia and this in addition to the requirements of European neutrals for increased supplies now that there is no submarine menace.

To the Canadian and American farmer this means a demand for his grain fully as great as at any time in the past. Wheat will be needed, meat will be required. The slogan "don't stop saving food" is as necessary today as ever. The purpose of this article is to direct attention to the fact that hundreds of thousands of acres of land in Western Canada are still unoccupied, and this land is capable of producing enough to supply all needs. On its rich grasses are easily raised—and cheaply too—the cattle that will be sought; in its soil lies the nutriment that makes easy the production of the grain that will be needed, and in both the farmer will be assured of a good profit on his investment. The land can be purchased at low prices, on easy terms, and with the abundance of returns that it will give, it does not mean a matter of speculation. The facts as set out are known, and certainly are guaranteed.

These facts, the low cost of the land, and its great productivity, combined with the admirable marketing and transport facilities at the disposal of the farmer make farming in Western Canada an attractive proposition.—Advertisement.

STATE BREVITIES

Rush City.—The Chisago county fair at Rush City will be held this year on Aug. 25-26-27, instead of about the middle of September, as has been the policy for many years.

Minneapolis.—A new winter wheat hardy enough for successful growing in Minnesota has been developed after 26 years experimenting at the University farm. It is a cross of the Odessa white wheat and Turkey red.

Duluth.—The first plans for the meeting of the grand lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, to be held in Duluth in June, were outlined at a meeting of the Duluth committee at the offices of L. A. Simonson.

St. Cloud.—Anthony Forcier, proprietor of the Merchants' hotel, was held up at the rear of the hotel at night and severely beaten about the head by two men who were scared off before they could rob him of $30 in a pocket.

Little Falls.—Governor Burnquist has re-appointed M. M. Williams of this city as a member of the board of regents of the University of Minnesota. Mr. Williams received his first appointment about six years ago from Governor Eberhart.

Rochester.—Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Mayo have presented "Red House," their former residence, to the local Y. W. C. A., to be used as a boarding home and entertainment hall for members of the Y. W. C. A. The property is valued at $35,000.

St. Paul.—Payments of royalties estimated at $250,000 on iron ore shipped from state owned mines under leases during the last quarter of 1918 began arriving late yesterday at the office of State Treasurer Rines. The royalty is at the rate of 25 cents a ton.

Red Lake Falls.—Secretary E. G. Buse of the Red Lake County Agricultural association has paid out premiums to prize winners at the 1918 Red Lake county fair. The check for the amount of the premiums was received by Mr. Buse from State Auditor, J. A. O. Preus.

St. Paul.—The State Public Safety commission has recommended to the Legislature that funds be appropriated to aid the widow and four children of Charles W. Robertson, a Hinckley home guardsman, who died of pneumonia contracted while aiding relief work in the Moose Lake fire.

St. Paul.—The State Public Safety commission has started preparation of an honor roll of Minnesota men who lost their lives in the war. Engraved memorials, expressing the state's debt to these men, will be sent to the nearest relative of each soldier, autographed by Governor Burnquist.

St. Paul.—Appeals for the relief of Northern Minnesota fire sufferers are receiving response from the four corners of the earth. Mail delays, and not slackness in giving, account for the receipt, by Representative W. A. Pittinger of Duluth, grand master, of $130.94 for the relief fund from a small I. O. O. W. lodge in Yokohama, Japan.

St. Paul.—The entire Fifth infantry regiment, Minnesota National Guard, has been granted federal recognition in War department orders received by Adjutant General Rhinow. Requisition for $170,000 worth of ordnance and equipment for the regiment was made immediately by Maj. Harry L. Brady, federal property and disbursing officer.

St. Paul.—Establishment of a pharmaceutical corps as part of the medical department of the army will be discussed by the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical convention, which will be held February 24, 25 and 26 at the Saint Paul Hotel, attended probably by 1,000 members. Dean E. J. Wulling of the University of Minnesota will introduce such a proposal.

Stillwater. — John Nesmith and Thomas Yould, both of St. Paul, arrested there as they were getting off a street car with two large packs of bed clothing and linen secured when they burglarized the residence of Clifford W. Minneapolis. — The Minneapolis Steel & Machinery company have closed a contract with the government for the construction of six steel barges at a cost of $390,000. These comprise a third of the fleet of eighteen barges the United States will operate between the Twin Cities and St. Louis to test the practicability of the Upper Mississippi river as a medium of trasportation.

St. Paul.—Profits allowed dealers on Minnesota prison-made binder twine will be changed to a percentage basis upon adoption by the state legislature of an amendment to the present law to be urged by the dealers of the state. The statute fixing dealers' margins at 1 and 1½ cents a pound was enacted when prison-made twine sold at 7 and 8 cents a pound. The dealers contend that because larger investments are necessary now that the twine is selling at an average of 20 cents a pound a wider margin should be allowed on a percentage basis.

Deerwood.—E. Masson, agent at the Northern Pacific depot, this village has received two Saanen milk goats from the bureau of animal industry, after trying for the last three years. The bureau placed seven on the market this year, the first time it has offered any. One, a doe, brought $500. The two Mr. Masson purchased are seven-eighths pure bred and cost him $35 apiece delivered. He has a buck which he purchased two years ago. The Saanan goats are the choicest milk goats and originally were imported from Switzerland. There have been no importations for twelve years.

Grand Rapids.—Local grocers have arranged to reinstate the delivery of goods to customers. The delivery will be made, however, only once a day, and all will be made with one rig, thus eliminating duplication.

St. Cloud.—The Commercial Club and Businessmen's association are backing a movement for the building of a $75,000 armory. It is likely the legislature will be asked to pass an act permitting the issuing of bonds.

The Clay County Holstein Breeders' association will be host. The Clay County Poultry association will hold its second annual show at Glyndon, Feb. 1.

Moorhead.—Trial of the $20,000 damage suit of W. R. Tillotson against the city of Moorhead has begun in Clay county district court. On Aug. 2, 1917, Mr. Tillotson tripped over a wire stretched above the sidewalk boulevard in front of the Moorhead post-office and fell, breaking his right leg. He claims permanent injury.

St. Paul.—Twenty-five engineers interested in drainage work considered the project of completing the topographical mapping of Minnesota, which was dropped in 1917 when only 10 per cent of the state was completed, at a conference in the old capitol, St. Paul. The map was left incomplete because the Legislature failed to make necessary apporpriations.

St. Paul.—Assistance of all postmasters of Minnesota is asked by the Treasury department in disposing of exemption claims prior to the discharge of Minnesota soldiers. The government has notified postmasters that the Treasury department, through the bureau of war risk insurance, and the War department, through the judge advocate general's office, are bending every effort to decide within the next 30 days all of the cases in which the enlisted men have sought to avoid, during their period of service, the support of their wives and children.

A Word About the Kidneys

BY DOCTOR WATSON.

People are easily frightened when they think something is the matter with their lungs or heart, and well they may be; but few people understand the dangers of diseased kidneys. These organs have a duty of vital importance to perform, and if they are diseased, there is no telling how or where the symptoms may appear. The kidneys are filters, and when they are healthy they remove the poisons from the blood and purify it. When the kidneys are diseased, the poisons are spread everywhere, and one of these poisons is uric acid. The uric acid is carried all through the system and deposited in various places, in the form of urate salts—in the feet, ankles, wrists and back—often forming bags under the eyes. Sometimes the resulting trouble is called rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and backache. Finally, come stone in the bladder, diabetes and Bright's disease.

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., in recent years, discovered that a certain combination of remedies would dissolve uric acid (urate salts) in the system. He found this combination to be harmless, so that he made it up in tablets, of double strength, and called them Anuric Tablets. They dissolve uric acid in the human system as hot coffee dissolves sugar. If you have uric acid troubles, don't delay in taking Anuric Tablets, which can be secured in the drug stores. You can write Dr. Pierce, too, and he will tell you what to eat and how to live so that more uric acid will not form in your system. Dr. Pierce will not charge for this advice.

Confined to Her Bed Days at a Time

But Doan's Brought a Quick and Lasting Cure.

Mrs. Herrman Ruschke, 177 Fourth St., Long Island City, N. Y., says: "The pains in my back were almost unbearable. I always felt tired and listless and found it almost impossible to attend to my housework. Gradually the pains increased—day by day my suffering became worse. Often flashes of light and black specks would appear before my eyes and dizzy spells would come over me. My hands and feet were swollen and my head pained me so at times I thought it would split. My kidneys annoyed me, too. I became despondent. Sometimes I would have to take to my bed for three or four days at a time. I had the good fortune to hear of Doan's Kidney Pills, so I began using them and was soon back in perfect health again. My cure has stood the test of time, so I am only too glad to recommend Doan's to other kidney sufferers."

Mrs. Ruschke

Mrs. Ruschke gave the above statement in April, 1916, and on April 4, 1917, she added: "I gladly repeat all I have said about Doan's Kidney Pills, for they have cured me of kidney complaint."

Western Canada for years has helped to feed the world—the same responsibility of production still rests upon her. While high prices for Grain, Cattle and Sheep are sure to remain, price of land is much below its value.

Land capable of yielding 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre can be had on easy terms at from $15 to $30 per acre—good grazing land at much less.

PEACE TERMS READY IN MARCH

Conditions Germany Must Meet Expected to Be Settled by That Time.

DISPOSAL OF COLONIES

Question Occupies Attention of Peace Council—England and France Reported Opposed to Return of Hun Possessions.

Brussels, Jan. 28.—President Wilson will accept the invitation of King Albert to visit Brussels, it is said in well informed circles, but has not fixed the date for his trip.

Paris, Jan. 28.—When the supreme council of the peace conference met there was a full attendance of the members.

A number of technical advisers on colonial matters, including three Americans, accompanied the various delegations as they entered the foreign office for the session.

Question of Colonies.

One of the questions which it was expected the supreme council would take up was the fate of the German colonies. France and Great Britain, it is declared, are agreed on at least one feature of the solution of the problem which is that under no consideration shall the colonies revert to Germany. The reasons advanced for such a decision are various, but prominent among them is that it would render it impossible for Germany to establish submarine bases in her colonial possessions. The American attitude is as yet unrevealed.

A prominent official declared today that should the Franco-British viewpoint prevail, the German Kamerun will be taken over by the French, in accordance with an agreement reached by Great Britain and France. Belgium lays claim to that part of the Congo which she conquered by force of arms, the Belgian troops having captured Tabora and the territory lying beyond the western slopes of Lake Victoria Nyanza. The Belgians also desire a strip of territory along the left bank of the Congo, the delimitation, of course, to be settled amicably with Portugal, territorial compensation being given the latter.

Terms May be Ready in March.

The Council of Ten, as the French now call the ministers of the five great powers, has before it for consideration among other things the questions of territorial adjustments, the abolition of conscription and the economic reconstruction of Germany. These questions, in accordance with the settled method of procedure, will be referred by the council to suitable commissions.

There appears every prospect that the peace conference will make rapid progress from now on with the work of fixing the peace terms for Germany. A high French diplomatic authority is quoted as estimating that the conference will have the peace terms ready for submission for ratification by the various national governments between the middle and the end of March. If this is accomplished, the German delegates will be summoned to Paris early in April for the conclusion of the peace.

GERMAN PEOPLE ARE FOOLISH

Think That No Indemnity Will Be Demanded of Nation.

Paris, Jan. 28.—A French general who has just arrived from Berlin says in the Matin:

"The German people think that their bad times are at an end. They do not believe that the German army was beaten and that therefore no war indemnity will be exacted. They labor under illusions regarding the feelings of the American people, especially President Wilson. There have been seen processions passing the Adlon hotel cheering the general in command of the American mission in Berlin."

WANT BOYS BACK FOR FARM

Move Started To Have Farmers In Army Discharged.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Thousands of protests from farmers in the middle west against the retention in the service of men urgently needed in agricultural activities are being received by members of congress and have awakened a movement to have the present demobilization orders modified to include the discharge of such men.

Spring farm activities are not far off, and it is feared that unless plans for the release of farmers materialize shortly there will be no opportunity of getting back men now in France.

Socialist Conference At Berne.

Paris, Jan. 28.—The international Socialist conference will be convened at Berne, February 3, according to the newspaper L'Humanite. The German government attaches considerable importance to the conference, says the Journal's Zurich correspondent, because it hopes to use it to influence the decisions of the peace conference. The dispatch adds that it is possible that Herr Landsberg, the minister for publicity, probably will be sent to reinforce the German delegation.

ADOPTS LEAGUE OF NATIONS PLAN

Peace Conference Approves Resolutions Providing Method for Its Foundation.

WILSON IS CHAIRMAN

American Executive and Colonel House Are On Commission Appointed to Frame Constitution for Later Consideration.

Paris, Jan. 28.—The peace conference unanimously adopted a resolution providing for the organization of a league of nations by international cooperation.

M. Clemenceau, permanent chairman of the conference, read the resolutions formulated by the Supreme War council. Following the reading of the resolutions President Wilson addressed the conference on the league of nations, followed by Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and Premier Orlando of Italy.

The purpose of the league, according to the resolution, is to make secure international obligations and safeguard the nations against war.

The league is to form an integral part of the peace treaty and be open to all civilized nations favoring its aims.

To Draw Constitution.

A commission representing the associated governments was appointed to elaborate a constitution for the league, including its prerogatives.

President Wilson and Colonel House are the American members of the commission. President Wilson will be chairman.

The conference afterward made public the draft of the preliminary resolutions adopted, looking to the creation of the league.

The draft calls for the appointment of a commission composed of two representatives each of the five great powers and five representatives of the other powers to inquire and report on the responsibility of the authors of the war.

This commission also shall inquire into breaches of laws and customs of war committed by Germany and her allies on land and sea and in the air during the war as well as the degree of responsibility for these offenses attaching to particular members of the enemy forces "including members of the general staffs and others," however highly placed.

BIG POWERS NAME ENVOYS

France—Leon Bourgeois and Ferdinand L. Arnaude, dean of the faculty of law of the University of Paris.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets

Does Your Child Act Like this?

DON'T punish your children by forcing them to take nauseating oils and medicine when they are bilious, constipated or have bad colds. Compelling the child to take disagreeable medicine against its will often does more harm than good.

DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS are particularly fine for children. Pleasant to take because they TASTE LIKE CANDY and can be chewed. Children do not have to be coaxed to take them, and their gentle but effective action on the bowels restores healthful regularity promptly.

When your child is cross, feverish and peevish because of stomach disorders, give it one of Dr. Miles' candy-like Laxative Tablets. They take them readily and ask for more.

Not only are DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS desirable for children, but for adults as well. You will find in these tablets a safe, harmless and effective medicine for constipation, biliousness, sick headache and other bowel complaints.

They cost only a few cents—your druggist has them. Ask him about them.

PISO'S for COUGHS & COLDS

For more than 50 years Piso's has been the favorite remedy. You can depend upon it to give prompt relief. [illegible] throats and [illegible] hoarseness. Your druggist has Piso's—ask him for it. Contains No Opiate Safe for Young and Old

PISO'S

FISH

Is fish a "brain food"?
No more so than other foods. Fish contains a high percentage of phosphorus and when food values were first discussed this was credited as "brain" food. Phosphorus is no more a brain builder than other substances of which the brain is composed.

When is the best time to substitute fish for meat?

Is fish cheaper in warm weather?
Yes. Particularly in localities near the source of supply.

Which are more plentiful, the ocean or inland fish?
Ocean fish. The growth of large cities on inland rivers has brought into existence many mills and factories which pollute the waters and drive away the fish.

Which variety of fish furnishes the greatest food value?
The oily varieties, such as salmon and mackerel.

Where are these found in abundance?
Salmon on the Pacific coast, and mackerel on the Atlantic coast.

Why should we have frozen fish?
Because that makes it possible to have good fish in inland towns and cities.

Is frozen fish good?
Fish is frozen for market only when it is absolutely in good condition, and people should not fear to use it.

Should the fish be thawed out at the retailer's?
No; as soon as the fish is thawed out it deteriorates rapidly.

What should the housekeeper do?
She should insist on getting the fish frozen at the retailer's and keep it frozen until she wishes to use it.

How is the best way to thaw it out?
By placing it on ice in a pan in a cool place.

How long does this process take?
Several hours.

Is there a quicker way to thaw it out?
Yes; by putting it in cold water; never hot.

Should the water it is thawed out in be used?
By all means use the water if the fish is boiled; or use it for chowder. Some of the value of the fish goes into the water and is thus lost unless the water is made use of.

What are the advantages of cold-storage fish?
1. It brings good fish into large cities.
2. It standardizes the price of fish.
3. It lowers the annual price of fish.
4. It makes the transportation and caring for fish possible and safe.
5. It provides fish out of season.

Do these same points hold good for cold-storage foods in general?
Yes.

Unbounded Prosperity Ahead of Western Canada.

Opportunity Beckons Settlers of All Kinds—"With the Golden Wake That Marked the Way the Happy Reapers Went"—James Whitcomb Riley.

The war having been brought to a favorable conclusion more attention can now be given to the agricultural and industrial development of Western Canada, which were checked by the troublous times of the past four years. Now that these are over, the proper development of the country will be continued.

True, much agricultural progress has been made during this time. Crop production has been greatly increased, the number of live stock has steadily grown, and with each succeeding year the dairying and wool industries have become more important. But despite this forward march, many phases of development have been held in check. The activities of farmers, too, have been greatly hampered by shortage of labor, and, under the circumstances, what they have achieved can only be described as marvelous.

Excepting those industries closely allied to agriculture, such as butter and cheese manufacture, industrial activity in the Prairie Provinces has been almost at a standstill. And even in these branches extensions have been strictly limited to those of urgent necessity. Building has been considerably curtailed, especially in the towns and cities, though many commodious and up-to-date dwellings, barns and other buildings have been erected by farmers in the country. Indeed, the amount of building farmers have done is one of the outward signs of their prosperity; but considerably more of it would have been done had not the more important work of food production received priority in the labor available. Railway construction work has been almost entirely suspended.

With more help available, and the use of the labor-saving devices that have been adopted during the last few years great advances in the agricultural development of Western Canada might be looked for even if no new settlers were expected; but the coming of thousands of prospective settlers who have hitherto been deterred only by the unsettled conditions from making their homes in this last great West will give a considerable impetus to every phase of agriculture in these Prairie Provinces.

Hand in hand with the development of agriculture, there will be a renewal of industrial activity. For the establishment of such industries as sugar refineries, canneries and many other industries for the utilization of the products of the land, as well as for the extension of the already important industries of butter and cheese manufacture, are splendid opportunities. Mining, lumbering, quarrying, the manufacture of clay products are also a few industries capable of considerable growth, and to which greater attention can now be devoted.

To provide accommodation for present business requirements alone would keep the building trade busy for a long time, but with farther development in the cities it is impossible to foresee any slackness in any branch of this trade. And the number of farmers whose needs have outgrown their present accommodation and who have been awaiting an opportunity to replace their buildings by larger and more modern ones, is considerable and constantly increasing. Municipal work will be gradually resumed, and the railways have much work in contemplation.

All this points to a period of great prosperity in Western Canada—agricultural and industrial prosperity. The former is the more important, for on it the latter depends. Being primarily an agricultural country, Western Canada will probably pass through the readjustment period with little difficulty.

There is no reason to believe that farming will be less remunerative than it has been in the past; there are, on the other hand, many good and sound reasons for believing that the returns will be as large as ever. One thing is certain: Intelligent farming on the fertile prairies of Western Canada, requiring as it does the smallest possible capital outlay compared with that required to get a start in older settled countries, will continue to be one of the quickest and surest ways to independence that can be followed by the average man.—Advertisement.

MEET TO FRAME LEAGUE DETAILS

Wilson Begins Drive to Consummate Program Before End of Present Week.

AGREEMENT FORECAST

President Considers Plans of Making Regular Reports of Progress Made to Congress to Remove Misapprehensions.

Paris, Feb. 4.—President Wilson has begun his drive for consummation of the League of Nations' program before the end of the week.

Refreshed by a day of complete rest, the president, following an address on the subject of the league before the chamber of deputies, was to confer with the special committee which is working on details of the league's outline.

President Wilson met with the peace bureau. The Balkan situation was discussed with particular reference to Greece's political and territorial claims. Premier Eleutherios Venizelos of Greece, was the principal speaker.

Reports to Congress Planned.

The president had under consideration plans for reporting progress of the peace conference regularly to congress in the future. Reports from the United States indicate there is need of explaining the details of various problems being worked out, as a misunderstanding is obvious. The tone of congressional debates is liable to result in misapprehension by the other delegates here.

When President Wilson arrives in the United States three weeks hence—he is expected to sail Feb. 14—he expects sufficient progress to have been made for a comprehensive report to congress.

Colonel E. M. House is recovering rapidly and is expected to take full part in the peace work this week.

Pichon Explains Russ Situation.

The special committees to which details of the peace settlement are referred are doing their work efficiently and rapidly, according to French Foreign Minister Stephen Pichon.

Pichon said the position of the Allied troops on the Archangel front is not desperate. He declared that while the bolsheviki are strenghtening their army in that region, they are being defeated in other parts of the country, and that this condition must soon have an effect on the northern front.

"The greatest hold of the bolsheviki on the people is that the people are led to believe if they are beaten their land will be taken from them," said Pichon. "If we could show the people that their land would remain in their hands, three-fourths of Russia would be against the bolsheviki."

UNIVERSAL TAX FOR WAR BILL

Italy Proposes Nations Put Money Into Common Pool.

Paris, Feb. 4.—A universal tax, the proceeds of which would be put into a common fund along with the indemnities Germany should be made to pay is proposed by Signor Crespi of the Italian delegation to the peace conference in the proposition he has made for the establishment of a "single financial front" for the Allies. The tax would furnish interest on that portion of the debts of the Allies which Germany had not paid, and provide a sinking fund for ultimately canceling the debts.

Senor Crispi, who said his proposal for a single Allied financial front had been well received by Allied ministers, declared that his great point was that the Central Empires as a whole must be forced to compensate the Allies for the war damages they had suffered.

No Soft Drink "Barmaids.

Salt Lake City, Feb. 4.—"Barmaids" in this city, even though they dispense only soft drinks, will not be tolerated, according to an edict just handed down down by Chief of Police J. Parley White. Since Utah entered the prohibition column of states many soft drink parlors have employed women to take the place of men, allowing them to work behind bars where liquor formerly was sold. The custom, according to Chief White, had developed to such a point where he feared underworld practices might follow.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Nellie B. Brittingham, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

The Many Mysteries of Nature

BY L. W. BOWER, M. D.

You can take an onion seed and a pansy seed, and plant them side by side in the same spot of ground. In one case, you get an onion, with its peculiarly strong odor, and in the other you get a flower of rare beauty. You can plant a poppy seed and get opium (a dangerous, habit-forming drug), or you can plant a rhubarb seed and get something that helps constipation. No scientist, living or dead, can explain these mysteries of Nature. Behind the invisible life germ in each seed is hidden the deep secret that nobody understands. Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening drains, bearing-down pains, periodical irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it.

Favorite Prescription should have the full confidence of every woman in America because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whisky and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. of tablets.

Little Falls.—C. L. Ferrell, of Fargo, N. D., who was given two days in which to make his plea on the charge of grand larceny in the first degree imposed upon him by the grand jury for robbing E. Traseth of two $50 liberty bonds and $10 in cash at the West hotel, some time ago, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary.

Tyler.—By an almost unanimous vote the citizens of Tyler authorized the village council to sell bonds to the amount of $20,000 to take up outstanding orders issued by the city to rebuild the waterworks and electric light plant, which was destroyed by the tornado that swept through the town on the night of August 21 last. There were only eight votes cast against the bonding proposition.

Northfield.—Prof. Fred Burnett Hill, of Carleton college, died of pneumonia following influenza. He had been ill two weeks. Prof. Hill was chairman of the Minnesota committee formed to assist in the raising of the $5,000,000 National Pilgrim Memorial fund. He started the contributions in this state with a donation of $10,000. Prof. and Mrs. Hill some time ago erected and gave the Sayles-Hill gymnasium to Carleton college.

St. Paul.—A flare-up in the Minnesota influenza epidemic was indicated in a bulletin issued by the State Board of Health, showing 1,644 new cases reported last week. The total was compared with 742 new cases for the week ended January 18; 1,521 for that ended January 11, and 207 for the week ended January 5. Although the January total may exceed 5,000 cases, nevertheless it will be the lowest for any month since the appearance of the disease last September, according to the health officials.

Deer River.—T. H. Martin, local farmer, who last fall filled his silo with sunflower as an experiment states the venture is a great success. The sunflower stalk makes excellent ensilage, he says, and the cattle will leave all other feedstuffs for it, and clean up the last spot of it. As the sunflower produces about four times as much ensilage as does corn, it is profitable as feed for winter in this country.

Chisholm.—Steve Jurtich, 37, was instantly killed in the Chisholm mine by a fall of ore. He lived at the Glen location and is survived by his wife and three children.

Brainerd.—On complaint of Deputy Game Warden, A. R. Cardle, of Brainerd, Leo Mattson was arrested and fined $10 and cost for using a fish house without license on Hamlet lake.

Red Lake Falls.—Red Lake county gets an allotment of $19,800 from the state highway commission this year provided that the county will spend $35,750 of its own money in improving the state roads.

Bemidji.—A meeting will be held here, Wednesday, Feb. 12, at the Commercial club rooms, when the matter of building a trunk telephone line from Bemidji to Nebish, about twenty-five miles, will be discussed.

Thief River Falls — The Elks of Thief River Falls and vicinity will hold their winter charity carnival about the middle of February. A committee was appointed at the last meeting to make all the necessary arrangements.

St. Cloud.—Al Burley, before Judge John A. Roeser of the district court, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of assaulting Anthony Forcier of the Merchants hotel, and was sentenced to a year in the state penitentiary at Stillwater.

St. Paul.—Rev. Father Claude Wiemann, O. S. B., 41, native of St. Paul, assistant pastor of St. Boniface Catholic church, Minneapolis, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wiemann, St. Paul, died suddenly at the parish house. Heart disease was said to have caused his death.

Stevenson.—Former Chief of Police Troyer, of Duluth, has been here with other sleuths looking over local affairs with a view to putting a stop to holdups, robberies and other crimes, quite numerous of late, and is expected to furnish evidence to be laid before the grand jury at Hibbing.

St. Paul.—Thirty-five former employes of the Railroad and Warehouse commission now returning from military service will find their old jobs waiting for them, Commissioner O. P. B. Jacobson announced. The majority of the men are of the grain inspection department. The same reinstatement policy is in effect in other state departments.

Minneapolis.—The Minnesota Horticultural Society, at its annual meeting held at the West hotel, re-elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, R. S. McIntosh, St. Paul; Secretary, A. W. Latham, Minneapolis; Treasurer, George H. Strand, Taylors Falls, and the old list of vice presidents from the 10 congressional districts of Minnesota.

Moorhead.—A verdict for $3,400 was returned in favor of W. R. Tillotson in his suit against the city of Moorhead, in Clay county district court. The suit was for $20,000 damages claimed because of injuries sustained when Mr. Tillotson tripped on a wire, stretched near the curb in front of the postoffice, and fell, breaking his leg, on Aug. 7, 1917.

Ortonville.—The Big Stone County Military association is the newly found "good angel" for the Ortonville motor corps of the state home guard. The social organization is formed to aid in maintaining the local corps and members will be assessed $2 a month dues to that end. It has filed articles of incorporation in the office of Secretary of State, Julius A. Schmahl.

St. Paul.—Governor Burnquist has made public a plan to station a state representative at Camp Dodge to furnish advance information of homecoming arrangements for Minnesota soldiers mustered out of service there. The purpose is to help place the men in employment when they reach their homes, and also to enable local reception committees to prepare welcomes for the returning soldiers.

St. Cloud.—William Glassman of this city was arrested on a charge of forging a $600 note, which was later sold to F. F. Storms at a discount. The note was dated Jan. 7, and was payable on Feb. 1, and bore 8 per cent interest. When the sheriff went to the house after him he ran to the attic and when the officer reached that place Glassman was making an attempt to crawl out upon the roof. His hearing has been set for Jan. 30.

Minneapolis.—Two airplanes will leave the Twin Cities in a few days, for the northern part of the state, one going to Duluth and the other to Moorhead, according to announcement made by the Minnesota Motor Corps. The trips will be under the command of Captain J. P. Einster, aviation section, Minnesota Motor Corps. Lieutenant C. V. Marshall will pilot the machine going to Duluth, while Lieutenant W. A. Butters will go to Moorhead.

Crookston.—Cupid surpassed many records in this vicinity, when Miss Pearl Bemis was married to Charles E. Woolms, a young Crookston business man, who came here from New York state three weeks ago and met her for the first time only a fortnight ago. Mr. Woolms located here and opened an auto repair and painting shop. He happened to select his new bride to do some typewriting for him and at the first meeting Cupid's darts began to fly. A fast and efficient courtship followed on the part of Mr. Woolms, which ended in the announcement of their marriage. "We work fast in New York state," was his answer to the congratulations of his friends. His bride is an orphan and has an estate of $15,000.

Navy Gets 60 Men.—More than 60 recruits were obtained for the navy in the Minneapolis district this week, Lieut. George A. Treadwell, recruiting officer, announced yesterday. The marine corps, which has been recruiting about 15 men a week in this district since recruiting for the service was resumed, is to begin an active campaign for more marines soon.

East Grand Forks.—Last rites were held in Sacred Heart church for Mayor Cornelius Joseph Kelleher of this city, who died of pneumonia, following influenza, aged 51. He leaves a wife and five children.

Put Auto Before Wife.

Men are taking good care of their automobiles these days. Most of them don't know where they will get another.

The other day a man ran away with our neighbor's wife and his automobile at the same time.

Our neighbor came up out of the basement just in time to see him driving away, and he yelled at the driver:

"Don't forget to send the car back."

TOO WEAK TO FIGHT

The "Come-back" man was really never down-and-out. His weakened condition because of overwork, lack of exercise, improper eating and living demands stimulation to satisfy the cry for a health-giving appetite and the refreshing sleep essential to strength. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, the National Remedy of Holland, will do the work. They are wonderful. Three of these capsules each day will put a man on his feet before he knows it; whether his trouble comes from uric acid poisoning, the kidneys, gravel or stone in the bladder, stomach derangement or other ailments that befall the over-zealous American. The best known, most reliable remedy for these troubles is GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This remedy has stood the test for more than 200 years since its discovery in the ancient laboratories in Holland. It acts directly and gives relief at once. Don't wait until you are entirely down-and-out, but take them today. Your druggist will gladly refund your money if they do not help you. Accept no substitutes. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on every box, three sizes. They are the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil Capsules.—Adv.

Good Delivery.

Hilife—I hear your new minister is a great success. One of those straight-from-the-shoulder speakers, who can put 'em over the plate.

He who shirks the duty he dislikes will be shunned by the success he desires.

"Madam, the feather in your hat is getting in my eye," said the man on the crowded car.

"Why don't you wear glasses?" snapped the woman.—Boston Transcript.

She Was Prepared.

A Saco woman steeled herself against the time when the order came to set the clock back. "They can't fool me," she said. "I never set mine ahead."

Acid-Stomach Ruins Health of Millions

Besides those painful attacks of indigestion; that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and downright stomach misery that you who have experienced it know so well; besides disgusting belching, food-repeating, sour stomach and distressing heartburn—besides all this, ACID-STOMACH undermines the health and saps the strength of millions.

If you don't get rid of those stomach miseries there is no telling where your stomach troubles will end, for it is a well known scientific fact that many serious ailments have their start in an acid-stomach.

Start now—this very day—to get rid of your stomach miseries. Take EATONIC—the wonderful remedy that absorbs the excess acid from the stomach and brings INSTANT relief. You simply have no idea how much better, stronger and brighter you feel at once. It drives out all the gas and bloat, puts an immediate stop to belching and heartburn, ends stomach suffering and makes it cool, sweet, comfortable and strong.

There can be no further excuse for you to allow acid-stomach to wreck your health—pile up misery upon misery until you get to the point where you feel down and out and that life has lost all its joys. Remember, just as acid-mouth ruins teeth, so acid-stomach ruins health.

Take EATONIC. It's good, just like a bit of candy and makes the stomach feel fine. You can then eat the things you like and, what is more, every mouthful you eat will count in creating power and energy. You'll feel so much better—have punch and pep—the power and will to do things and get results, and your stomach misery will be gone.

Take our advice. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. It costs so little. If it fails to remove your stomach distress, he will refund your money. That is guaranteed; you are to be satisfied or money refunded.

SAVE FOOD AS NEVER BEFORE

This Is Call of Food Administration to Public for Coming Year.

INCREASE OF FIFTY PER CENT IS NEEDED

Last Year 11,820,000 Tons Sent Army and Allies—This Year 17,550,000 Must Go.

The people of the United States are right back up against [illegible]

What about the other 80 per cent or more than 80,000,000 people? In other words, what about saving in the American home?

"This is the answer: The American housewife must put herself into intensive training so as to learn to manage her resources as effectively as the soldier is compelled to save his strength, and use it with the most telling force. She must conserve scientifically, and all the other members of the family must support her loyally in doing this. All must conserve in the use of every kind of food. To eat merely for the pleasure of eating, after enough has been consumed to sustain health and strength, is to waste just as surely as to throw good food into the garbage can.

"Here is a typical illustration: A small boy in a Minnesota household the other day, within an hour after a hearty dinner, asked for something to eat. His mother knew that he could not be hungry [illegible] merely asking for food to satisfy his appetite for goodies. [illegible]

I'm Not Constipated Now

For the man at the desk Constipation is a common ailment. His habits of life are such that his bowels become sluggish and if neglected the result is serious.

Read the experience of J. R. Groesch of La Crosse, Wis.

"For the past two years I have had stomach trouble and was badly constipated. My business was such that I was without physical exercise all day long. I tried many remedies and recently tried DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS. I found them to be exactly what I needed. I never used any medicine that acted so naturally and without any griping or cramping."

Any man, woman or child suffering from constipation and its attendant ills, who will try DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS will find in them a safe and effective medicine. They are pleasant to take—taste like candy—no trouble to get children to take them—can be chewed. Costs only a few cents a box at any drug store.

Wonderful Cuba Caves.

The wonderful caves of Bellamar, Cuba, to the east of Havana, attract the attention of the ambitious tourist. They are on a plateau as level as a table top, which presents no signs of the existence of such caves. After descending into the earth, however, a picture unfolds itself. Then come many passages, and at last the great "Gothic temple," 250 feet long and 85 feet wide.

Ole Sevevson of Dakota was entertained Saturday at the C. L. Heinze home. Mr. Sverson came here last week to attend the wedding of his niece, Miss Lydia Bjerk.

Remember the short hay crop last year, and now while there is plenty of time to plan, suppose you plan on a patch of corn fodder, rutabagas or mangels, to feed along with your hay next winter. Then the cultivating you do on that piece of land, will be fully as good as summer fallowing, perhaps even better. It's worth trying anyway.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

13 Dollars—13 Cents

When Swift & Company paid, say,—13 dollars per hundredweight for live beef cattle last year, the profit was only 13 cents! In other words, if we had paid $13.13, we would have made no profit.

Or, if we had received a quarter of a cent per pound less for dressed beef, we would have made no profit.

It is doubtful whether any other business is run on so close a margin of profit.

This is bringing the producer and the consumer pretty close together—which should be the object of any industry turning raw material into a useful form.

This remarkable showing is due to enormous volume, perfected facilities (packing plants strategically located, branch houses, refrigerator cars, etc.), and an army of men and women chosen and trained to do their special work.

This, and many other points of interest, are found in the Swift & Company Year Book for 1919, just published which is brought out for the public as well as for the 25,000 Swift & Company shareholders.

The Year Book also represents the packer's side of the Federal Trade Commission investigation, upon which Congress is asked to base action against the industry.

Many who have never heard the packer's side are sending for the Year Book.

Would you like one? Merely mail your name and address to the Chicago office and the book will come to you.

Weekly Health Talks

Where Most Sickness Begins and Ends

BY FRANKLIN DUANE, M. D.

It can be said broadly that most human ills begin in the stomach and end in the stomach. Good digestion means good health, and poor digestion means bad health. The minute your stomach fails to properly dispose of the food you eat, troubles begin to crop out in various forms. Indigestion and dyspepsia are the commonest forms, but thin, impure blood, headaches, backaches, pimples, blotches, dizziness, belching, coated tongue, weakness, poor appetite, sleeplessness, coughs, colds and bronchitis are almost as common. There is but one way to have good health, and that is to put and keep your stomach in good order. This is easy to do if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a wonderful tonic and blood purifier, and is so safe to take, for it is made of roots and herbs. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., stands behind this standard medicine, and it is good to know that so distinguished a physician is proud to have his name identified with it. When you take Golden Medical Discovery, you are getting the benefit of the experience of a doctor whose reputation goes all around the earth. Still more, you get a temperance medicine that contains not a drop of alcohol or narcotic of any kind. Long ago Dr. Pierce combined certain valuable vegetable ingredients—without the use of alcohol—so that these remedies always have been strictly temperance medicines.

If piles are torturing you, get and use Pierce's Anodyne Pile Ointment. The quick relief it gives is hard to believe until you try it. If constipated Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken while using Anodyne Pile Ointment. Few indeed are the cases which these splendid remedies will not relieve and usually overcome. They are so good that nearly every drug store has them for sale.

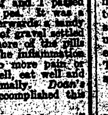
A Terrible Ordeal!

Gravel and Kidney Stone Caused Intense Suffering—Doan's Brought a Quick Cure.



Mr. Turecek

Edw. J. Turecek, 4822 Eichelberger Ave., St. Louis, Mo., says: "I was taken with a terrible pain across the back and every move I made, it felt like a knife being driven into my back and twisted around. It lasted about half an hour, but soon came back and with it another affliction. The kidney secretions began to pain me; the flow was scanty and burned like fire when passing. I had severe headaches and my bladder got badly inflamed, too, and I noticed little particles of gravel in the secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills had been recommended to me and I began their use. The first half box brought relief and I passed a stone the size of a pea. It was a terrible ordeal and afterwards a sandy sediment and particles of gravel settled in the urine. I got more of the pills and they cured me. The inflammation left and there was no more pain or gravel. I now sleep well, eat well and my kidneys act normally. Doan's Kidney Pills alone accomplished this wonderful cure."

"Subscribed and sworn to before me," JAMES M. SMITH, Notary Public.

The chief justice of the supreme court is raised from $7,500 to $9,000, and the associate justices from $7,000 to $8,500. The supreme court commissioners are also given $8,500 each.

Judges of district court are raised from $4,200 to $6,000, with $1,500 additional for the judges in Ramsey, Hennepin and St. Louis counties. The additional $1,500 would be paid by these counties.

Members of the board of control, superintendent of public instruction, public examiner, commissioner of highways, commissioner of insurance, superintendent of banks, members of the tax commission, secretary to the governor, clerk of the supreme court, are raised from $4,500 to $6,000 each. Railroad and warehouse commissioners are to get $6,500 each.

Assistant attorney generals are to have $5,300 each and the deputy attorney general $6,000.

$5,000 for Adjutant General.

The adjutant general and commissioner of labor are each to have $5,000. The secretary of the state board of health $5,500, state forester, $4,500.

The commissioner of weights and measures, dairy and food commissioner, state librarian, state printers, deputy secretary of state, secretary of the state board of investment, deputy state auditor, and deputy treasurer, deputy superintendent of banks and deputy commissioner of insurance, each $3,500.

Secretary of the forestry board $3,000; hotel inspectors, $2,500; superintendent of timber, $4,000; chief of accounts, $4,000; game and fish commissioner, $4,000; secretary of the tax commission, $3,500.

Assails Salary Increases.

In a signed statement, Lieutenant-Governor Frankson assails the public officials, state, county and municipal, who are flooding the legislature with demands for an increase in salary.

Declaring that the members of the legislature are not asking an increase of compensation for themselves, nor voluntarily asking it for others, Mr. Frankson says:

"To demand an increase of wages for public officials and clerks at this time when our state and nation need united action, co-operation and conservation of every human agency, together with all our natural resources and wealth, is an act unpatriotic and uncalled for.

Taxation Problem Called Serious.

"It is a fact that the taxation problem is serious for every taxpayer in the state, whether he lives in the city or on the farm. If our taxes increase during the next 30 years at the rate they have during the past 30 they will practically reach the stage of confiscation."

Mr. Frankson declares he believes it his duty as presiding officer of the senate to call the attention of the public to the demands of "these salary grabbers," who are flooding the legislature with bills from every department of the state, city and county government.

Mr. Frankson takes the position that this is the time for the already well-paid public official who remained at home with a good job, during the war, to show consideration for the thousands of patriotic citizens who gave up good positions in private life to enter the army and fight for the flag. The taxpayers also are entitled to some consideration, he declares.

House Vote Revises Record.

By a practically unanimous vive voce vote the house expunged from the records the resolution demanding the removal of Postmaster General Burleson and the restoration of the Twin City telephone employes to their former jobs.

Safety Board Bill Sent Back.

An attempt to bring the bill repealing the Public Safety commission law before the state senate failed and the measure was sent back to committee for further consideration. The bill, introduced by Senator Fred Bessette of Orr, was favorably reported by the Civil Administration committee.

When the committee report was read Senator John D. Sullivan of St. Cloud immediately objected. He insisted that the bill had been recommended by a vote of three to two in the committee, with four members absent. The measure was referred back to committee, following Senator Sullivan's objections.

Motor Corps Bill Favored.

The house committee on appropriations has recommended the motor corps bill for passage and voted to ask that it be made a special order.

The bill provides for the enlistment and equipment of 2,074 men and carries an appropriation of $150,000 annually from which pay and allowances for the corps are to be drawn.

The men are to be paid whenever the corps is in service more than twenty-four hours.

Efforts to eliminate the aero squadron, intended for patrol of the forest regions, were defeated by a vote of the committee.

Babcock Plan in House.

The Babcock road bill has come back to the house branded by the committee on highways as its own, which means that the bill will go on general orders and the members of the highways committee will fight to have it passed in its present form as a proposed constitutional amendment incorporating a complete trunk system of highways.

In the senate, Patrick McGarry of Walker, chairman of the highways committee of that body, has given notice that he will move for passage of the bill as a special order of business.

Consideration of all amendments to the proposed Babcock plan, where such proposed amendments deal only with change in routes or new routes to be added to the system was placed in the hands of sub-committee by members of the house and senate highways committees.

House Passes Fire Relief Bill.

The house passed the $1,800,000 forest fire relief appropriation under suspension of the rules.

The report of the Bendixen special committee seemed to have satisfied all objections to giving the entire amount asked by the state fire relief commission. The roll call was perfunctory.

The $1,800,000 provides for an overdraft of $400,000, and relief for the next five months.

For Emergency Brigade.

Representative E. O. Oren of Faribault proposes in a concurrent resolution that an emergency brigade be organized on the plan of the national guard. The emergency brigade is to be known as the state guard and is to be used by the governor to aid sufferers from cyclones, forest fires or other disasters.

Want Smaller Colleges to Share.

Representatives of denominational colleges throughout the state protested vigorously against a joint bill introduced to provide free tuition at the University of Minnesota to men and women of Minnesota who have served this country in the world war.

Dr. Donald H. Cowling of Carleton college and Dr. S. F. Kerfoot of Hamline university were spokesmen before the senate committee of education. They asked that the bill, introduced by Senator Leonard H. Nord in the senate and Representative F. J. McPartlin in the house, be amended to include an appropriation to furnish free tuition under like conditions in the smaller colleges.

To Help Industrial Cripples.

A concurrent resolution to memorialize Congress in favor of the passage of the Smith-Bankhead bill, to provide for the rehabilitation of industrial employes crippled at their work as well as vocational education for crippled soldiers was passed by the Senate unanimously after its introduction by Senator J. G. Callahan of Minneapolis.

Bill Affecting Bars Passed.

Red Lake county, which was made dry by a commission order, now becomes wet, but the senate has passed the bill of Senators James Cumming and F. H. Peterson prohibiting the sale of liquor within 50 miles of an Indian reservation. If this is passed by the house, Red Lake county will again be dry.

Among the important measures passed by the Senate was one introduced by Senator H. N. Benson, of St. Peter which would allow money to be loaned from the state treasury to the state prison revolving fund when advances are necessary to meet business requirements of the prison twine plant.

This arrangement will allow the prison to borrow money from the state at a lower rate of interest than it could be had from banks or individuals. In the past two years, without this provision, and in face of the war raise in prices, the prison warden was compelled to borrow nearly $2,000,000 for the operation of the twine plant.

Representative C. H. Warner introduced a bill proposing that newspapers, periodicals and pamphlets printed in a foreign language must run English translations of all matter contained therein, the translation to be verified by a competent translator in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction. The bill was referred to the judiciary committee.

MASONS CLOSE LONG MEETING

War Scare in Raleigh, N. C., in 1865, Prevented Observance of Ancient Ritual.

Raleigh, N. C.—After a lapse of 52 years, the longest Masonic "communication" on record came to an end one night recently, when John Nichols, master, formally "closed" a meeting of Hiram Lodge, No. 40, which began on April 17, 1865. Gov. Thomas W. Bickett, William W. Kitchen, formerly governor; Chief Justice Walter Clark and many other prominent Masons of the state attended.

Four days before the original convening of the lodge Raleigh had been surrendered to the Union army under Gen. William T. Sherman. News of the assassination of President Lincoln was received that evening after the lodge had gone into session.

Gen. John A. Logan, later vice president, who was in command of the city, learned that a division of negro troops had threatened to burn Raleigh

THE KINSHIP OF THE NEW AMERICAN

Aims and Ideals of the United States and Canada Will Soon Be Signed.

The war is over, peace will soon be signed, the fighting nations have sheathed their swords, and the day of reconstruction has come.

What of it!

Hundreds of thousands of men, taken from the fields of husbandry, from the ranks of labor, from the four walls of the counting house, and the confines of the workshop, taken from them to do their part, their large part, in the prevention of the spoliation of the world, and in the meantime removed from the gear of common everyday life, will be returning, only to find in many cases old positions filled, the machinery with which they were formerly attached dislocated.

Are they to become aimless wanderers, with the ultimate possibility of augmenting an army of menacing loafers? If they do it it is because their ability to assist in laying new foundations, in building up much required structures, is underestimated. Men who have fought as they have fought, who have risked and faced dangers as they have, are not of the caliber likely to flinch when it comes to the restoration of what the enemy partially destroyed, when it comes to the reconstruction of the world the ideals of which they had in view when they took part in the great struggle whose Divine purpose was to bring about this reconstruction.

Inured to toil, thoughtless of fatigue, trained in initiative and hardened by their outdoor existence they will return better and stronger men, boys will have matured and young men will have developed.

They will decide of themselves lines of action and thought, and what their future should and will be. On the field of battle they developed alertness and wisdom, and they will return with both shedding from every pore.

Action was their by-word and it will stand them in good stead now that the din of the battle no longer rings in their ears, or the zero hour signals them to the fray, and it will continue during their entire existence.

But if they return to find their old avocation gone, their places filled, the institutions with which they were connected no longer exist, new walks of life and employment must be opened to them. It may be that the counting house, the factory, the workshop will have lost their attraction. The returned soldier will look elsewhere for employment; within his reach there is always the "Forward-to-the-Land" necessity. In this lies the remedy that will not only take care of a multitude of those who may not be able to return to their former occupations, whose desires are not to do so, whose health prohibits them from indoor life or whose outdoor habits from the past one, two, three or four years have given them such a taste and desire for it that confinement would be unbearable. Farm life will thus appeal to them, and the indications are that it will be taken advantage of by thousands. It means much to them as well as to the Continent of America that provides the opportunity to the world at large, and to the stricken and famished nations of Europe, who, not only today, but for years to come, will require the sustenance that can only largely be supplied by the United States and Canada. By following the pursuit of agriculture the returned soldier will continue the cause he so greatly advanced when fighting on the field of battle. Both countries have undeveloped areas yet open to settlement.

There is little need here to direct attention to the wealth that has come to the farmers of Canada within the past few years. It is not only in grain growing that unqualified and almost unequaled success has followed honest effort, but the raising of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs has been large source of profit. These are facts that are well known to the many friends and acquaintances of the thousands of farmers from the United States who have acquired wealth on the prairies of Western Canada. Farms of from one hundred and sixty to six hundred and forty acres of the richest soil may be secured on reasonable terms, and with an excellent climate, with a school system equal to any in the world, and desirable social conditions, little else could be asked.

Canadian statesmen are today busily engaged planning for the future of the returned soldier with a view to making him independent of state help after the immediate necessary assistance has been granted, the main idea being to show in the fullest degree the country's appreciation of the services he has rendered.

But, now that the war is ended, and the fact apparent that of all avocations the most profitable and independent is that of the farmer, there will be a strong desire to secure farm lands for cultivation. Canada offers the opportunity to those seeking, not as speculation but as production. The deepest interest is taken by Federal and Provincial authorities to further the welfare of the farmer and secure a maximum return for his efforts. Large sums of money are spent in educational and experimental work. Engaged in Experimental and Demonstration farms, and in the agricultural colleges, are men of the highest technical knowledge and practical experience, some being professors of international reputation. The results of experiments and tests are free and available to all. Educational opportunities for farmers are the concern of the Government and appreciation is shown by the number of farmers who attend the free courses.

Agriculture in Canada has reached a high standard, notwithstanding which lands are low in price.

Thus upon the United States and Canada for many years will rest the great burden of feeding the world. With free interchange of travel, difficulties of crossing and recrossing removed, Canada may look for a speedy resumption of the large influx of settlers from the United States which prevailed previous to the war. During the war period there was a dread of something, no one seemed to know what: if the American went to Canada he might be conscripted, put in prison, or in his attempt to cross the border he would meet with innumerable difficulties, most of which, of course, was untrue. These untruths were circulated for a purpose by an element, which, it was discovered had an interest in fomenting and creating trouble and distrust between two peoples whose language and aims in life should be anything but of an unfriendly character. The draft law of the United States adopted for the carrying out of the high purposes had in view by the United States kept many from going to Canada during the period of the war. The citizen army of the United States was quickly mobilized, and contained a large percentage of the young men from the farms. In this way many were prevented from going to Canada.

That is all over now. There are no real or imaginary restrictions; there is no draft law to interfere. On the contrary there is an unfathomable depth of good feeling, and the long existing friendship is stronger than ever. This has been brought about by the knowledge of what has been done in the recent great struggle, each vying with the other in giving credit for what was accomplished. In thought and feeling, in language, in aims in life, in work, in desire to build up a new world, there has been bred a kinship which is as indissoluble as time itself.—Advertisement.

HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES IF YOUR BACK ACHES

Do you feel tired and "worn-out?" Are you nervous and irritable? Don't sleep well at night? Have a "dragged out," unrested feeling when you get up in the morning? Dizzy spells? Bilious? Bad taste in the mouth, backache, pain or soreness in the loins, and abdomen? Severe distress when urinating, bloody, cloudy urine or sediment? All these indicate gravel or stone in the bladder, or that the poisonous microbes, which are always in your system, have attacked your kidneys.

You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The oil soaks gently into the walls and lining of the kidneys, and the little poisonous animal germs, which are causing the inflammation, are immediately attacked and chased out of your system without inconvenience or pain.

Don't ignore the "little pains and aches," especially backaches. They may be little now but there is no telling how soon a dangerous or fatal disease of which they are the forerunners may show itself. Go after the cause of that backache at once, or you may find yourself in the grip of an incurable disease.

Do not delay a minute. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In 24 hours you will feel renewed health and vigor. After you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two Capsules each day so as to keep in first-class condition, and ward off the danger of future attacks. Money refunded if they do not help you. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand, and thus be sure of getting the genuine.—Adv.

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."—Mrs. B. B. Zielinska, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. Josephine Kimble, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

TIES PLAN WILL PREVAIL

Savings Bodies to Be Organized in Ninth District Week of Feb. 17 to 24.

EE DIFFERENT TYPES

al Organizations for Schools, al Communities and Business Establishments Outlined to Teach Thrift.

[illegible]neapolis, Minn.—The week of [illegible]uary 17 to 24 will be Savings Society Week in the Ninth Federal Reserve District. [illegible] time was today fixed by A. R. [illegible], chairman of the Ninth District War Loan Organization, as the [illegible] in which every community in [illegible] Ninth Federal Reserve District [illegible] organize the War Savings Societies which are to be the nucleus of [illegible] 1919 campaign for Thrift. [illegible] and War Savings Stamp [illegible]. Centering on the society plan [illegible] scores in each society and [illegible] throughout the district will [illegible] a common point of contact [illegible] weekly or semi-monthly meetings, the District War Loan Organization [illegible] to have Thrift written large [illegible] minds and hearts of every man [illegible] child in the district. A [illegible] appeal will be made for the pur[illegible] of W. S. S. with the money [illegible].

Three Types.

[illegible] definite types of War Savings [illegible] have been worked out at [illegible] by John H. Meyering, [illegible] of the W. S. S. division, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in so many rural communities.

[illegible], there is hardly any limit to [illegible] number or nature of groups which [illegible] organize War Savings Societies. [illegible] the models such names as [illegible] "community," or "industrial" [illegible] must merely to indicate [illegible] nature of the plan. Any [illegible] can organize, choosing the type [illegible] best suited to its needs. [illegible] group will be urged to organize [illegible] farmers' clubs, commercial clubs, [illegible] orders, woman's clubs, clubs [illegible] and girls, mutual co-operative [illegible] of all sorts, every father [illegible] the message of thrift, [illegible] and the purchase of [illegible] securities can be placed [illegible] a number of persons, will be [illegible].

Americanization work is to be closely linked with the War Savings Societies, especially in communities where [illegible] considerable proportion of the population [illegible] not yet come under the [illegible] spirit and the benefits [illegible] living in the United [illegible]. It is the opinion of the [illegible] committee that ownership of W. [illegible] and other Government securities [illegible] distinct help to Americanization. It will increase the interest of [illegible] individual in his Government [illegible] he knows he owns a part of the [illegible] public debt.

Speed Up Organization.

[illegible] chairmen of War Savings [illegible] have been advised by Mr. [illegible] to get in touch immediately [illegible] workers in their territories [illegible] make preparations for forming societies during the week of [illegible]uary 17. There also will be [illegible] of county chairmen at various points in each state of the Ninth [illegible], at which the information [illegible] will be made available for the [illegible]. At each of these meetings a [illegible] from headquarters in Minneapolis will attend with information [illegible] advice. A Speakers' Bureau is [illegible] worked up which will be able to [illegible] speakers to the societies, either [illegible] the time of organization or at [illegible] meetings.

[illegible] on the fundamental idea [illegible] value of Thrift, we intend also [illegible] convince every person in the district that the purchase of War Savings Stamps will make savings do a [illegible] bigger and more valuable work [illegible] any other use of the money," Mr. [illegible] said today. "At the same [illegible] of course, the money saved and [illegible] in stamps will be perfectly [illegible] and will yield an interest return [illegible] 4 per cent, and 5 per cent. [illegible].

Save And Invest.

[illegible] more than four years the world [illegible] been spending. Now the world [illegible] either start saving to make up [illegible] loss and waste or it must fall [illegible] into stagnation and sink to a [illegible] of comfort and happiness distinctly below that of 1914. But it is [illegible] for the American people [illegible] back if they are thrifty [illegible] have the best oppor[illegible]tunity to save, of any of the world's nations. We have food, clothing and money—all the good things in life. But we must make the basis of this prosperity secure. Saving makes the future prosperity of the individual safe. At the same time it supplies money to the Government with which the whole national structure can be so strengthened that we will not have to lose or forego our general prosperity.

"With these appeals there is also the fact that America must loan money to other nations if these nations are to continue to buy goods in the United States and by so doing give steady employment to our industrial and agricultural workers. During the war while we were supplying the world, our production expanded tremendously. We must hold those foreign markets if we are to keep up that production rate. We must hold foreign markets or undergo such a slackening in manufacture and agriculture, that every individual will suffer.

"Much of the money loaned through investment in War Savings Stamps will go to meet the overwhelming war expense which remains to be paid. Much of the rest will go to foreign nations as credits with which they can buy of us and keep the home wheels turning."

A Permanent Force.

The War Savings societies formed this year will probably become an increasingly important factor in financing the United States when the period for Liberty Loans has passed. According to Mr. Rogers, the Treasury Department plans to make the societies permanent so far as possible and to keep War Savings Stamps on sale as a means whereby every individual can save with security at the same time that he is adding to the Government's income. Not the least advantage of such a plan will be a material reduction of taxes in coming years, in so far as the total of many small savings defrays the heavy national expense we must carry as a result of the war.

WAR WON, BUT NOT ENDED

[illegible] Says Readjustment Days Need Aid of Every Citizen.

Statement by United States Senator Asle J. Gronna, of North Dakota.

"The war has been won but has not ended. The days of readjustment will demand the cooperation and intelligent aid of every loyal American citizen. [illegible] must be called to defray [illegible] bills which will worry the [illegible] of the nation's financial destiny for some time to come.

"Patriotic, constructive aid can be rendered the Government now by even the smallest wage earner, and in such a manner as to make his patriotic effort a foundation of good fortune. The Government is urging American citizens to continue the purchase of War Savings and Thrift Stamps and other Government securities to help raise money to defray expenses which at present are even heavier than those which arose while the war was on. Our financial stability must be maintained, our credit must remain unimpaired.

"I heartily approve of the Government's plan to spread the gospel of thrift in every home throughout the land. The purchase of War Savings and Thrift Stamps is a practical manifestation of thrift. The likeness of Benjamin Franklin which appears on the new issue is indeed significant, and homage should be paid to him by every citizen by investing in Government securities, thereby laying the foundation for the national spirit of thrift which I believe the war has inculcated to many who formerly did not know the meaning of the word."

SUPPORT OF OUR SOLDIERS

People Should Buy Liberty Bonds and W. S. S. Says Clark.

Statement by Speaker Champ Clark of Missouri.

"It goes without saying that there must and will be another big Bond Issue. Having put our hands to the plow we must not look back. We cannot afford to. Because while the world war is really over, it is not technically ended until President Wilson issues a proclamation to that effect. We still have a huge army overseas and while it should be brought home as soon as ships can bring our soldiers back, until they get back they must be fed and clothed and otherwise cared for. It would be an everlasting shame not to do that. So people should subscribe for the impending loan and purchase War Savings Stamps as readily and liberally as they subscribed for past loans. It's for the support of our soldiers and nothing is too good for them."

"CHAMP CLARK."

Whatever helps to build up our village, also adds to the prosperity of the farmer and to the value of his land, and whatever helps the farmer is also helpful to the village and adds to its prosperity and to the value of its property. We need each other. If either one could be removed bodily from our midst, the one left would'nt sell for much.

Wonderful Cuba Caves.

The wonderful caves of Bellamar, Cuba, to the east of Havana, attract the attention of the ambitious tourist. They are on a plateau as level as a table top, which presents no signs of the existence of such caves. After descending into the earth, however, a picture unfolds itself. Then come many passages, and at last the great "Gothic temple," 250 feet long and 80 feet wide.

LAND OF WEALTH

Western Canada Has Unbounded Possibilities.

Glorious Opportunities for the Stock Raiser, the Wheat Grower, and the Mixed Farmer—Its Fields to Feed the World.

Before there were any cattle in Alberta, or it was known that it was possible to feed them outside all the year round, the Indian hunters could always find the buffalo during the winter months pasturing in the foothills. In the summer the herds wandered on the plains and fed on the prairie grasses. The plains have since become grain fields, but the foothill district extending north from the International boundary for a thousand miles will always be a natural feeding ground for live stock. In the southern part of Alberta the altitude is greater than in the more northerly districts, but while the herds in the south have winder tracts of treeless pasturage, in the north from Red Deer on into the Peace river country there are more trees, a richer vegetation and more natural shelter.

Those who have been advocating stock raising and mixed farming for the past few years point to the number of hogs marketed as an evidence of the increased production of the Western Provinces. They may also take credit for the increase in cattle and sheep, which is very great, but perhaps not so marked as what has been accomplished in hog raising. For the first six months alone last year about half a million hogs were shipped from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. A very conservative estimate value of these animals to the farmer would be $25.00 a head.

The Canadian West is fast forging to the front of the wheat-producing countries of the world, and "No. 1 hard" is without doubt the best wheat in the market today. When it is considered that the three hundred and forty-three million four hundred and seventy-three thousand bushel crop of 1915 was from only eleven million acres of her hundreds of millions of acres, it gives an idea of what her future will be.

It is felt, however, that on account of the great money there will undoubtedly be in growing wheat during the next few years there is a possibility that farmers may be tempted to drop the growing of coarser grains, which might result in less stock being raised. Every effort is being made by the Agricultural Departments of the various Provinces to impress on the farmers that forage crops and coarse feed in abundance mean production of flesh and milk, and that in the long run the great future of the Western Provinces lies in mixed farming which will found her prosperity on a more enduring basis.

Mixed farming has always been the rule in the Eastern Provinces where the formation of the land invites variety of crop, but it has not been as common in the Western Provinces, though the practice has grown in recent years. Hitherto the man mining wheat from the rich soil has purchased most of his household food and necessities, his energies being devoted to getting every possible bushel of grain out of every foot of his land, and he has paid prices for his supplies that have made a big dent in his profits. It has now dawned on him that he can raise vegetables and poultry, and supply his own table; that with very little effort he can raise a lot of garden produce and in a very simple manner solve his own problem of the cost of living. Further, that there is an increasing market for domestic necessities such as poultry, eggs, butter, milk and cheese, which command very high prices, and that there are other roads to prosperity besides that through the wheat field.

In 1916 Canada imported 7,989,269 pounds of butter, most of it from as far away as New Zealand, and for the first time in 60 years failed to ship butter to England, a condition due to the home consumption, which is estimated to be increasing at the rate of $3,000,000 worth a year, being greatly in excess of the increased supply. This condition has brought about a change in farming methods that is far-reaching, and will result in greatly increased production all round of the necessities demanded by the home market.

Natural Resources.

One of the most important considerations to the farmer is fuel. In northern Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, where portions of the country are well wooded, the settler has little difficulty in getting all the wood he requires and thousands of men find employment in the winter cutting wood, which is shipped all over the prairie portions of the provinces. There is an abundance of coal throughout the country. It is estimated that the coal deposits in Alberta cover over 81,000 square miles and represent an available tonnage of over ten hundred thousand million tons, while those in Saskatchewan cover an area of 13,000 miles, containing over 59,000,000 tons. In Manitoba the coal reserve is not as large, but even there 160,000,000 tons is considered a conservative estimate. At the present time these deposits are only worked to a small extent, but there is no doubt that they will be a great feature in upbuilding the country and will exercise a powerful influence on its commerce.

It is a common thing in the coal districts for farmers to get their coal supply off their own farm. Near Edmonton, for example, the farmers not only supply themselves, but they carry coal to the city market and find it a considerable source of revenue in the winter time. The Edmonton coal fields under and around the city have an estimated content of sixty thousand million tons. Farmers sell the coal at $4 a ton for domestic use.

The pioneer of Western Canada knew little of the enjoyments of life, compared with the farmer in that country today. The continual extension of railway lines affords facilities undreamed of a few years ago, closing up the gaps of communication, creating immense business for the East in the West and the West in the East, and drawing the farmer all the time nearer to the zones of commerce. In creating wider markets the railways are doing more than any other agency can do for Western Canada and the country as a whole. The products of the farms, which are now readily marketed, and the vast train of employment that follows the enlargement of the farming industry, is creating new agricultural centers and causing towns and cities of importance to grow all along its lines.

An admirable system of agricultural instruction has been developed through the efforts of the Dominion government and the various provincial Departments of Agriculture. This forms part of the educational system of Western Canada and is doing much for all branches of agriculture. Experimental farms have been established at various points in the provinces, which have done wonders in developing improved methods of farming.

The result has been a great awakening to the necessity of better methods of tillage, scientific stock raising and dairying. Farmers are beginning to realize that to get what they are entitled to out of the land, they must adopt scientific methods, and as a result, careful seed selection, proper rotation and summer fallow is the order of the day. Under the favorable conditions generally anticipated, prospects point to an all round increase in production that will leave a great deal of money in the hands of the western farmer this year, and prosperity for Western Canada as a whole. It will be years before Europe will make up arrears in agricultural production, caused by the enforced idleness and wholesale destruction, and Western Canada will play a big part in filling the void.

The result of the continued shortage in cattle, the future price of beef and the solution of the perplexing problem of feeding the world are vital questions uppermost in the minds of many thinking people today.

There is no doubt that the wide acres of Western Canada can, and will, be made to play an important part in bringing about a proper balance in supply and demand. In the northern parts of Manitoba and Saskatchewan and in Alberta are many thousands of acres of the richest pasture in the world, well watered and treated by the sunniest of climates. These rolling hills for the greater part are still unpeopled and untrodden by the hoofs of domestic animals.

One of the causes assigned for the decline in stock-raising is the reduction in the areas available for grazing on account of so many big ranches being converted into farms. Experiments, conducted at Vermilion, Alberta, would rather go to show that the old grazing grounds were too large, and that the feeding is really better when the animal is confined to a comparatively limited area, providing the pasturage is of the right kind and there is plenty of water.—Advertisement.

ENEMY ACCEPTS NEW ARMISTICE

Teuton Assembly Bows to Terms of Truce After Long Debate, Danes Hear.

FOCH REFUSES DELAY

Pressure Being Exerted On Supreme War Council For Immediate Intervention In Russia—American Position Unchanged.

Paris, Feb. 18.—Pressure is being exerted on the supreme war council for an immediate intervention in Russia. The French were said to have been urged again that military action be taken against the bolsheviki on a large scale, while War Minister Winston Spencer Churchill's proposal—which has not been made public—was understood to contemplate proclamation of a state of war, if necessary. The American position in opposition to a military policy remained unchanged.

Accepts Terms.

London, Feb. 18.—The German cabinet discussed the armistice terms from 10:30 a. m. to 4 p. m., when an effort was made to summon the national assembly to decide upon the answer, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. It was found impossible to summon the assembly, it is added, and after a conference with the party leaders it was decided to accept the terms unconditionally.

Ladies Attend Meeting.

Copenhagen, Feb. 18.—The German government accepted the Allied terms for the extension of the armistice, according to a dispatch to the Politiken from Weimar.

The meeting at which the acceptance was decided upon, the Politiken's correspondent says, was attended by leaders of the various parties.

An earlier report stated that in reply to a request by Mathias Erzberger, head of the German armistice commission, for a delay in the signing of the armistice terms until Monday noon, Marshal Foch declared that the armistice expired at 5 a. m. Monday and that the last hour for signing would be 6 p. m. Sunday.

In order to be able to issue necessary orders to the troops, if not signed then, Marshal Foch said he would be obliged to leave Treves and the armistice would no longer be in force.

Conflicting Reports.

Basle, Feb. 18.—Conflicting reports received from Treves regarding the status of the armistice. One dispatch said the armistice had been prolonged indefinitely, while another said that Marshal Ferdinand Foch had allowed the Germans three days grace in which to accept the new terms. The armistice was to have expired today.

FOE IN FINANCIAL STRAITS

Total War Cost to Germany $40,000,000,000, Says Schiffer.

Weimar, Feb. 18.—The German people generally do not yet understand clearly the financial situation in which the war has left them and they are too optimistic, declared Dr. Schiffer, the minister of finance, in an address to the German national assembly.

Dr. Schiffer asked the assembly to vote a credit in the form of a loan for $6,333,000,000, the greatest loan the German people ever have been asked to raise. He said that last October the government stood on the verge of financial exhaustion. It asked for a credit of $3,750,000,000, but when this was refused, raised it by means of bank note issues. The total cost of the war to Germany was $40,000,000,000, he said.

Paris, Feb. 18.—A permanent international jurisdiction has been constituted to study problems of international law that the peace conference must solve and the codification of international law.

The union, which is without any official status, will comprise 30 members from neutral countries.

The American members are Elihu Root, John Bassett Moore and James B. Scott. Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Peru, Mexico, Great Britain, France, Italy, Spain, Belgium, Greece and Rumania also are represented.

Judge Alschuler Makes Award in Packing House Cases.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Packing house employes were given a 25 per cent advance by the decision of the arbitrator, Judge Alschuler, who has announced the award. The advance is retroactive to Nov. 10.

Hague Opposed as League Capital.

Paris, Feb. 18.—Speculation already is at work as to the seat of the secretariat of the new league of nations, provided by Article V. New York has been suggested so that President Wilson could direct the administrative work, but its distance from the other capitals seems an insuperable obstacle. The Hague as a seat meets with opposition from the French press which is not satisfied with Holland's role in the war. Brussels seems the most acceptable proposal yet made.

Weekly Health Talks

GOING BACK TO NATURE

BY DR. W. LUCAS.

People get sick because they go away from Nature, and the only way to get well is to go back. Something grows out of the ground in the form of vegetation to cure almost every ill. Some of these vegetable growths are understood by man, and some are not. Animals, it would seem, know what to do when they are sick better than men and women. Observers have noted that a sick horse, dog or cat will stop eating food and seek out some vegetable growth in the field or yard, which, when found and eaten, often restores appetite and health. Haven't you seen these animals do this very thing yourself?

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found the herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and he had these vegetables collected and made up of Mayapple, leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, into little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You must understand that when your intestines are stopped up, poisons and decayed matter are imprisoned in your system, and these are carried by the blood throughout your body. Thus does your head ache, you get dizzy, you can't sleep, your skin may break out, your appetite declines, you get tired and despondent. As a matter of fact, you may get sick all over. Don't you see how useless all this suffering is? All that is often needed is a few of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which he has placed in all drug stores for your convenience and health. Try them by all means. They are probably the very thing you need right now.

COVENANT FOR WORLD LEAGUE

9 NATIONS TO GOVERN

United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, With Four Smaller States to Form Executive Council of Body.

Paris, Feb. 15.—As outlined in the covenant read by President Wilson, the executive council of the League of Nations will consist of representatives of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, and Japan, together with representatives of four other powers.

The council shall meet as often as is necessary, but at least once a year, at whatever place may be designated.

Any matter within the sphere of action of the league, or affecting the peace of the world, will be dealt with.

Wilson To Call First Meeting.

The President of the United States shall summon the first meeting of the body of delegates and the executive council.

The league will have a secretariat under the direction of a secretary general, who shall appoint the other members.

The secretary general shall act in that capacity at all meetings.

Requirements For Membership.

The representatives of the high contracting parties and the officials of the league shall have diplomatic privileges and immunity. The building occupied by the league or its officials shall enjoy extraterritorial benefits.

The admission of states not signatory to the covenant shall be with the assent of not less than two-thirds of the states represented in the body of delegates and shall be limited to fully selfgoverning countries.

No state shall be admitted unless it gives effective guaranties to observe international obligations and unless it shall conform to conditions prescribed by the league in regard to its naval and military forces and armament.

To Protect Nations Attacked.

The high contracting parties undertake to respect and preserve the territorial integrity and political independence of all states members of the league against external aggression.

In case of any such aggression or any threat of danger of such aggression, the executive council shall advise upon the means by which the obligations of the members shall be fulfilled.

Declared Constitutional.

The plan for the Society of Nations, in the opinion of American delegates, is safe against attack on the ground of unconstitutionality. If it involves an alliance requiring the use of American troops, in combination with those of other nations, against an offender against the law of nations, as laid down by the conference, it is recalled that there is precedent for such an alliance in a treaty between the United States and France more than a century ago. It is also pointed out by authorities that power is reserved to congress to carry out the pledge in its own way through its control of appropriations and war making power.

The senate, especially, has distinctive powers in its right to approve or disapprove treaties such as that which is necessary to give life to the Society of Nations.

President Leaves For Home.

Preparations were completed for the homeward voyage of the presidential party, which left Paris for Brest on a special train and will sail on the liner George Washington, on which it came to France. This time the party is much reduced, the large staff of state department employes and numerous experts, who came over with Mr. Wilson, remaining in Paris.

Labor to Consider Merger.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Delegates of Illinois labor organizations will meet in May to arrange details of a proposed merger of the Labor party, recently organized at Chicago, and the Nonpartisan league, it was announced at headquarters here.

Pittsburgh Bank Is Closed.

It was announced that P. G. Cameron, state bank examiner, had been appointed receiver. The bank's statement on Jan. 1 showed deposits of $2,235,859. According to the police, J. F. Swartz attempted suicide when officers arrived at his home. It was reported he is in a serious condition.

WERE NOT TRYING TO FLIRT

Nervous Woman Rather Flattered Herself as Being the Object of Strange Men's Attentions.

A woman who labored under the delusion that men were always on the lookout to speak to unaccompanied females was rather nervous walking along a city street one evening. Two men were just behind her laughing and chatting in a very queer fashion, she thought.

"May I join you?" she asked of two women walking in front of her.

"Certainly," they replied. The three walked along. Still the two men followed. They were still laughing and making comments which, though inaudible, the woman felt were directed toward her.

"Thank you for letting me go along with you," she said to her two companions as she left them at a subway entrance. "As a matter of fact those two men walking back of us made me very nervous. I think they have been trying to speak to me."

The women glanced back.

Every Little Task a Burden?

"Every Picture Tells a Story"

To the women worn-out with weak kidneys, housework is a heavy burden. Backache, sick headaches, nervousness, dizziness, "blue" spells and a weak, tired condition, make the simplest tasks difficult and the ever-present daily duties give the weakened kidneys no time to recover. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have brought relief and comfort to thousands of weak, suffering women.

A North Dakota Case

Mrs. H. Karthuis, Lisbon, N. D., says: "I suffered for some time with sharp pains in the small of my back and for long spells I had a dull, grinding ache over my kidneys. I also suffered from headache and was bothered with dizzy spells. My kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended so much I got some and soon found them the right remedy, for the trouble quickly disappeared."

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhœa, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

WILSON PARTY NOW ON OCEAN

President Leaves France on Liner George Washington for Homeward Journey.

PEACE EXPECTED SOON

Renewal of Armistice Will Likely Develop Terms to Be Imposed on Germany—All Efforts Are Now Toward Peace.

Brest, Feb. 17.—President Wilson has sailed for the United States aboard the liner George Washington.

The President's party is much smaller than that which accompanied him on the trip over, due to the fact that a large portion of the staff of technical experts and assistants is remaining in Paris to assist in the peace work. The liner is also bringing back the 300 American soldiers who formed the guard at the Murat palace.

Paris, Feb. 17.—With the League of Nations temporarily disposed of, the peace delegates directed their efforts toward effecting a definite preliminary peace with Germany, which will enable general demobilization and resumption of normal industry and commerce throughout the world. Practicaly all the conferees have agreed that this is the most vital problem now before them.

The world is now in a state of stagnation. Industries everywhere are awaiting the actual signing of peace, and the growing unrest and uncertainty in many countries can be traced directly to economic conditions.

Food to Last to March.

Semi-official reports from Germany indicate that country has enough food to last until March. New crops will not be available before June. In the interim conditions of actual starvation may prevail and bring about serious disturbances unless steps to meet this situation are taken speedily. A preliminary peace would correct these conditons and would be comparatively simple in accomplishment.

The military status could be fixed by demanding immediate demobilization upon a peace basis. The Allies could agree what Germany should pay in the way of indemnities and how she should pay it, and this could be apportioned among the interested nations. After this was disposed of, the economic status could be fixed by agreeing to what extent the economic blockade would be lifted.

Truce to Show Terms.

That some such program will be partially arranged under the new provisions for extension of the armistice is hinted at in certain official quarters. These provisions will be presented to the Germans by Marshal Foch at Treves.

Considerable additional work must be done to perfect the plan, however, and toward this end the newly created supreme economic council will cooperate closely with the supreme war council, and it is expected that further requirements from Germany will develop as the armistice is renewed from time to time, resulting gradually in what will virtually amount to a preliminary peace.

U. S. PAYMASTER ACCUSED

Robbed of $12,000 Payroll, Is Held in Connection With Holdup.

New York, Feb. 17.—Neil Sheftal, 30 years old, chief paymaster here for the Emergency Fleet corporation, has been arrested, charged with assault and robbery in connection with the theft of $12,000 of the fleet's payroll by armed bandits who held up a taxicab in which he was on his way with two assistants to a Brooklyn shipyard.

The United States shipping board paymaster and assistants, entering a taxicab at the treasury with $12,000 to pay off ship workers in Brooklyn, were held up soon after they had crossed the river from Manhattan. The bandits drove off in a taxicab, the driver of which, the police say, was an accomplice.

PORTUGUESE REVOLT BROKEN

Republic Is Restored With Royalist Leaders Fleeing.

Lisbon, Feb. 17.—The republic has been restored in northern Portugal and Paiva Conceiro, leader of the Monarchists, has been arrested, it is officially announced.

Royalist leaders have fled from Oporto and are trying to cross into Spain, it is reported. The Portuguese republican flag has been raised again in Valencia.

Protest German Plays.

Milwaukee, Feb. 17.—Resolutions protesting against a proposed revival of theatrical performances in the German language by a stock company at a local theater were made by the board of managers of the Wisconsin Society, Sons of the American Revolution. The resolutions suggest that the promoters "desist from this work," as such action would "be but another argument that Milwaukee and Wisconsin are not American, but are German."

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Get New Kidneys!

The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen.

One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion; irritation, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's disease, for which there is said to be no cure.

Do not delay a minute. At the first indication of trouble in the kidney, liver, bladder or urinary organs start taking Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules, and save yourself before it is too late. Instant treatment is necessary in kidney and bladder troubles. A delay is often fatal.

You can almost certainly find immediate relief in Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this famous preparation has been an unfailing remedy for all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles.

It is the pure, original Haarlem Oil your great-grandmother used. About two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Forty Five Years of Success The astonishing Record of PERUNA

Not a cure-all, but a rational remedy for catarrh and all inflammation and congestion of the mucous membranes.

Catarrh attacks the mucous linings, in any organ, in any part of the body. It is not, as some imagine, confined to the nose and throat, although nasal catarrh is the most common form and afflicts many people.

Unchecked catarrh soon breaks down the tissue and destroys the organs or part. Evidence of the ravages of catarrh are all around us. Without desire to frighten anyone, we say: "Guard yourself against catarrh as you would against the direst plague. Fortify your system. Take Peruna."

20,000 SAVINGS SOCIETIES' GOAL

War Loan Organization Predicts That Many for Ninth Federal Reserve District.

WAR JOB NOT FINISHED

America's Great Power of Production Whipped German Spirit and Now Bill Must Be Paid—Cheap at Any Price.

War Savings societies are being organized in all parts of the Ninth Federal Reserve District as the first important step in the national Thrift campaign for 1919.

A. R. Rogers, Chairman of the District War Loan Organization, predicts that by the closing of Savings Society Week, February 24, there will have been organized at least 20,000 active societies for the encouragement of thrift and the sale of government securities.

Asked for a statement of the aims and plans of the 1919 campaign, A. R. Rogers, Chairman of the War Loan Organization, dictated the following:

"The fighting is over but our war job isn't finished. The world has progressed thus far toward permanent peace because America stepped in and with her millions of men and billions of money made it impossible for Autocracy to win. By our marvelous production of war materials and our ability to use them, we convinced Germany that a continuance of the fighting meant national suicide.

"What if our American-made cannon, motor trucks, tanks, rolling kitchens, airplanes, poisonous gases and ammunition did not reach Europe? They were in readiness and would have gone into the lines in the spring. Germany knew this. She was whipped in spirit by the tremendous show of power displayed by America.

"Our production of these things ended the fighting. They saved money and hundreds of thousands of precious lives. Now they have to be paid for and they are cheap at any price. Our Government must pay for them and we must temporarily loan our money to our Government for that purpose. Will we do it gladly and in the spirit of thankfulness? I believe we will.

Changed Conditions.

"The condition of the world in which we live and of our country have been wonderfully changed by this war. Formerly, whenever we wanted to finance a great development project in America we went to Europe for the funds. At the beginning of the war Europe owned six billion dollars worth of our securities. Today these have been paid up and we hold practically eight billion dollars worth of Europe's 'promises to pay.' Think of what that means! It means that when we need money for our Governmental projects or industrial development we cannot go to France or England for it. We must get it in America. In order that these necessary sums of money may be available, we of America must create new wealth, must eliminate waste, must save—not a few individuals but the great mass of our people must save and thus amass the dollars that will make possible our development and prosperity.

The Government's Program.

"With these facts in mind, the Government has decided to carry on a widespread and intensive educational campaign of Thrift and Americanization.

"The War Savings Campaign of 1919 is the first step in this program. The Treasury expects to realize this year from the sale of War Savings Stamps a sufficient sum to materially assist in financing the war budget before the end of the year.

"The Government hopes through the 1919 campaign to establish Thrift as a permanent habit of the American people for the lasting prosperity and enduring strength of the nation.

"Regular saving is the sound test of thrift and a sure foundation for investment. The backbone of the campaign is the War Savings society.

"In this great Ninth Federal Reserve District we hope to do our full share. Our people have never failed to respond to the call of duty, and that call is as urgent now as it was in 1917 or 1918. Because an individual has done his duty conspicuously up until now does not excuse him from further efforts. There can be slackers in peace times as well as in war times, and our organization will work untiringly to see that all of the people of these Northwest states realize their duty and do it. Incidentally, while we are performing our duty to the nation and upholding the honor of our district, state and community, we will be doing a favor to ourselves by learning habits of thrift and the value of service.

"There will be a Fifth or Victory Liberty Loan, a movement in which we can show our thankfulness for the safety of our country and the saving of the lives of hundreds of thousands of those dear to us.

Organize Societies.

"Just now we are most vitally interested in properly starting the 1919 campaign for Thrift. In order that this shall be a complete success, we are convinced that it is necessary to organize War Savings societies. They are the means to a great end. We should organize 35,000 of these societies in the Ninth Federal Reserve District. With the co-operation of all the people this will be an easy task. It will burden no one and it will benefit all of us."

IT ISN'T THE TOWN—IT'S YOU

"If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip,
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town;
It isn't the town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead,
When everyone works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a town from the dead.
And if while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbors can make one, too;
Your town will be what you want to see,
It isn't the town—it's you."

NOT TIME NOW TO LAY YOUR PATRIOTISM ASIDE

We are spending at the rate of two billion dollars a month, and it is not the time for people to lay their patriotism aside. To the contrary, it is a time when people must exhibit a higher type than ever before. It is not so very difficult to induce people to respond to an appeal when we are feeling the fever of fighting in our veins, but it is a little difficult when people think the war is at an end.

There are two million American soldiers in Europe, and the obligation is just as much on the Government today as when the guns were firing to see that they are maintained in comfort, to provide for their return home, and to provide when they shall return for their places in the social and industrial life of the country. It is just as important, and even more important, to impress upon the American people the necessity of cultivating the habit of thrift and saving.

"MUST BE NO SAGGING" ROOSEVELT'S LAST PLEA

Applies in Most Direct Manner to Popular Support of Nation's Financing Projects.

That Theodore Roosevelt's last plea to America, "There must be no sagging back" has the most direct application to popular support of government financing projects, including sale of War Savings Stamps was the statement made today by A. R. Rogers, chairman of the central committee, War Loan organization for the Ninth Federal Reserve District.

"Roosevelt with his keen Americanism saw the possibility of a sag coming with the actual fighting at an end and was a most earnest worker to keep the hearts and thoughts of the people placed right during the period of rebuilding the same as in the war period," Mr. Rogers said.

"Every argument that applied to the habit of thrift during the war applies to it today. The personal benefit of saving is as great as ever, the profit from interest on the investment is still as good as it was. The security of any loan made to the government was unquestionable and today, with fighting at an end and even the possibility that Germany might triumph gone, it is perfect.

"When Roosevelt said there must be no sagging he meant that the habits of right action developed by the war must be continued. If he had been asked he would have said that for the American earners to keep, for their future benefit and the benefit of their families, a part of their earnings, was just as important as any of the big national policies. He would have said that to the earner and saver himself savings are immensely important.

"To stop saving and buying War Savings Stamps today would be as bad for the man at home as it would be for the soldier holding the Rhine to go on duty from now on without a rifle. Cashing the stamps now which a person has bought before, is simply a retreat, as if the army that fought its way to victory should run back to the Marne and beckon to the enemy to pour into France once more."

How Good We Feel...
Ever since DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS have been on the market thousands of people both young and old have been testifying to the merits of this popular and time tried remedy for constipation and stomach disorders.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Simmons of East Columbia, Ohio, are typical examples. Mr. Simmons says:
"I have given DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS a thorough trial and they are the best medicine of any kind I have ever used. They are pleasant to take and pleasant in action and do the work without weakening the digestive tract. My wife has been bothered with constipation more or less all her life. When she began using DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS she got better results than she had ever been able to get with other remedies."
DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS are prepared especially for sufferers of constipation—the ingredients are such that they act surely, but gently on the bowels and assist in restoring healthful regularity. A box of these tablets costs only a few cents at any drug store. They taste like candy. Ask your druggist about them. He knows why they are the ideal laxative for old and young.

C. O. Saastad
Holt, Minn.

Dear Uncle:

Well we are still in this forsaken country and it is getting more and more disagreeable every day. There goes that old bugle again, so I'll have to go. This is our first Sunday off since arriving in France. Heard we are going to have Sundays off for washing clothes.

Christmas went by the same as any other day, except we had rifle inspection and they happened to find a cootie in the chamber of my gun so that meant extra detail duty. That was my Christmas present.

Expect you are having it about 40 below over there about now and I almost wish we had it here instead of all this rain. It has been raining every day the last three months and the mud is up to your ears. We wear hip boots only.

At present we are destroying German shells and its kind of dangerous work, but cheer up, there is talk that we are to be sent home the last of February, so we may yet have a chance to forget all these hardships. This is surely a lonesome country. It was occupied by the Germans shortly before we got here. Stenay is a very nice town. It has not been shot up like all the other towns, where we have been. But not very many civilians have moved in yet.

Wishing you all a Happy New Year,

As ever, your nephew,
Eli Saastad,
Co. A. 3rd U. S. Pioneer Inf

The Minnesota War Records Commission desires to secure from every soldier and sailor boy a complete record of his activities in the service. A short questionnaire has been prepared for each man to execute. It is important that each soldier and sailor take cognizance of this movement in order that a complete record of Marshall County's part in the war may be preserved. It is urged that every returned soldier and sailor drop a postal card to the Marshall County representative of this Commission so that such questionnaire may be mailed. It is also urged that the parents of every deceased sailor or soldier drop a postal card so that questionnaire may be sent to the parent to be executed for the deceased person.

This is a State wide movement, under the Jurisdiction of the State with Gov. Burnquist as the ex-officio chairman of the Commission. It is not a private movement, so there need be no hesitancy on the part of the public in responding to this appeal. Address all communications to the undersigned.

W. O. Braggans,
Warren, Minn.

P. S. We want the address of every Marshall County man no matter whether he enlisted or whether he was inducted by the Marshall Co. Local Board or by some other Local Board. If you call Marshall County your home respond to this appeal.

Farmers Buy Elevator

The board of directors of the Holt Farmers Elevator Co., closed a deal Monday for the purchase of the Hanson & Barzen elevator property here in Holt. The consideration was $3750 and possession is to be given the farmers on or before May 1st.

Hanson & Barzen were among the first business firms established in this village and have always enjoyed a liberal patronage from the people of this part of the country.

However the farmers expect to greatly increase this business as they have the larger part of the farmers in a wide territory as shareholders in their company, and are therefore expecting to get considerable business that formerly went to other points.

The farmers elevator company is building on a firm foundation of fairness to both the small and large shareholders.

To begin with no one person can own more than five shares, and then he has only one vote, the same as the man who can only afford one share.

This is a wise move and a safe guard against the poor man being crowded out, or any one man or set of men being able to buy stock and run things to suit themselves.

Shares are sold at $50 each and if you haven't already got one, now is the time to buy, before all the shares are disposed of.

This company is a sure success and a big boost for Holt and the surrounding country.

John Swan and C. Norbeck were business visitors at Warren Saturday.

Mr. Marion Hardin of Crookston came Saturday to visit at the Mickelson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Flakne and family visited at the Mrs. J. Nelson home Sunday.

Iver Engebretsen is very dangerously ill with pneumonia and fears are entertained for his recovery.

Dr. Gambell has sold a half interest in his business to Dr. Fisher of Grand Forks, who comes highly recommended to the people of Thief River Falls and vicinity.

Mrs. T. G. Dahl received a telephone message Sunday stating her brother, C. P. Anderson, who lived in Duluth was very sick and could not recover. Mrs. Dahl and son Selmer went to Duluth Monday, but as her brother had passed away they returned home Wednesday, bringing with them the body of the deceased for burial here.

Mr. and Mrs. Audley Ahlborn of Minneapolis and their cousin, Albin Newman of Wilmar, Minn., came Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Saastad and family.

Mr. Ahlborn was obliged to return to Minneapolis Sunday night but Mrs. Ahlborn and her cousin stayed a few days longer, returning to Minneapolis Thursday.

The Red Cross Society met at the pleasant home of Mrs. E. L. Olson Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Mclean being the guest of honor. The ladies were well supplied as usual, with a fine lunch and in addition, each one had a mysterious package which proved to be, to the great surprise of Mrs. Mclean, a shower for baby Mclean and the other children. Fine and various were the gifts presented as the recipient untied each parcel.

It was a jolly crowd which would be hard to equal and each donor went home with a richer heart from the fact that they had made some one happy.

PHYSICIAN WAS IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Dr. Farnsworth Gives Doan's Credit for His Wonderful Recovery.

Dr. T. G. Farnsworth, 76 S. Kanawha St., Buckhannon, W. Va., retired physician of over forty years' experience, ex-State Congressman, ex-City Mayor and ex-County Health Officer, praises Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is Dr. Farnsworth's experience as he tells it: "It was just a few years after my retiring from practicing medicine that I found I was afflicted with severe disorder of the kidneys and bladder. I grew steadily worse, and sometimes I was unable to get around at all. The kidney secretions were retarded and so painful in passing I would cry out in misery. I was in a frightful condition. After I had lost hope in other remedies, Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I tried them. I soon noticed a change for the better. I used several boxes and they cured me completely. Never in my practice did I know a remedy that would accomplish what Doan's Kidney Pills did, and I give them my heartiest endorsement."

WILSON DEFIES OPPONENTS OF PEACE LEAGUE

Squarely Callenges Critics In Talk Given in Crowded Boston Hall.

MUST NOT WITHDRAW

Seven Thousand People in Mechanics Hall Welcome President Home and Hear Masterful Address on Favorite Theme.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 25.—President Wilson will fight at home as he has fought abroad for a league of nations. Returning from France, he had been on American soil not more than three hours yesterday before he threw down the gauntlet to those who distrust the proposed concert of governments based, he said, on the American ideals which had won the war for justice and humanity.

An America confining to her own territories her conception and purposes to make men free, he said, would have to keep her honor "for those narrow, selfish, provincial purposes which seem so dear to some minds that have no sweep beyond their nearest horizon."

Pictures Old World

Before a responsive audience that filled the biggest auditorium in the city, the president pictured the Old World fighting with stubborn desperation and expecting in the end nothing better for the peoples than they had known for centuries. He pictured the American nation entering the lists with a new purpose—the freedom of mankind. The Old World had caught the vision, and any treaty of peace drawn otherwise than in the new spirit would be nothing more, he asserted, than a "modern scrap of paper" and the present peace, unless guaranteed by the united forces of the civilized world, could not stand a generation.

Bending over the speaker's table, his face set in tense lines and his right hand clenched, the president exclaimed: "Any man who thinks that America will take part in giving the world any such rebuff and disappointment as that does not know America. I invite him to test the sentiment of the nation."

Interrupted by applause, the president halted and then evoked the greatest demonstration of the afternoon when he added that he would accept no sweeter challenge than the issue of the American purpose in the war.

New England Gave Welcome

New England gave the president a rousing welcome home. This city probably never has seen a greater crowd than gathered at every point of vantage along the route from Commonwealth pier to which the naval cutter Ossipee brought his party from the steamer George Washington, through the downtown districts and around two sides of Boston common to the Copley Plaza hotel, where a stop was made for luncheon.

President Is Cheered

At every turn the president was cheered. Hat in hand, he stood in his motor car throughout the two miles of the parade except in one block between Washington and Tremont streets, where, because of the narrow way, spectators were not allowed to congregate.

The national army, the navy, the state guard and the city police in lines on either side of the route formed a guard of honor for the entire distance of the drive.

CROWN PRINCE RUPPRECHT IS SOUGHT AS A SUSPECT

Geneva Reports Bavarian Prince Is Wanted at Munich.

Paris, Feb. 25.—Former Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, who was commander of the northern sector of the western front in the final stages of the war, is reported to have been at the head of the monarchical plot that resulted in the assassination of Premier Eisner. The ex-crown prince is being sought by the police.

Geneva, Feb. 25.—Prince Leopold, former commander in chief of the German armies on the Russian front, has been imprisoned at Munich on suspicion of being one of the instigators of the murder of Premier Eisner.

A list of the persons to be assassinated by the reactionaries is said to have been found, and it is asserted that it has been decided to take 20 hostages from among the arictocracies. All students in the university have been searched.

Favorable Report on Wheat Bill

Washington, Feb. 25.—The house bill appropriating one billion dollars to maintain the government guarantee price of $2.26 for the 1919 wheat crop was ordered favorably reported by the senate agricultural committee. While approving the broad powers given the president by the house measure, the senate committee specified that steps should be taken to bring conditions in the wheat market to a normal basis at the expiration of the period of control, July 1, 1920.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

URIC ACID IN THE SYSTEM

BY LEE H. SMITH, M. D.

Uric acid is now generally recognized as the cause of more diseases than was heretofore believed. When the kidneys are out of order uric acid accumulates within the body in superabundance. The disordered kidneys do not filter the poisons out of the blood, as they ought to do, and so the poisons remain in the blood and float around until they find a place to lodge, in form of urate salts. The thing to remember is that you may have rheumatism in any part of the body—you may have pains anywhere—your back may ache and your head may be dizzy—but the trouble is not where the pain appears.

The trouble is in the kidneys, and what is the first thing to do? You must get that excess uric acid out of your system, which can be done by taking Anuric Tablets, the splendid remedy which Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has put on sale in the drug stores at a low price. Anuric Tablets (made double strength), when taken into the system as medicine, have the peculiar power of dissolving the uric acid deposited there. Drop a bit of sugar or salt into hot water, and it will disappear. In precisely the same way do these Anuric Tablets dissolve uric acid. Of course, after ridding the system of uric acid, it may return again unless you eat the right foods and live the right kind of life, but Dr. Pierce will advise you fully on proper food and correct living if you write and ask him. He makes no charge for such advice. Take Anuric Tablets today, by all means, and get that uric acid out of your system. Don't, don't, don't, put the matter off.

CLEMENCEAU IS BETTER

Suffered No Adverse Effects From Strenuous Exertions.

Saw Forty Persons, Which Doctors Consider Excessive for Man With Bullet in Back.

Paris, Feb. 24.—Premier Clemenceau rested well during the night and seemingly suffered no adverse effects from his strenuous exertions of the day before. During the day he insisted on seeing no less than 40 persons, which the doctors considered excessive for a man of his age with a bullet in his back.

All the physicians agreed the action of the premier's lungs should be reduced as movement causes the edge of the wound to rub against each other. The only way of effecting this was an injection of morphine, which no one cared to propose to the premier foreseeing how he would receive the suggestion. At last Dr. Laubry volunteered, says the Petit Journal. He appealed to the premier as a "brother doctor," but M. Clemenceau sprang up, seized the physician by the shoulders and shouted: "What, what, morphine, morphine! You want to finish me? Are you in the pay of the Bolsheviki?"

Dr. Laubry threw up his hands and said: "There you are. We want to give your chest rest and you nearly burst it."

Acid-Stomach Ruins Health of Millions

Besides those painful attacks of indigestion; that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and downright stomach misery that you who have experienced it know so well; besides disgusting belching, food-repeating, sour stomach and distressing heartburn—besides all this, ACID-STOMACH undermines the health and saps the strength of millions.

If you don't get rid of those stomach miseries there is no telling where your stomach troubles will end, for it is a well known scientific fact that many serious ailments have their start in an acid-stomach.

Start now—this very day—to get rid of your stomach miseries. Take EATONIC—the wonderful remedy that absorbs the excess acid from the stomach and brings INSTANT relief. You simply have no idea how much better, stronger and brighter you feel at once. It drives out all the gas and bloat, puts an immediate stop to belching and heartburn, ends stomach suffering and makes it cool, sweet, comfortable and strong.

There can be no further excuse for you to allow acid-stomach to wreck your health—pile up misery upon misery until you get to the point where you feel down and out and that life has lost all its joys. Remember, just as acid-mouth ruins teeth, so acid-stomach ruins health.

Take EATONIC. It's good, just like a bit of candy and makes the stomach feel fine. You can then eat the things you like and, what is more, every mouthful you eat will count in creating power and energy. You'll feel so much better—have punch and pep—the power and will to do things and get results, and your stomach misery will be gone.

Take our advice. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. It costs so little. If it fails to remove your stomach distress, he will refund your money. That is guaranteed; you are to be satisfied or money refunded.

CITY FOLK SEEMED UNKIND

Visitor Couldn't Understand Such an Exhibition of "Unneighborliness" as They Gave.

He was old and angular, but strong and upstanding, with the look of the farm on his unsophisticated face. In his old and none too clean blue jumper and jeans he gazed out upon the boulevard with its shining cars and daintily clad ladies. Confidence in all the world shone in his innocent old eyes.

"Say, mister, I'd like a ride, please," he called to the driver of a new seven-passenger car at the corner of Thirty-fourth and main streets.

But the seven-passenger ignored his plea. Car after car did the same, and the old man turned puzzled eyes to the others standing near and remarked in neighborly fashion: "Out our way we ain't so proud as to refuse a ride to anybuddy."—Kansas City Star.

10,000 WORKMEN INVADE MUNICH

Plundering and Violent Fighting Reported in Heart of Bavarian City.

BUDAPEST UNDER SEIGE

Provisional President Karolyi Calls Cabinet Meeting Which Decides to Take Necessary Steps to Quell Outbreak.

London, Feb. 24.—The troubles in Munich took a still more serious turn, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. Church bells began ringing and thousands of workmen from the suburbs marched into the center of the city. A short time later violent firing was heard, it is said. The mob is reported to have begun plundering stores and shops.

State of Siege in Budapest.

Paris, Feb. 24.—A state of siege has been proclaimed in Budapest, following a Communist riot, according to a Zurich dispatch to the Matin.

The insurgents are said to have stormed the offices of the Socialist newspaper Nepzava, occupied the principal railroad station and the postoffice. Government troops recaptured the station.

Agitators Russian and German.

The revolt is under the leadership of agitators who are for the most part Germans and Russians, the dispatch states.

Count Karolyi, the provisional president, called a meeting of the cabinet. The ministers sat far into the night and decided to take all necessary measure to quell the outbreak.

The metal workers of the city, it is stated, are preparing an anti-communist manifestation.

Bavarian Assassinations Total Three.

Berne, Feb. 24.—With Premier Eisner, Interior Minister Auer and Deputy Osel of Bavaria dead from assassins' bullets, the victims' friends have begun to take revenge into their own hands, according to dispatches received from Munich.

Deputy Autel, author of a violent press campaign against Eisner, is said to have been killed. His body was riddled with revolver bullets, fired by a number of unidentified men. Several other attacks were reported to have been made on enemies of the present government.

Eisner was shot while walking in the street with his secretary. Count Arco-Valley, his assailant, who formerly was an officer in the Prussian guard, was wounded by a guard. Unconfirmed reports say he has died from his wounds.

As Eisner's assassination was announced in the Bavarian landtag, a volley was fired from the visitors' gallery. Auer was instantly killed and Osel received wounds from which he died later.

Poles Rush Campaign Actively.

Warsaw, Feb. 24.—The campaign of the Poles in Lithuania and also in the provinces east of Brest-Litovsk is proceeding actively. The Bolsheviki have been driven out of Maniewicz, in Volhynia, leaving behind them large quantities of cannon, ammunition and armored trains.

An agreement with the Germans has been made public whereby the Poles may occupy the provinces mentioned and also purchase the material remaining from General Hoffman's army. There also has been made public a decree for military and civil occupation of these provinces, which means that Poland's frontiers are being extended to the historic boundaries of the kingdom.

Soldiers' Uniform Bill Agreed on.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Agreement has been reached by House and Senate conferees on the bill permitting discharged soldiers, sailors and marines to retain their uniforms and granting them 5 cents a mile traveling expenses from the point where they were discharged to their homes. In view of the fact that the war revenue bill provides for a bonus of $60 to all discharged men, the House conferees receded from their amendment granting officers and enlisted men one month's pay upon their discharge.

LAND IN DEMAND

Opportunities of Western Canada Becoming Known.

Fertile Soil on Which Can Be Produced Record Crops Offered to Settlers at Prices Attractive to Farm Seekers.

In the early months of 1919 there was a demand for farm lands in Western Canada, the greatest that has ever been in the history of the country. This despite the fact that farm lands have increased in price, as the value of the farm product has increased and the virility and productive value of Western Canada farm lands have come more and more into evidence. Farming there is no longer an experiment. Good crops can be grown in all localities, some probably a little more favorable than others, but on the whole a good—more than good—general average. Land elsewhere on the continent is used for the developing of one hundred and twenty dollar steers, thirty-five dollar hogs, two dollar and twenty cent wheat and eighty-five cent oats, and its price is anywhere from one hundred and fifty to three hundred dollars an acre. Western Canada land sells at from twenty to forty dollars an acre, and the farmer cultivating it gets one hundred and twenty-five dollars for his steer, thirty-five dollars for his hog, two dollars and twenty cents for his wheat, and eighty-five cents for his oats. And he can grow corn, too, but Western Canada is saying no more about it than North Dakota did fifteen years ago, when it was an experiment there, and see what North Dakota is doing today. The prediction is that in less than a decade corn will be grown successfully in all parts of Western Canada. It is, therefore, easy to account for the increased demand for Western Canada lands. The war is ended, and the food that the American and Canadian farmer sent across to the soldier, holding up his strength and maintaining his vitality, won the war. No! It was just a factor in winning it, as was the soldier of Italy, of France, of Belgium, of Great Britain, of Canada and of the United States. An important factor, nevertheless. People generally have begun to realize what food means, means to everybody—and it is grown on the farm. So people today want farm lands, and they want those that are good. The great, wide, open stretches of wonderfully productive soil of Western Canada are the chief attraction of the land seekers of today, and it will be so tomorrow, and of all days, until these vacant inviting acres are brought into fruition by the hand of man and the multiplied effort of steam and gasoline power, to the influence and operation of which these lands present such a splendid opportunity.

The pulse of today's desire to secure farm lends may be seen to beat in the columns of the local newspaper, recording sales of many tracts of lands, ranging from 160 to 1,200 acres. A Regina (Sask.) paper says, "In farm lands there is so brisk a business being done that it might be considered a boom." Another paper reports the sale of a section of raw prairie seven miles east of Regina for $35 an acre, and 200 acres at $50 an acre. One real-estate firm handled in three weeks' time over 3,500 acres of farm lands, the turnover being upward of $100,000. An improved farm near Regina changed hands at $47 an acre. "For the first time in the history of the Moosejaw district farm land has been sold for $100 an acre, when J. S. Cameron of Victoria, B. C., sold half a section, known as the Lett farm, to John Logan. The farm was bought a year ago for $85 an acre and is located three miles from the city. It is highly improved and has fine buildings."

An extract from a local paper says: "The movement of farm lands is opening up well this season and there is every indication that a large area of prairie property will be turned over during the months intervening before seedtime.

"The price received for farm lands in each instance is considered as good, particularly for unimproved raw prairie, and shows a considerable improvement on prices for similar properties sold during the years of the war."—Advertisement.

Minneapolis.—The body of an unidentified man, about 50 years old, dressed as a laborer, was found on the ice under the Minnehaha falls. Coroner Seashore pronounced death due to suicide. The man had been dead several days.

Moorhead.—Dr. E. W. Humphrey was elected mayor of Moorhead over N. N. Melvey, present mayor, by a majority of 30 votes, it was announced after the votes in all precincts had been counted. All other city officials were re-elected.

Two Harbors.—Albert Baker, aged about 50, a lumberjack of French descent, was killed instantly at one of the Scott-Graff lumber camps on the Wales branch of the Iron Range railroad, when hit on the head by a falling tree while working as a swamper.

Minneapolis.—The Minnesota Retail Jewelers' association, at their annual convention held at the Hotel Radisson, elected the following officers: President, D. W. Smith, Pipestone; vice president, A. E. Baker, Minneapolis; treasurer, C. A. Sherdahl, Montevideo; secretary, E. M. Schwenke.

Towner.—Dr. R. L. Burns, deputy coroner, is investigating the death of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Preno, seven miles from here. The Preno home was destroyed by fire and so far as known the aged couple burned to death. The fact that the farm animals had been turned out of the barn created a degree of suspicion and prompted the investigation.

St. Cloud, Minn.—A. C. Cooper of St. Cloud was elected president of the Minnesota Crop Improvement association which held its annual convention and seed fair here. Other officers are: Vice president, C. W. Glotfelter, Waterville; second vice president, John Neher, Tracy; treasurer, F. H. Gibby, St. Paul; secretary, C. P. Bull, university farm school.

Minneapolis.—Previous to the adjournment of the annual state convention, officers of the Minnesota Retail Grocers' and General Merchants' association were elected as follows: H. J. Dahn, Minneapolis, president; M. R. Bush, Duluth, first vice president; W. R. Robb, Winona, second vice president; G. M. Peterson, Duluth, secretary; J. W. Lux, St. Paul, treasurer.

St. Paul.—"Take me back to Winona and put me in jail again, for I will never pay the $250 fine and you can't make me do it." This was the statement of Dr. John Steinbach, eye and ear specialist of Winona, who has been in Winona county jail for the past three months for a violation of the espionage act. Dr. Steinbach was sentenced to sixty days in jail and to pay a fine of $250. He made a petition of poverty.

Stillwater.—George H. Sullivan of Stillwater was elected to the state senate from the Forty-third district over W. W. Willcox of White Bear, to fill the vacancy caused by the action of the senate in declaring the seat vacant recently because of alleged violation of the corrupt practices law in the general election. Sullivan, on complete returns from the county, received 2,421 votes against Willcox's 2,160, a majority of 261 for Sullivan.

Minneapolis.—E. F. Winship of Owatonna was elected president of the Minnesota State Automobile association at its annual meeting in the Radisson hotel here. Sixty-five delegates representing 50 affiliated clubs were in attendance. Other officers elected were: First vice president, A. J. Hilbe, St. Cloud; second vice president, G. A. Kortsch, Alexandria; third vice president, J. S. Scribner, Walker; treasurer, J. K. Martin, Little Falls; secretary, G. Roy Hill, Minneapolis.

Grand Rapids.—The local potato market continues to be very dull, the local dealers offering between 60 and 75 cents a hundred, with few sales. Quite a number of cars of potatoes left Grand Rapids in the past week, mostly southern seed stock, but now there is no market for the southern potatoes, no offers being made. There are still a great many potatoes in the Itasca country, with little prospect of a very good market. It is reported that the comparatively slow season for potatoes this winter has determined many farmers to cut down their acreage, and that there will be much less potatoes raised next year in this section than formerly.

Crookston.—A letter has been received from L. W. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway company, extending greetings upon the opening of the new live stock pavilion, and expressing regret that he was not able to be in attendance, as he had planned.

Fergus Falls.—J. V. Bopp, county agricultural agent, reports that a new variety of spring wheat, the seed of which he secured in the spring, averaged 46 bushels to the acre. The wheat was sown on the farms of Louis Johnson and Max Kroneman, and was ready for harvest in less than ninety days.

IS TELLS HOW TO FIGURE INCOME TAX

Squarely Up to Every Individual to Get Busy by March 15 or Suffer Penalty.

"Don't wait until the final due date, March 15th, for paying your Income tax and making your return. Avoid the last minute rush. Any person can figure out his liability today as well as soon next week, and if there is any point on which he needs advice he can now get in touch with a Revenue man."

This word of advice is from Edward J. Lynch, Collector of Internal Revenue, St. Paul, who is collecting the Income Tax in Minnesota. Collector Lynch is giving without charge every aid of his office and his enlarged field force to help the people get their payments and their returns in by March 15th.

"But the Income Tax men will not ring your door-bell or your coat-tails," according to the Collector's announcement. "It is squarely up to every individual to figure out his own case and to get busy if he comes within the scope of the new Revenue law."

Did You Earn This Much?

Every unmarried person who received income averaging $19.25 a week during 1918 and every married couple who jointly received income averaging $38.50 a week should secure at once from the nearest Deputy Collector or the nearest bank a blank Form 1040 A. That form contains the information he will need to enable him to figure his correct net income and any tax that he owes the Government.

The law requires that every unmarried person who had a net income of $1,000 or over and every married person whose net income was $2,000 or over (including the income of husband or wife and the earnings of minor children, if any) must make a return on or before March 15th. And this requirement does not hinge on whether the person owes a tax.

Taxable Income.

An individual must include under gross income all gains, profits and income derived from salaries, wages or compensation for personal service of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, vocations, business, sales or dealings in property, [illegible] interest, rent, dividends [illegible]

Deductions include ordinary and necessary business expenses, interest paid or accrued on indebtedness, taxes of all kinds except Federal income and excess profits taxes and assessments for local benefits, losses actually sustained, debts ascertained to be worthless and depreciation on buildings, machinery, fixtures, etc., used in business. A further deduction is allowed for contributions to corporations operated for religious, charitable, scientific or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals to an amount not exceeding 15 per cent of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of the contribution deduction.

The taxpayer is not allowed to deduct any personal, living or family expenses, any amount spent for improving property or making good its exhaustion for which an allowance is claimed under depreciation.

Figuring the Tax.

Before figuring the normal tax the dividends are deducted as credits from net income, together with the personal exemption. As in previous years, dividends of domestic corporations are exempt from normal tax when received by the stockholder.

The normal tax rates for citizens and residents are as follows: On the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the credits the rate is 6 per cent.; on any further taxable income the rate is 12 per cent.

The surtax rates apply to net income of each individual in excess of $5,000. The personal exemption and the dividends are not deductible before computing surtax. In the case of returns by husband and wife, the net income of each is considered separately in computing any surtax that may be due. Form 1040 should be used for making returns of net income exceeding $5,000, and the instructions thereon will show how to figure the surtax.

Business House Returns.

Employers and others who paid wages, salaries, rents, interest or similar determinable gains in an amount of $1,000 or over during 1918 to any person must file an information return with the Government. Blanks may be secured from the Collector.

Every partnership must file a return showing its income and deductions and the name and address of each partner with his share of the profits or losses during the past year. Personal service corporations will file similar information for 1918.

INCOME TAX PAYS FOR PUBLIC BENEFITS.

"Viewed in its largest and truest sense, the payment of taxes is payment for benefits received or expected. Only from a narrow and essentially selfish and shortsighted viewpoint can the individual propose to himself the evasion of tax liability as a desirable course of action."
—Daniel C. Roper, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

EVERYBODY IS NOW FIGURING INCOME TAX

In Order to Be Helpful to Public, Internal Revenue Bureau Has Every Available Officer in Field.

SEVERE PENALTIES IF YOU DELAY BEYOND MARCH 15

With the due date for Income Taxes only a few weeks away, the collection of this far-reaching tax on 1918 incomes has started off with a bang. Everybody is figuring income tax.

Payments and sworn statements of income must reach Internal Revenue offices on or before March 15 and there are severe penalties for delinquency.

Residents of Minnesota are required to make their returns and pay their taxes to Edward J. Lynch, Collector of Internal Revenue, St. Paul, Minn., or to any of his deputy collectors who are now doing free advisory work on Income Tax.

"Pay your Income Tax by March 15," is the slogan of the Internal Revenue Bureau, which has sent every available officer into the field to help the public to understand the requirements and to prepare the returns.

Who Must Make Return.

It is estimated that many thousands of single and married persons in this section of the United States who have never before made annual returns are required to do so this year.

Income tax returns must be made between now and March 15 by persons who come under the following classifications:

Any unmarried person whose 1918 net income was $1,000 or over. Widows and widowers, divorcees and married persons who are living apart from their husbands or wives, are for the purposes of the Income Tax classed as unmarried.

Any married person living with wife or husband whose 1918 net income was $2,000 or over. The income of both husband and wife must be considered, together with the earnings of minor children, if any.

Revenue Bureau Offers Aid.

Every person in the United States who falls within these classifications must get busy at once if penalties are to be avoided. He should secure a blank Form 1040 A for reporting net income up to $5,000, or Form 1040 if his net income exceeded that amount. Forms are being distributed by Collectors and their Deputies, also by banks. By following the instructions on the forms a correct return can be prepared at home. If a person needs advice or aid, the Deputy Collectors in the field will furnish this without charge.

The new Revenue law places the Income Tax duty on citizens and residents. The Internal Revenue Bureau is sending its men to work right with the public to get the tax and the returns in. With active co-operation every tax due March 15 will be paid and every return required by law will be in the Revenue offices on time.

Exemptions Are Allowed.

A single person is allowed a personal exemption of $1,000. If he is supporting in his household relatives who are dependent upon him he may claim the status of the head of a family who has the same exemption as if married.

A married person who lives with wife or husband is allowed a personal exemption of $2,000. The head of a family is entitled to claim a similar personal exemption.

An additional exemption of $200 is allowed for each person under eighteen or incapable of self support who was dependent upon and received his chief support from the taxpayer.

A husband and wife living together are entitled to but one personal exemption of $2,000. If they make separate returns the exemption may be claimed by either or divided.

Accuracy Required.

Absolute accuracy is necessary in making up income figures. Any person who is working for wages should find out exactly how much he received during the whole year 1918. Fees, bank interest, bond interest, dividends, rents received and all other items must be reported correctly. Mere guesses are not accepted, for they are unjust alike to the taxpayer and the Government and defeat the proper administration of the law.

* * *

INCOME TAX IS TRULY POPULAR.

"The payment of income taxes takes on a new significance, which should be understood by every citizen. The taxation system of this country is truly popular, of the people, by the people and for the people. Every citizen is liable to tax, and the amount of the tax is graduated according to the success and fortune attained by each individual in availing himself of the opportunities created and preserved by our free institutions. The method and degree of the tax is determined by no favored class, but by the representatives of the people. The proceeds of the tax should be regarded as a national investment."—Daniel C. Roper, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

TERMS FOR FOE ARE CONSIDERED

Peace Council Considers Conditions To Be Imposed on Germany By Allies.

120 MILLION INDEMNITY

Surrender of 100 More Warships Said To Be Required—Safeguarding of Monroe Doctrine Suggested As Amendment.

Paris, March 4.—The peace conference committee on reparations has estimated that $120,000,000,000 is the amount which the enemy countries ought to pay the allied and associated powers, says a Havas agency statement. France, the statement adds, demands immediate payment by the enemy of $35,000,000,000, part in gold, part in materials and part in foreign securities, recommending that the remainder of the amount be payable in a period of from 25 to 35 years.

Paris, March 4.—The supreme war council has taken up the terms of peace to be imposed on Germany. At the same time it discussed conditions under which the economic blockade of that country will be partially raised.

Modification of the blockade will, it is understood, be ready to put into effect immediately after the return to Paris of President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George and Premier Victoriano Orlando. The separate peace terms probably will be completed by the first of next month, after which details of the treaties with Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey will be discussed.

To Make Germany Powerless.

The military and naval terms to be included in the preliminary peace pact will render Germany absolutely powerless to make war, it was learned from authoritative sources.

Marshal Ferdinand Foch's report, submitted Saturday, was said to include destruction of all German war materials with the exception of arms for a few divisions, which will be left for police duty. The Allies also will be given supervision over all German munition factories.

100 More Ships to Be Surrendered.

The naval conditions were said to include surrender to the Allies of practically all that remains of the German navy.

The units to be turned over will be the battleships Oldenburg, Thuringen, Ostfriesland, Helgoland, Posen, Westfalen, Rheinland and Nassau, the light cruisers Pillau, Graudenz, Regensburg, Stralsund, Strasburg, Augsberg, Kilburg and Stuttgart, 42 modern destroyers and 50 modern torpedoboats.

League Amendments Suggested.

It is thought the peace conference may consider amendments to the League of Nations plan, such as may be regarded in America as necessary to remove the ambiguity of clauses that might affect the Monroe doctrine, the right of secession from the league and the methods of using force against recalcitrant nations. The American delegates are awaiting the return of the president before defining their attitude.

ENFORCEMENT LAW HELD UP

Congress Takes No Action On Measure to Handle Prohibition.

Washington, March 4.—Agreement has been reached by the senate judiciary committee to take no action on legislation to enforce wartime prohibition which becomes effective July 1. The committee decided there was no chance for passage of the pending bill at this session.

Penalties for violation of the law are carried by the prohibition act itself. Prohibition leaders contend that additional and more specific legislation is needed to insure proper enforcement, although the absence of it will not prevent nationwide prohibition from becoming effective. They plan to bring in the bill now abandoned again as soon as congress is called into extra session.

SUGARMAN SENTENCE UPHELD

Minnesota Socialist Now Faces Three Year Prison Term.

St. Paul, Mar. 4.—Conviction of A. L. Sugarman, former secretary of the Socialist party in Minnesota, on charges of violation of the espionage act by the United States district court at Mankato, more than a year ago, was sustained by the United States supreme court in a decision just announced. Sugarman, who was charged with making a speech advising men under the draft age not to register, appealed from his three year sentence on the grounds of unconstitutionality of the espionage act.

Church League Sought.

New York, March 4.—Plans whereby the Roman Catholic, Greek, Russian and Protestant churches may organize a league similar to that of the proposed society of nations, "to co-operate in Christian work as brethren," will be laid before the Pope by three Protestant bishops, Rt. Rev. R. H. Weller, Episcopal bishop of Fond du Lac, announces. Bishop Weller said that, accompanied by Bishop Charles Anderson of Chicago and another bishop, he would journey to Rome in behalf of the church league

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhœa, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Adv.

HUN OFFICERS TO BE INDICTED

Hundreds Face Punishment for War, Though Kaiser Is Likely to Escape.

GOVERNORS TO SUFFER

Considered Impossible To Visit Direct Reprisal on Wilhelm, Von Hindenburg or Ludendorff Though Lesser Lights Must Pay.

Paris, March 4.—The greatest grand jury indictment the world has ever seen soon will be returned.

The commission investigating the responsibility for crimes committed during the war is expected to submit its report in a few days. The true bill will contain hundreds of names, ranging from lieutenants to officers of the highest rank. Against each will be charged in detail the crimes he is alleged to have committed against humanity.

If the present purpose of the commission remains unchanged, the name of Wilhelm Hohenzollern will lead all the rest.

At the same time it has been practically concluded that it will be impossible to visit direct punishment on the former kaiser. Men like General Ludendorff and Field Marshal von Hindenburg are likely to escape for the same reason—although it is possible to establish their responsibility as the men higher up, it is impossible to disregard the fact that all their acts can be defended on the ground that they were carrying out the policies of the state.

Military Governors to Suffer.

The highest ranked officials deemed certain of punishment are the former military governors of various cities and districts who had arbitrary authority over the lives of enemy citizens and who abused their powers or allowed subordinates to do so.

These, of which there are hundreds, will be tried before an international tribunal, which the commission will recommend to be formed under the sanction of the League of Nations. This tribunal is expected to sit for the next several years, hearing evidence in individual cases, passing judgment and fixing penalties as each case is completed.

Prosecuting Committee Planned.

A permanent prosecuting committee is also planned. In just what manner warrants will be served and arrests made has not been determined. When the commission's list is turned over to the peace conference, it is expected it will be kept secret until as many as possible are arrested. Later, the names and pictures of those not found will be furnished to the rogues' galleries in all countries. The commissioners are confident that practically all the accused will be rounded up eventually and be compelled to face the tribunal. Some arrests already have been made, notably a number of Turkish officers, who are being held under the court, and are ready to hear their cases.

Expect United States to Aid in Securing General Peace.

Paris, March 4.—Speaking to the British correspondents, Arthur J. Balfour, British secretary for foreign affairs, said:

"By the end of March we shall at least be in sight of a preliminary peace, which will be the greatest stride towards universal peace. As a representative of the British government, I am in position to say that what is going on in America at this moment is more important for the success of a general peace than what is being done in Paris today."

Portland, Ore., March 4.—Ninety ship loads of flour and wheat are awaiting transportation in the Northwest, according to the Portland Chamber of Commerce, which is appealing to the government to alleviate the present congestion and avert what is regarded as an impending milling catastrophe. In the warehouses and on the docks were 25,000,000 bushels of wheat and flour and the milling situation was said to be growing more serious. Next August the new wheat crop will start pouring in

SECURE FARM NOW

Western Canada Offers Opportunity to the Ambitious.

Fertile Land at Moderate Cost, With Social and Other Advantages That Mean So Much, Will Soon Be Taken Up.

The desire to have a piece of land of one's own is a natural instinct in the heart of every properly developed man and woman. In earlier years, on account of the great areas of land available in the United States, no great difficulty was experienced by any ambitious settler who wished to become his own landholder, but the rapid increase in population, combined with the corresponding rise in the price of land, has completely changed this condition. Land which a generation ago might be had for homesteading, now commands prices ranging to $100 an acre and over. At such prices it is quite hopeless for the city man with limited capital, to attempt to buy a farm of his own. To pay for it becomes a lifelong task, and the probability is that he will never do more than meet the interest charges. If he is serious in his desires to secure a farm home he must look to countries where there is still abundant fertile land available at moderate cost, and where these lands are to be purchased on terms which make it possible for the settler with small capital to become a farm owner as the result of a few years' labor. He will also want land in a country where the practices of the people are similar to those to which he has been accustomed; a country with the same language, same religion, same general habits of living, with laws, currency, weights and measures, etc., based on the same principles as those with which he is familiar. He wants a country where he can buy land from $20 to $40 an acre which will produce as big or bigger crops as those he has been accustomed to from lands at $100 an acre. He wants this land where social conditions will be attractive to himself and family, and where he can look forward with confidence to being in a few years independent, and well started on the road to financial success.

All these conditions he will find in western Canada. The provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba provide the one and only answer to the land-hungry. The land is there; it is the kind of land he wants; the conditions are as nearly ideal as is possible, and the prices and terms are such that the man of moderate capital has an opportunity not available to him elsewhere. Land values are going to increase, but it will largely depend on how well the soil can be used, and the modern farmer is using it each year to better advantage.

But those who are on the ground and come closest to the heart of the farming sections are convinced that no material decrease in value is in sight. Indeed, they are almost unanimous in believing that we shall see a strong real estate market for fertile land, with prices maintained; and as development and further equipments are added the prices on the open market may be expected to show a further increase as the years go on—up to the limit of income plus what men are willing to pay to possess an attractive home.

Someone once said: "Never sell short on the United States. You will lose every time." And this applies to those who are inclined to believe that the future of farm values is in doubt. The American farmer is going forward, not backward, and the same may be said of the Canadian farmer.—Advertisement.

Many of those little new nations seem to have come into the world with chips on their shoulders.

What Is the Cause of Backache?

BY DOCTOR CORNELL

Backache is perhaps the most common ailment from which women suffer. Rarely do you find anybody free from it. Sometimes the cause is obscure, but Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., a high medical authority, says the cause is very often a form of catarrh that settles in the delicate membranes of the feminine organs. When these organs are inflamed, the first symptom is backache, accompanied by bearing down sensations, weakness, unhealthy discharges, irregularity, painful periods, irritation, headache and a general run-down condition. Any woman in this condition is to be pitied, but pity does not cure. The trouble calls for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is a separate and distinct medicine for women.

It is made of roots and herbs put up without alcohol or opiate of any kind, for Dr. Pierce uses nothing else in his prescription. Favorite Prescription is a natural remedy for women, for the vegetable growths of which it is made seem to have been intended by Nature for that very purpose. Thousands of girls and women, young and old, have taken it, and thousands have written grateful letters to Dr. Pierce saying it made them well. In taking Favorite Prescription, it is reassuring to know that it goes straight to the cause of the trouble. There is but one way to overcome sickness, and that is to overcome the cause. That is precisely what Favorite Prescription is intended to do.

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well.

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years experience is at your service.

Time for all war workers to turn to practical occupations.

STATE BREVITIES

Marshall.—Gould D. Allen, aged 95 years, Marshall's oldest citizen, is dead. He was a member of the Arlington G. A. R. post and his death brings the membership of that post down to four.

St. Paul.—Patrick J. Costello, charged with assisting in the stuffing of a ballot box in the St. Paul city elections last May, was found not guilty by a jury in the Ramsey county district court.

Pipestone.—The farm residence of Lloyd D. Long, across the line in Rock county, was destroyed by fire, which started while the family was at a neighbor's. A bucket brigade saved other buildings on the farm.

Ortonville.—Two horses belonging to A. B. Kaercher of this city were drowned in Big Stone lake, when they fell into an airhole. The driver of the team was not injured. The horses were Hambletonian trotters and were valued at about $3,000.

Olivia.—The funeral of Darwin S. Hall, former Minnesota congressman, was held from the Methodist Episcopal church here. Rev. Mr. Emery, pastor of the church, preached the funeral sermon. Julius A. Schmahl and other state officials attended the services.

St. Paul.—Donald Robertson of Argyle, Minn., newly elected president of the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical association, and other new officers of the organization were installed at a meeting at The Saint Paul, the final business session of the thirty-fifth annual convention.

Pipestone.—A wolf, which had made away with a large number of sheep in this vicinity, was shot and killed by Walter Anderson, a farmer. The wolf was sighted by a neighbor, after which Anderson and the neighbor gave chase in an automobile, finally killing him after a race of more than two miles.

Fairmont.—Ira Clynick, 88 years old, died at his home here. Clynick, who came to this county in the early 60s, raised the first crop in Nashville township and lived in that locality until last fall, when he moved to Granada. He was sheriff of the county back in the '60s and at that time, as well as in later life, was a prohibitionist.

Pipestone.—R. E. Gilmore, a farmer, has filed suit for $50,000 damages against Henry McKeon, Ralph Nason, D. W. Smith and L. H. Bruggeman, businessmen of this city. The suit is the aftermath of a peace demonstration held here Oct. 5, when, it is alleged, the complainant was paraded before throngs of people on the streets.

St. Paul.—Four hundred members of the Minnesota State Creamery and Cheese Managers' association attended the annual banquet of the organization at the Ryan hotel, St. Paul. Mayor L. C. Hodgson, who made the principal address, gave the visitors a cordial welcome to St. Paul and spoke in high praise of the state's dairymen, who represent, he said, the industrial background of Minnesota.

Mankato.—Sam K. Richman of St. Paul, who was recently convicted of picking the pocket of a traveler on a passenger train as it drew into the station in this city, has been sentenced to Stillwater prison for an indeterminate term, not to exceed five years. A stay of execution has been granted pending an appeal to the supreme court from an order of the district court refusing a new trial.

Winona.—There will be no through packet service between St. Louis and the twin cities during the season of 1919. That fact was definitely established, despite rivermen's forecasts to the contrary, by official announcement of the Streckfus Steamboat line that the steamer Quincy, in winter quarters at Davenport, Iowa, will be converted into an excursion boat at once. The Quincy is the last of large packets to be so reconstructed.

East Grand Forks.—That recent fires which destroyed the city hall and fire department headquarters, the Central high school and other property, were of incendiary origin is the opinion of Fire Chief J. J. Fitzgerald, who has been making a personal investigation. In one case Chief Fitzgerald found that hay had been carried from a barn and ignited in a frame structure. At the city hall the fire originated in the wagon room and it is the belief of the chief that coal oil was spread about in order to give the flames a start.

Balaton.—Mrs. Louise Pickford Shequen of this city has just celebrated her 100th birthday anniversary. She received many friends, and several of her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren visited her. Mrs. Shequen was born in 1819 at Standwich, Canada, and has lived in this vicinity since 1868. She is the widow of John Shequen, whose death occurred Oct. 11, 1916, at the age of 107 years. At the time of the husband's death the couple held the distinction of being the oldest married pair in the northwest and the only one to celebrate a 75th wedding anniversary.

Bemidji.—Peyote, a liquid said to be both intoxicating and poisonous and which, it is said, is made from a berry found on a Mexican plant, is a new brand of firewater that has been found in the possession of Indians at Cass Lake, and Late Rave, an Indian, who says his home is at Thurston, Neb., has been placed in the Beltrami county jail to answer federal charges of introducing intoxicants into Indian territory. Two Indian women are said to be victims of the drink, which has the same effect as a drug. The women are under the care of a Cass Lake physician.

Mankato.—The creation of a regimental fund by subscription among officers and enlisted men of the thirteen companies was decided at a meeting of the Fifth regiment's officers here.

Moorhead.—Miss Maude Hayes of the Moorhead normal faculty has received an appointment from the Y. M. C. A. to do entertainment work in France and Italy during the summer months.

Virginia.—August Aho, 39, dropped dead while in the waiting room of the office of Dr. Raihala, of heart disease. He has been ailing for a year and a half and was unable to work the past six months.

St. Paul.—More than $1,000,000 of ditch and road assessments are outstanding against state-owned land, according to an estimate by Matt J. Desmond, superintendent of accounts in the auditor's office.

Winona.—W. B. Watkins of the Winona Association of Commerce was elected president of the trail organization meeting at Burlington, Iowa, which proposes an improved course along the river from New Orleans to Minneapolis.

Crookston.—Carl Andrews, who advertised a car of fish to be sold here last week, on account of a provision in the state law was prohibited from retailing the fish at this place and was therefore obliged to divert the car to North Dakota.

Bemidji.—The younger members of the Bemidji lodge of Elks have started to secure subscriptions for finishing the club rooms of the Elk temple and equipping them as has been contemplated since the temple was erected over a year ago.

Slayton.—When auto livorymen refused to take County Agent Frank Brown to Hadley to fill a speaking engagement, on account of the snowdrifts on the road, Brown secured a set of skiis and made the trip across country to Hadley.

Moorhead.—Three of sixteen collection boxes for the permanent blind relief war fund for Allied soldiers and sailors placed in the business district in Fargo are missing, and are believed to have been stolen and their contents appropriated by the thieves.

East Grand Forks.—There will be no lack of accommodations for the continuance of school during the remainder of the school year because of the high school fire, for the basements of both the Sacred Heart and the Mendenhall Memorial churches have been offered to the superintendent and school board, and will no doubt be accepted. The Commercial club has offered its rooms and the Lincoln school will probably accommodate some of the grades.

Minneapolis.—Minnesota was singled out as the most progressive state in the union in regard to protecting the vision of its citizens by law at the opening session of the Minnesota Association of Optometrists at the Radisson. Minnesota's enviable lead was attributed to the fact that it was the first state to enact legislation governing the qualification of practitioners of optometry. Following Minnesota in 1900, 44 states, Canada and Cuba have enacted regulation laws.

St. Paul.—Proposed reconsignment charges on grain and hay shipments are the subjects of protests made by the state railroad and warehouse commission to the Interstate Commerce commission. Adoption of the reconsignment schedules is recommended by the Interstate Commerce commission by George T. Bell, examiner, following a recent hearing. The state commission proposes to follow up its protest with briefs or oral arguments that the charges are unjust.

St. Paul.—Erection of a large auditorium and campanile on the campus of the University of Minnesota, as a memorial to men and women of the state who served during the world war, was recommended to Governor Burnquist by the State Memorial commission. Opinion was divided as to the proper location of the memorial. Six members of the committee voted for the university location, while the remaining four favored a site near the state capitol in St. Paul. The minority report has been filed with Governor Burnquist.

St. Paul.—A. L. Larpenteur, 95 years old, one of the last of St. Paul's pioneers, died at his home here. He was born in Baltimore in 1823. He moved to St. Louis in 1841 and left there with a stock of goods for the Indian trade, reaching St. Paul Sept. 15, 1843. Mr. Larpenteur assisted in laying out the city of St. Paul in 1847 in conjunction with Gen. H. H. Sibley, Captain Roberts, and other pioneers. The present capitol building is located on land which Mr. Larpenteur purchased for $1.25 an acre. As the oldest of the original pioneers, Mr. Larpenteur was a resident of Minnesota before the state possessed any taxable property and when he first came to St. Paul there were less than a score of white settlers living in this section.

St. Paul.—Influenza deaths in Minnesota in January totaled 751, according to statistics announced by Charles E. Smith, Jr., assistant secretary of the state board of health. The toll included 123 in Minneapolis, 57 in St. Paul, 52 in Duluth and 519 in all other parts of the state.

St. Paul.—W. A. McGonagle and H. V. Eva of Duluth were appointed permanently by Governor Burnquist to be chairman and secretary, respectively, of the Minneapolis Forest Fire Relief commission. They will supervise expenditures of $1,800,000 in the stricken areas

WILSON PLEDGES HELP

Tells Governors U. S. to Help Restore Normal Status.

Declares Federal Government Is Servant of the States and Will Perform Its Duty.

Washington, March 4.—Opening the White House conference of governors and mayors on peace time business and labor problems, President Wilson promised the federal government would consider itself the servant of the states, municipalities and counties in solving readjustment problems and would perform its duty guided by suggestions of the conference.

The president said he hoped the conference discussion would assume a wide range, including means of restoring labor conditions to a normal basis as soon as possible "and to effecting such fresh allocations of labor and industry as the circumstances may make necessary."

Touching on the peace conference he said the conferees at Paris regard themselves only as servants of about 700,000,000 people of the world and not as their masters.

The president confined himself largely to welcoming the visitors and promising complete co-operation.

Strikes Held Soviet Moves.

Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson, who presided at the opening session, told the conference recent strikes at Seattle, Butte, Lawrence and other places were not industrial economic disputes in their origin, but were results of a deliberate organized attempt at a social and political movement to establish soviet governments in the United States.

SHIPS IN FINE CONDITION

German Merchant Vesels Are Found Fit for Service.

London, March 4.—The condition of the German merchant ships which ultimately will be used to transport American troops homeward is surprisingly good, in the opinion of the United States naval commission recently sent to survey them. It is inferred from preliminary reports that the Germans either kept up the vessels during the war, or that since the armistice they have worked to get them into first class condition.

ASKS AMERICAN CONFIDENCE

Edward De Billy Pleads for Faith in France.

New York, March 4.—A plea that Americans continue to trust France as they did during the war was made by Edouard De Billy, deputy French high commissioner to the United States, at a dinner given in honor of the commission by the Lotus club here.

M. De Billy declared France's aims are the same that were enunciated during the war.

DANISH CABINET RESIGNS

Political Situation Complicated by Effort to Abolish Senate.

London, March 4.—The Danish cabinet resigned as the result of the complicated political situation in Denmark, according to a wireless message received here from Copenhagen. A message adds that it is believed the Social Democrats will try to abolish the Landsting, or senate.

SEVERAL MEASURES RUSHED

German Assembly Passes Bill Relating to Elections.

Weimar, March 4.—Members of the German National assembly rushed through several bills in an effort to get back to and finish the discussion of the national constitution, but the deputies again fell afoul of the transition law bill on which discussion had been deferred.

Gen. Williams Ordered Abroad.

Washington, March 4.—Major General Clarence C. Williams, chief of ordnance, has been ordered by the War department to report to General Pershing in France for the purpose of inspecting the operations of the ordnance department in the American expeditionary forces. Since about $800,000,000 of tax certificates are to be redeemed on that date the Treasury believes the deposit conditions among banks will not be disturbed. This explanation was made in response to inquiries reflecting anxiety among bankers.

Relieved of Catarrh Due to La Grippe, Thanks to PERUNA

Mrs. Laura Berberick, 69 years old, of 1205 Willow Ave., Hoboken, N. J., writes:

"Four years ago I had a severe attack of La Grippe. After my sickness I was troubled with hoarseness and slime in the head and throat, and was told I had Catarrh. I took some medicine but without much benefit. Every winter for four years, I have had LaGrippe (last winter three times).

The Catarrh grew worse. I could not lie down or sleep at night. Was always troubled with slime, pain in my back and a terrible headache every morning, when I woke up, and had no blood.

I got a Peruna calendar in Danish, my native language, and I read it through, every testimony, and then I bought a bottle of Peruna. To-day I can truthfully testify that Peruna has been a great benefit to me. It has given me blood and strength. I can lie down and sleep without being troubled. I have no pain, headache, or noise in my head. I have gained in weight three pounds, which I think is good for my age. I will be sixty-nine years old next summer. I have used Peruna since I started in February, and I use it yet. I feel cheerful and happy, thanks to Peruna. It will always be in my home and I recommend it to those who need it."

FRANTIC WITH PAIN

Long Suffering From Kidney Trouble More Than Words Can Describe. Doan's Brought Health and Happiness.

Mrs. Thorson

Mrs. Anna Thorson, 290 South St., Stamford, Conn., says: "I hadn't any more strength than a child, and after sweeping my back hurt me more and more. My headaches were so bad it seemed as though my skull were being torn into shreds and I would finally lose track of everything and lie in a stupor for hours. I felt I had to keep going or lose my mind and I kept up often when I trembled all over with weakness. My feet were swollen and every bone in my body seemed to ache. My fingers got almost as rigid as pieces of wood and the knuckles swelled. The kidney secretions were dark colored, scanty and terribly burning. I suffered more than words can describe. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and I believe with all my heart that they kept me out of the grave. I am well and happy after going through enough pain to drive me frantic. Doan's saved my life."

1,000 PERSONS DEAD OR INJURED

Long List of Casualties as Result of Street Fighting in German Capital.

STRIKES CALLED OFF

Leipsic Difficulty Has Been Settled and Government Announces Severe Measures Will Be Taken Against Loafers.

London, March 11.—One thousand persons were killed or wounded in the fighting in Berlin last week, according to an estimate of the casualties made by the Wolff bureau, the leading news agency of Germany.

Leipsic Strike Settled.

Basel, Switzerland, March 11.—The Leipsic strike has been settled and order has been restored, the Frankfort Gazette announces. Minister Schwartz, the newspaper adds, has arrived in Leipsic and announced that severe measures will be taken against persistent idlers and that order will be maintained by the government.

Berlin Strike Terms Stated.

Berlin, March 11.—The conditions under which the Workingmen's council of Greater Berlin declared itself willing to approve the action of the Berlin federation of labor in adopting a resolution calling the strike off, have been announced. The conditions included the retirement of the volunteer regiments and the release of insurgents arrested during the strike. The council is the body dominated by the radicals which has been directing the strike.

Define Workingmen's Powers.

Weimar, March 11.—By a law to be passed immediately the powers and duties of the Workmen's councils which the government promised to create as a means of putting a stop to the strikes will be defined.

These councils will be the economic representatives of the workingmen. Each industry will have its industrial council which shall be consulted as to working conditions in all cases, while workingmen's associations will be created for the control and regulation of production and distribution in all branches of industry and trade. The members will be factory leaders, workers and employes, co-operating with the employers.

Employers to Help Run Plants.

District workmen's council chamber will be created for certain districts of the country and a central workmen's council for the empire. The members will be workmen of all sorts. Employers' council will assist in the process of socialization and control of the socialized plants and industries. All economic and social legislation must be submitted to them for approval and they will have the right to propose such legislation to the government.

COLD KEEPS WILSON INDOORS

President Follows Physician's Orders to Keep Quiet.

On Board U. S. S. George Washington, March 11.—President Wilson is suffering from a cold, and although it was less troublesome, he remained in his room the greater part of the time on the advice of Rear Admiral C. T. Grayson, his medical attendant, that he keep as quiet as possible.

The president is spending most of his leisure time on the voyage in reading.

The George Washington is expected to arrive at Brest Thursday and the president will proceed immediately to Paris. Various conferences are being arranged by wireless for him to take place Friday, March 14.

President Wilson expects to take up at once work of the most active order on his arrival in Paris. When the more important matters are disposed of he probably will take the promised trip to Belgium and the devastated regions of northern France.

100,000 YANKEES DISABLED

About 80,000 Soldiers Will Be Able to Return to Old Jobs.

Washington, March 11.—Present estimates of military authorities put the number of Americans disabled in the war at 100,000. Of this number, it is estimated that 80,000 will be able to return to their old occupations, leaving 20,000 who need retraining for work suited to their maimed condition.

Noted Sportsman Dead.

New York, March 11.—Martin Julian, who managed and seconded his brother-in-law, the late Bob Fitzsimmons, when he won the heavyweight championship from James J. Corbett at Carson City twenty years ago, died at his home in Brooklyn.

German Opera Stirs Gothan Ire.

New York, March 11. — Protest against the production of a season of German opera at the Lexington opera house was made to Governor Smith by the American Defense society, it is announced. "The United States is still at war with Germany," the letter declared, "and the worst abuse of the cause of Americanism is the systematic propaganda that has been made in this country for the glorification of Germany and German ideals." Action by the governor is awaited with much interest.

A Single Remedy Often Cures Many Diseases

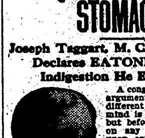
BY VALENTINE MOTT, M. D.

It is almost impossible to give a list of the endless diseases that follow indigestion. Perhaps a whole column in this newspaper would be required to print them all. You eat to keep alive—to supply blood and flesh and bone and muscle and brain. It is easy to see that if your food is not digested and taken up by the delicate organs and distributed where it is needed, a disease of some sort is sure to come. Dyspepsia is a common symptom, and so are liver complaint, loss of flesh, nervousness, bad memory, dizziness, sleeplessness, no appetite. Many times, when neglected, indigestion results in coughs, throat diseases, catarrh, bronchitis and even more dangerous things. And all these disorders arise because the food is not properly digested in the stomach. It is plain even to a child that relief and cure are to be had only by setting up a healthy condition in the stomach. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., many years ago combined a number of vegetable growths into a temperance remedy for indigestion, and called it Golden Medical Discovery. It is probably the most efficacious discovery ever made in medicine, for the list of people all over the world who have had their countless ills overcome by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes an amazing total of thousands.

I know of no advice better than this: Begin a home treatment today with this good vegetable medicine. It will show you better than I can tell you what it will do. When taking Golden Medical Discovery, you can rest assured of one very important thing—it contains neither alcohol nor opiates. There is nothing in it but standard roots and herbs that possess curative properties of a high order. A safe medicine is the only kind you can afford to take.

U. S. CONGRESSMAN QUICKLY FINDS STOMACH RELIEF

Joseph Taggart, M. C., from Kansas, Declares EATONIC Best for Indigestion He Ever Used.



A congressman hears many arguments for and against different propositions. His mind is open to conviction, but before he casts his vote on any measure he insists upon evidence that, on its own weight, carries conviction.

In the case of "EATONIC" Joseph Taggart, Congressman from the 2nd District, Kansas City, Kans., decided that a trial of the remedy, itself, would furnish the most conclusive proof. Read his decision and do what he tells you.

"One box of EATONIC will convince the most skeptical. It is the best remedy I have ever tried for indigestion.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH TAGGART,
M. C. 2d Kan. Dist., Kan. City, Kans."

Nearly all stomach trouble is caused by too much acid in the stomach.

EATONIC neutralizes the excess acidity and enables you to eat what you like and digest what you eat in comfort. It keeps the stomach in a state of perfect health.

Here's the secret: EATONIC takes up the acidity, drives the gas out of the body—and the bloat goes with it. Costs only a cent or two a day to use it. Get a box today from your druggist.

COURT UPHOLDS DEBS' SENTENCE

MUST SERVE 10 YEARS

Constitutionality of Enlistment Clause of Espionage Act of 1917 Is Upheld by Decision—Convicted on Ohio Speech.

Washington, March 11. — The supreme court has sustained the conviction of Eugene V. Debs, socialist leader, found guilty of violating the espionage act through statements made in a speech at Canton, Ohio, last June, and sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment.

In deciding the case the court in effect upheld the constitutionality of the so-called enlistment section of the espionage act of 1917. Debs had contended that this violated the constitutional right of free speech.

Court Ruling Unanimous.

The opinion of the court was unanimous.

As in the case of the espionage cases decided last week the supreme court in its opinion again made no specific ruling upon the constitutionality of the espionage act as a whole. The court based its opinion largely upon the part of the indictment charging obstruction of recruiting service, which was unanimously upheld.

Convicted Last Year.

The arrest of Debs took place June 30, 1918, at Cleveland, Ohio. He had been indicted for violating the espionage act by his speech at the Ohio socialist convention at Canton about two weeks before. He was tried in federal district court at Cleveland, before Judge D. C. Westenhaver.

Debs was indicted on four counts, charging him with the following acts:

"Caused and attempted to incite insubordination, disloyalty and mutiny and refusal of duty in the military and naval forces of the United States.

"Obstructed the recruiting and enlistment service.

"Provoked, incited and encouraged resistance to the government.

"Opposed the cause of the United States war with Germany."

Free Speech Plan Fails.

Debs, testifying in his own defense, admitted saying the things attributed to him, and relied solely on the constitutional guaranty of free speech.

"I have no dispute with the evidence presented by the government," he said. "I would not take back a word of what I believe right to save myself from the penitentiary.

The jury found Debs guilty on three of the counts, and Sept. 14 sentence was imposed by Judge Westenhaver. He gave Debs 10 years on each of the three counts, but made the sentences run concurrently.

"I do not regard the idealism of the defendant as expressed by himself as any higher, purer, nobler than the idealism of thousands of young men I have seen marching down the streets of Cleveland to defend our country," said the judge in imposing sentence.

TO TRY GERMAN OFFICIALS

Peace Treaty Likely to Call for Surrender of Officers.

Paris, March 11.—The preliminary peace treaty, it is reported, probably will include a clause requiring Germany to turn over all officials found responsible for war crimes, to be tried by an international tribunal. If there is no other alternative, it is understood an international indictment will be published, branding Wilhelm as the world's greatest criminal, his punishment being limited to this historical document.

FOES EXPECT MEETING SOON

Preparing to Leave Berlin for Paris About March 19.

Berlin, March 11.—Preliminary peace negotiations may begin at Versailles about March 20, according to reports in circulation here. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau the foreign minister, is arranging for a small party of prominent business men to accompany the German commissioners as experts. These men have been instructed to hold themselves in readiness for possible departure March 17 or March 19.

Toledo, Ohio, March 11.—Thirty-five persons were injured, none fatally, it is believed, when a Toledo, Bowling Green & Southern traction car, southbound, collided with a Clover Leaf passenger train near here.

San Francisco, March 11.—Commercial telegraph operators of the district council, at a meeting here, adopted unanimously a resolution calling upon S. J. Konenkamp, international president, to order a vote on a national strike to enforce the demand that Postmaster General Burleson recognize the telegraphers' union. This announcement was made by P. C. O'Connor, president of the local district council, who added that the action was in line with that being taken in other cities.

Who Benefits By High Prices?

You feel that retail meat prices are too high.

Your retailer says he has to pay higher prices to the packers.

Swift & Company prove that out of every dollar the retailer pays to the packers for meat, 2 cents is for packers' profit, 13 cents is for operating expenses, and 85 cents goes to the stock raiser; and that the prices of live stock and meat move up and down together.

The live-stock raiser points to rising costs of raising live stock.

Labor reminds us that higher wages must go hand in hand with the new cost of living.

No one, apparently, is responsible. No one, apparently, is benefited by higher prices and higher income.

We are all living on a high-priced scale. One trouble is, that the number of dollars has multiplied faster than the quantity of goods, so that each dollar buys less than formerly.

Farm Lands at Low Prices
Wheat Belt of America

Western Canada for years has helped to feed the world—the same responsibility of production still rests upon her. While high prices for Grain, Cattle and Sheep are sure to remain, price of land is much below its value.

Land capable of yielding 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre can be had on easy terms at from $15 to $30 per acre—good grazing land at much less.

Many farms paid for from a single year's crop. Raising cattle, sheep and hogs brings equal success. The Government encourages farming and stock raising. Railway and Land Companies offer unusual inducements to Home Seekers. Farms may be stocked by loans at moderate interest. Western Canada offers low taxation, good markets and shipping; free schools, churches and healthful climate.

SAGE TEA BEAUTIFIES AND DARKENS HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Adv.

FREE INFORMATION FOR HOMESEEKERS.

The U. S. Railroad Administration has assembled information regarding farm opportunities in the several states, and will furnish it to homeseekers free on request. The work will be done through the newly established homeseekers' bureau, headquarters in Washington.

"We are receiving about 1,000 letters a week from persons who wish to engage in farming," said J. L. Edwards, manager of the Agricultural Section of the U. S Railroad Administration. "The inquiries come from every state, asking about agricultural advantages in undeveloped territory. We furnish dependable data, and through our service many investors have been able to find just what they were looking for.

"Our information is put out in form of illustrated booklets, by states, sent to those sufficiently interested to write and tell us what kind of a farm project they have in mind, and naming the state the opportunities in which they desire to investigate. Homeseekers can find in the United States productive land at reasonable prices and on liberal terms, first-class markets, excellent transportation facilities, a satisfactory climate, and ideal living conditions. Now that the war is over, I look for a revival of farm development beyond that of any pre-war period." Correspondence from homeseekers is solicited. Address, Room 2000, Homeseekers' Bureau, U. S. WEAK KIDNEYS MEAN A WEAK BODY

When you're fifty, your body begins to creak a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. "Not so young as I used to be" is a frequent and unwelcome thought. Certain bodily functions upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. The weak spot is generally the bladder. Unpleasant symptoms show themselves. Painful and annoying complications in other organs arise. This is particularly true with elderly people. If you only know how, this trouble can be obviated.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the inconvenience and pain due to advancing years. It is a standard, old-time home remedy, and needs no introduction. It is now put up in odorless, tasteless capsules. These are easier and more pleasant to take than the oil in bottles.

Each capsule contains about one dose of five drops. Take them just like you would any pill, with a small swallow of water. They soak into the system and throw off the poisons which are making you old before your time. They will quickly relieve those stiffened joints, that backache, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gall stones, gravel, "brick dust," etc. They are an effective remedy for all diseases of the bladder, kidney, liver, stomach and allied organs.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules cleanse the kidneys and purify the blood. They frequently ward off attacks of the dangerous and fatal diseases of the kidneys. They have a beneficial effect, and often completely cure the diseases of the bodily organs, allied with the bladder and kidneys.

If you are troubled with soreness across the loins or with "simple" aches and pains in the back take warning, it may be the preliminary indications of some dreadful malady which can be warded off or cured if taken in time.

Go to your druggist today and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. GOLD MEDAL are the pure, original imported Haarlem Oil Capsules. Accept No Substitutes.—Adv.

The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. "Blue" and Worried?

"Blue," worried, half-sick people should find out the cause of their troubles. Often it is merely faulty kidney action, which allows the blood to get loaded up with poisons that irritate the nerves. Backache, headaches, dizziness and annoying bladder troubles are added proofs that the kidneys need help. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands thank them for relief from just such troubles.

At a meeting of a board of guardians a member was welcomed back after a long illness. The chairman, in the course of his speech, said:

"I am sure I express the sentiments of all here when I say that we are glad to have amongst us again Mr. ——. And I hope he will now take care of himself, for we all know that 'one live ass is better than a dead lion any day.'"

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.

GRANT BECOMES PRINCIPAL CAMP

Soldiers From the Northwest Will Be Sent There for Demobilization.

DODGE WILL BE CLOSED

Change in War Department Plans May Hinder Minneapolis Arrangements to Welcome the Rainbow Division.

Minneapolis, March 18.—According to press dispatches from Rockford, Ill., all Minnesota soldiers will be demobilized at Camp Grant and Camp Dodge apparently will be closed as a center of demobilization, under new orders just issued by the war department.

Camp Grant is scheduled to be the point where soldiers in 12 states are discharged, according to the orders. Besides Minnesota, they are North and South Dakota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio and Kentucky.

Dodge Not in List.

Northwest men have been demobilized in large numbers at Camp Dodge since the armistice was signed, but under the new orders it may be abandoned, since the camp is not mentioned in the list of demobilization centers. Besides Camp Grant, the following camps are mentioned: Devens, Upton, Sherman, Dix, Lee, Jackson, Gordon, Pike, Funston, Bowie, Travis and Bliss, in addition to Fort Oglethorpe.

Under the ruling, the dispatches state, Camp Grant will become the large demobilization camp in the country, and Camp Devens, near Boston, will be the only one that will approach it in discharge activity, although only four state will contribute to that camp. The personnel staff at Camp Grant, it was stated, is preparing to handle 60,000 men monthly, if necessary, and believes that it will be able to care for all demands that will be made upon it under the enlarged program.

May Upset Welcoming Plans.

If the demobilization revision is made, the Minneapolis welcome for the 151st field artillery in the Rainbow division may be hindered, James F. Ells, chairman of Mayor Meyers' citizen welcoming committee, said. Local citizens are planning the welcome for the 151st on the assurance of the War department that the organization will be routed to Camp Dodge for discharge, stopping in Minneapolis for the celebration.

"The new orders," he said, "seem to indicate that the regiment may be demobilized at Camp Grant. In that case many men in the unit would not come to Minneapolis and we could not have a welcome for the regiment as a whole.

"Until definite word about the change is received, however, we will proceed on the assumption that the 151st will be demobilized at Camp Dodge."

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Miss Kelly Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Newark, N. J.—"For about three years I suffered from nervous breakdown and got so weak I could hardly stand, and had headaches every day. I tried everything I could think of and was under a physician's care for two years. A girl friend had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she told me about it. From the first day I took it I began to feel better and now I am well and able to do most any kind of work. I have been recommending the Compound ever since and give you my permission to publish this letter."—Miss FLO KELLY, 476 So. 14th St., Newark, N. J.

The reason this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, was so successful in Miss Kelly's case was because it went to the root of her trouble, restored her to a normal healthy condition and as a result her nervousness disappeared.

SMOKING TOBACCO FACTS FROM THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA

The Use of Flavorings Determines Difference in Brands

The Encyclopædia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco: "... on the Continent and in America, certain 'sauces' are employed ... the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves." Which indicates that a smoker's enjoyment depends as much upon the flavoring used as upon the tobacco.

Your nose is a sure guide in the matter of flavorings. Try this simple test with several tobacco brands: pour some tobacco into your palm, rub briskly, and smell. You will notice a distinct difference in the fragrance of every brand. The tobacco that smells best to you will smoke best in your pipe, you can rest assured.

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

EARLY PEACE MOVE HALTED

League of Nations Covenant May Become Part of First Treaty With Foe.

CHANGES CONSIDERED

Safeguarding Monroe Doctrine and Other Amendments to Meet the Views of Different Allies May Be Incorporated.

Paris, March 18.—Something has happened at the peace conference since President Wilson returned. The "speeding up" program for obtaining immediate peace with Germany through the preliminary peace pact has been sidetracked.

After lying dormant for a month during the president's absence the old League of Nations covenant is being brushed up and shows signs of life. The interest has suddenly switched from making peace to revamping the League of Nations covenant.

House Confers With Allies.

Efforts are being directed to shape the covenant so as to insure its acceptance by the supreme council and win the approval of those Americans who are demanding its amendment.

Colonel House conferred with Lord Robert Cecil, Leon Bourgeois, and the American delegates and reported to President Wilson. It is conceded that some of the suggested amendments can safely be adopted, for instance, those safeguarding the Monroe doctrine and fixing conditions which will permit of the adherence of the late enemy powers.

Early Peace Moves Checked.

It seems that the whole speeding up campaign for an early peace next month is shattered, as with the covenant not even accepted yet by the Allied and associated powers, and with the neutrals yet to be heard from, there is small chance that it can be made palatable for everyone and revised coincidentally with the date tentatively set for the completion of the preliminary peace terms, March 20.

One of the five powers had hesitated to accept a distinct impression of the right of secession from the league.

Leaders' Absence Causes Delay.

This is not the first occasion time has been wasted through the absence of the leaders.

While Lloyd George was in London, Marshal Ferdinand Foch and the Allied military men drew up military terms allowing the German army between 250,000 and 300,000 conscripted men. But the moment Lloyd George arrived he upset the proposition by putting over a scheme reducing their forces to 100,000 men on 12 year enlistments. Had Lloyd George communicated to the peace conference his views before coming to Paris again, several days might have been saved.

SPAIN IN FAVOR OF LEAGUE

Makes Reservation as to Reduction of Armament, However.

Madrid, March 18.—A committee appointed by the government to study Spanish participation in the league of nations has submitted a report to the cabinet. The government indorses President Wilson's proposals, but reserves its decision as to reduction of armaments and the fixing of military forces by members of the league.

It is understood the government will ask definite assurances as to the Spanish coast line, protectorates in Africa and the suitability of military service as social discipline for Spain.

PEACE ONLY ON 14 POINTS

Erzberger Says They Are Only Terms on Which Germany Will Sign.

Copenhagen, March 18.—If the Allies load the peace treaty with conditions going beyond President Wilson's 14 points, the German national assembly will have to refuse its assent to the treaty, Mathias Erzberger, head of the German armistice commission, declared in an address at a Berlin meeting in favoring the formation of a real League of Nations, according to a dispatch. The matter then would be left to a referendum of the German nation, he said.

SAYS GOOD-BYE TO RAINBOWS

Coblenz, March 18.—General J. J. Pershing has said goodby to the boys of the 42d Division. In a farewell address to the troops of the Rainbow unit, who are preparing to start for home the first week in April, the American commander-in-chief wished them all good luck in the peaceful occupations into which they will go on the other side of the Atlantic.

To Disband Medical Corps.

Washington, March 18.—Dissolution on April 1 of the volunteer medical service corps, with its membership of more than 56,000 physicians, is announced by the Council of National Defense, under which the corps was organized. The names of all physicians whose applications for membership were approved will be turned over to the surgeon general of the public health service and thus will be accessible should need for their services arise in the future.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this. Adv.

Auto Exhaust Causes Pneumonia.

Glaistner, who is recognized as a leading British authority on gas poisons, contends that one of the effects of carbon monoxide upon the human system is to cause a pronounced susceptibility to pneumonia, and he has presented a good deal of evidence in support of his contention.

Automobile engine exhaust fumes always contain this insidious poison. The warning conveyed is obvious.

Winona, Minn.—"About five years ago I had an attack of ptomaine poisoning and afterward my blood was in very bad condition. I tried a great many "so-called" tonics but felt no better until a friend suggested my trying a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which gave me immediate relief. It is surely an excellent tonic, does not purge and is not objectionable to the taste. I was living in England when I first took the 'Golden Medical Discovery'. Have since been around the world and always carried a bottle of the 'Discovery' right with me. I would not be without it and am only too pleased to be able to recommend it."—*Walter H. The Mother of Eight and Never had a Doctor

Reared Her Family WITH SIMPLE HOME REMEDY

An American Mother Beats Them All

There are few families in which the record of Mrs. Gustave Koch, Box 24, Kewick, Keokuk County, Iowa, has been surpassed. Not in the fact that she raised a family of eight is her story remarkable. Thousands of families are larger. The history of the Koch family is unique in that the mother, with all her loving care, pinned her faith to a simple home remedy and never had a doctor for her children. Here is what she says: "Peruna has done my children good. I have a family of eight and never had a doctor, only your medicine. We all think Peruna a splendid tonic."

So far as we have learned, Peruna is the only known remedy for which such a wonderful claim can be made. Like Mrs. Koch, there are thousands upon thousands of mothers who place their entire dependence upon Peruna.

That Peruna has merited this confidence is attested by the words from such mothers as Mrs. Gustave Koch. Long life to her! Peruna is indicated for coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, nose and throat, or disorder of the stomach, bowels or other organs due to catarrhal inflammation of the mucous linings.

If you are sick and suffering, write the Peruna Company, Dept. S-80, Columbus, Ohio, for Dr. Hartman's Health Book. It is free and you may find that Peruna is what you need. Dr. Hartman's World Famous Peruna Tonic comes in either liquid or tablet form. Ask your dealer. If you are seeking health, do not accept "something just as good." Insist upon Peruna. Your dealer will give you a Peruna Almanac.

Kanaka Language Going.

Is the Kanaka tongue to become extinct? This is the question the elder Hawaiians are asking themselves, and all they can see is an affirmative answer. The children go to the American schools and are taught in English. It has become the language of the childhood of Hawaii, and they are rapidly forgetting the language of their fathers, which they first learned to speak.

One old Hawaiian bewailed the fact that his grandson, aged fifteen years, who visited an elderly uncle on another island, was unable to talk with the latter, because he knew only his native tongue and the child had forgotten it and could speak only in English.

The Japanese and Chinese have schools where they teach their progeny their native tongues, but the nation of Hawaiians has no government to maintain such schools, and the United States has not established any nor provided any course in the native language in the American schools.

The younger generation minds it not at all, but the elders are sad.

AS YOU THINK SO YOU ARE

Much Wisdom in Little One's Idea of the Way in Which Success May Be Won.

Aunt Marie was discouraged. She had just applied for a situation and her application had not been successful. "I just told myself before I went up that I wouldn't get it," she told her family. "I always have the worst luck."

Her ten-year-old niece looked up from her game. "You shouldn't have said that, Aunt Marie," she said earnestly. "I believe that's the reason you didn't get it. Why, auntie, when we girls play 'Hands Held Open' I always watch and see that the girl who gets the button when it's passed is the girl who holds her hands just right to get it, and who looks just like she was sure she was going to get it. So I always just fix my hands in just the right way, and then I look exactly like I expected it, and if I do that way I do get it. Maybe that's the way you'd better do about getting a job."

Auntie thought the matter over and decided that perhaps after all that was a good way to do.

Surely Looked Suspicious.

Old Jenkins was mad with rage. For twelve months he had taken the plate around at the local church every Sunday. Now someone else had been asked to perform the duty.

"I consider I have been grossly insulted," he said to a friend.

"But," said the latter, "I don't think there is any bad feeling toward you."

"I don't know about that," roared Jenkins, "but it looks very suspicious. The fellow they have asked to do the job has only got one arm."—Winnipeg Telegram.

Duluth.—One hundred and sixty "iron men" found their way into the coffers of the police court in one day as the result of work on the part of the New Duluth police following the opening of the saloon and liquor houses in the town of Oliver. Eighteen men were arrested and tabulated as plain drunks, of whom sixteen put up $10 bail each.

Northfield.—President Donald J. Cowling of Carleton college, has left for the east, and will spend three days in Washington in the work of the American Council of Education, of which he is president. He will remain a week in New York in the interests of the $5,000,000 Pilgrim Memorial fund, of which nearly $1,000,000 has already been raised.

Crookston.—O. S. Omdahl, 55 years old, a former resident of Fisher, died in an ambulance in Crookston, while being taken to a local hospital for treatment. He was at Erskine and on being taken ill came to Crookston. Before arriving he became violently ill and an ambulance was ordered to meet the train. The sick man was being hurried to a hospital when he died.

Pine River.—Local business men considering plans for a soldiers memorial which met with such a unanimous favor that a committee was appointed to call a meeting very soon when some definite action will be taken. It is proposed that a stock company be formed and shares are to be sold to the amount of $5,000 or $6,000 with which it is estimated a playhouse can be erected that will serve for all purposes for many years to come.

Duluth.—Organized anarchist and I. W. W. propaganda is being carried on among the workers of the McDougall-Duluth ship yards here. Hundreds of small pamphlets addressed to "Fellow workers in the shipbuilding industry" have been circulated in Duluth and Superior by members of the red flag organization. Speaking of the American Federation of Labor, the pamphlet declares that it is an organization of unionism for the "bosses."

Crookston.—For the first time in 30 years Polk county is free from debt. The county auditor has just paid a $20,000 bond issue taken out in 1889. As the bonds were issued at the time Red Lake county was part of this county, it is said that Red Lake owes Polk $2,541.26 plus $127.06 in interest as its share of the payment. Whether or not Pennington county, which was later taken from Red Lake county, will reimburse the latter, is not known.

St. Paul.—Motley voters at the town election voted new officials into office and then voted them out again all on the same ballots. Motley village is in Motley township in Morrison county. At the election, village and town separation was voted on, and town officers were elected, village officials having been chosen at a separate election. When the ballots were counted it was found that candidates living in the village were elected to town offices, also that separation had carried and those officers were disqualified as a result.

Eveleth.—City Clerk C. H. Williams says that the city now has 10,000 cords of wood on hand at the city wood yard which is being sold to citizens at moderate prices, enough to pay the cost of handling. During the winter 4,000 cords were sold. Twelve-inch dry tamarack wood is now being sold at $2.50 per cord, 14-inch dry tamarack at $2.75, 12-inch dry birch at $2.75 and 16-inch green birch at $3.25. At the present rate there is enough wood on hand to meet the supply for the remainder of the winter and all next summer.

Crookston.—Championship of the Ninth district in the state debating league was settled at Fergus Falls, when the Crookston high school team defeated Fergus Falls by a two-to-one decision. This is the third victory for Crookston.

International Falls.—Louis Arseneau of Ranier came here and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling liquor illegally. No charge had been preferred against him, but evidence introduced at the inquest of a Finn killed south of Ranier caused Arseneau to decide to come and pay a fine and costs.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

The moment you eat a tablet of Pape's Diapepsin all the indigestion pain, dyspepsia misery, the sourness, gases and stomach acidity ends.

Bake More Save More.

More and more, thoughtful women are decreasing the cost of living by increasing the variety of their home baking. They have learned to bake the Royal way with fewer eggs. They have found that more baked foods mean less meat. They have further discovered that their baking keeps fresh longer when made with

ROYAL Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

In many recipes, only half as many eggs are required, in some none at all, if an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder is used, about a teaspoonful in place of each egg omitted.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is, that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. —Adv.

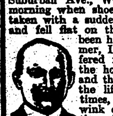
COULD NOT SLEEP

Mr. Schleusner in Misery From Kidney Complaint. Doan's Gave Complete Relief.



Mr. Schleusner

"Heavy work brought on my kidney complaint," says Wm. Schleusner, 6408 Suburban Ave., Wellston, Mo. "One morning when shoeing a horse I was taken with a sudden pain in my back and fell flat on the floor. If I had been hit with a trip hammer, I couldn't have suffered more. I stayed in the house for five weeks and the pain was wearing the life out of me. At times, I couldn't get a wink of sleep because of the misery and I had to get up every few moments to pass the secretions that were highly colored, of foul odor, filled with sandy sediment and terribly scalding. My bladder felt as though it were afire. The pain brought stupor and a reeling sensation in my head; the torture of it cannot be described. If I got onto my feet I couldn't walk but felt dizzy and all in a flutter and everything would turn black. My head ached so it seemed as though my eyes were being dragged out. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and I was soon rid of all the trouble."

DECLARES WAR AGAINST ALLIES

New Hungarian Republic Forms Alliance With Russian Soviet and Makes Declaration.

FORCES ARE MOVING

Lenine Greeted as International Leader and War on Imperialism Proclaimed—Berlin Sends Envoys to Moscow to Make Pact.

Berlin, March 25.—The new Hungarina Soviet republic has formed an alliance with the Russian Bolsheviki and declared war on the Entente, Budapest dispatches announce.

Bolshevik forces are reported to be moving in Hungary to aid the new government against French and other Allied troops which are scattered throughout the country.

The action of the Karolyi ministry in resigning and turning the country over to the communists was said to have resulted from "dissatisfaction of the Allies" and proposed adjustment of Hungarian frontiers by the peace conference.

Representatives of Premier Lenine are reported to have assisted in forming the new Socialist ministry.

Opponents to Be Executed.

Berlin, March 24.—The new Hungarian cabinet has issued the following proclamation:

"Uniting with the world's Bolsheviki, we rise against the Entente and imperialism and proclaim general mobilization. All opponents will be executed."

Allies Reported Disarmed.

Berlin, March 24.—A special dispatch to the Freiheit announces the disarmament of Allied troops at Budapest. It is unconfirmed, however, and appears questionable.

Germany Sends Envoy.

Paris, March 24.—Count von Brockdorf-Rantzau, the German foreign minister, has sent Carl Kautsky, one of the under secretaries in the foreign ministry, to Moscow to see the chiefs of the soviet government and to furnish an accurate report on the situation which will allow the foreign minister to study methods as to bringing about closer political and economic relations with the Russian bolsheviki government, says a Zurich dispatch to the Matin.

Greet Lenine as Leader.

Copenhagen, March 25.—Reports of wireless exchanges between Nikolai Lenine, the bolsheviki premier of Russia, and the foreign representative of the new Hungarian communistic government are received in advices from Budapest. Lenine was told the Hungarian proletariat had seized power and had introduced a proletariat dictatorship. Greetings were sent to Lenine as "leader of the international proletariat" and expressing solidarity with the revolutionary movement.

Replying, Lenine stated that he had submitted the Hungarian greeting to the bolshevist congress at Moscow, which had received it with great enthusiasm.

Urge Armed Resistance.

Paris, March 25.—The proclamation of the new Hungarian government invites the workmen and peasants of Bohemia, Rumania, Serbia, and Croatia to form an armed alliance against autocracy, landowners and dynasties. It requests also that the workmen of Austria and Germany follow the lead of Hungary in breaking off relations with the Paris peace conference.

They are requested to rally with the Moscow government and constitute a soviet republic and to resist, arms in hand, the "imperial conquerors."

TO DEBATE MONROE DOCTRINE

Amendment Advocated by President Wilson and House.

Paris, March 25.—An amendment to the League of Nations covenant covering the Monroe doctrine, advocated by President Wilson and Colonel E. M. House, is expected to be presented at the next session of the league commission. The proposed amendment would prevent any power from acquiring territory in the western hemisphere by conquest, purchase, treaty or otherwise, unless the Americans consented.

ANARCHISTS CLAIM VICTORY

Successes by Bolsheviki Reported in Black Sea Region.

London, March 25.—Successes by the bolsheviki in the Black sea region were reported in the bolshevik official communique received from Moscow. The statement said the bolshevik armies drove the Allies back in disorder between Voznessensk and Odessa, defeating an entire division. On the Archangel front, the dispatch said, an Allied outpost was captured.

Japan's Plan Criticised.

Peking, March 24.—Japan officially is advising China not to touch the 17,000,000 yen unpaid balance of the war participation loan. Meantime, negotiations have nearly been completed between the Okura company and the Chinese war ministry for a loan of 100,000,000 yen, the security for which is to be the Feng-Huang-Shan iron mines and surrounding territory. The plan is to organize a Chino-Japanese company which will give the Okura company first call on all its products.

UNITED STATES IN FIRST PLACE

War Has Resulted in America Becoming the Greatest Maritime Power.

CAN REPLACE TONNAGE

Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board Declares American Yards Lead World in Shipbuilding Facilities.

Washington, March 25.—Chairman E. N. Hurley of the shipping board asserts shipbuilding facilities acquired during the war have made the United States the greatest potential maritime power of the world and will enable it to outdistance all other nations in the race toward replacing a shortage of 16,225,000 gross tons of shipping lost as the result of unrestricted German submarine warfare and of the failure of normal increase by new production.

Mr. Hurley made this assertion in a report of his trip to Europe, where for three months he was in close touch with the shipping interests of foreign nations. The report will be used in working out a policy of ownership and operation of the American merchant marine.

Net Loss of 4,225,000 Tons.

Mr. Hurley estimated that in July, 1914, the sea-going steam bottoms of the world totaled 41,225,000 gross tons, which was reduced by war to 37,000,000 gross tons, a net loss of 4,225,000 gross tons. In addition, he stated, there was a loss of 12,000,000 gross tons which would have been constructed if war had not stopped the normal increase in production, making a total loss of 16,225,000 gross tons.

The Allies and neutrals suffered a total loss by enemy action, marine risk and capture of 15,218,000 gross tons, Mr. Hurley said, and gained by new construction and seizure of enemy ships 14,249,000 gross tons, leaving a net loss of 969,000 gross tons. The net loss to the Central powers was even greater, since they lost 3,016,000 gross tons and gained only 740,000, a difference of 2,276,000 gross tons.

Only two countries, the United States and Japan, have a larger amount of tonnage now than when the war began. Japan showed a net gain of 25 per cent, Mr. Hurley reported, while the United States jumped far in the lead with a net gain of 125 per cent.

U. S. Kept Forging Ahead.

"The United States forged ahead as rapidly as Germany fell behind," said the report. "In August, 1914, the United States seagoing merchant marine, 500 gross tons and over, included 624 steamers, 1,758,465 gross tons, and 870 sailing vessels and schooner barges of 947,852 gross tons, making a grand total of 1,494 seagoing merchant vessels of 2,706,317 gross tons.

"On Nov. 11, 1918, at the end of the war, the steamgoing merchant marine had increased to 1,366 vessels of 4,685,263 gross tons and the sailing vessels and schooner barges had decreased to 747 vessels of 829,917 gross tons, making a grand total of 2,113 seagoing merchant vessels of 5,515,180 gross tons."

HALF MILLION MEN HOME

American Army Overseas Is Being Rapidly Reduced.

Washington, March 25.—The total number of the members of the American expeditionary forces returned to the United States has passed the 500,000 mark.

The war department announced that the actual figure on March 20 was 500,034, including 27,940 officers, 2,146 nurses, 3,683 civilians and 448,241 men of the army, 13,550 navy personnel and 4,474 marines.

The strength of the expeditionary forces on March 20 was 1,470,676.

Classifying Him.

The most cutting bit of repartee we remember to have heard in recent weeks happened out at the Willoughbeach picnic of a certain fraternity to which we belong. A very young man and very pretty girl were discussing costumes, horseback riding, golf and fudge. The girl said that she could ride, but preferred the old-fashioned side saddle. She said she thought it more graceful.

"But, really, Miss Z.," insisted the very young man, "do you see anything inherently improper in the divided skirt?"

"Nothing whatever, Mr. Q.," answered the very pretty girl, earnestly. "For instance, I think that you might wear one with perfect propriety."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THAT "LAST STRAW" AGAIN

This Time It Meant Real Tragedy in the Lives of Two Young and Loving Mortals.

"It's the last straw!" she exclaimed bitterly.

She tapped on the floor with her right toe, always, with her, a sign of repressed passion.

"The last straw!" she repeated.

He shuffled his feet in embarrassment.

"I'm going!" she cried. "I would not stay here another second, even for a moment."

And she swept out, and there was nothing left for him to do but follow.

"I didn't know it was the last straw, or I wouldn't have taken it," he apologized miserably.

And she, who had never sipped a lemonade without a straw in her life, and never intended to, sniffed scornfully, without replying, and refrained from inviting him in when they reached her house.

His 785 Suits.

Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard said in Boston the other day:

"The kaiser was always unbalanced. Look at the way he was continually rigging himself out in different uniforms and costumes. Why, the man actually had 784 suits."

Professor Hart smiled.

"Sure; he's their doughboy."

War Increases Mental Diseases.

Figures compiled by the New York state hospital commission show that 3,995 more patients have been admitted to the state hospitals during the forty-four months since war was declared than for the similar period of time prior to the beginning of hostilities, the admissions prior to the war being 29,316, as against 33,311 afterward. The state hospitals are actually housing 6,500 more patients than they were built to accommodate.

SPEECH APPEALED TO HIM

More or Less Good Reason Why Listener Considered It Great Oratorical Effort.

They are telling a good joke on Will Upshaw. He was up the other day, and was the interesting center of several groups of members who had heard of the "Prohibition Cyclone" of Georgia.

While talking in the lobby to one of these groups of forthcoming associates, Congressman Garrett of Houston, Tex., passed, after salutations.

"Did you ever hear Garrett speak?" asked Upshaw of the members of his group.

"Yes," they all chimed in.

"The most masterly address, the most beautiful, soul-stirring address I ever heard in all my life of association with great orators, fell from the lips of that great Texan and statesman one night at Dallas," said Upshaw.

"On what subject was Garrett speaking?" queried one of the party, rather interested.

"He was introducing me," replied Upshaw solemnly.—Atlanta Constitution.

An Immune Miscreant.

"If you dig a pit for your neighbor, you may fall into it yourself," remarked the man who remembers his Sunday school vaguely.

"Yes," returned Mr. Chuggins; "that retribution idea may be all well enough for pit-digging. But the man who breaks glass bottles in the street very seldom has any tires of his own to be ruined."

Recent Happenings In Minnesota Given In Brief Items For Busy Readers.

Ely.—At the last meeting of the Ely Commercial club, an active campaign was launched for the erection of a modern hotel.

Red Lake Falls.—The Perrault station cheese factory was recently reorganized, having been purchased by twenty farmers from Robidoux & Parenteau. The Lake Pleasant Dairy association is the name of the new company.

Crosby.—Jacob and Rade Rebul were instantly killed at Armour mine near here, while blasting. It is thought they miscounted the number of shots placed and returned before all had exploded. Two shots were the cause of the men's death.

International Falls.—Robert Gunther paid a fine of $75 and costs in municipal court. Sheriff McIntosh and Chief of Police Kirkpatrick found Gunther in possession of two quarts of whisky while on duty as a bartender at Bancroft's bowling alley.

St. Paul.—The state has received $1,008 inheritance tax on Minnesota property in the estate of Joseph Marcelina Hurtado of Bologna, Italy. The property held subject to Minnesota inheritance tax consisted of stock in the Great Nothern railroad.

Hibbing.—Independent labor candidates who were defeated in the city election have left for St. Paul where they say they will present to the Governor signed affidavits and photographs showing irregularities at the election precints of the city.

Crookston.—Mrs. L. M. Davis, chairman of the Crookston branch of the Polk county division of the council of National Defense, has appointed women to take charge of a survey to obtain data regarding what was done in Crookston during the war period.

Blackduck.—A year of progress and advancement was outlined for the Blackduck Commercial club at its annual meeting just held, when, at a banquet served by the domestic science students of the high school, plans for the coming season were discussed.

Moorhead.—Leslie Welter has been reappointed resident director of the Moorhead Normal school by Governor J. A. A. Burnquist and has received his commission for a four-year term. Mr. Welter was first appointed by Governor W. S. Hammond in 1915, succeeding C. G. Dosland.

Minneapolis.—A lonely tramp, on his early spring travels, is said to have saved several hundred persons three miles north of Pine Island, when he flagged a Rochester-St. Paul Great Western train in time to prevent a landslide from covering it. The slide was 600 feet long and three feet deep.

Hibbing.—The water and light board has decided to open bids for the erection of a modern power plant to be erected in Alice, on April 22. Charles Foster, superintendent of the local plant, has been busy on plans for the new building which will be modern in every respect. The present plant must be moved as mining operations will soon reach the ground it stands on.

Bemidji.—There is gratification here over the reappointment by Governor Burnquist of Arthur P. White of Bemidji on the state normal board. Since the appointment of Mr. White to this position by Governor Hammond four years ago, the sixth normal school has become a reality and its initial building representing an expenditure of $100,000, now adorns the shore of Lake Bemidji.

Duluth.—That her husband forced her to eat green peanuts and raw meat, do her washing in a swamp, learn telegraphy against her will and read books she did not care about, was the basis of testimony in district court here that secured for Mrs. George Cassidy a divorce. She was also forced to do her housework on a schedule which her husband prepared for her, the plaintiff testified. She was awarded $40 a month.

St. Paul.—Governor Burnquist has named eight Minnesota representatives to an annual meeting of the Mississippi Waterways association, which will take place April 17 and 18 in St. Louis. Cliff, Ortonville; Representative O. C. Neuman, Wheaton, and former Senator D. P. O'Neill of Thief River Falls.

St. Paul.—Chairman Ira B. Mills and Commissioner Fred W. Putman of the state railroad and warehouse commission have gone to Washington to represent the state at a hearing on proposed reconsignment charges by railroads, scheduled before the interstate commerce commission. The Minnesota commission is vigorously opposing the proposed charges by railroads, and Henry C. Flannery, assistant attorney general, has filed a brief outlining its contention. Adoption of the reconsignment charges would increase bills of Minnesota shippers of grain and hay more than $500,000 annually.

St. Paul.—The Surgeon General of the army has asked Minnesota to care for 1,000 insane soldiers in the State Hospital at Fergus Falls, one of the largest institutions of its kind in the Northwest.

Crosby.—There is a possibility that the returns of the election held March 11 will be contested, and it is stated that several arrests for illegal voting may be made. At the election 550 votes were cast, 11 more than in 1918.

Minneapolis.—Henry W. Baughan, professor of animal husbandry at Iowa State College, has been elected professor of animal husbandry of the Department of Agriculture at the University of Minnesota. He will enter duties here July 1.

Duluth.—An advance of $1.19 a ton has gone into effect on retail quotations on hard coal at the offices of the companies here. Consumers buying coal in small lots are charged 25 cents a ton allowed teamsters for loss of time weighing lots.

Two Harbors.—The seniors of the local high school are gathering material for a military annual to be published soon. It will not only deal with school people and alumni but cover in detail a complete account of Two Harbors' activities in the great war.

St. Cloud.—The site has been bought for the new $300,000 St. Cloud hotel, and the plans for the new structure are being completed by Architect L. W. Schafer, who was the organizer of the company which erected the new apartment house in this city.

Moorhead.—Alldrec H. Hellander, known also as Alldrec Johnson, and Wesley KcKinstrey, both well known young men of Fargo, are prisoners in the Clay county jail charged with assaulting Philip Jeffry of Michigan City, N. D., and robbing him of $153.

St. Paul.—The state pardon board will meet at the Capitol, Tuesday, April, 29, instead of April 14, as previously arranged. The postponement was agreed upon because state officials on the board will be occupied by legislative business until late next month

Stillwater.—Alex Bassett, a resident of Washington county for the past sixty-eight years, died here, aged 82 years. Mr. Bassett was born in Canada and came here when a young man and resided on a farm near Lake Elmo until eleven years ago when he retired.

St. Paul.—The annual convention of the Minnesota Electrical association closed with the election of officers and a banquet at The Saint Paul hotel. Officers elected were: President F. L. Cross, St. Paul; first vice president, Leonard Peterson, Thief River Falls; second vice president, R. E. Brown, Winona; secretary-treasurer, F. E. Barnert, St. Paul.

Chicago.—What was declared to be a world record price for a pure bred Hereford bull was announced by J. B. Ferguson, who said $50,000 had been paid by Ferguson Brothers of Canby, Minn., for "Richard Fairpax," a 5-year-old registered animal. The best previous American price was $31,000 for "Ardmore," sold by W. L. Yust to W. R. Pickering, both of Kansas City, Mo.

Chisholm.—Mystery surrounds the death of an unknown man who was struck by an east bound trolley car between stations 9 and 10. The man, so it is said, was wandering on the trolley track and was seen when too late to stop the car. The remains were taken to Gillespie's undertaking place here and all efforts to locate relatives or friends have so far proved futile.

Bemidji.—Indian Agents W. J. Johnson and C. E. Benson have made three arrests on the Bemidji and Cass Lake reservations in connection with the importation of "Peyote" beans from Mexico. The beans are a powerful narcotic and importations are forbidden by statue. A package sent thru the mail broke open, literally "spilling the beans." This led to the discovery and arrests of the alleged importers.

Little Falls.—H. C. Johnson, an employee of the local water power company, had a miraculous escape from death when 33,000 volts of electricity passed through his body. He came in contact with a high voltage wire while working about the plant. His hands were severely burned and he was slightly bruised about the body when he was thrown to the floor by the electric shock.

Two Harbors.—The employes of the city of Two Harbors, in every department except the office have petitioned the council for a general raise in salaries which would amount to about $15 per month per man. The present council members, however, did not take any action, as they decided that as their term of office would expire in a couple of weeks, they would leave the matter of adjusting salaries up to the new incoming council.

Red Lake Falls.—A determined effort will be made by the Red Lake Falls Commercial club to have the new Roosevelt International highway routed between Bemidji and Crookston by way of Red Lake Falls and Gentilly. The directors of the club point out that such a routing would be of great benefit to the highway, particularly as it would avoid the long stretch of unpromising country between Crookston and Dugdale.

Moorhead.—Bert Patterson, who confessed to having shot and killed his father on the night of February 14 last, was given a hearing before Justice Wade in this city. After the examination of witnesses for the purpose of fixing the time of the murder and the identification of the revolver used he was held to the grand jury without bail.

ERMAN BORN PATRIOT

arietta Man Largest Holder of U. S. Securities in His County.

Declares Country Can Have Whatever He Has Whenever It Desires It.

If William Hohenzollern depended on Americans of German birth to do his work in this country he would never have picked August Heckert of Marietta, Minn.

Although born in Germany, Mr. Heckert stands today as the prize practical patriot of Lac Qui Parle county with $25,000 to his credit in Liberty Bonds, War Savings Stamps and Certificates of Indebtedness. In addition to the cash investments, he has loaned his 24-year-old son to Uncle Sam and the youth is serving his country on the dreadnaught Kearsarge. Mr. and Mrs. Heckert have also toiled unceasingly for the various war activities in their home town and county.

Chairman J. H. Hayden of Madison is authority for the statement that the Heckerts are the largest holders of government securities in Lac Qui Parle county.

And Mr. Heckert has not been silent concerning the prosecution of the war. He has won himself a host of enemies among old neighbors for the things he has told them about their attitude toward the land of their adoption.

The culmination came recently when Ferdinand Kahlbrenner, also of Marietta, brought suit for $10,000 against the prize patriot of the county. The suit followed a signed article in a Marietta paper, in which Mr. Heckert aired his views regarding the refusal of many of his townsmen to buy Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps. The jury did not deliberate long over the evidence and returned a verdict for Mr. Heckert.

"The land of my adoption is the only land that I recognize," Mr. Heckert said in telling his experiences to R. Rogers, Chairman of the Ninth District War Loan Organization. "This government has made it possible for me to succeed in business and whatever I have, the United States can have whenever it desires it. The jury that gave me the verdict apparently thought that a man who bought five or six times as many Liberty Bonds as his allotment called for, could not be very disloyal."

"The case of Mr. Heckert," said Chairman Rogers, "is proof that the majority of American citizens of German birth are loyal to their adopted country."

Chairman Hayden of Madison declared that the story of Mr. Heckert should have the greatest circulation in the coming Victory Loan campaign.

"The story should bring shame to many persons who have been evading their full duty to their country," Mr. Hayden said.

MAKE JOINT SWEAR-OFF OF FOOLISH SPENDING

Some Pieces of Good Advice as Possible Keynotes for Coming Thrift Campaigns.

Here are some of the pieces of good advice L. B. Franklin, National Director of the War Loan Organization, has given to War Savings Stamp workers as possible keynotes for thrift campaigns:

We do not want to make a nation of tightwads but we do want to eliminate the darn fool waste.

Spend wisely and save your money so that you can go into business for yourself.

Spend less and pay off the mortgage or send your boy to college.

Put a little joy into saving.

"When a man 'swears off' smoking or ice cream or something like that, he is more apt to make good in his resolution if he has a fellow resolver, someone else who is undergoing the same denial with the same purpose in mind," Mr. Franklin said. "It is a joint 'swearoff.' This is the thing we want the American people to do, make a joint swearoff of foolish spending. And of course we want them to invest the saving in War Savings Stamps.

"We are going to get the 'joint swearoff' idea through the War Savings societies. Each member of a society will be a War Savings Stamp buyer and each will want to hold up his end, especially when he knows that every other member is doing his share."

This mild compulsion by public opinion as it exists in the society will this year take the place of the quota and allotment system of selling War Savings Stamps which was used last year. The W. S. S. buyer is to be made to want to save as much as he can, rather than to feel that he must save such and such an amount. Mr. Franklin said the quota system of War Savings Stamp sales was not in use this year.

The national director made it clear that the appeal is still to patriotism as well as to thrift and self interest but with the patriotic appeal changed from that of a battle crisis to that of the sturdier and less spectacular loyalty of the man who is willing to help his country under any and all circumstances. The War Savings Stamps, he said, are to be continued on sale in all parts of the country after the Fifth Liberty Loan is history and probably the stamp sales will be made permanent.

It's now almost as cheap to take the train to Fargo as to telephone there or to any other point over in Dakota. If you call for a phone number only, in Fargo you can talk three minutes for 80 cents, if you want any certain party it will cost 95 cents and if an appointment is made to talk later, it costs $1.15, these prices include the 10 cent war tax. If a call is put in and the party is out at the time or out of the city and you do not talk to them that day you will be charged 20 cents for the report, which is called the report charge.

Obituary

God in his infinite wisdom has called from this life unto the life eternal, one of the good women of Holt. Mrs. Esther Olson, the beloved wife of Racine Olson, passed away at noon, on Mar. 25th., 1919, at the Oakland Park Sanatorium, from tuberculosis, at the age of 24 years, 1 month and four days.

Esther Mickelson was born in Crookston, Minn., Feb. 21st, 1895. She moved to Holt with her parents in the spring of 1910, where she passed her happy girlhood days and grew to womanhood. She attended the Thief River High School and taught three terms of school in this county.

She was married to Racine Olson on Oct. 6th, 1915. The happy couple established their home in Holt.

Their married life was blessed with two children, namely Marcella and Raymond. These children and the husband are now left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectiionate wife and mother. Deceased is also mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mickelson, and her sisters Amanda, Stella and Olive Mickelson, all of Holt, and by many other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Olson was a woman who was loved and esteemed by all who knew her. It was in her own family circle and in the rearing of her children, that she took the greatest interest, and there also, she will be missed the most. That she should be taken away at a time when she seemed most needed in the home, is beyond human understanding, but it is not for us to question the ways of God, who doeth all things for the best. Mrs. Olson has made the great gain, she has kept the faith, and she has won the crown.

The funeral was held on Saturday by Rev. M. B. Ordahl, of the Norwegian Lutheran church, and was largely attended. Those who attended the funeral from out of town were Mrs. Martin Olson, and Ole Storholm of Crookston, aunt and grandfather. Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Storholm, of Thief River Falls, uncle and aunt of deceased. Dorthy and Celia Olson of Fargo, sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson of Newfolden, brother of Mr. Olson.

Many beatiful floral offerings were sent as tributes of esteem by loving friends. The remains of Mrs. Olson were laid away to rest in the Holt Cemetery, until the morn of resurrection. Peace to her memory.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent bereavment. Also for the music and the numerous and beautiful floral offerings.

You must act quickly to prevent more serious trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy recommended everywhere by grateful users.

A North Dakota Case

Mrs. A. F. Gillespie, Park River, N. D., says: "I was troubled severely with my kidneys. My back was always aching and was so lame, sore, and stiff, I could hardly straighten up when I bent over. My kidneys acted irregularly, I was all run down. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was completely cured, and I haven't had the slightest kidney trouble since and I surely place a lot of faith in Doan's."

DECIDE TO LAND POLISH TROOPS

Allies Are Said to Be Determined Upon Securing Use of Baltic Port.

ARRANGES CONFERENCE

Marshal Foch Is Reported to Have Invited Germany to Send Delegates to Spa for Purpose of Settling Difficulty.

London, April 1.—Germany has been invited to send delegates with all speed to Spa to meet Marshal Foch concerning the Danzig difficulty. This announcement is made in a Copenhagen dispatch to the Central News.

Paris, April 1.—The Temps says that the Allied and associated governments seem to have decided to disregard the German objections concerning Danzig and to land, by force if necessary, Polish troops at this Baltic sea port.

But this move, says the Temps, would not necessarily imply in the mind of the Allies, the union of Danzig to Poland. The newspaper adds that concerning the question of the Polish frontier the Allied governments seem inclined to create about Danzig a neutral state, in order to avoid attaching this part of the coast either to Germany or to Poland.

Hungary Offers Alliance.

Copenhagen, April 1.—The Vienna Volks Zeitung's Budapest correspondent says the Hungarian government has offered to ally itself with the German government against the Entente, according to a dispatch received here.

A telegram of the Wolff bureau says, however, that nothing is known in official quarters in Berlin concerning such an offer. Communist troops invaded German West Hungary, but were repulsed after several conflicts with the inhabitants, according to a dispatch from Berlin quoting the Vossische Zeitung as stating that a deputation from West Hungary arrived in Vienna to report to Secretary of State Bauer concerning the invasion. Many houses were plundered and burned.

Hungary Quiet, but Hungry.

Paris, April 1.—Advices received from Captain Thomas C. Gregory, of the United States Food Administration at Triest, are to the effect that quiet prevails in Hungary and that the receipt of food supplies might prevent further trouble. This news came through Lieutenant Smith, who arrived in Vienna from Budapest Thursday morning. When Lieut. Smith left Budapest, there was a feeling of great uneasiness among the higher classes. The new government, it is stated, will consist of a council of fifteen with Belakun, the leader of the revolution at its head.

Professor Brown and Lieut. White, of the American mission, are still in Budapest. The British and French mission are still in Budapest. The British and French missions left for Belgrade and the Italian mission departed the same day for Vienna.

SOCIALISTS ARE VICTORIOUS

Secure Majority on Berlin Soldiers' and Workers' Council.

Berlin, April 1.—The Independent Socialists triumphed in the elections of the Berlin Workmens' and Soldiers' council for the second congress of Workmen's and Soldiers' councils by winning nine seats to five for the majority Socialists and two for the Democrats.

The council voted to take steps to secure the immediate release of George Ledebour, the former Social Democrat leader, who was taken into custody during the recent disorders.

SUFFRAGE CONVENTION ENDS

Women Adopt Principles of Americanization Program.

St. Louis, April 1.—The jubilee convention of the Woman's National Suffrage association adjourned after indorsing action taken by the League of Women Voters, composed of suffrage members from franchise states, looking toward remedial legislation affecting the meat packing industry and adopting principles of an Americanization program.

HUN ATTITUDE IS REPORTED

Said to Be Standing on President's Fourteen Points.

London, April 1.—The department of the German foreign office having charge of the peace negotiations has reached a decision as to its attitude toward the negotiations, a German wireless message says. The department has decided the German government should act only in accordance with President Wilson's 14 points.

Renews Attacks on Mann.

Washington, April 1. — Representative Longworth of Ohio, Republican, renewed his attack on Representative Mann of Illinois in a statement declaring that the former Republican floor leader, although defeated for the speakership by a two to one vote, was in a position to wield greater power in the next congress than had he been elected. Mr. Longworth urged the liberalization of the house steering committee which, he said, does not represent all parts of the country.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Adv.

In The Spring-Time.

Any fool knows enough to carry an umbrella when it rains, but the wise man is he who carries one when it is only cloudy. Any man will send for a doctor when he gets bedfast, but the wiser one is he who adopts proper measures before his ills become serious. During a hard winter or the following spring one feels rundown, tired out, weak and nervous. Probably you have suffered from colds or influenza which has left you thin, weak and pale. This is the time to put your system in order. It is time for house-cleaning.

A good, old-fashioned alterative and temperance tonic is one made of wild roots and barks without the use of alcohol, and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in tablet or liquid form. This is nature's tonic, which restores the tone of the stomach, activity of the liver and steadiness to the nerves, strengthening the whole system.

St. Cloud, Minn.—"Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been a favorite medicine of mine for years. It has been very effectual in relieving me of liver trouble, and as a blood tonic to tone up one's system there is nothing better. I can highly recommend this medicine for the relief and benefit it has given me."—Mrs. Theresa Smith, 711 14th Ave., South.

PREPARES CALL FOR 50,000 MEN

War Department will Ask for Volunteers to Join the Army Overseas.

VETERANS WAY ENLIST

Those Desiring to See Service Abroad Will Be Offered Opportunity in Order to Relieve Men Wishing to Come Home.

Washington, March 29.—The war department has prepared an immediate call for 50,000 volunteers for service in Europe.

As an incentive to enlistment, the men will be offered early duty in France as a relief for men in the Expeditionary forces who wish to return home.

Enlistment in this special force will be for three years. The men will be concentrated at Camp Meade, Maryland, and probably will be sent overseas in contingents of 1,000.

Many Veterans Expected.

War department officials expressed confidence that no trouble would be experienced in raising the 50,000 men or an even greater number if it should be found that additional increments were necessary. The bulk of the men are expected to come from recently discharged troops, who after a short "vacation" as civilians, desire to return to army life.

Another incentive expected to have a decided effect on the recruiting campaign is looked for among the men who, after having been drafted and trained, were prevented from going overseas by the promulgation of the armistice. Opportunity to see service in Germany, it is thought, will lead many of these to enlist.

Would Be Trained Abroad.

A number of officers, probably 10 or 12, will be sent overseas with each increment of 1,000 men leaving Camp Meade. These will be used at the concentration camp to give the training necessary to whip the men into organizations and make the required examinations. On arrival in Europe they will take the place of officers who are eligible for discharge.

DECLARES PROBE ASSURED

Kansas Governor Says Congress Will Look Into War Losses.

St. Louis, March 29.—Congress will make a complete investigation of charges that soldiers were needlessly sacrified and other misconduct of war accusations, Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas declared.

Governor Allen, who arrived here to address the national suffrage convention, said he had been assured of the investigation by both the committee on rules of the House and the military affairs committee of the Senate.

GERMAN SUBMARINES SAIL

Washington, March 29.—Five surrendered German submarines have left England for the United States, manned by American crews and convoyed by the American submarine tender Bushnell. They are expected to arrive in American waters late in April, and will be displayed at ports to be selected in connection with with the next Liberty Loan campaign.

Roumania and Czecho-Slovakia Send Troops Into Hungary.

Paris, March 29.—The Roumanian and Czecho-Slovak governments have taken military measures against the Hungarian revolutionary government, a Geneva dispatch to the Petit Parisian says. Two Roumanian army corps are said to have crossed the frontier of Eastern Galicia.

ALLIES ASK SAFE CONDUCT

Copenhagen, March 29.—The German government at Weimar has received from the Allied high command a demand for permission for Polish troops to land at Danzig and to march through German territory to Poland, according to a dispatch received here from Weimar.

Copenhagen, March 29.—The German financial mission which was to go to Versailles has received further instructions to postpone its departure, a dispatch received here today from Weimar says.

France Given Another Credit.

Washington, March 29.—France was given a credit of $100,000,000 by the treasury and Greece was given $3,858,000 additional. This made total credits to France, $2,617,477,000; to Greece, $43,412,000, and a total for all Allies of $9,036,269,000.

CATCH PROVED WORTH WHILE

Remarkable Fish Not of Much Value as Food, but It Was Not a Total Loss.

"Talk about fishin'," says the old colonel. "I have hooked all kinds, but never until last Tuesday did I hook one of the 'old settlers'—one of the critters that helped to stake out the lake. Maybe he waren't game! He ran under the boat, turned flip-flops and went through all of the stunts of the fish tribe. Well, after about two and one-half hours I landed him. He was about four feet eight inches long and weighed 28 pounds and three ounces. Took him right over to the point to show him to the boys, and we decided we'd hold a little banquet the next night and eat the old cuss up. Well, when we sat down to table and I started to carve up that fish, do you know what? Anywhere I cut I struck right into a fish hook. He'd been hooked by everybody, and had swallowed the hook. That fish was just plumb full of tackle. I whittled and haggled away for a time, but finally gave it up for a bad job."

"What did you do with him?"

"Sold him for old iron."—M. L. Granger, in Judge.

"I'm sorry for him. Been married fifteen years and hasn't a child."

WHAT HE TURNED TO SEE

Probably the Accessories Indicated Had Not Been Introduced in Evidence in the Case.

Lou Guernsey was defending one party to an auto collision and was cross-examining a lady witness who was undeniably pretty.

"Have you any idea what caused this accident?" thundered Lou.

"I think so," said the fair witness sweetly.

"Then tell the court how it happened," thundered Lou, eager for facts.

"Must I tell the truth?"

"You have sworn to do so."

"Well, sir, I was standing on the corner, and that gentleman turned to look at something and ran into the other machine."

"Ah," divined the astute Guernsey. "He turned to look at you. That makes you an accessory before the fact, madam."

"I—I think it was the—the accessories he was looking at," murmured the witness.—Los Angeles Times.

Creating Atmosphere.

"I understand this comedian tells some of his funniest stories in hotel bar rooms after the performance."

"He does, eh?" said the vaudeville magnate. IT'S NOT YOUR HEART; IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to the kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filterers of your blood. If the poisons which are swept from the tissues by the blood are not eliminated through the kidneys, disease of one form or another will claim you as a victim.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Go to your druggist today and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning.

After you feel somewhat improved continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep the first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

PROBE ORDERED IN LAND GRANT

State Department Starts Inquiry of Reported Mexican Concession to Japan.

ASKS SPEEDY REPORT

Tract Developed by Americans Is Involved, Holdings Being Confiscated by Revolutionists—Japs Have Long Sought Foothold.

Washington, April 1.—The American embassy at Mexico City has been instructed by the state department to make inquiries regarding the report that the Mexican government has granted agricultural concessions to Japanese in Lower California and to report the facts as quickly as possible.

No official information has reached the department about concessions, and surprise was occasioned by the dispatch from Mexico City quoting General Aado Aguirre, undersecretary of development and agriculture, as saying they had been granted.

Claimed by Americans.

The American government is interested both because of the apparent success of Japanese in obtaining a long sought foothold in Lower California, and because the tract of land involved was developed and is claimed by an American company whose rights were declared forfeited by the Mexican government in 1917.

The department was unable to determine as yet whether the land was the same as that to be sold two weeks ago by the California and Mexican Land company to Japanese interests, whether the concession had actually been made or report of it merely sent out as a "feeler."

Mexican Envoy Asks Word.

Mexican Ambassador Bonillas has no advices regarding reported negotiations, but has asked Mexico City for information. It is known here that the Mexican view is that the transfer of the property to Japanese citizens or companies is not in violation of the Monroe doctrine. The Mexicans point to the increasing Japanese interest in all South American and Central American coats and particularly the recent announced Brazilian concession to Japan—as grounds for such action.

Ambassador Ishii declined to discuss the reported deal. The Japanese, it is learned in diplomatic quarters, hold that the Japanese transactions in Latin America are purely commercial and can be given no political significance.

The state department declared today it has heard nothing from the California and Mexican Land company of Los Angeles, since it virtually warned that company against selling Lower California land to the Japanese two weeks ago.

GERMANS READY TO YIELD

Reported That They Will Allow Troops to Land at Danzig.

London, April 1.—The Berlin correspondent of the Mail says there is good reason to believe Germany will give way regarding the Danzig question if the Allies will agree that Polish troops shall not actually remain in Danzig pending the establishment of peace.

The German government has decided to send Mathias Erzberger to Spa to confer with Marshal Ferdinand Foch regarding the Danzig situation, according to a Berlin dispatch.

London, April 1.—Official communications referring to the outbreak in southern provinces of Egypt have been received from Cairo. They say that a train from Luxor was attacked at Minion March 15 and partially sacked. The bodies of seven British officers, who had been murdered, were found in the guard's car. On March 15, at Beni-Souef, a crowd invaded the courts during their sitting, drove out the officials and made an attempt to seize the British judge.

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

NINTH DISTRICT WILL NOT FAIL

People Must Do Their Full Share Putting Victory Loan “Over the Top.”

PATRIOTISM WILL DO IT

Officials of War Loan Organization Prepare for Campaign and Are Confident of Successful Outcome—To Uphold Past Record.

“The people of the Ninth Federal Reserve District will do their full share in finishing the job.”

A. R. Rogers, Chairman of the War Loan Organization, unhesitatingly made this promise to Carter Glass, Secretary of the Treasury, when he visited District Headquarters recently.

“We know the temper, the patriotism and the record of the people of the Northwest too well to have any fear of their response to the loan of Thanksgiving,” was the secretary's response.

“Therefore, it is up to us to continue to lead the United States ‘over the top,’” said Theodore Wold, Governor of the Ninth District Federal Reserve Bank. “Because of past performances the whole country is expecting great things of us in the test of peace time patriotism; and, judging from the ambition, enthusiasm and optimism already in evidence among our workers, we will not fail.”

Speakers Get Busy.

“We're off to a flying start,” said Joseph Chapman, district director of speakers. “Our campaign of platform education and instruction opened March 24. Every county is or will shortly be organized with a speakers' chairman. From now until the big buying day, April 21, there shouldn't be a meeting, large or small, in the whole district without a Victory Loan speaker on the program. Anyone who finds his county unorganized should take it up at once with his county chairman or with us. It is up to every man, woman and child to get busy and keep busy until the job is finished.”

The Opening Gun.

America's duty to her soldiers who suffered and bled and died for liberty on the fields of France was emphasized in a stirring speech by Carter Glass, Secretary of the Treasury, in the Minneapolis Auditorium the night of March 20.

In his talk he pointed out the need of raising money the government must have “to finish the job” that the wearers of the khaki started so well on the other side of the Atlantic.

The speech was the opening gun in the Victory Loan campaign that opens April 21 and was followed closely by a capacity house, made up of county chairmen from the Ninth District and delegates to the Better Business convention. He spoke in part as follows:

“When I am told of the difficulties which will beset the Victory Loan I refuse to lose faith in the enduring patriotism of the American people; I decline to believe that the fathers and mothers who gave four million sons to die, if need be, that liberty might survive, will now haggle over the material cost of saving the very soul of civilization from the perdition of Prussian tyranny.

“But I am told that we must approach the problem of future loans in a distinctly cold-blooded mood. Some men tell me it will be impossible again to appeal to the patriotism of the American people. Frankly, gentlemen, I should despair of my country if these things were exactly true. I should doubt our ability to cope with the problems of peace if so quickly we should forget the obligations of war. I wonder if those who talk in this fashion speak considerately? They tell about the “sacrifices” the American people have made, and in their voices there is a metallic tone and in their mien unconscious austerity.

“What is meant by the sacrifices of war for America? Where are our devastated fields and ruined cities? Where our cathedrals destroyed and homes profaned? Where our defiled women and starved children and wrecked men? Where on this wide continent does hunger stalk abroad or pestilential disease claim its thousands of victims? Is it, then, a serious sacrifice to invest one's money in the interest-bearing obligations of one's government in order to make everlastingly secure the nation's freedom as well as the nation's property?

“Our allies fought for us nearly three years before we began to fight with them. For nearly that period of time the United States profited tremendously, in a commercial and industrial sense, by the European war. Immense fortunes were made; prosperity pervaded our land. France and Britain lost millions of men killed and millions of others wounded. Less than sixty thousand American heroes sleep beneath the sod of France. Those men made the supreme sacrifice. Should we dishonor their memories or diminish the glory of their service by pausing in the cheerful performance of an imperative duty?

“When men undertake to compute the sacrifices of a war for freedom in terms of commerce I would like them to get a vision of some things I saw not long ago on the far-flung battle fronts of Ypres, which will live in song and story, through time and eternity, as the most memorable of which history will ever give account. There they might perceive the real meaning of sacrifice. There they could see what human heroism endured for the liberty of the race here and the wide world over. Here by night and day, in fair weather and foul, fighting their way step by step, waist deep in mud and mire, chilled to the bone, these incomparable heroes, these crusaders in the cause of liberty, fought their way through inconceivable obstacles and drove the enemy off the heights from which the Hun had literally viewed the Promised Land. Great God! what a moment was that for civilization. And how beyond the imagination of man to picture human endurance and courage so everlastingly sublime.

“Is there no obligation upon us to recompense vicarious suffering like that? Do we quite fully appreciate the sacrifices made by these boys for us when we talk about discharging our debt on a commercial basis, in a cold-blooded way? I want to be sensible in dealing with the Victory Loan; my own life has been too hard and too real to even suggest an excess of emotion. But, as the question looks to me, we should not approach it in cold blood. We have a right to invoke the patriotism of the people, and today it takes a higher type of patriotism to serve the nation than was required in the delirium of war. Upon this I shall confidently rely; and I here predict that the response will in no measure disappoint the expectation of those who set a high estimate upon the spirit of the American nation.

“We call this last the Victory Loan. It is that and more; It is a Thanksgiving Loan.

“There are yet 1,600,000 American boys in France and Germany who must be maintained in comfort and brought home in safety and provided with employment on their return. While Congress is writing off the books $13,000,000,000 of authorizations, for which public funds would have been expended had not the war suddenly terminated, the Government is still expending two billion dollars per month to meet the honorable commitments of the country. The honor of the Government is involved. Being your government, it is your honor that American people will make a response of which the nation will be proud.”

U. S. WAS FAR BEHIND IN WAR EXPENDITURES

Enlightening Information From Figures Computed by War Department.

Those who believe that the United States has contributed far more to the prosecution of the war than any of the other allies, may glean some enlightening information from figures recently compiled by the Treasury Department.

These figures show that in comparison with Great Britain, for example, this country was far behind in total expended.

The latest available statistics show that Great Britain's war bill totalled $37,100,000,000, in comparison with $18,481,000,000 for the United States.

Criticism has been heard that this country loaned Great Britain, France and others of the allies all the money they spent. The Treasury figures also disprove this statement. Our total loans to the Allies were $7,875,000,000 and Great Britain lent $8,500,000,000.

Even France, generally considered a poor war spender, devoted more to winning the war than did America with a total of $27,000,000,000. Russia was right behind us with $18,000,000,000.

Germany was second only to Great Britain in paying for the four years of war for the Berlin government poured out $36,500,000,000 in a vain attempt to get her place in the sun. The other Teutonic allies added $23,000,000,000, giving the Central Empires a total war bill of $59,500,000,000.

IF HE WERE YOURS.

The great heart of Uncle Sam is softened when dealing with the relatives of his soldiers who have made the great sacrifice.

It is often said that a big government has no time for sentiment, but Uncle Sam has spent millions for sentiment alone.

He has established an Effects Bureau that does nothing but see that the property of the dead boys gets to their people. He will spend a thousand dollars to get to a bereaved mother a watch or a knife or a trinket that belonged to that dead boy.

In one week in February, twenty tons of effects arrived in New York. It is the little details like this in “finishing the job” that cost money. Think of getting the dead boy's effects back to the bereaved mother when you are asked to subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan on April 21.

Army and Navy News

It's reported that Charley Horien has arrived at one of the eastern camps from overseas and will soon be mustered out of the service.

Adolph Johnson arrived from over seas March 15th, at Camp Merritt, N. J. and is quarantined for typhoid fever, but as it is a mild case of that disease, his condition is not considered dangerous.

Mrs. Martin Mattson received a letter Tuesday from the Casualty section of the U. S. Army and signed by the Captain of the company to which her brother, Alfred C. Olson had been previously transferred.

The letter stated that Private Alfred C. Olson was killed in action on Nov. 11th (the day the armistice was signed) in the battle of Haumont and was buried by Capt. Futcher, Chaplain 109th Infantry, at Woevre Chambley, Haumont Dept.

This letter confirms previous government reports and there is no longer any doubt that Alfred Olson has made the supreme sacrifice for his country and her people. The sincere sympathy of everybody is extended to the aged mother, the sisters, brothers and other relatives of the deceased.

The Home Talent Play

A big crowd attended the home talent play, “The Camouflage of Shirley” at the hall Saturday night and everyone was well pleased with the entertainment. These young people have worked hard to make the play a success and the many good words spoken of the entertainment shows how well they have accomplished their purpose. Each one, played well the part as assigned to them and showed the training given them by their instructor, Miss Nelson, of Thief River Falls, to whom no small part of the success of the play is due.

The play was staged for the benefit of the Holt public school. A piano has already been purchased and in order to pay the balance on that and the expenses of the play the same entertainment will probably be given in Newfolden and Middle River sometime in the future.

D. B. Bakke has let the job of excavating the basement for his house to P. A. Riesberg, and will commence building as soon as possible.

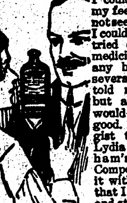
WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.



Peru, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METERIANO, 36 West 10th St., Peru, Ind.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

HOW CAN YOU TELL YOUR FAVORITE TOBACCO?

As Plain as the Nose on Your Face—Just Smell It

Smokers do not have to put tobacco in their pipes to find out if they like it. They can just rub the tobacco between the palms of their hands and smell it. The nose is an infallible guide to smoking enjoyment.

All smoking tobaccos employ some flavoring "to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves", to quote the Encyclopædia Britannica. Naturally, there is considerable difference in the kind of flavorings used, and the nose quickly detects this difference. TUXEDO Tobacco uses the purest, most wholesome, and delicious of all flavorings—chocolate. And the almost universal liking for chocolate in a great measure explains the widespread popularity of TUXEDO Tobacco.

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

HUNGARY RED CHIEF IS SLAIN

Counter Revolution Breaks Out in Budapest Is Report From Vienna.

HUNGER CRISIS IS NEAR

Basle, April 8.—Rumors are being circulated that a counter revolution has broken out in Budapest, according to a dispatch from Vienna. Foreign Minister Bela Kun is said to have been assassinated.

Basle, April 8.—A dispatch from Berlin said the workmen's and soldiers' council there had decided to arrest influential persons of the bourgeoise and press and occupy the war ministry, after which a soviet republic would be proclaimed simultaneously with a general strike.

Communists Plans Are for Strike.

Berlin, April 8.—Communists are completing plans for a general strike early next week.

Government forces are on the alert to oppose a coup d'etat.

Plots in Several Towns.

Copenhagen, April 8.—The German government has discovered plots in several towns for establishment of a soviet republic, a semi-official dispatch, from Berlin announces. Repressive measures are being taken.

The Krupp works are reported to be idle and its officials have been instructed to arm themselves against an emergency.

A dispatch from Berlin Saturday night said the government had discovered a plot to proclaim a soviet republic in that city.

Arming of Krupp officials may seem that a Spartacan attack is plotted on the works in an effort to obtain a large supply of arms and ammunitions.

Revolt in Austria.

Washington, April 8.—Advices reaching the state department indirectly from Vienna said a communistic revolution seemed imminent in German Austria.

New Difficulty.

Weimar, April 8.—After announcement was made that Polish troops would cross Germany, railway men presented new demands to the government, threatening a general strike if their demands were not granted. Newspapers urge that the government must make the strike impossible, since the Entente Powers have declared that if transportation is delayed or made difficult they will insist on landing Polish troops at Danzig.

STRIKE MARKED BY RIOTING

Shooting and Bomb Explosion Keep Lawrence Police Busy.

Lawrence, Mass., April 8.—Rioting marked by promiscuous shooting by strike sympathizers and police opened the 10th week of the textile strike here. The outbreak occurred near the Everett mills, a few hours after the city had been stirred by the explosion of a bomb in a tenement house in the same neighborhood.

The rioting began when strike sympathizers began throwing stones at mill windows and then shifted their attack to policemen. When the police found their clubs ineffective they drew pistols and their shots were answered by others from the crowd. Men and women also appeared at windows with missles. The bomb explosion occurred before daylight. The property damage was small. Twenty-three arrests were made.

WILSON ORDERS SHIP READY

Steamer George Washington to Proceed to French Port.

Paris, April 8.—Orders which it is learned have been given for the United States transport George Washington to proceed from America to a French port, are not taken to mean that President Wilson is contemplating a premature departure from France. They are thought rather to reflect a belief that the peace conference will be able to effect an adjustment of outstanding problems at a comparatively early date.

CHINESE WOMAN PEACE ENVOY

Only 23 Years Old, Arrives in Paris for Conference.

Paris, April 8.—Miss S. Cheng, a Chinese woman only 23 years of age, but with a record of several years' activity as a republican leader in China, has arrived here to attend the peace conference. Miss Cheng was three times condemned to death in 1916 and 1917 in connection with her activities. She was formerly a law student here.

Probe Body Members Named.

Paris, April 8.—Dr. Henry C. King, president of Oberlin college, and Charles R. Crane have been named as the American Members of the Inter-Allied commission designated by the Peace conference to investigate conditions in Syria, take a plebiscite and submit recommendations on the disposition of Syria. The investigation probably will require several months and it is certain no disposition will be made of Syria until after the signing of the peace treaty.

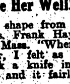
Health Was Shattered

Mrs. Hayes Was Discouraged Until Doan's Made Her Well.



Mrs. Hayes

"I was in awful shape from kidney trouble," says Mrs. Frank Hayes, 42 Dover St., Boston, Mass. "When I got up out of a chair, I felt as though someone had stuck a knife into the small of my back and it fairly took my breath away.

"The kidney secretions passed often and only a little at a time. They were so scalding I would scream so I believe I could be heard a block away. They deposited brick-dust-like sediment and their odor was something awful. My complexion became sallow and I had large puffs under my eyes.

"I was troubled with spells of gasping for breath and had such dizzy attacks I often fell right over. Spots floated before my eyes and I got so nervous I couldn't stand any noise. I cried over nothing at all, became irritable and imagined all sorts of things. My health was shattered and I became discouraged.

"I continued to grow worse in spite of any treatment and came pretty near dying several times. After several months of this horror, I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills. I used a dozen boxes of Doan's and was cured. I was entirely well and have enjoyed good health ever since."

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—headaches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid stomach is the real cause of the trouble.

Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloat out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.

LAND OF WEALTH

Western Canada Has Unbounded Possibilities.

Glorious Opportunities for the Stock Raiser, the Wheat Grower, and the Mixed Farmer—Its Fields to Feed the World.

Before there were any cattle in Alberta, or it was known that it was possible to feed them outside all the year round, the Indian hunters could always find the buffalo during the winter months pasturing in the foothills. In the summer the herds wandered on the plains and fed on the prairie grasses. The plains have since become grain fields, but the foothill district extending north from the International boundary for a thousand miles will always be a natural feeding ground for live stock. In the southern part of Alberta the altitude is greater than in the more northerly districts, but while the herds in the south have winder tracts of treeless pasturage, in the north from Red Deer on into the Peace river country there are more trees, a richer vegetation and more natural shelter.

Those who have been advocating stock raising and mixed farming for the past few years point to the number of hogs marketed as an evidence of the increased production of the Western Provinces. They may also take credit for the increase in cattle and sheep, which is very great, but perhaps not so marked as what has been accomplished in hog raising. For the first six months alone last year about half a million hogs were shipped from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. A very conservative estimate value of these animals to the farmer would be $25.00 a head.

The Canadian West is fast forging to the front of the wheat-producing countries of the world, and "No. 1 hard" is without doubt the best wheat in the market today. When it is considered that the three hundred and forty-three million four hundred and seventy-three thousand bushel crop of 1915 was from only eleven million acres of her hundreds of millions of acres, it gives an idea of what her future will be.

It is felt, however, that on account of the great money there will undoubtedly be in growing wheat during the next few years there is a possibility that farmers may be tempted to drop the growing of coarser grains, which might result in less stock being raised. Every effort is being made by the Agricultural Departments of the various Provinces to impress on the farmers that forage crops and coarse feed in abundance mean production of flesh and milk, and that in the long run the great future of the Western Provinces lies in mixed farming which will found her prosperity on a more enduring basis.

Mixed farming has always been the rule in the Eastern Provinces where the formation of the land invites variety of crop, but it has not been as common in the Western Provinces, though the practice has grown in recent years. Hitherto the man mining wheat from the rich soil has purchased most of his household food and necessities, his energies being devoted to getting every possible bushel of grain out of every foot of his land, and he has paid prices for his supplies that have made a big dent in his profits. It has now dawned on him that he can raise vegetables and poultry, and supply his own table; that with very little effort he can raise a lot of garden produce and in a very simple manner solve his own problem of the cost of living. Further, that there is an increasing market for domestic necessities such as poultry, eggs, butter, milk and cheese, which command very high prices, and that there are other roads to prosperity besides that through the wheat field.

In 1916 Canada imported 7,989,269 pounds of butter, most of it from as far away as New Zealand, and for the first time in 60 years failed to ship butter to England, a condition due to the home consumption, which is estimated to be increasing at the rate of $3,000,000 worth a year, being greatly in excess of the increased supply. This condition has brought about a change in farming methods that is far-reaching, and will result in greatly increased production all round of the necessities demanded by the home market.

Natural Resources.

One of the most important considerations to the farmer is fuel. In northern Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, where portions of the country are well wooded, the settler has little difficulty in getting all the wood he requires and thousands of men find employment in the winter cutting wood, which is shipped all over the prairie portions of the provinces. There is an abundance of coal throughout the country. It is estimated that the coal deposits in Alberta cover over 81,000 square miles and represent an available tonnage of over ten hundred thousand million tons, while those in Saskatchewan cover an area of 13,000 miles, containing over 59,000,000 tons. In Manitoba the coal reserve is not as large, but even there 160,000,000 tons is considered a conservative estimate. At the present time these deposits are only worked to a small extent, but there is no doubt that they will be a great feature in upbuilding the country and will exercise a powerful influence on its commerce.

It is a common thing in the coal districts for farmers to get their coal supply off their own farm. Near Edmonton, for example, the farmers not only supply themselves, but they carry coal to the city market and find it a considerable source of revenue in the winter time. The Edmonton coal fields under and around the city have an estimated content of sixty thousand million tons. Farmers sell the coal at $4 a ton for domestic use.

The pioneer of Western Canada knew little of the enjoyments of life, compared with the farmer in that country today. The continual extension of railway lines affords facilities undreamed of a few years ago, closing up the gaps of communication, creating immense business for the East in the West and the West in the East, and drawing the farmer all the time nearer to the zones of commerce. In creating wider markets the railways are doing more than any other agency can do for Western Canada and the country as a whole. The products of the farms, which are now readily marketed, and the vast train of employment that follows the enlargement of the farming industry, is creating new agricultural centers and causing towns and cities of importance to grow all along its lines.

An admirable system of agricultural instruction has been developed through the efforts of the Dominion government and the various provincial Departments of Agriculture. This forms part of the educational system of Western Canada and is doing much for all branches of agriculture. Experimental farms have been established at various points in the provinces, which have done wonders in developing improved methods of farming.

The result has been a great awakening to the necessity of better methods of tillage, scientific stock raising and dairying. Farmers are beginning to realize that to get what they are entitled to out of the land, they must adopt scientific methods, and as a result, careful seed selection, proper rotation and summer fallow is the order of the day. Under the favorable conditions generally anticipated, prospects point to an all round increase in production that will leave a great deal of money in the hands of the western farmer this year, and prosperity for Western Canada as a whole. It will be years before Europe will make up arrears in agricultural production, caused by the enforced idleness and wholesale destruction, and Western Canada will play a big part in filling the void.

The result of the continued shortage in cattle, the future price of beef and the solution of the perplexing problem of feeding the world are vital questions uppermost in the minds of many thinking people today.

There is no doubt that the wide acres of Western Canada can, and will, be made to play an important part in bringing about a proper balance in supply and demand. In the northern parts of Manitoba and Saskatchewan and in Alberta are many thousands of acres of the richest pasture in the world, well watered and treated by the sunniest of climates. These rolling hills for the greater part are still unpeopled and untrodden by the hoofs of domestic animals.

One of the causes assigned for the decline in stock-raising is the reduction in the areas available for grazing on account of so many big ranches being converted into farms. Experiments, conducted at Vermilion, Alberta, would rather go to show that the old grazing grounds were too large, and that the feeding is really better when the animal is confined to a comparatively limited area, providing the pasturage is of the right kind and there is plenty of water.—Advertisement.

ENEMY ACCEPTS NEW ARMISTICE

Teuton Assembly Bows to Terms of Truce After Long Debate, Danes Hear.

FOCH REFUSES DELAY

Pressure Being Exerted On Supreme War Council For Immediate Intervention in Russia—American Position Unchanged.

Paris, Feb. 18.—Pressure is being exerted on the supreme war council for an immediate intervention in Russia. The French were said to have been urged again that military action be taken against the bolsheviki on a large scale, while War Minister Winston Spencer Churchill's proposal—which has not been made public—was understood to contemplate proclamation of a state of war, if necessary. The American position in opposition to a military policy remained unchanged.

Accepts Terms.

London, Feb. 18.—The German cabinet discussed the armistice terms from 10:30 a. m. to 4 p. m., when an effort was made to summon the national assembly to decide upon the answer, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. It was found impossible to summon the assembly, it is added, and after a conference with the party leaders it was decided to accept the terms unconditionally.

Ladies Attend Meeting.

Copenhagen, Feb. 18.—The German government accepted the Allied terms for the extension of the armistice, according to a dispatch to the Politiken from Weimar.

The meeting at which the acceptance was decided upon, the Politiken's correspondent says, was attended by leaders of the various parties.

An earlier report stated that in reply to a request by Mathias Erzberger, head of the German armistice commission, for a delay in the signing of the armistice terms until Monday noon, Marshal Foch declared that the armistice expired at 5 a. m. Monday and that the last hour for signing would be 6 p. m. Sunday.

In order to be able to issue necessary orders to the troops, if not signed then, Marshal Foch said he would be obliged to leave Treves and the armistice would no longer be in force.

Conflicting Reports.

Basle, Feb. 18.—Conflicting reports received from Treves regarding the status of the armistice. One dispatch said the armistice had been prolonged indefinitely, while another said that Marshal Ferdinand Foch had allowed the Germans three days grace in which to accept the new terms. The armistice was to have expired today.

FOE IN FINANCIAL STRAITS

Total War Cost to Germany $40,000,000,000, Says Schiffer.

Weimar, Feb. 18.—The German people generally do not yet understand clearly the financial situation in which the war has left them and they are too optimistic, declared Dr. Schiffer, the minister of finance, in an address to the German national assembly.

Dr. Schiffer asked the assembly to vote a credit in the form of a loan for $6,333,000,000, the greatest loan the German people ever have been asked to raise. He said that last October the government stood on the verge of financial exhaustion. It asked for a credit of $3,750,000,000, but when this was refused, raised it by means of bank note issues. The total cost of the war to Germany was $40,000,000,000, he said.

The union, which is without any official status, will comprise 30 members from neutral countries.

The American members are Elihu Root, John Bassett Moore and James B. Scott. Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Peru, Mexico, Great Britain, France, Italy, Spain, Belgium, Greece and Rumania also are represented.

Hague Opposed as League Capital.

Paris, Feb. 18.—Speculation already at work as to the seat of the secretariat of the new league of nations, provided by Article V. New York has been suggested so that President Wilson could direct the administrative work, but its distance from the other capitals seems an insuperable obstacle. The Hague as a seat meets with opposition from the French press which is not satisfied with Holland's role in the war. Brussels seems the most acceptable proposal yet made.

Weekly Health Talks

GOING BACK TO NATURE

BY DR. W. LUCAS.

People get sick because they go away from Nature, and the only way to get well is to go back. Something grows out of the ground in the form of vegetation to cure almost every ill. Some of these vegetable growths are understood by man, and some are not. Animals, it would seem, know what to do when they are sick better than men and women. Observers have noted that a sick horse, dog or cat will stop eating food and seek out some vegetable growth in the field, or yard, which, when found and eaten, often restores appetite and health. Haven't you seen these animals do this very thing yourself?

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found the herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and he had these vegetables collected and made up of Mayapple, leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, into little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You must understand that when your intestines are stopped up, poisons and decayed matter are imprisoned in your system, and these are carried by the blood throughout your body. Thus does your head ache, you get dizzy, you can't sleep, your skin may break out, your appetite declines, you get tired and despondent. As a matter of fact, you may get sick all over. Don't you see how useless all this suffering is? All that is often needed is a few of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which he has placed in all drug stores for your convenience and health. Try them by all means. They are probably the very thing you need right now.

COVENANT FOR WORLD LEAGUE

9 NATIONS TO GOVERN

United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, With Four Smaller States to Form Executive Council of Body.

Paris, Feb. 15.—As outlined in the covenant read by President Wilson, the executive council of the League of Nations will consist of representatives of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, and Japan, together with representatives of four other powers.

The council shall meet as often as is necessary, but at least once a year, at whatever place may be designated.

Any matter within the sphere of action of the league, or affecting the peace of the world, will be dealt with.

Wilson To Call First Meeting.

The President of the United States shall summon the first meeting of the body of delegates and the executive council.

The league will have a secretariat under the direction of a secretary general, who shall appoint the other members.

The secretary general shall act in that capacity at all meetings.

Requirements For Membership.

The representatives of the high contracting parties and the officials of the league shall have diplomatic privileges and immunity. The building occupied by the league or its officials shall enjoy extraterritorial benefits.

The admission of states not signatory to the covenant shall be with the assent of not less than two-thirds of the states represented in the body of delegates and shall be limited to fully selfgoverning countries.

No state shall be admitted unless it gives effective guaranties to observe international obligations and unless it shall conform to conditions prescribed by the league in regard to its naval and military forces and armament.

To Protect Nations Attacked.

The high contracting parties undertake to respect and preserve the territorial integrity and political independence of all states members of the league against external aggression.

In case of any such aggression or any threat of danger of such aggression, the executive council shall advise upon the means by which the obligations of the members shall be fulfilled.

Declared Constitutional.

The plan for the Society of Nations, in the opinion of American delegates, is safe against attack on the ground of unconstitutionality. If it involves an alliance requiring the use of American troops, in combination with those of other nations, against an offender against the law of nations, as laid down by the conference, it is recalled that there is precedent for such an alliance in a treaty between the United States and France more than a century ago. It is also pointed out by authorities that power is reserved to congress to carry out the pledge in its own way through its control of appropriations and war making power.

The senate, especially, has distinctive powers in its right to approve or disapprove treaties such as that which is necessary to give life to the Society of Nations.

President Leaves For Home.

Preparations were completed for the homeward voyage of the presidential party, which left Paris for Brest on a special train and will sail on the liner George Washington, on which it came to France. This time the party is much reduced, the large staff of state department employes and numerous experts, who came over with Mr. Wilson, remaining in Paris.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 15.—With the arrest of J. F. Swartz, cashier, charged with embezzling $250,000 of its funds, the Park bank, one of the leading financial institutions of the East End, was closed. It was announced that P. G. Cameron, state bank examiner, had been appointed receiver. The bank's statement on Jan. 1 showed deposits of $2,235,859. According to the police, J. F. Swartz attempted suicide when officers arrived at his home. It was reported he is in a serious condition.

WERE NOT TRYING TO FLIRT

Nervous Woman Rather Flattered Herself as Being the Object of Strange Men's Attentions.

A woman who labored under the delusion that men were always on the lookout to speak to unaccompanied females was rather nervous walking along a city street one evening. Two men were just behind her laughing and chatting in a very queer fashion, she thought.

"May I join you?" she asked of two women walking in front of her.

"Certainly," they replied. The three walked along. Still the two men followed. They were still laughing and making comments which, though inaudible, the woman felt were directed toward her.

"Thank you for letting me go along with you," she said to her two companions as she left them at a subway entrance. "As a matter of fact those two men walking back of us made me very nervous. I think they have been trying to speak to me."

The women glanced back.

Did They Quit?

THEY did not. And they are not quitting now. Neither did you while we were winning the war.

Well, are you going to quit now—when the war is won? Our job isn't finished yet—not by a long shot. And it's a man-size job, too—if we are going to turn our victory to real account, if we are going to make from it a more prosperous America and a better world to live in.

We have fighting men to bring home and find jobs for. We have our wounded to care for and our crippled to rebuild into confident, successful citizens. There is still work for our fighting men to do in Europe, if we are to gain from our victory the kind of world we have been fighting for.

It's a big job! If we leave it unfinished now—when the end is in sight—Chateau Thierry and the Meuse will have been fought and won in vain.

There's a bill of some billions of dollars to clean off the slate—before we can call it a day and enjoy the new world that we have won.

Let's finish the job—

Superintendent of Schools Shiels of Los Angeles, while endeavoring to teach a class of boys the composition of sentences, said to them:

"If I ask you 'What have I in my hand?' you must not answer 'chalk,' but compose a complete sentence such as, 'You have a piece of chalk in your hand.' Now we will continue.

"What have I on my feet?"

"Boots," was the immediate answer.

"Wrong, you haven't listened to my directions."

"Socks," answered another heedless one. "Wrong again; worse than ever," protested Shiels in exasperation.

"Well?" as another pupil raised his hand.

"Please, sir," then he paused. Perhaps he thought his answer might seem funny, but convinced that it was right, he gasped out recklessly, "corns!"

STATE BREVITIES

Pine River.—Twelve-year-old George Mellen was brought from Hackensack to the hospital for treatment for an injured ankle, broken when logs fell on him.

Winona.—Navigation on the Upper Mississippi river was officially opened today when the steamer Ideal left her slip here for Hannibal, Mo., on the first trip of the season.

Virginia.—The Whippet tanks sent by the Ninth Federal Reserve district to stimulate interest in the Victory Loan will visit Virginia April 14. Other towns of the range will also be visited.

Goodridge.—The Goodridge Co-operative creamery is now prepared to handle large amounts of cream for patrons. Its books for the last month show a very substantial increase over former months.

International Falls.—George P. Watson and others who failed to secure a restraining order stopping the city from buying a site for a water pumping plant, have now restrained the city from paying for the site.

St. Paul.—George H. Nettleton of St. Paul has been appointed state fire marshal by John B. Sanborn, state insurance commissioner. All present deputies were reappointed. The fire marshal's salary has been increased from $2,400 to $3,000 yearly.

Rochester.—Dr. Isaac Vandowlin of Virginia, past grand master of the I. O. O. F. of Minnesota, died at St. Mary's hospital here, following an operation. His remains were taken to Virginia by his wife. He was buried with I. O. O. F. honors.

St. Paul.—There were 7,958,645 fowls in the state last year. Although the figures issued by poultry fanciers give the number for 1917 as 7,959,595, it is thought more fowls were marketed early in 1918 than during the corresponding period in 1917, because of high prices.

Red Lake Falls.—To boost the sheep growing industry in Red Lake county Col. Frank Jeffers, stock breeder and vice president of the Red River Valley Livestock Breeders' association, proposes to organize a sheep club with a limited number of boys and girls under 21, each member to try to raise the best sheep.

Willmar.—Great Northern train No. 10, the Winnepeg-St. Paul mail and passenger, suffered its second wreck in two days, when it jumped the track two miles east of Pennock. Twenty-two passengers were more or less injured. All except seven were able to proceed on their journey after receiving medical attention. These seven were brought to the three hospitals here.

St. Paul.—Minnesota state banks in the process of organization and without state charters March 21 must be approved by the state securities commission before they can begin business. The ruling under the new law passed March 21 and requiring new state banks to pass examination by the board administering the "blue sky" law was given by Attorney General Clifford L. Hilton. F. E. Pearson, state superintendent of banks estimated that about 40 bank projects will be affected.

St. Paul.—Minnesota begins April business with $9,744,816.56, nearly $2,500,000 more than a year ago, according to Henry Rines, state treasurer. Sales of state securities and increases in railroad gross earnings tax payments make up the big increase in the balance of cash on hand. During March the receipts were $3,827,359 and the disbursements totaled $3,845,164. More than $1,200,000 from sales of certificates of indebtedness issued by the forest fire relief commission was the largest single receipt.

Fergus Falls.—The boys at Pelican Rapids, 20 miles north of here, have discovered a gold mine in the frog crop there. For some unexplained reason the frogs are coming out of the river banks or the river bottom in large numbers this spring. They are cold and stiff after their winter's sleep and are easily caught with improvised nets. Three boys working after school three evenings cleared up between $63 and $64. A brakeman on the Pelican Rapids branch, with his son, caught enough frogs in several hours Sunday to net him $61.20. It is thought the townspeople will net several thousands of dollars.

St. Paul.—Countess Iva proved herself to be the finest specimen of cowhood at the prize sale at South St. Paul. The countess, which was exhibited by Hagen & Covington of Kennedy, Minn., brought $1,400 from the pocketbook of J. L. Bady of Kellogg, Minn. Avon Chief, consigned by C. B. Grimes of Winnebago, Minn., took highest honors among the bulls when it was sold to Robert Bjorkland of Henning, Minn., for $630. Altogether, ninety head of prize cattle figured in the ring and the average sale price was $349.11, with the entire proceeds close to $31,400. Canadian lakes were open until December and the flight was unusually late and rapid as a result. The birds either took new routes or made no stops in Minnesota and hunting suffered accordingly.

Because the newly commissioned major looked like ready money the porter had been very active in his attentions. His movements were of the "hot-foot" variety whenever the officer appeared to require service. Also he was careful to address the major as "gin'ral." And when the train neared the Union depot and, following the assiduous use of the brush, the sable-servitor discovered himself in the possession of a dime, he was equal to the emergency. He clicked his heels together, saluted and remarked: "Corp'ral, Ah t'ank yo', sah."—Argonaut.

AS YOUNG AS YOUR KIDNEYS

The secret of youth is ELIMINATION OF POISONS from your body. This done, you can live to be a hundred and enjoy the good things of life with as much "pep" as you did when in the springtime of youth. Keep your body in good condition, that's the secret.

Watch the kidneys. They filter and purify the blood, all of which blood passes through them once every three minutes. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you have nothing to fear. Drive the poisonous wastes and deadly uric acid accumulations from your system. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules and you will always be in good condition. You will feel strong and vigorous, with steady nerves and elastic muscles. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland.

They are a reliable remedy which has been used by the sturdy Dutch for over 200 years, and has helped them to develop into one of the strongest and heartiest races of the world. Get them from your druggist. Do not take a substitute. In sealed packages—three sizes.—Adv.

Monkeys Die of Flu.

Monkeys are the latest victims of the Spanish influenza scourge which has been sweeping the world, according to a letter received by a resident of Albany, Ore., from a relative who is a banker in a South African city. Thousands of monkeys have perished in the forests of South Africa from influenza, the latter declares. Moreover the plague is prevailing among the white and black population, with high mortality.

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and barks, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body, cure your cold, and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alterative and tonic is wild cherry bark with stillingia, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root, Queen's root,—all skilfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making, and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they aid in throwing off an attack of influensa.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a blood disease, with this alterative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

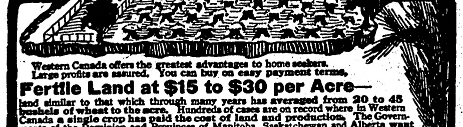
Grow Wheat in Western Canada

One Crop Often Pays for the Land



Western Canada offers the greatest advantages to home seekers. Large profits are assured. You can buy on easy payment terms,

Fertile Land at $15 to $30 per Acre—land similar to that which through many years has averaged from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Hundreds of cases are on record where in Western Canada a single crop has paid the cost of land and production. The Governments of the Dominion and Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta want the farmer to prosper, and extend every possible encouragement and help to Grain Growing and Stock Raising.

Though Western Canada offers land at such low figures, the high prices of grain, cattle, sheep and hogs will remain.

Loans for the purchase of stock may be had at low interest; there are good shipping facilities; best of markets; free schools; churches; splendid climate; low taxation (none on improvements).

INCREASE FOOD EXPORTS

[illegible]ica Called on by End of War to Supply Added Millions.

ECONOMY STILL NEEDED.

Over Three Times Pre-War Shipments Required—Situation in Wheat and Fats Proves Government's Policy Sound.

With the guns in Europe silenced, we have now to consider a new world food situation. But there can be no hope that the volume of our exports can be lightened to the slightest degree with the cessation of hostilities. Millions of people liberated from the Prussian yoke are now depending upon us for the food which will keep them from starvation.

With food the United States made it possible for the forces of democracy to hold out to victory. To insure democracy in the world, we must continue to live simply in order that we may supply these liberated nations of Europe with food. Hunger among a people inevitably breeds anarchy. American food must complete the work of making the world safe for democracy.

Last year we sent 11,820,000 tons of food to Europe. For the present year, with only the European Allies to feed, we had originally pledged ourselves to a program that would have increased our exports to 17,500,000 tons. Now, to feed the liberated nations, we will have to export a total of not less than 20,000,000 tons—practically the limit of loading capacity at our ports. Reviewing the world food situation, we find that some foods will be obtainable in quantities sufficient to meet all world needs under a regime of economical consumption. On the other hand, there will be marked world shortages in some important commodities.

Return to Normal Bread Loaf.

With the enlarged wheat crops which American farmers have grown, and the supplies of Australia, the Argentine and other markets now accessible to shipping, there are bread grains enough to enable the nations to return to their normal wheat loaf, provided we continue to mill flour at a high percentage of extraction and maintain economy in eating and the avoidance of waste.

In fats there will be a heavy shortage—about 3,000,000,000 pounds—in pork products, dairy products and vegetable oils. While there will be a shortage of about three million tons in high protein feeds for dairy animals, there will be sufficient supplies of other feedstuffs to allow economical consumption.

In the matter of beef, the world's supplies are limited to the capacity of the available refrigerating ships. The supplies of beef in Australia, the Argentine and the United States are sufficient to load these ships. There will be a shortage in the importing countries, but we cannot hope to expand exports materially for the next months in view of the bottle neck in transportation.

We will have a sufficient supply of sugar to allow normal consumption in this country if the other nations retain their present short rations or increase them only slightly. For the countries of Europe, however, to increase their present rations to a material extent will necessitate our sharing a part of our own supplies with them.

Twenty Million Tons of Food.

Of the world total, North America will furnish more than 60 per cent. The United States, including the West Indies, will be called upon to furnish 20,000,000 tons of food of all kinds as compared with our pre-war exports of about 6,000,000 tons.

While we will be able to change our program in many respects, even a casual survey of the world supplies in comparison to world demands shows conclusively that Europe will know famine unless the American people bring their home consumption down to the barest minimum that will maintain health and strength.

There are conditions of famine in Europe that will be beyond our power to remedy. There are 40,000,000 people in North Russia whom there is small chance of reaching with food this winter. Their transportation is demoralized in complete anarchy, and shortly many of their ports will be frozen, even if internal transport could be realized.

To Preserve Civilization.

At this moment Germany has not alone sucked the food and animals from all those masses of people she has dominated and left starving, but she has left behind her a total wreck of social institutions, and this mass of people is now confronted with absolute anarchy.

If we value our own safety and the social organization of the world, if we value the preservation of civilization itself, we cannot permit growth of this cancer in the world's vitals.

Famine is the mother of anarchy. From the inability of governments to secure food for their people grows revolution and chaos. From an ability to supply their people grows stability of government and the defeat of anarchy. Did we put it on no higher plane than our interests in the protection of our institutions, we must bestir ourselves in solution of this problem.

DISTRICT HAS EIGHT OF 100 BRAVEST

All Offered Their Lives and Five Died for Country on French Battlefields.

The Ninth Federal Reserve district boasts the honor of having eight of its sons listed among the "Hundred Bravest" with the American army in France.

For use in the coming campaign, the Victory Liberty Loan committee in Washington asked General John Pershing to forward to America the 100 bravest acts performed by his men during the great struggle. After long and careful consultation with his board of generals that decides who is worthy to receive the Distinguished Service Cross, the Hundred Immortals were named.

Five of the eight men named from the Ninth District died in the performance of the feat that won them undying fame in American history. Paying insurance to the relatives of these men who thought life cheap when country and honor were at stake, is one of the reasons why the Victory Liberty Loan must succeed. Commenting upon the brilliant achievements of the eight men from his district, A. R. Rogers, chairman of the Ninth District War Loan organization, said:

"Nothing could be more apropos in discussing the work of these heroes than the words of Lincoln at Gettysburg: 'That from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion, that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain.'"

WE GAVE OUR QUOTA OF HEROES.

Here are the men whose names will be graven deep on the pages of American history through all the ages:

WILLIAM R. PECK, of Minneapolis, Sergeant in "C" company, 38th Infantry. He was killed near Remonville, France in Nov. 1918 when he threw himself against one of his officers and exposed himself to a German machine gun. This act of bravery saved the officer's life but Peck was riddled with bullets. His death was instantaneous. He left a wife and a baby that he never saw. They live at 4027 Zenith Ave. Minneapolis.

THEODORE PETERSON, of Minneapolis, Sergeant in the medical detachment of the famous 151st Field Artillery. Although mortally wounded near Peronne, France in March, 1918 and too weak to aid his comrades he directed the treatment of others and refused aid himself until all others were cared for. Dying, he directed the men in affixing their gas masks although suffering terribly. He died shortly after reaching the hospital. He was swimming instructor at the Minneapolis Athletic Club. His mother lives in Oshkosh, Wis.

LOUIS CUKELA, of Minneapolis, Lieutenant in 5th Regiment of Marines. Because his company was suffering fearful losses from a strong enemy point near Villers-Cotterets, France in July, 1918, he crawled out to a flank and made his way to the German line in the face of heavy fire, and despite the warnings of comrades attacked a machine gun emplacement alone. He killed the crew with his bayonet. With hand grenades, he bombed out the remaining portion of the strong point.

NESS WOLD, of Kelly Lake, Minn., private in "I" company, 138th Infantry. He died in action at Cheppy, France in Sept. 1918 after a series of brave exploits that is still the talk of his regiment. Machine gun nests had been holding up his company's advance and Wold with a comrade, silenced the guns and brought back 11 prisoners in the face of murderous fire. Later he leaped from a trench and rescued a pal who was about to be shot by a German, killing the officer at the same time. While rushing a fifth machine gun nest he was killed. His bravery was responsible for the advance of his company that day.

CLAYTON K. SLACK, of Lampson, Wis., private "D" company, 124th Machine Gun Battalion. At Consenvoye, France one day in Oct. 1918, he saw German soldiers under cover, 50 yards away. On his own initiative, he attacked them single-handed and captured 10 prisoners and two machine guns. His action saved his company and neighboring organizations from heavy casualties. His mother, Mrs. Jennie Mae Slack lives at Lampson, Wis.

CARL F. PAYSON, of Monroe, Mich., Sergeant in "C" company, 125th Infantry. He died for his country near Chateau Thierry in August, 1918. Although mortally wounded by a machine gun bullet in the head at the village of Cierges, he kept going with the attacking wave. His words of encouragement and his valor and will power instilled the men with a spirit of fearlessness that carried them to victory. He died within an hour. His mother, Mrs. Minnie Timberman, lives at Monroe, Mich.

RAY C. DICKOP, of West Bend, Wis., 1st lieutenant in the 127th Infantry, also died in performing his act of bravery. In the attack on Fismes in August, 1918, he was fearfully wounded in the body, head and legs. Although fatally shot, he gave the command to "charge" when the order came and led his men forward until he fell dead. His aunt, Miss Lena Schiller lives at West Bend, Wis.

WALTER S. SEVALIA, of Brule, Wis., corporal in "F" company, 7th Engineers, cited for "extraordinary heroism" in action near Breulles France in November 1918. He swam the Meuse under terrific fire with a cable for a pontoon bridge. Later he carried another cable over the Est Canal, across an open field covered by enemy machine guns. At this juncture he was wounded but returned, carrying a message of great importance. He is alive to tell his experience. His mother, Mrs. Mary Stewart, lives at Brule, Wis.

"And those of us who bought Liberty Bonds thought we were doing something," said Chairman Rogers, after reading the roll of honor above. "Those eight boys offered their lives, while we at home only offered our money. Five of them died for us; the other three offered to die. With the thought of these eight immortals uppermost in our minds, I don't see how the Victory Liberty Loan can fail."

Will we fail to give our quota of dollars to finish the job?

The report of the peat experiment work at Golden Valley is ready and will be sent free. Write the Northwest Experiment Station, Crookston. They also sell small amounts of pure bred seed to farmers when they agree to keep the stock pure and free from weeds.

Burbank potatoes are selling for 60 cents and early Ohios for 45 cents and some might think by that the late potatoes are the best to raise. But how was it last fall? Were not prices just the other way then? How much have the farmers made by holding their potatoes and how many have sufficient storage room for keeping their potatoes till spring? Mr. Shogren, the potato buyer here in Holt, says himself that the early potato brings the best price at digging time.

The farmer who markets his potatoes in the fall saves the labor of putting them in storage and taking them out again.

[illegible] INCREASE FOOD EXPORTS

[illegible] Called on by End of War to Supply Added Millions.

ECONOMY STILL NEEDED.

Over Three Times Pre-War Shipments [illegible] Situation in Wheat and Fats Proves Government's Policy Sound.

With the guns in Europe silenced, we have now to consider a new world food situation. But there can be no hope that the volume of our exports can be lightened to the slightest degree with the cessation of hostilities. Millions of people liberated from the Prussian yoke are now depending upon us for the food which will keep them from starvation.

With food the United States made it possible for the forces of democracy to hold out to victory. To insure democracy in the world, we must continue to live simply in order that we may supply these liberated nations of Europe with food. Hunger among a people inevitably breeds anarchy. American food must complete the work of making the world safe for democracy.

Last year we sent 11,820,000 tons of food to Europe. For the present year, with only the European Allies to feed, we had originally pledged ourselves to a program that would have increased our exports to 17,500,000 tons. Now, to feed the liberated nations, we will have to export a total of not less than 20,000,000 tons—practically the limit of loading capacity at our ports. Reviewing the world food situation, we find that some foods will be obtainable in quantities sufficient to meet all world needs under a regime of economical consumption. On the other hand, there will be marked world shortages in some important commodities.

Return to Normal Bread Loaf.

With the enlarged wheat crops which American farmers have grown, and the supplies of Australia, the Argentine and other markets now accessible to shipping, there are bread grains enough to enable the nations to return to their normal wheat loaf, provided we continue to mill flour at a high percentage of extraction and maintain economy in eating and the avoidance of waste.

In fats there will be a heavy shortage—about 3,000,000,000 pounds—in pork products, dairy products and vegetable oils. While there will be a shortage of about three million tons in high protein feeds for dairy animals, there will be sufficient supplies of other feedstuffs to allow economical consumption.

In the matter of beef, the world's supplies are limited to the capacity of refrigerating ships. The supplies of beef in Australia, the Argentine and the United States are sufficient to load these ships. There will be a shortage in the importing countries, but we cannot hope to expand exports materially for the next months in view of the bottle neck in transportation.

We will have a sufficient supply of sugar to allow normal consumption in this country if the other nations retain their present short rations or increase them only slightly. For the countries of Europe, however, to increase their present rations to a material extent will necessitate our sharing a part of our own supplies with them.

Twenty Million Tons of Food.

Of the world total, North America will furnish more than 60 per cent. The United States, including the West Indies, will be called upon to furnish 20,000,000 tons of food of all kinds as compared with our pre-war exports of about 6,000,000 tons.

While we will be able to change our program in many respects, even a [illegible] survey of the world supplies in comparison to world demands shows conclusively that Europe will know famine unless the American people reduce their home consumption down to the barest minimum that will maintain health and strength.

There are conditions of famine in Europe that will be beyond our power to remedy. There are 40,000,000 people in North Russia whom there is small chance of reaching with food this winter. Their transportation is demoralized in complete anarchy, and shortly many of their ports will be frozen, even if internal transport could be realized.

To Preserve Civilization.

At this moment Germany has not alone sucked the food and animals from all those masses of people she has dominated and left starving, but she has left behind her a total wreck [illegible] of social institutions, and this mass of people is now confronted with absolute anarchy.

If we value our own safety and the social organization of the world, if we value the preservation of civilization itself we cannot permit growth of this cancer in the world's vitals.

Famine is the mother of anarchy. From the inability of governments to secure food for their people grows revolution and chaos. From an ability to supply their people grows stability of government and the defeat of anarchy. Did we put it on no higher plane than our interests in the protection of our institutions, we must bestir ourselves in solution of this [illegible]

DISTRICT HAS EIGHT OF 100 BRAVEST

All Offered Their Lives and Five Died for Country on French Battlefields.

The Ninth Federal Reserve district boasts the honor of having eight of its sons listed among the "Hundred Bravest" with the American army in France.

For use in the coming campaign, the Victory Liberty Loan committee in Washington asked General John Pershing to forward to America the 100 bravest acts performed by his men during the great struggle. After long and careful consultation with his board of generals that decides who is worthy to receive the Distinguished Service Cross, the Hundred Immortals were named.

Five of the eight men named from the Ninth District died in the performance of the feat that won them undying fame in American history. Paying insurance to the relatives of these men who thought life cheap when country and honor were at stake, is one of the reasons why the Victory Liberty Loan must succeed. Commenting upon the brilliant achievements of the eight men from his district, A. R. Rogers, chairman of the Ninth District War Loan organization, said:

"Nothing could be more apropos in discussing the work of these heroes than the words of Lincoln at Gettysburg: 'That from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion, that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain.'

Here are the men whose names will be graven deep on the pages of American history through all the ages:

WILLIAM R. PECK, of Minneapolis, Sergeant in "C" company, 20th. Infantry. He was killed near Remonville, France in Nov. 1918 when he threw himself against one of his officers and exposed himself to a German machine gun. This act of bravery saved the officer's life but Peck was riddled with bullets. His death was instantaneous. He left a wife and a baby that he never saw. They live at 4027 Zenith Ave. Minneapolis.

THEODORE PETERSON, of Minneapolis, Sergeant in the medical detachment of the famous 151st. Field Artillery. Although mortally wounded near Peronne, France in March 1918 and too weak to aid his comrades he directed the treatment of others and refused aid himself until all others were cared for. Dying, he directed the men in affixing their gas masks although suffering terribly. He died shortly after reaching the hospital. He was swimming instructor at the Minneapolis Athletic Club. His mother lives in Oshkosh, Wis.

LOUIS CUKELA, of Minneapolis, Lieutenant in 5th. Regiment of Marines. Because his company was suffering fearful losses from a strong enemy point near Villers-Cotterets, France in July, 1918, he crawled out to a flank and made his way to the German line in the face of heavy fire, and despite the warnings of comrades attacked a machine gun emplacement alone. He killed the crew with his bayonet. With hand grenades, he bombed out the remaining portion of the strong point.

NELS WOLD, of Kelly Lake, Minn., private in "I" company, 138th. Infantry. He died in action at Cheppy, France in Sept. 1918 after a series of brave exploits that is still the talk of his regiment. Machine gun nests had been holding up his company's advance and Wold with a comrade, silenced the guns and brought back 11 prisoners in the face of murderous fire. Later he leaped from a trench and rescued a pal who was about to be shot by a German, killing the officer at the same time. While rushing a fifth machine gun nest he was killed. His bravery was responsible for the advance of his company that day.

CLAYTON K. SLACK, of Lampson, Wis., private "D" company, 124th. Machine Gun Battalion. At Consevoye, France one day in Oct. 1918, he saw German soldiers under cover, 50 yards away. On his own initiative, he attacked them single-handed and captured 10 prisoners and two machine guns. His action saved his company and neighboring organizations from heavy casualties. His mother, Mrs. Jennie Mae Slack lives at Lampson, Wis.

CARL F. PAYSON, of Monroe, Mich., Sergeant in "C" company, 125th. Infantry. He died for his country near Chateau Thierry in August, 1918. Although mortally wounded by a machine gun bullet in the head at the village of Cierges, he kept going with the attacking wave. His words of encouragement and his valor and will power instilled the men with a spirit of fearlessness that carried them to victory. He died within an hour. His mother, Mrs. Minnie Timberman, lives at Monroe, Mich.

RAY C. DICKOP, of West Bend, Wis., 1st lieutenant in the 127th. Infantry, also died in performing his act of bravery. In the attack on Fismes in August, 1918, he was fearfully wounded in the body, head and legs. Although fatally shot, he gave the command to "charge" when the order came and led his men forward until he fell dead. His aunt, Miss Lena Schiller lives at West Bend, Wis.

WALTER S. SEVALIA, of Brule, Wis., corporal in "E" company, 7th Engineers, cited for "extraordinary heroism" in action near Breuilles France in November 1918. He swam the Meuse under terrific fire with a cable for a pontoon bridge. Later he carried another cable over the Est Canal, across an open field covered by enemy machine guns. At this juncture he was wounded but returned, carrying a message of great importance. He is alive to tell his experience. His mother, Mrs. Mary Stewart, lives at Brule, Wis.

"And those of us who bought Liberty Bonds thought we were doing something!" said Chairman Rogers, after reading the roll of honor above. "Those eight boys offered their lives, while we at home only offered our money. Five of them died for us; the other three offered to die. With the thought of these eight immortals uppermost in our minds, I don't see how the Victory Liberty Loan can fail."

WE GAVE OUR QUOTA OF HEROES.

Will we fail to give our quota of dollars to finish the job?

VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

APRIL 21

Rev. Myhrer will hold services at 11 A. M., Good Friday, in the Free Mission church.

Jens Folden of Idaho came last week Thursday to visit his brother. T. B. Folden and other relatives.

Remember the short hay crop last year and if the season is favorable, try seeding some tame grass this spring with your wheat or oats.

W. A. Ziegler an instructor in the state university, has been chosen superintendent of the Thief River Falls high school to succeed Prof. Hay.

The report of the pest experiment work at Golden Valley is ready and will be sent free. Write the Northwest Experiment Station, Crookston. They also sell small amounts of pure bred seed to farmers when they agree to keep the stock pure and free from weeds.

Burbank potatoes are selling for 60 cents and early Ohios for 45 cents and some might think by that the late potatoes are the best to raise.

But how was it last fall? Were not prices just the other way then?

How much have the farmers made by holding their potatoes and how many have sufficient storage room for keeping their potatoes till spring?

Mr. Shogren, the potato buyer here in Holt, says himself that the early potato brings the best price at digging time.

The farmer who markets his potatoes in the fall saves the labor of putting them in storage and taking them out again.

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and barks, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body, cure your cold, and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alterative and tonic is wild cherry bark with stillingia, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root, Queen's root—all skilfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making, and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they aid in throwing off an attack of influenza.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a blood disease, with this alterative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Send 10c for trial pkg. of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

A young Evansville schoolteacher startled her family by the announcement that she was going to marry as soon as she could persuade some man to propose to her. Her married sister, who was visiting the home, gave her this advice: "You had better stay the way you are. You have your own money and—"

"I don't care a bit for that," retorted the younger girl. "I'm always afraid that I'll die without a husband. I'd like for people to read on my tombstone 'relict' of some one than be just a plain relic of an educational system."—Indianapolis News.

TRIBUTE TO YANKEE FIGHTER

Magazine Writer Describes the "Doughboy" as All the World Has Come to Know Him.

George Patrulli, a magazine writer who has been with General Pershing's army in France, has paid a tribute to the American fighting men that is worthy of reproduction in every county in the United States. Says Mr. Patrulli: "The American soldier is about the finest human specimen on top of the earth—rough and ready, grumbling, never giving up; always able to laugh, even at his own plight; a holy terror in a fight; ruthless to an enemy capable of resistance; generous to a fault to a beaten foe; hating nobody, fearing nobody; with backbone enough to storm hell, and the gentleness to win a child."

France knows this, England knows it, even Germany has a hazy idea that a Yankee doughboy is a combination of an angel from heaven and a devil from hell. Isn't it about time for Americans to realize the worth of their fighting sons?—Exchange.

EASY TO CURE "NAUGHTINESS"

Common-Sense Methods of Dealing With Children Will Always Be Found Effective.

A morbid exaggeration and perversion of the natural desire which all children feel for notice by their elders, is held by Thomson to be the cause of abnormal naughtiness in children. These cases are of essentially the same nature as those of "moral imbecility" in children who are in some degree mentally defective. The proper lines of treatment are clear enough, and when carried out consistently and thoroughly are rapidly and completely successful. They may be summarized as follows: (1) All severe corporal punishment must be stopped—it never does any good. (2) Nobody must ever appear shocked, amused or even surprised at anything a child does. (3) His misdeeds are never to be alluded to, much less described, in his presence; and, lastly, he should be noticed and encouraged in every way when he is good and altogether ignored when he is naughty.—British Journal of Children's Diseases.

FOE ENVOYS TO COME THIS WEEK

Date of Their Arrival in Paris Only Few Days Hence, Says Journal.

"EVERYTHING IS WELL"

Statement Made by Lloyd George as He Leaves for Brief Stay in London—Date Undecided, But Soon, Says Clemenceau.

Paris, April 15.—The peace conference leaders have come to an understanding regarding the date when the German delegates shall be called into conference, the Petit Parisien says it understands. That date, it declares, is close at hand, before April 20.

Premier Lloyd George, leaving for London, said "everything is going well," and he is "well pleased with what has been accomplished." He is expected to return Friday.

Date Undecided, Says Clemenceau.

Premier Georges Clemenceau, asked regarding the suggested date of April 25 for calling in the Germans, said it had not yet been definitely decided, and that possibly it might be earlier.

President Wilson was expected to make a statement outlining the progress of the peace conference and showing the work is nearly completed.

The Big Four met unexpectedly for the purpose of reaching an agreement on certain details that would permit Premier Lloyd George to leave for London.

Italian Claims Discussed.

Italian claims were discussed by the Big Four. It was understood that Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino are at odds.

Premier Clemenceau told a deputation of the radical socialist group which called on him that the question of reparation by Germany had been settled among the Allies a few hours previously on a basis that would satisfy the desires of the deputation as these had been presented to him, and that the same could be said for the stipulations concerning the Saar valley.

The council of four did not meet, but President Wilson conferred with Premier Orlando and other Italian leaders on the Adriatic problem.

The conference committee on territorial questions has settled the problem of the Banat district, south of Hungary proper, in which Serbian and Rumanian claims were involved, according to the Petit Parisien. The newspaper says the decision respected the rights of each nation.

Speed Toward Peace.

Washington, April 15. — Continued progress at the peace conference is reported in dispatches to the White House from Paris. The intimation was conveyed that all important questions still at issue soon would be cleared up.

RAINBOW DIVISION LEAVING

Part of Organization Sets Sail from France for Home.

Brest, April 15.—Four ships have sailed from France for America with a part of the Rainbow Division.

The entire Rainbow Division is expected to arrive in Camp Pontanezen from the front at once. The latest arrivals include the 117th Sanitary train, Battery F, 150th Artillery of Indiana; headquarters; Companies A and B, 149th Machine Gun Battalion of Pennsylvania; 117th Field Signal Battalion of Missouri.

DEBS BEGINS SERVING TERM

Incarcerated in Prison Under Sentence of Ten Years.

Moundsville, W. Va., April 15. — Eugene V. Debs, often Socialist candidate for president, has begun serving his 10-year sentence in federal prison here.

Debs gave himself up to federal authorities in Cleveland yesterday by arriving there from his home in Terre Haute, Ind. He was convicted some months ago of seditious utterances during an address in Canton, Ohio.

Advocates More Open Air.

Cannes, France, April 15.—The committee on tuberculosis of the inter-Allied Red Cross congress, in session here, has made public a report which will be presented to the nations of the world through national Red Cross societies. It lays down a number of recommendations under the headings of care of children, housing, nutrition and alcoholism, and advocates the extension of open air systems in congested localities such as barracks and asylums.

Not Enough Time.

"Oh, Pahson Brown, I'se done been so misfortunate dis week. I'se done los' mah husban'."

"Shoh, now dat am too bad, Sistah Jackson; but you must try to beah up. Time am de great healer, you know."

"Yes, pahson, but six months ain't a-goin' to cure dat man ob mine. He ain't sick. The jedge said he was jest triflin'."

Decadent Times.

"So there are still a few old-fashioned cowboys out West?"

"You would think so, to see their marksmanship. I saw one take a six-shooter and bounce a tin can along as easily as you would do it with a walking stick."

"Surely you don't mean to tell me a cowboy puts a notch on the handle of his gun for a performance like that?" —Birmingham Age-Herald.

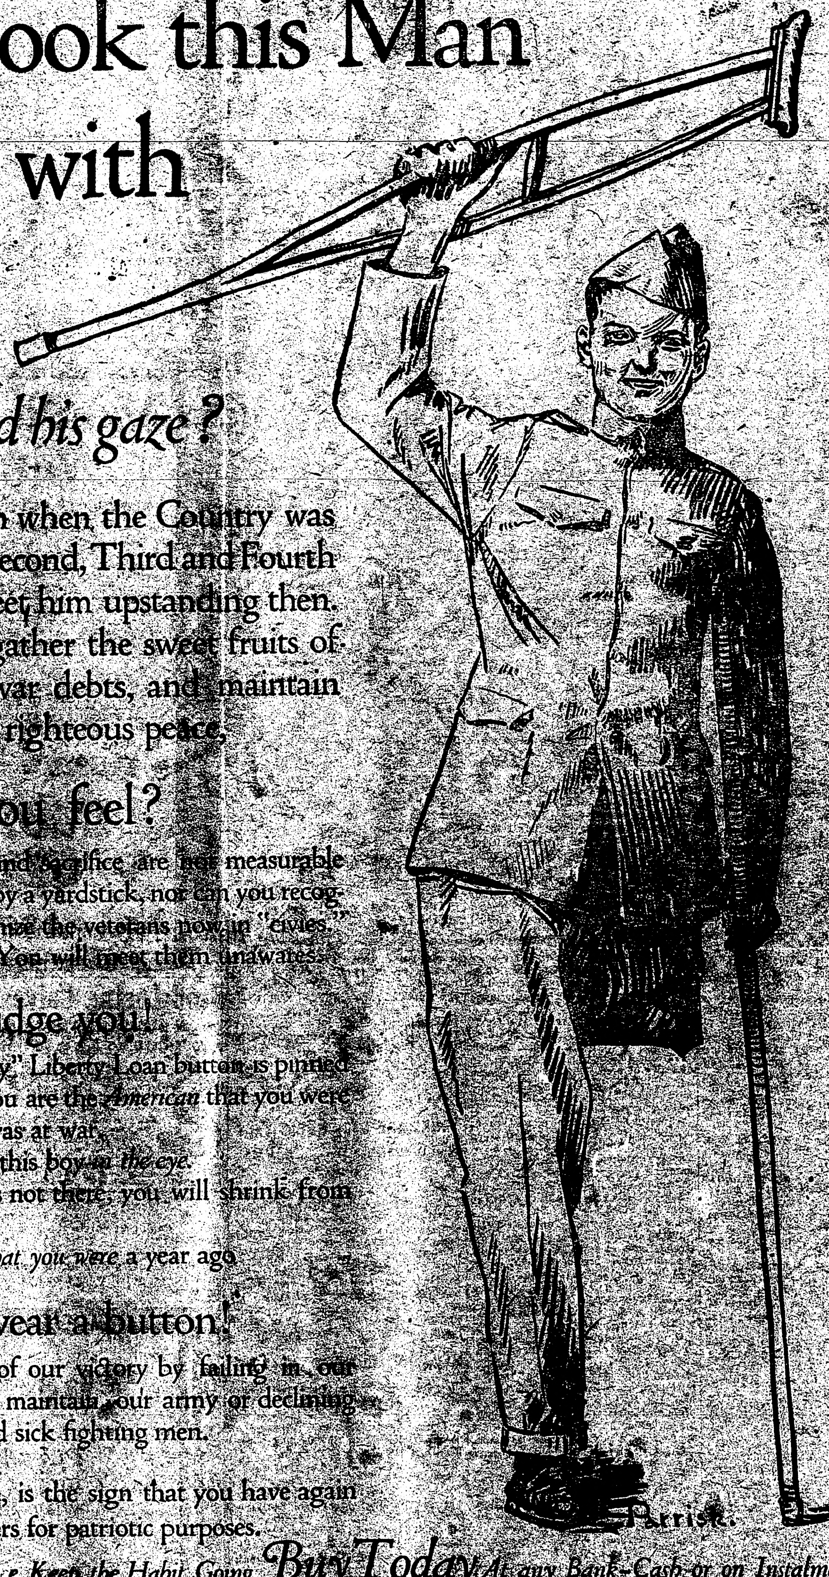
Can You Look this Man in the Eye with Pride?



Or do you avoid his gaze?

You were a staunch American when the Country was at war, and you bought First, Second, Third and Fourth Liberty Bonds. You could meet him upstanding then. Now that we are striving to gather the sweet fruits of Victory, to pay our honest war debts, and maintain military strength to enforce a righteous peace,

How do you feel?

Not all the men who fought for you and who returned alive have been maimed. Many grievous wounds are hidden. Suffering and sacrifice are not measurable by a yardstick, nor can you recognize the veterans now in "civies." You will meet them unawares.

They will judge you!

If this little "Victory" Liberty Loan button is pinned on your coat, then you are the American that you were while your country was at war.

And you can look this boy in the eye.

But if the button is not there, you will shrink from his gaze.

For you are not what you were a year ago.

Subscribe and wear a button!

We cannot sully the brightness of our victory by failing in our financial obligations, by refusing to maintain our army or declining to restore our wounded, crippled and sick fighting men.

This Button, worn with pride, is the sign that you have again taken your place in the army of savers for patriotic purposes.

Some of the farmers are put to a lot of extra work every year by having to go away from home to put up a part or all of their hay. The same amount of extra work put on patches of corn, mangels or rutabagas would produce a lot of feed and the cultivating would make the land fit for any kind of crop the farmer wishes to raise the following year.

Also a few acres of tame hay would help out some during the long winters.

HOW TO AVOID BACKACHE AND NERVOUSNESS

Told by Mrs. Lynch From Own Experience.

Providence, R. I.—"I was all run down in health, was nervous, had headaches, my back ached all the time. I was tired and had no ambition for anything. I had taken a number of medicines which did me no good. One day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for women, so I tried it. My nervousness and backache and headaches disappeared. I gained in weight and feel fine, so I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who is suffering as I was."—Mrs. ADELINE B. LYNCH, 100 Plain St., Providence, R. I.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment.

Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Lynch's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

Our character is our will; for what we will we are.—Archbishop Manning.

THE MEN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be enlivened, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work.

Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand. In three sizes, sealed packages.—Adv.

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER

has been a household remedy all over the civilized world for more than half a century for constipation, intestinal troubles, torpid liver and the generally depressed feeling that accompanies such disorders. It is a most valuable remedy for indigestion or nervous dyspepsia and liver trouble, bringing on headache, coming up of food, palpitation of heart, and many other symptoms. A few doses of August Flower will relieve you. It is a gentle laxative. Ask your druggist. Sold in all civilized countries.—Adv.

Never a sin went unpunished.

It's Clean, Sweep, Wash—The Live Long Day!

When you feel worn out, "tired to death" with the household duties—cooking, scrubbing, cleaning, dusting—(it all comes in the day's work in the household)—turn to the right remedy to strengthen you. The poor woman whose back feels as though it would break, who feels dizzy, whose head aches, or black specks appear before her eyes, all are due to troubles essentially feminine which should be overcome.

The greatest boon to womankind is a temperance tonic made up of herbs, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. This is the "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce, used by him in active practice many years, and now sold by almost every druggist in tablet or liquid form. It has had a half century of successful results in most of the delicate derangements and weaknesses of women. If she's overworked, nervous, or "run-down," she finds new life and strength. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package or write for free confidential medical advice.

ALLIES BLOCK ENEMY TRICK

Big Four Tells Germany Her Envoys Must Have Power to Sign Peace Treaty.

BLUFF BY FOE IS SEEN

Story Told That Hun Envoys Will Tear Up Treaty Submitted, and Attempt to Make Counter Proposals.

Paris, April 22.—The German reply to the ultimatum of the council of four that it will not receive any German delegation not fully empowered to conduct and negotiate peace is awaited anxiously.

The ultimatum was sent to check German plans to refer the treaty to Berlin or Weimar for decision.

Grave doubts are expressed whether the perfected peace treaty would be presented to the German representatives Friday. While the treaty will be communicated to them in substance, it was said in well informed quarters that it would be physically impossible to prepare the document in its complete final form in the four days remaining.

If the German government in reply to the ultimatum, raises a controversy regarding the status of the German delegates and the procedure to be followed, the arrival of the delegates at Versailles, may be postponed.

Foe Plan Bluff.

Berlin, April 22.—The German peace delegation is going to Paris confidently expecting to wreck the Allied peace machine. This is plainly evident from statements in the Berlin press, as well as the attitude of the foreign office.

The Germans plan to employ the same tactics which brought America into the war two years ago. The foreign office theory is that the Allies will not call Germany's bluff if the delegates announce their determination to refuse to sign the terms.

The delegation is expected to leave for Paris at once. Some reports have been circulated that the government may have a plebiscite to decide whether the Allied terms will be accepted.

Same Crowd in Charge.

The new republic has intrusted its destinies to a group of diplomatists who have not changed in any way from those who directed Germany's policies before the revolution.

"We believe the terms received from Paris are just Entente propaganda to prepare the German people for the hardest possible peace so they will appreciate the terms actually offered, which undoubtedly will be much easier," a member of the foreign office said. "It is clever peace propaganda, but fortunately, we see through it."

Foreign Minister Brockdorff-Rantzau is prepared to interpret President Wilson's 14 points in an entirely different light from that of the Allies and Wilson's viewpoint regarding Alsaac-Lorraine, Posen, the German colonies and other disputable questions.

Bolshevism Threat Prepared.

It has been reported the Germans plan to tear up the peace terms and refuse to sign them, then make counter-peace proposals according to German ideas, threatening to turn Germany over to the bolsheviki if the Allies still sand pat. The foreign office is expected to frighten the Allies into believing Germany will pay no indemnities if the bolsheviki get control of the country.

This is purely bluff, because the foreign office has absolutely nothing to do with bolshevism in Germany. Germany's internal troubles will no more disappear as the result of peace than they faded when it was announced that Allied food had arrived.

HARBOR STRIKE IS ENDED

Faction Compromise on 10-Hour Day and Arbitration.

New York, April 22.—Striking harbor workers have returned to their jobs, following a compromise agreement reached between union officials and the employers. The men who returned were employed by private boat owners, who refused to meet the original demands of the men for an eight-hour day and wage increases. The compromise provides a 10-hour day and arbitration of the wage question.

WILSON NOT TO HOLD SHIP

George Washington to Return to America Loaded With Troops.

Paris, April 22.—President Wilson has decided not to hold the George Washington at Brest, it is reported, but it will be sent home loaded with troops. Its escort, the dreadnought Arizona, will remain at Brest, ready for a quick trip if necessary.

Spain Names Food Head.

Madrid, April 22.—The government, which has refused to accept the resignation of Juan De La Cierva, minister of finance, whose exclusion from the new cabinet has been demanded by striking telegraphers and telephone operators, has appointed as minister of food Dr. Maestre, and has begun appointments to various high posts of partisans of Cierva and Premier Maura. The Minister of the Interior, meanwhile, is taking steps to restore wire communication.

ALL MUST BE FED

Practically Every European Country Short of Foodstuffs.

Agriculturists on This Side of the Water Are Called on to Save the World From Starvation—Western Canada's Great Opportunity.

Considerable discussion is taking place in the papers as to the amount of money that the United States will have to pay for its guarantee of the price of wheat for 1919. The indications at present are that the treasury will not be affected. Instead of wheat going down the outlook now is that it will go considerably above the present guarantee. It is not only the opinion of a man of the experience of Mr. Hoover that gives weight to this assumption, but we have the glaring fact that there will be more mouths to feed for this year, and the next year or so, than there were in 1918, and the quantity of food will be little, if any, greater.

The assumption is based on the fact that Germany, Austria and Poland, and others of the fighting nations, unable to secure food enough in the past two or three years, and still unable to supply it within themselves, will require to be fed. The food can now be taken to them. For some time the soldiers will require to be fed; Italy will have its demands. There will be additional shipping, some of which will be needed for requirements of India, but it will also make ocean transport easier. Mr. Hoover is possibly better acquainted than any other individual observer with both the world's food needs and its prospects of supplying them.

He is naturally very closely in touch with conditions on this continent and his position as virtual dictator of the distribution of American-grown food in Europe has given him a possibly unique insight into European needs.

Mr. Hoover says there will be no surplus from the 1918 crop to carry over into 1919. Even under normal conditions this would be a sufficiently precarious situation, for there naturally never is any possible guarantee that one or more of the great wheat-producing countries in Europe may not experience a crop failure. Under present conditions, however, such lack of surplus is distinctly dangerous, for the very European nations upon which that continent could normally rely for the great bulk of its wheat, that is to say Russia, Bulgaria, Serbia and Roumania, will for obvious reasons be unable to supply their own demands for the coming year. In addition to this, Mr. Hoover points out that famine in India will call for a substantial proportion of the Australian surplus, and that, moreover, a considerable part of the Australian supply, which for lack of shipping has been accumulating in that country, has spoiled.

And the demand is by no means only for wheat. Mr. Hoover estimated that he would be able to furnish Germany 180,000 tons of grain during the month of April. But it is asserted that the German stocks of all kinds of grain and of potatoes and vegetables will surely be exhausted before June.

Mr. Hoover has also expressed the belief that it is questionable whether under the circumstances food enough can be supplied to tide Germany over until the next harvest.

It is quite clear, from all this that the world is going to depend more than ever upon this continent to keep the wolf from the door until the war devastated and anarchy-ridden countries in Europe can once again feed themselves. Already we read of the protests of British soldiers occupying Germany against allowing German women and children to perish of starvation as they are beginning to do. If these conditions prevail in Germany what must be the state of affairs elsewhere in Europe among nations which have fought with us during the last four years?

To sum up, it may be stated with confidence that the demand for every product of the farm will be unprecedented, and that the agriculturist will receive the highest prices on record for all that he has to sell.

The duty of Canada, therefore, is to keep up its work of assisting in supplying the need. It can do so. It has the land available at low prices; the market is there; railroad facilities are good, the climate and the soil produce the best wheat in the world. Western Canada offers the opportunity and the unceasing flow of farmers into the country indicates the fact that advantage is being taken of it.—Advertisement.

CONQUEST OF THE AIR

AERIAL SERVICE FOR PASSENGERS, MAIL AND MERCHANDISE.

BIRDMEN MEET NEXT MONTH

Big Convention of Pan-American Aeronauts Will Stimulate Enlistments in the U. S. Air Service.

Atlantic City, New Jersey, will be the Mecca for a large gathering of American men, and representatives of foreign countries, who will be attracted by the first Pan-American Aeronautics Convention, which meets there in May.

Captain Charles J. Glidden, of the U. S. Air Service, Military Aeronautics, now stationed in the administrative department of the United States Flying School, Southerfield, Georgia, says:

"The Pan American Aeronautics Convention and exhibition to be held at Atlantic City during the month of May will bring to the attention of the American people the wonderful progress of aviation. The work of aircraft during the war establishes its practicability for commercial uses and insures the creation in this country of a complete aerial service, connecting all cities and towns for the transportation of persons, mail and merchandise.

"Before the close of 1920 I confidently predict this service will be in full operation, with extensions to all countries on this hemisphere. In the United States trunk lines will be established across the country which will place every city and town within six hours from some twenty-four distributing points. Once created and in operation our extensive coast line could be put under complete protection from any possible invasion. Thousands of college-trained aviators in and out of the service are now waiting to join in the operation of an aerial service.

"The government calls for fifteen thousand men to enlist in air service for one or three years' time. This is bound to receive a quick response, as here is an opportunity for men to be immediately assigned to duty in the service and of the number who enlist those who pass certain examinations will be given flying and balloon piloting instruction. This liberal offer is equivalent to a one or three years' college course in aeronautics, and one may become expert in all branches of aviation, and if qualified a non-commissioned or even a commissioned officer. In addition to regular pay, clothing, quarters and rations, extra pay begins with instructions to operate the aircraft. As the number of men wanted is limited to fifteen thousand for the entire country, quick application to the nearest recruiting officer will be necessary before the privilege is withdrawn.

"Everybody directly and indirectly interested in aviation should attend the Atlantic City convention and exhibition in order to keep abreast with the times and become familiar with the development of aircraft for defense and commercial uses and witness the demonstrations of the world's greatest airplane aviators, who will fly, and balloon pilots sail, to the Atlantic air port from all over the country."

Town of Historic Interest.

Brienne-le-Chateau, the little French town where Napoleon received his military education, recently celebrated the 105th anniversary of the emperor's last visit to the village. It was on January 29 that Napoleon began his campaign against the allies, who were storming at all the borders of France. At Brienne, where he had been taught the grim science of warfare, he attempted to cut the Silesian army in two by suddenly interposing his forces between those of Schwartzenberg and Bluecher, the object being to prevent their uniting. Almost on the same spot and on the same day Napoleon had a hairbreadth escape from the attack of a Cossack who attempted to murder him. It was only the prompt assistance of Gorgaud that saved Napoleon.

De Leon's Landing in Florida.

On March 27, in 1513, or Easter Sunday, Ponce de Leon discovered land after his voyage of exploration from Porto Rico. De Leon had sailed in search of the mythical island of Bimini, where the "Fountain of Youth" was said to be, when he discovered land on the North American continent. He named the country Florida, on account of the profusion of flowers.

Medicinal Plants.

In the Philippines the number of plants used for medicinal purposes is very large. A few are recognized as sources of standard medicines, but the number having commercial value is decidedly small. From one, the St. Ignatius bean (Strychnos ignatii), the strychnine of commerce is extracted.

Famous Old Inn Gone.

The city of Augsburg has seen the last of that famous inn, "Drei Mohren," or preferably, in sonorous French, "l'hotel des Trois Maures." The Bavarian revolution has demolished it with the famous room and fireplace in which the financier Pugger, to save his life, lit a fire with all those "I. O. U.'s," awkward reminders of a monarch's indebtedness. It was in this hostelry, too, that Marie Antoinette put up on her way to France to become the dauphin's wife.

"Donald Ray, you are such a naughty boy, mother wonders where she got such a bad boy."

Want Old Fort Preserved.

There is a movement afoot for the preservation of Fort Wilkins at Copper Harbor, almost on the tip of the Keweenaw peninsula, which juts out into Lake Superior, toward the Canadian shore, 50 miles. Fort Wilkins, established in the forties by the federal government, was one of the northernmost of the United States army posts. It is located on Lake Fanny Hoey, a stone's throw from the shore of Lake Superior. There remain several of the old barracks and officers' quarters, and remnants of the old stockade of pointed cedar poles can be seen. The Keweenaw Historical society is back of the movement to preserve the fort.

Don't buy Aspirin tablets in a pill box. Insist on getting the Bayer package with the safety "Bayer Cross" on both package and on tablets. No other way!

Beware of counterfeits! Only recently a Brooklyn manufacturer was sent to the penitentiary for flooding the country with talcum powder tablets, which he claimed to be Aspirin.

In the Bayer package are proper directions and the dose for Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Colds, Grippe, Influenzal-Colds, Neuritis and pain generally.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," American made and owned, are sold in vest pocket boxes of 12 tablets, which cost only a few cents, also in bottles of 24 and bottles of 100—also capsules. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

Western Canada's "Horn of Plenty" Offers You Health & Wealth

Western Canada for years has helped to feed the world—the same responsibility of production still rests upon her. While high prices for Grain, Cattle and Sheep are sure to remain, price of land is much below its value. Land capable of yielding 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre can be had on easy terms at from $15 to $30 per acre—good grazing land at much less. Many farms paid for from a single year's crop. Raising cattle, sheep and hogs brings equal success. The Government encourages farming and stock raising. Railway and Land Companies offer unusual inducements to Home Seekers. Farms may be stocked by loans at moderate interest. Western Canada offers low taxation, good markets and shipping; free schools, churches and healthful climate.

MARRY ON LITTLE CAPITAL

Natives in the Belgian Congo Apparently Are Willing to Take Most Desperate Chances.

When an African boy in Congo-Belge reaches the age of eighteen and has saved what in American money would be about two dollars, which is enough to buy a piece of cloth for himself and his wife, he proceeds to get married. The courtship period lasts only while the prospective bridegroom gives presents to the girl's parents. Then if the presents are considered large enough the wedding day is set.

In Kapanga in the Methodist Episcopal mission the ceremony takes place. The bride walks with an umbrella over her head to protect her from the sun, and is preceded by a bridesmaid who carries the garment the bride wore before marriage. Other bridesmaids follow, all walking single file.

After the ceremony the bridal procession goes to the bridegroom's house. The bride never walks with her husband, but follows him. A wedding breakfast is served, usually consisting of goat meat and corn mush or gruel made from some kind of a root.

JAP ADVERTISERS NOT SLOW

Experts of the Occident Might Even Borrow a Few Ideas From Their Oriental Colleagues.

An advertising man who has returned recently from the orient says the Japanese merchants and manufacturers who have occasion to make use of printer's ink are not disposed to limit themselves to dull, prosaic statements concerning the excellence of their wares. Among the entertaining bits that the traveler noticed in his study of Japanese advertising are these:

"Goods dispatched expeditiously as a cannon ball."

"Parcels done up with such loving as a wife bestows upon her husband."

"The print of our books is clear as crystal; the matter charming as a singing girl."

"Customers are treated as politely as by rival steamship companies."

"Our silks and satins are as smooth as a lady's cheek and colored like the rainbow."

It ought to be possible to get advertisements read in Japan without scattering them around next to "pure reading matter."—Dayton News.

GAVE UP

Had Lost Twenty-Five Pounds From Kidney Trouble. Doan's Restored His Health.

Mr. Ragless

J. B. Ragless, carpenter, 210 W. 60th St., Chicago, Ill., says: "My back gave out completely and I had to quit work, I could hardly endure the pain in my back and nights I tossed and turned, unable to sleep. Often in the morning my back was as stiff as a board, so that I couldn't stoop to dress myself. When I did manage to bend over, everything before me turned black. My head seemed to be whirling and sometimes I was so dizzy I had to grasp something to keep from falling. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage, getting me up at night and they burned cruelly. I lost my appetite, was weak and listless and went down twenty-five pounds in weight. After I had given up hope, I was persuaded to use Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me. Soon after, I passed an examination for life insurance and I'm glad to say my cure has lasted."

Nervousness and Headaches Caused by Acid-Stomach

There is a much closer connection between the stomach and brain than most people imagine. It is because of this close connection that indigestion, belching, sour, gassy stomach and other stomach miseries—all of which are sure signs of acid-stomach— are so often followed by severe attacks of blinding, splitting headaches.

Nervousness, sleeplessness, irritability, mental depression, melancholia and many other disorders which affect the brain can also nearly always be traced to the same source—acid-stomach.

So often you hear people say "I am so nervous I think I'll fly to pieces"; or "It seems I never get a good night's sleep any more, my nerves are all on edge." Little do they dream that acid-stomach is the direct cause of their troubles because very often there are no pains in the stomach at all. So you see, you can't always judge an acid-stomach condition by the way your stomach, itself, feels.

If you are weak, nervous, unfit—if you are not up to your old time form—if you lack your accustomed enthusiasm, energy and pep—make this test and see if it isn't acid-stomach that is holding you back—robbing you of your health, strength, and vigor. Get a big box of EATONIC—the wonderful modern medicine that so quickly puts an acid stomach to rights. It is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets that you eat like a bit of candy. EATONIC rids the stomach of excess acid. Brings instant relief from indigestion, heartburn, sour belching, food repeating, bloat and gas and makes the stomach cool, pure, sweet and comfortable.

Dentists warn us against the bad effects of acid mouth, pointing out that the acid eats through the enamel of the teeth, causing them to decay. You can easily imagine then the amount of damage excess acid will cause to the delicate organization of the stomach!

Thousands of people are using EATONIC and the results obtained are so remarkable as to be almost unbelievable. Yet their letters of gratitude, many of which are received daily, prove absolutely that EATONIC does all and even more than we claim. The medical profession, too, recognizes the great value of this wonderful remedy. A learned Michigan doctor wrote recently: "I have had such wonderful success with EATONIC that I want every one to know how quickly it will neutralize the acidity of the stomach (acid-stomach) and the stomach will soon be sweet and normal again; and the sick man well and happy once more."

So be sure to get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. If it fails in any way to give you the kind of satisfaction you want, take it back—he will refund your money. He doesn't want one penny of your money unless EATONIC helps you.

ANTIQUITY OF DECORATIVE ART

Strange Sources From Which Pigments Used by Modern Painters Are Derived.

PRESERVATION OF SURFACES.

Crude but Effective Processes Employed by the Egyptians and Greeks of Pliny's Day—Noah Prudently Waterproofed the Ark.

Whether paint was invented in answer to a need for a preservative or to meet a desire for beauty is a question fully as knotty as the ancient one about the relative time of arrival of the chicken or the egg. It was invented, though, and it serves both purposes equally; so whether it is an offspring of mother necessity or an adopted son of beauty remains forever a disputed question.

The first men, cowering under the fierce and glaring suns of the biblical countries, constructed rude huts of wood to shelter them. The perishable nature of these structures caused rapid decay, and it is probable that the occupants, seeking some artificial means of preservation, hit upon the pigments of the earth in their search. It is perhaps natural to suppose that it was the instinct of preservation that led men to the search, although the glories of the sunsets and the beauties of the rainbow may have created a desire to imitate those wonders in their own dwellings.

The earliest record of the application of a preservative to a wooden structure dates from the ark, which was, according to the Bible, "pitched within and without." The pitch was a triumph of preservation whatever it lacked as a thing of beauty.

Decoration applied to buildings first comes to light with ancient Babylon, whose walls were covered with representations of hunting scenes and of combat. These were done in red and the method followed was to paint the scene on the bricks at the time of manufacture, assuring permanence by baking. Strictly speaking, this was not painting so much as it was the earliest manifestation of our own familiar kalsomining.

The first Hebrew to mention painting is Moses. In the thirty-third chapter of the book of Numbers he instructs the Israelites, "When ye have passed over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, then shall ye drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you and destroy all their pictures. . . ."

At later periods the Jews adopted many customs of the peoples who successively obtained power over them and in the apocryphal book of the Maccabees is found this allusion to the art of decorating. "For as the master builder of a new house must care for the whole building, but he that undertaketh to set it out and paint it, must seek out things for the adorning thereof."

Although Homer gives credit to a Greek for the discovery of paint, the allusions to it in the books of Moses, the painted mummy cases of the Egyptians and the decorated walls of Babylon and Thebes fix its origin at a period long antecedent to the Grecian era. The walls of Thebes were painted 1,900 years before the coming of Christ and 996 years before "'Omer smote his bloomin' lyre."

The Greeks recognized the value of paint as a preservative and made use of something akin to it on their ships. Pliny writes of the mode of boiling wax and painting ships with it, after which, he continues, "neither the sea, nor the wind, nor the sun can destroy the wood thus protected."

The Romans, being essentially a warlike people, never brought the decoration of buildings to the high plane it had reached with the Greeks. For all that the ruins of Pompeii show many structures whose mural decorations are in fair shape today. The colors used were glaring. A black background was the usual one and the combinations worked thereon red, yellow and blue.

In the early Christian era the use of mosaics for churches somewhat supplanted mural painting. Still, during the reign of Justinian the Church of Saint Sophia was built at Constantinople and its walls were adorned with paintings.

In modern times the uses of paint have come to be as numerous as its myriad shades and tints. Paint is unique in that its name has no synonym and for it there is no substitute material. Bread is the staff of life, but paint is the life of the staff.

No one thinks of the exterior of a wooden building now except in terms of paint coated. Interiors, too, from painted walls and stained furniture down to the lowliest kitchen utensil, all receive their protective covering. Steel, so often associated with cement re-enforcing, is painted before it goes to give solidity to the manufactured whole. The huge girders of the skyscrapers are daubed an ugly but efficient red underneath the surface coat of black. Perhaps the best example of the value of paint on steel is found in the venerable Brooklyn bridge, on which a gang of painters is kept going continually. It is scarce possible to think of a single manufactured article which does not meet paint somewhere in the course of its construction. So has paint grown into the very marrow of our lives.

PAINT AS AN ASSET.

Bankers Say They Lend More Money on Property When Buildings Are Well Painted.

AN INDICATION OF THRIFT.

One Concern Advances 25 Per Cent. More if Repainting Is Done Every Five Years.

Does it pay to paint carefully farm buildings? Does it add to the selling value of a farm when buildings are properly kept up and regularly painted? A careful inquiry of a number of leading bankers in the Mississippi valley, including such states as Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri, reveals the fact that in nearly every case the bankers did not hesitate to say that they would lend all the way from 5 to 50 per cent. more on land where farm buildings were well painted and kept in good condition. They maintain that well kept-up and well painted buildings and fences are an indication of thrift and that the thrifty farmer is a good client, and to him money can be safely loaned. An average of the returns from these bankers shows that the increased loan value because of painted buildings is around 22 per cent.

Some of these bankers make interesting comment. A Michigan concern says that, while not especially prepared to advise definitely in response to this inquiry, the officers would loan more money on farms where buildings were painted than where they were not so treated. This bank also finds that where houses, barns and fences are well taken care of the farm is a profitable proposition, and bankers in general consider the farmer a good client. Another Michigan bank says "farm buildings out of repair and needing paint indicate that the owner is slow pay." Such farms are rated at about one-third of the assessed value for loans. Where the farm buildings are in good shape the rating is one-half. The president of a middle western bank says that when real estate loans are considered, painted buildings are always taken into consideration in making an estimate. The general appearance of the property surrounding the house and barn and also the fields and fences would be carefully observed. He further says that he has no hesitancy in saying that he would absolutely refuse a loan on farms where the buildings were not kept up and well painted. In his judgment, unpainted farm buildings would reduce the loan value at least 25 per cent.

A Minnesota banker says that he is much more willing to loan money where the buildings are well painted. In his particular case he believes that he would loan 20 per cent. more than if the buildings were not properly taken care of. A farmer who will keep his buildings painted takes a much deeper interest in his work than one who does not. Another Minnesota bank says that well painted buildings have resulted in securing from his bank sometimes as high as 25 per cent. more money than where the buildings are not painted. An Ohio concern says that it will loan 25 per cent. more money on a well kept farm where buildings are painted at least once every five years. A southern Illinois bank says that it has no fixed rule about this, but it does make a decided difference when owners of farm lands apply for loans. If the buildings are well painted and thus well preserved the loan rate would not only be cheaper, but the amount of money borrowed would be larger. A northern Illinois bank does not hesitate to say that it would loan fully 50 per cent. more on a farm where buildings were well painted and in good order than where they were not. The vice president, who answers the inquiry, goes on to say: "There probably are many farmers good financially and morally who permit their buildings to remain unpainted, but as a rule the most substantial people who live in the country keep their buildings well painted."

An Iowa bank, through its vice president, states that it would make a difference of at least 25 per cent. in favor of the farm with painted buildings. Another Iowa concern says that it would make a difference of at least 20 per cent.

All this being true, it is perfectly evident that it is a good business proposition to keep the farm buildings well painted. They not only look better and are more pleasing to the owner, but the farm would sell to better advantage, the loan value of the property would be greatly increased and the buildings themselves would last much longer and need less repair.—The American Agriculturist.

PAINT AND ILLITERACY.

Curious Fact Comes to Light That Localities Least Using Books Avoid Paint Also.

Washington, D. C.—A curious fact has been brought to light by the Educational Bureau and the Bureau of Industrial Research here. It is that in the states where illiteracy is most prevalent paint is least used. The paint referred to is the common or barn variety, of course, for the backwoods countries have no need for the finer pigments or facial adornments. It is true, though, that in the sections of all states where white illiteracy is highest painted homes are rare and painted outbuildings and barns are practically unknown. Probably the illiterates do not use paint on their buildings because they do not understand its value as a preservative.

HOW CLEOPATRA'S NEEDLE WAS SAVED

New Process Invented to Preserve Surface of Monolith in Central Park.

HIEROGLYPHS OBLITERATED.

Rigors of Western Climate Caused Khedive's Gift to Disintegrate. Painting Ancient Obelisk With Special Preparation Stayed Decay—Ruined Portions Restored.

New Yorkers awoke one morning to find in their breakfast headlines the news that a zealous park employee had discovered signs of disintegration on the surface of the city's most treasured antique—Cleopatra's Needle. Photographs revealed that the monolith was peeling, large pieces of sandstone having fallen from the tall shaft, carrying with them part of the prized hieroglyphs.

London's twin sister of Cleopatra's Needle was reported as resting comfortably and enduringly on the banks of the Thames, and the rival port wondered whether a preparation would be found to stay the attacks of their harsher climate.

Such a preparation was soon forthcoming. A new paint combination as a preservative for stone was invented by Dr. William Kuckro, chemist of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Many years previous coating with paraffin had been tried, but the application had not entirely accomplished its purpose. The new painting process, however, proved a success. Disintegration was halted and the damaged parts restored. New York breathed easily again.

THE OBELISK.

The Obelisk was presented to the City of New York by the Khedive of Egypt. Lieutenant Commander Gorringe, U. S. N., after a three years' effort, obtained possession of it and moved it to its present position, at an expense of nearly $100,000. It was finally swung into position at noon, January 22, 1881.

The height of this monument, from base to tip, is 69 feet, 2 inches. The measurement of the base, square through its axis, is 7 feet, 8¾ inches. The entire weight of the monolith is 219¼ tons.

Since it was quarried near the torrid zone, it has traversed the entire length of Egypt, most of that of the Mediterranean Sea and the width of the Atlantic Ocean—a distance of 6,400 miles—proving itself a first rate traveler for one whose age has exceeded thirty-five centuries. In the course of its existence it has seen Pharaoh and his host going to their destruction in the Red Sea; Shishak marching to the Conquest of Jerusalem; Cambyses desolating the land; Herodotus, Plato and other Greek students engaged in pursuit of Egyptian lore; Alexander the Great on his victorious expedition through the land of Goshen; six and a half centuries of Roman sovereignty and Christian struggle at Alexandria; all the long line of Moslem rulers since Caliph Omar; and now, leaving altogether its native land, it stands looking upon the million dwellers in this metropolis, whose site was unknown to the Eastern world at a time when the Obelisk had been in existence for two thousand years.

PAINT PROTECTION AND ITS ECONOMY.

The preservation of structural materials, which may be obtained through the application of paint, constitutes a most vital means of furthering the conservation of our natural resources. It is, moreover, the most economical method of sustaining the appearance and general upkeep of any community.

A structure coated with sheets of India rubber would not be as well protected from decay as a structure coated with a good oil paint. This is due to the fact that a sheet of rubber is not so durable or as waterproof as a thin dried film of paint. The latter material when applied dries to a continuous elastic film containing finely divided particles of metallic, wear resisting pigments. A square foot of such a film upon a wooden surface costs less than a penny, yet it will beautify and protect a dollar's worth of surface for many years. This is a low rate of insurance.

Dwellings, barns, outbuildings, sheds, posts, fences, stock enclosures, wagons, implements, windmills and other structures, whether of wood, iron or cement, should be preserved, through the use of paint, from rapid decay. High grade paint may be used successfully for all such purposes. Colored paints will be found the most serviceable, the coloring matter in the paint adding from two to three years to the life of the coating.

Rev. E. LaRoe of Thief River Falls will hold services in the Mission church at 8 o'clock next Sunday evening.

Ed Nelson of T. R. Falls and his brother, Oscar of Low Gap, Washington, visited their mother Mrs. J. Nelson and family Sunday.

Don't put all your eggs in one basket, for if you fall down all may be broken. In otherwords; do not stake everything on any one single crop, but have several, if possible. Mixed or deversified farming is the safest.

War gardens help to feed the people in time of need.

The ever increasing popularity of DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS is due largely to the fact that people who have used them are glad to recommend them to their friends. The following letter tells how a friend's recommendation of DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS resulted in much good.

"I have suffered long from constipation and have used all sorts of medicines without relief. A friend of mine sent me a box of DR. MILES' LAXATIVE TABLETS. After taking them I find they are the finest laxative I have ever used. Pleasant to the taste and mild and effective. They are in my judgement the best in existence."

Elevator Burned

The Red Lake Milling Co's elevator in this village was completely destroyed by fire, early Thursday morning.

The fire was first seen by Ole Backlund at a little before 5 o'clock. He immediately gave the alarm and it was only a few minutes until the fire company were pouring water onto the flames. When first discovered, the fire seemed to be close to the top of the elevator but it was not very long before the whole building seemed to be ablaze, and as it was plain to all that it could not be saved, the fire company turned the hose on the Hanson & Barzen elevator, which was in grave danger as a shower of sparks was continually falling on the roofs of that building and the ware houses to the south. All of the latter buildings were saved by the hard and efficient work of the fire company, under the direction of their chief, Albert Bennes. The big engine and force pump gave plenty of pressure to keep the roof and sides of the elevator soaked with water and on that account probably was the means of saving many, if not all the buildings south of the elevators. Holt can take just pride in the fire fighting spirit of its men and the apparatus with which to work.

Mr. Oien, the Red Lake Falls Milling Co's, agent has been here for almost seven years and he feels very badly about the fire. He had been loading cars for the past few days and the fire undoubtly started from a hot box. Mr. Oien shipped a car of flax Wednesday and had another car already for loading the next morning and another car in the yard to get ready. There were about 5500 bushels of grain in the elevator, of which about 1500 was wheat. Also about 250 sacks of flour and a lot of feed was burned.

The biggest check ever issued by the Holt creamery was delivered on Monday to Olaus Rodahl for cream sold during the month of March. The check was for $213.00 but as $3.00 had been deducted for butter, the actual amount of cream sold amounted to $216.00. Julius Fairman's check was over $175.00 and there were several more big ones. Who says dairying don't pay in this country?

The Holt public school grounds have been raked, the rubbish burned and twenty-five evergreens have been set out the past week. The principal, janitor and pupils did this work and the grounds look so much better, that we are quite sure all feel well repaid for their work. They have shown a public spirit that some older people could follow up with advantage to themselves and the community as a whole.

LAND DEALS

F. W. Ramaley of Minneapolis has sold his farm 6 miles east of town to Lund Bros., of Alexandria, who will take immediate possession. We understand the price paid was a little over $40 per acre or $20,000 for the 470 acres contained in the farm.

The farm has an entire set of new up-to-date building and as the Lund Brothers are hustlers they are bound to succeed in the venture.

V. L. Price who has occupied the farm and operated it for Mr. Ramaley will have an auction Saturday, May 10 to dispose of his personal property.

Axel Nelson has made a deal with Mrs. Sven Johnson for the SE¼ of section 29, town of Holt. As the farm is just outside of the incorporation it is considered a valuable location and as Mr. Nelson expects to improve the place at once he is going to soon make it a good farm and one that will sell for big money.

T. E. Ellestead has sold his farm of 160 acres to Erik Johnson. This farm is 5½ miles north of town and near Mr. Johnson's home place and will furnish plenty of land so as to keep his sons at home.

B. Docken recently sold a quater in section 22, Town of East Valley to Olaf Ness.

J. L. Hirsch of Amherst, S. Dak., arrived in Holt Wednesday, expecting to take charge of the Red Lake elevator, as soon Mr. Oien could be checked out, but as noted elsewhere, the elevator burned the next morning.

It is hoped that the elevator will be rebuilt at once as one can't take care of all the grain in the busy season.

Girl wanted for general cleaning also for dining room work, at the Oakland Park Sanitarium, short hours, good wages.

The elevators are getting ready for the change in management and ownership, which will take place in a few days. Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

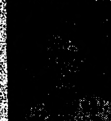
THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.



Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. BINZER, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Binzer that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Life in the Army.

First Orderly Sergeant—You know, Bill, a man's mind gets pretty rusty after a few months of this life.

Second Orderly Sergeant—Righto! I haven't used my head for a thing lately except as a drill ground for my razor.—Judge.

A man likes to be called a brick, but refer to him as a lump of common clay and he will get mad.

He who has not learned how to play has not learned how to work.

Work Too Hard?

This time of the year finds everyone hurrying to get the home cleaned up for summer. It's a pleasure, too, when you're well, but no man or woman with a "bad back" enjoys doing anything. If your back is lame, if sharp twinges catch you when lifting and you feel tired and worn out, kidney weakness is likely causing your trouble. Don't wait! Delay may cause gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped people the world over.

A Montana Case

Every Picture Tells a Story

George Cross, prop. "Electric Shoe Shop," 112 Second St. W., Kalispell, Montana, says: "Last winter I had a great deal of trouble with my kidneys and back. For some time I suffered from intense pains through the small of my back and my kidneys acted too frequently. I could hardly straighten after bending. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they helped me. I kept on taking them until I was rid of the attack. Doan's certainly did me good and I know they are a good remedy."

FORMER KAISER TO STAND TRIAL

Articles of Such Agreement Not Yet Taken Up, But Passage Is Claimed Assured.

LEAGUE PACT ADOPTED

Covenant in Revised Form Moved by President Wilson, Adopted by the Peace Conference—Italian Delegates Not Present.

Washington, April 27.—Although the peace conference in plenary session today failed to take up the question of responsibility for the war, officials here were unanimous in their belief that the peace treaty as delivered to the German plenipotentiaries will call for the trial of William Hohenzollern, former emperor of Germany, before a court of the associated powers.

Trial of the former emperor for a "supreme offense against international morality and the sanctity of treaties," the state department announced, had been included in the recommendations of the peace conference commission on responsibility. These recommendations are embodied in four articles, which were made public by the state department without comment and which the commission proposes to insert in the final treaty.

Court of Five Judges.

The articles specify that the former emperor is not to be tried "for an offense against criminal law," and that the international court shall be composed of five judges, one to be appointed by each of the five great powers: Great Britain, the United States, Japan, Italy and France. It is further provided that the associated governments shall request Holland to deliver up the former emperor.

Not to Be Tried Alone.

Not alone, though, will the head of the house of Hohenzollern be tried, but the commission's recommendation provides that all persons accused of acts of violation of the international rules of warfare shall be brought before international tribunals and if found guilty shall be given the penalties of international law.

Some officials said this provision would bring before the associated governments other members of the house of Hohenzollern and such other leaders of extreme German militarism and cruelty as General von Bissing, military governor of Belgium, and Admiral Von Torpitz, who conceived and advocated the submarine campaign.

League Covenant Now Approved.

Paris, April 29.—The covenant of the league of nations in revised form, moved by President Wilson, was adopted yesterday by the peace conference in plenary session without a dissenting vote.

The president's motion also named Sir James Eric Drummond as secretary general of the league and provided for a committee to inaugurate the league.

Thus one of the notable works of the conference passes its final stage and is incorporated in the peace treaty.

The French and Japanese amendments, after a brief discussion, were not pressed, and the way was thus cleared for unanimous acceptance of the league.

Italy was not represented at the session, but the nation of Italy appears as one of the members of the league in the covenant as finally adopted. Nine labor principles were adopted for insertion in the treaty.

WILL RETURN CABLE LINES

Postmaster General Would Promptly Restore Them to Owners.

Washington, April 29.—The government is preparing to relinquish control next month of American cable lines and to restore the telegraph and telephone systems to private ownership immediately after enactment by congress of laws necessary to safeguard the properties.

Postmaster General Burleson, as directing head of the wire communication service taken over as a war measure, announces he has sent President Wilson a recommendation that the cables be turned back forthwith, probably not later than May 10. The postmaster general has also given out a statement saying he would recommend that the telegraph and telephone service be returned to the private owners, contingent, however, upon financial protection to be obtained from congress.

More Germans Arrive at Versailles.

Versailles, April 29.—The second installment of Germans who are to attend the peace congress arrived here at 10 o'clock last night. The party included a large number of women stenographers and typists.

They were taken to the hotel assigned to them in motor busses. A cordon was thrown about the streets in the vicinity of the hotel during the arrival.

The main plenipotentiaries and the technical delegates, are expected to arrive tomorrow.

DAIRY PROFITS BIG

Splendid Returns From Farms in Western Canada.

Production of Butter and Cheese, Commanding Highest Prices, Increases Steadily—Live-Stock Raisers at Height of Prosperity.

Dairying is rapidly approaching one of the first positions in Western Canada agriculture. This does not apply particularly to any one of the three Western Canada provinces, as they all participate in the distinction.

A report recently published by the Alberta Department of Agriculture shows that in 1918, in spite of adverse conditions of labor and the high cost of feed there was no decline in the industry. It will be interesting to know that the average number of milch cows per farm is 5.6. The total production of creamery butter in the provinces in 1918 was 9,100,000, as against 8,944,000 pounds in 1917.

No better evidence of the growth of Western Canada can be given than by the fact that in ten years the production of butter has increased from 2,500,000 pounds and of cheese from 88,570 pounds to 650,000 pounds. When it is known that in the production of grain so much energy was placed, and through which bank deposits were increased, homes made comfortable, farms carefully tilled, it will be realized that the increase in dairy production has been remarkable. During the past four years the price to the producer increased 75 per cent.

Further evidence of the great interest taken in the dairy and livestock industries is found in recent bull sales. At Edmonton the average price of 141 was $231.06; at Calgary 784 head were sold, bringing an average price of $269.18; while at Lacombe 179 bulls brought an average of $191.34. Sales in Manitoba a few days ago gave fully as good an average, or better. The sales were attended by farmers from all parts of the country. The high prices paid show that good stock was required, and, no matter the price, the farmer had the money to pay for it. As evidence of this we find that at a sale recently held at Carman, Manitoba, buyers were present from all parts of the province, besides some from Saskatchewan points. Five head of Herefords brought $590 each. A Shorthorn bull was sold for $700 and registered Shorthorn cows brought $500 each.

The establishment of creameries and cheese factories throughout the entire West is on the increase, and it will only be within the period of a very few years before Western Canada will occupy a position in the first ranks in the dairy production of the continent.

There is complete government supervision over creameries and cheese factories. The government takes care of the sales, looks after the manufacturer and employs as heads of the institutions highly paid and efficient managers.

It may well be said that the dairy industry in Western Canada is rapidly coming into its own. At present it is but an adjunct to the parent or foremost industry of the country—the growing of grain, but while an adjunct, it is a highly important one. The price of farm lands is gradually increasing, but not in the rapid proportion that has been shown in other countries. This rise in price does not materially increase the cost of production, nor lessen the profits that may be derived from an acre of wheat, oats or barley. The advance in the prices of these grains has more than doubled; the use of tractors has lessened the cost.

The reports from government sources are that the present year will show a great increase in immigration over the past four or five years. The man who has made a tour of inspection of the country will give you the reason. He will speak of the fertile soil, of the good crops, of the attractive climate, of compliance with the law, the splendid school system, the almost perfect social conditions that prevail. He will have visited settlements composed almost solely of Americans, who have built up their homes and villages, who have brought, and are applying, today, their experience in economic land culture as applied to large tracts with the result that he obtains yields on $30 an acre land equal to that formerly produced on land that he had sold for $200 an acre. The story of his success he has sent back to his friends in his home state. They in turn follow him, and so it goes on, and immigration to Western Canada increases.—Advertisement.

ITALIAN MUDDLE CLEARS RAPIDLY

Advices From Paris to White House Say Situation Is Becoming Better.

HUNS EXALT OVER SPLIT

Last of Italian Envoys Leave Paris for Rome—Orlando to Meet King and Then Go Before Parliament for Endorsement.

Washington, April 28.—The Italian situation is clearing rapidly, according to private advices received at the White House. It is stated the President's action on Fiume is generally endorsed by participants in the Peace Conference.

Paris, April 27.—The last of the Paris, April 28.—The last of the Italian peace delegation, Foreign Minister Sonnino and former Premier Salandra, has left for Rome. A crowd of Italian officials and civilians gave them a great ovation at the Gare de Lyon.

Orlando to Test Strength.

Paris, April 28.—The Italian situation now has two focal points—Rome and Paris.

Premier Orlando was expected to confer with King Victor Emmanuel preparatory to going before the Italian Parliament to put his stand on the Fiume question to the test of a vote of confidence.

Orlando to Ask People to Choose.

In appearing before Parliament, Orlando will in effect ask the Italian people to choose between their government and President Wilson. A vote of confidence will enable him to return to Paris and renew his demand for Fiume under threat of annexation or to order annexation of that city without the formality of returning. Failure to gain a vote of confidence will mean his overthrow and a victory for the President, bearing out the latter's contention that the peoples are more powerful than governments.

No official comment could be obtained on the visit to Italian headquarters of Ambassador Matsui, Japanese representative in France. Rumors persisted, however, that there was a possibility of co-operation between Italy and Japan in pressing their territorial claims.

Germans Exult.

Berlin, April 28.—Berlin newspapers, commenting on Italy's reported withdrawal from the Peace conference, made no effort to conceal their satisfaction with the turn of events.

"Not only is Italian egotism to blame, but the egotistic spirit inspiring all the Entente peace delegates," said the Berliner Tageblatt.

The Vorwaerts (Socialist) openly indorsed President Wilson's stand.

Elation in Vienna.

Vienna, April 28.—The withdrawal of the Italian delegation from the Peace conference was received here with elation, the people generally being glad to see the Allies in conflict with each other. The Neue Freie Presse says:

"Premier Orlando is bluffing, probably to square his position in Italy toward the interventionists. It is impossible for Italy to withdraw, as she is fed by America."

The paper adds: "President Wilson's position is based on the idea of right and justice and it is hoped he will act in the same way toward Bohemia and Tyrol, where the people will be driven to desperation if subjected to Czech or Italian control."

FALL OF KIEV SEVERE BLOW

Is Held to Sound Doom of Anarchists in Ukrane.

Vienna, April 28.—The capture of Kiev from the bolsheviki by partisans of General Petlura, the Ukranian nationalist leader, is interpreted here as signifying the ebb of the bolshevik strength in southwestern Russia. As soon as the bolshevik troops came into contact with the untrained but determined forces of General Petlura they deserted the red standard and forced the bolshevik leaders to give up Kiev.

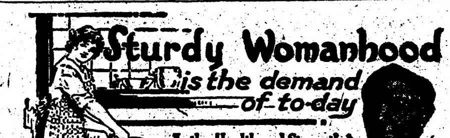
It apparently had been the intention of Lenine and Trotsky to hold the Ukrane until the crops could be harvested and transported to Moscow and then to withdraw.

Opens Desert Land July 1.

Washington, April 28.—Exclusion of about 84,570 acres of land from the Inyo national forest for restoration in part to homestead entry has been announced by Secretary Lane. The tract includes 68,075 acres in Mono and Basin counties, California, and 16,495 acres in Esmeralda county, Nevada, all of semi-desert character. It will be subject to homestead entry at and after 9 a. m., July 1, and to other disposition on and after July 8.

Greatest Gun Factory in World.

Troy, N. Y., April 28.—It was officially announced here this afternoon by Colonel Mettler of the Watervliet arsenal that the government had authorized gigantic extension plans which will convert the gun factory opposite this city into the greatest plant of its kind in the world, not excepting that of the Krupps in Germany. The plans call for the expenditure of $14,000,000 and the purchase of thirty-five additional acres of ground in Watervliet.



In the Health and Strength of the Wives and Mothers Rests the Future Integrity of the Nation.

We must preserve our womanhood. There is need, greater than ever for strong women. Apparently, the race is not as sturdy as formerly or our women are victims of an over-civilization and less able to resist disease.

Thousands suffer and thousands more are destined to suffer from that most insidious of diseases, catarrh. Ninety-seven per cent of the people have catarrh. It is not confined to the head, nose and throat as many suppose. Catarrhal inflammation may attack the stomach, bowels or any portion of the body where there are mucous linings. It is no respector of persons or position. Everyone is liable to attack.

Mrs. Mary Fricke, 507 Bornman St., Belleville, Ill., was one of its victims. She says: "I have weighed as little as 100 pounds. For years I suffered with my stomach, cramps and severe headaches. After reading Dr. Hartman's Health Book, I decided to try Peruna. The first bottle brought good results, but as I was bound to get well, I took twelve.

Fifteen years ago, I started with Peruna and I wouldn't be without it. My weight is now around 200 pounds and I am hale and hearty at the age of 63. I can do as much work as my daughter."

The use of Peruna for forty-five years in the American family has proved its worth. If you are sick, do not give up, try Peruna. Write The Peruna Company, Dept. B, Columbus, Ohio, for Dr. Hartman's Health Book. It is free. Peruna is sold everywhere in liquid and tablets. Insist upon having Dr. Hartman's Famous Peruna Tonic. Ask your dealer for a Peruna Almanac.

"As You Were" Defined.

A British officer who has just returned from German East Africa tells an amusing story of the Askari recruits whom he was training. Mistakes in the drill were frequent, and, in consequence, "As you were" became an order rapped out with increasing severity of expression. Later the officer overheard a conversation between two natives in the squad.

"What does our officer mean by 'As you were?'" inquired one Askari.

"'Asuwer,' replied the other, 'is a word the Englishman has invented for when he wants to say "I am sorry, I have made a mistake."'"

MY HEAD!

When the head feels thick or aches, when one feels all out-of-sorts—perhaps a coated tongue—it is the signal that poisons are accumulating in the system, and should be cleaned out at once.

Auto-intoxication can be best ascribed to our own neglect or carelessness. When the organs fail in the discharge of their duties, the putrefactive germs set in and generate toxins—actual poisons, which fill one's own body.

Sleepiness after meals, flushing of the face, extreme lassitude, biliousness, dizziness, sick headache, acidity of the stomach, heartburn, offensive breath, anemia, loss of weight and muscular power, decrease of vitality or lowering of resistance to infectious diseases, disturbance of the eye, dyspepsia, indigestion, gastritis, many forms of catarrh, asthma, ear affections and allied ailments result from auto-intoxication or self-poisoning.

Take castor oil, or procure at the drug store, a pleasant vegetable laxative, called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, composed of May-apple, aloes and jalap.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is inclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. At the first sign that your kidneys are not working properly, go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

Snakes Denizens of Caverns.

Until recent times no reptiles were known to have adapted themselves to existence in the darkness of caverns. Now, however, it is known that in the Malay Peninsula, a snake, a species of coluber, inhabits certain caverns, feeding upon the bats. These cave-dwelling snakes attain a length of between eight and nine feet. Their coloring simulates that of the walls of the cavern. The rock is a yellowish limestone traversed with blackish veins and these markings and colors are curiously reproduced in the snakes, many of which lurk on the ledges in the semidarkness near the entrance, watching for the bats.

Women Served.

In September, 1917, the British war office proclaimed it needed 10,000 women before the end of October for a Woman's Auxiliary corps for home and overseas service. Mrs. Chalmers Watson, sister of Sir Auckland and Sir Eric Geddes, was made first chief controller. About 10,000 women a month were recruited thereafter, enrolled for the duration of the war. They replaced men in England and France, cooking, laundering, driving automobiles, doing stenographic work, etc. Other British women served in the Woman's Royal Naval service, "Wrens," and in the woman's division of the Royal Flying corps, "Penguins." These women form part of the British military and naval forces and are subject to military discipline.

STATE BREVITIES

Brainerd.—A baby clinic held in Brainerd was a great success. One hundred and three babies were brought to the clinic.

Stillwater.—The new conciliation court, for which the legislature passed a special law, was opened here by Judge O. E. Lee.

Tracy.—Several hundred thousand pounds of fish probably will be seined from Lake Sagal within the next few weeks as the result of local men having obtained permission to drag the lake which it is proposed to drain the coming summer.

Jackson.—Glen Dunleavy, a returned soldier, who was working as a telephone lineman, was instantly killed here when he touched a 1,000-volt electric light wire while painting a crossarm. He was released from the service two weeks ago.

Thief River Falls.—A silver loving cup as first prize and shrubbery or perennial flowers as second awards are offered by the local woman's club to the street of this city making most and best improvement in appearances during the present season.

Mankato.—The new mayor and council have issued orders that the curfew, which has been a dead institution for the past year, again will be observed. All children not accompanied by parents or a guardian must be in their homes by 9. p. m.

Thompson.—The voters of this village decided at a special election to sell the municipal electric light plant to the Commonwealth Utilities company of Mankato for $10,500, and to grant the company a twenty-five years' franchise. The vote was practically unanimous.

Hibbing.—More than 200 miners were thrown out of work when the Stevenson mine closed down. Edward Corcoran, local superintendent of the mine, said there is no market for the ore. Inquiry at other locations has brought the information that no other mines in this section intend closing.

St. Paul.—The first daily shipment of pike eggs this season from northern waters has been received at the St. Paul State Fish Hatchery. Commissioner Carlos Avery said the egg supply prospects are good, and that the season probably will be unusually successful. Eggs to fill to capacity the St. Paul, Glenwood, Granite Falls and all state hatcheries in northern districts, he said, will be obtained.

Owatonna.—Tentative policy under which the League of Civic Associations of Southern Minnesota, is to conduct its campaign against crime raids was outlined here by C. R. Dye of Northfield, president, T. E. Cashman, vice president, and R. H. Naylor, secretary, both of Owatonna. The officers drafted by-laws which will be presented to the board of directors for adoption at a meeting here April 30.

St. Paul.—That Minnesota is destined to become a vacation ground for the entire continent of America is the belief expressed by Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner, at the session of the food and home making show at the Ryan hotel. On account of the exceptional opportunities and advantages of fishing and camping around Minnesota's 10,000 lakes, the future will bring thousands of people to the lakes' vicinities for the vacation periods," said Mr. Avery.

St. Paul.—The cost of laws has soared like the cost of living. The session of the State legislature just ended cost Minnesota taxpayers $339,691 to date, compared with $320,978 for the 1917 session. The disbursements were for salaries of members and employes and other general expenses. The present legislature has a fund balance of $33,475, but that will be used in paying outstanding claims, it is said. The 1917 Legislature ended with a $96 balance.

Bemidji.—More than 400 men will be given employment by the opening of both of the big mills of the Crookston Lumber company here this week, when they will begin their work for the summer. Returned soldiers, many of whom formerly were employed in the mills and who have been unemployed since they were discharged from the service, will return to their old positions and it is believed that practically all the unemployed men in the city will be given work as a result of the opening of the mills.

St. Paul.—George B. Aiton, Grand Rapids, is chairman of the newly-created State Board of Education, by appointment of Governor Burnquist. He formerly was state high school inspector and played an important part in developing the Minnesota school system. Other members of the board are: Julius Boraas, graduate of the University of Minnesota, former superintendent of Goodhue county schools, and now head of the department of education of St. Olaf college, Northfield. Thomas E. Cashman, Owatonna, nursery man, farmer and stock raiser, former state Senator and former member of the State Public Safety commission. Mrs. R. D. Musser, Morrison county, prominent in child welfare work. W. D. Willard, Mankato banker and school board member.

Fairmont.—Lyle and Cecil Miller, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller of this city, enlisted together, served 13 months in the same battery, were discharged at the same time and have arrived home together. Their only separation during the time they were overseas occurred when one was sent to a hospital with influenza.

St. Paul.—Governor Burnquist has announced he had abandoned plans for a trip to Alaska next July. He had planned to attend a conference of governors at Juneau, but was informed that the conference would be held in Salt Lake City.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

CASTORIA

Do the People Know?

Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria when you want a child's remedy: why you must insist on Fletcher's?

For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

To protect the babies: to shield the homes and in defense of generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby.

The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared by the same hands in the same manner for so many years that the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and perfection in the product are synonymous.

War Council on Retirement Announces Cash and Supplies Contributed.

WORKERS WILL "CARRY ON."

Five Big Societies in World Wide Plan. H. P. Davison Heads International American Red Cross Commission. Dr. Livingston Farrand Permanent Leader of Peace Organization.

Washington.—(Special.)—Henry P. Davison as chairman issues the following statement on behalf of the War Council of the American Red Cross:

To the American People:

The War Council of the American Red Cross appointed by President Wilson on May 10, 1917, to carry on the work of the American Red Cross during the war at their request and by vote of the Central Committee, ceased at midnight, February 28.

Immediately the armistice was signed the War Council instituted studies to determine when the strictly war work of the organization would have been sufficiently matured to enable the direction of affairs to be resumed by the permanent staff. Henry P. Davison, being in Paris when the armistice was signed, summoned a conference there of the heads of all the Red Cross Commissions in Europe to canvass the situation. After considering all the factors it was concluded to make the transition on March 1. The very fortunate choice of Dr. Livingston Farrand as the new chairman of the Central Committee, and thereby the permanent chief executive of the Red Cross, makes possible the consummation of this plan under the most favorable conditions.

Accounts Audited by War Department.

Detailed reports to Congress and a complete audit of its accounts by the War Department will constitute the final record of Red Cross activity during the war. Although it has been the rule to make public all expenditures when authorized and to give detailed information relative to all work undertaken, the War Council in turning over its responsibilities to Dr. Farrand and his associates desire to give a brief resume of Red Cross war time activities to the American people, to whom the Red Cross belongs, and whose generous contributions have made possible all that has been accomplished.

During the past nearly twenty-one months the American people have given in cash and supplies to the American Red Cross more than $400,000,000. No value can be placed upon the contributions of service which have been given without stint and oftentimes at great sacrifice by millions of our people.

The effort of the American Red Cross in this war has constituted by far the largest voluntary gifts of money, of hand and heart, ever contributed purely for the relief of human suffering. Through the Red Cross the heart and spirit of the whole American people have been mobilized to take care of our own, to relieve the misery incident to the war, and also to reveal to the world the supreme ideals of our national life.

Everyone who has had any part in this war effort of the Red Cross is entitled to congratulate himself. No thanks from anyone could be equal in value to the self satisfaction everyone should feel for the part taken. Fully 8,000,000 American women have exerted themselves in Red Cross service.

Has Over 17,000,000 Adult Members.

When we entered the war the American Red Cross had about 500,000 members. Today, as the result of the recent Christmas membership Roll Call, there are upwards of 17,000,000 adult members outside of the members of the Junior Red Cross, numbering perhaps 9,000,000 school children additional.

The chief effort of the Red Cross during the war has been to care for our men in service and to aid our army and navy wherever the Red Cross may be called on to assist. As to this phase of the work Surgeon General Ireland of the U. S. Army recently stated that the Red Cross has been an [illegible] as vast as the war itself. From the beginning it has done those things which the Army Medical Corps wanted done but could not do itself.

The Red Cross endeavor in France has naturally been upon an exceptionally large scale where service has been rendered to the American Army and to the French Army and the French people as well, the latter particularly during the trying period when the Allied World was waiting for the American Army to arise in force and power. Hospital emergency service for our army in France has greatly diminished, but the Red Cross is still being called upon for service upon a large scale in the great base hospitals, where thousands of American sick and wounded are still receiving attention. At these hospitals the Red Cross supplies huts and facilities for amusement and recreation of the men as they become convalescent. The Army of Occupation in Germany is followed with Medical units prepared to render the same emergency and supply service which was the chief business of the Red Cross during hostilities. The Army Canteen service along the lines of travel has actually increased since the armistice.

"As for work among the French people, now that hostilities have ceased, the French themselves naturally prefer as far as possible to provide for their own. It has accordingly been determined that the guiding principle of Red Cross policy in France henceforth shall be to have punctilious regard to its every responsibility, but to direct its efforts primarily to assisting French relief societies. The liberated and devastated regions of France have been divided by the government into small districts, each officially assigned to a designated French relief organization.

"The American Red Cross work in France was initiated by a commission of eighteen men who landed on French shores June 13, 1917. Since then some 9,000 persons have been upon the rolls in France, of whom 7,000 were actively engaged when the armistice was signed. An indication of the present scale of the work will be obtained from the fact that the services of 6,000 persons are still required.

"Our American Expeditionary Force having largely evacuated England, the activities of the Red Cross Commission there are naturally upon a diminishing scale period. Active operations are still in progress in Archangel and Siberia.

"The work in Italy has been almost entirely on behalf of the civilian population of that country. In the critical hours of Italy's struggle the American people, through their Red Cross, sent a practical message of sympathy and relief, for which the government and people of Italy have never ceased to express their gratitude.

Supplies and Personnel to Near East.

"The occasion for such concentration of effort in Italy, England, Belgium and even in France having naturally and normally diminished, it has been possible to divert supplies and personnel in large measure to the aid of those people in the Near East who have hitherto been inaccessible to outside assistance, but whose sufferings have been upon an appalling scale. The needs of these peoples are so vast that government alone can meet them, but the American Red Cross is making an effort to relieve immediately the more acute distress.

"An extensive group of American workers has been dispatched to carry vitally needed supplies, and to work this winter in the various Balkan countries. In order to co-ordinate their activities, a Balkan commission has been established, with headquarters at Rome, Italy, from which point alone all the Balkan centers can be reached promptly.

"A commission has just reached Poland with doctors and nurses, medical supplies, and food for sick children and invalids. An American Red Cross Commission has also been appointed to aid in relieving the suffering of Russian prisoners still confined in German prison camps.

"An important commission is still working in Palestine. Through the war special co-operation has been given to the Armenian and Syrian Relief Commission, which was the only agency able to carry relief in the interior of Turkish dominions.

Red Cross Will Continue.

"Red Cross effort is thus far flung. It will continue to be so. But the movement represented by this work has likewise assumed an intimate place in the daily life of our people at home. The army of workers which has been recruited and trained during the war must not be demobilized. All our experience in the war shows clearly that there is an unlimited field for service of the kind which can be performed with peculiar effectiveness by the Red Cross. What its future tasks may be it is yet impossible to forecast. We know that so long as there is an American army in the field the Red Cross will have a special function to perform.

"Nothing could be of greater importance to the American Red Cross than the plans just set in motion by the five great Red Cross societies of the world to develop a program of extended activities in the interest of humanity. The conception involves not alone efforts to relieve human suffering but to prevent it; not alone a movement by the people of an individual nation, but an attempt to arouse all people to a sense of their responsibility for the welfare of their fellow beings throughout the world. It is a program both ideal and practical. Ideal in that its supreme aim is nothing less than veritable 'peace on earth good will to men,' and practical in that it seeks to take means and measures which are humanly available and make them effective in meeting without delay the crisis which is daily recurrent in the lives of all peoples.

"For accomplishing its mission in the years of peace which must lie ahead of us the Red Cross will require the ablest possible leadership, and must enjoy the continued support, sympathy, and participation in its work of the whole American people. It is particularly fortunate that such a man as Dr. Livingston Farrand should have been selected as the permanent head of the organization. The unstinted fashion in which all our people gave of themselves throughout the war is the best assurance that our Red Cross will continue to receive that co-operation which will make its work a source of pride and inspiration to every American.

"Mr. Davison, as chairman of the International Commission of the American Red Cross, has undertaken to represent the American Red Cross in the preparation of the program for extended Red Cross activities, and will spend the next several months in Europe in consultation with other Red Cross societies for that purpose.

Army and Navy News

Since the news reached here last fall that Adolph Sollom had been killed in battle, many reports have been current as to how his death occurred. In order to correct these reports we herewith give a verbatim copy of a letter written by the Red Cross Bureau of communication, to his mother, Mrs. T. T. Sollom:

"On Sept. 28th, 1918, near the front, near Montiville, France, in the St. Mihiel sector, Private Sollom was sleeping in a dug-out, and about 4:00 a. m., a gas shell burst at the entrance to the dug-out and gassed everyone inside. He died at 1:30 the next morning."

The above information was furnished the Red Cross by Corporal Vester W. Haygood, Co. B. 345th Machine Gun Batallion, the same company to which Adolph Sollom belonged, and there is no doubt but what it is correct.

Ole Tveit of Golden Valley returned home Tuesday from Camp Grant where he served in the army for several months.

Nels Gudvangen died at about midnight Tuesday night, after only a few days sickness with pneumonia.

The deceased was about 35 years old and leaves a wife and three children, his parents and other relatives and a host of friends to mourn his death. He was well liked by all who knew him and will be greatly missed by his friends, as well as the family, who so much needed him, and to whom the sincere sympathy of all is extended in their hour of sorrow and grief.

Funeral services will be held in Holt today, between trains and the remains will be laid to rest in the local cemetery.

RED LAKE CO. WILL REBUILD

S. M. Sievertson, Secy of the Red Lake Falls Milling Co., arrived in town Friday from Montana where he was at the time their elevator burned. Mr. Sievertson announced that his company would erect a modern, up-to-date elevator to take the place of the one just burned. He rented the Kolden building the same day and has shipped his agent, Mr. Hirsch, a stock of flour and feed and they are ready to supply the trade at all times.

We congratulate the Red Lake people on their enterprise and public spirit.

Albert Cairns, auditor of the Red Lake Falls Milling company, arrived in Holt the next day after the fire to look after the salvage. Mr. Cairns secured a gang of men from Thief River Falls who went to work next morning on the ruins of the elevator. The insurance company sent the Brooks elevator company's men here to load the damaged grain and ship it away. Three cars were loaded and shipped away Tuesday. They were so careless about loading that the first car got afire and the fire company had to be called out to stop it. The fire company has surely had lots of practice the last week.

Math Barzen, of the [illegible] & Barzen Milling Co., came here last week Thursday and with J. A. Sorum, Sec'y of the Farmers Elevator Co., invoiced the stock in the elevator and gave formal possession to the latter company.

Mr. Jones who has been agent here for the former company departed Saturday for his home in Crookston.

Mr. Olen took charge of the Farmers Elevator on Monday and is busy getting things in shape for business.

Death Calls Popular Citizen

Nils Engebretsen died at five o'clock Thursday morning from a complication of pneumonia and intestinal trouble, which started from an attack of the flu a week ago last Sunday. Since that time the deceased made a brave fight for life and all that neighbors, nurse, and doctors could possibly do was done to save his life, but all to no avail. Mr. Engebretsen had always been in good health and when he had to give up work last week Monday, his friends thought it would be only for a few days at the most when he would again resume his duties at the post office, but this shows the uncertainty of this life.

Mr. Engebretsen was a little past 47 years old and had been postmaster for more than 20 years. Before the village was started he had a little store and postoffice near here, which he moved onto the site of the Farmers State Bank, when the village commenced to grow. There isn't a man, woman or child but what will miss our genial postmaster, for he was always accommodating and had the respect and good will of everybody.

He leaves a wife and three small children, and aged mother and sisters to whom the sincere sympathy of everybody is extended.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning 10:30 conducted by Rev. Myhrer, and interment will be made in the village cemetery.

CLEAN-UP NOTICE

It is hereby ordered by the village council of the village of Holt, [illegible] that the manure and rubbish of all kinds must be cleaned up and hauled away from property, streets and alleys within said village, also that all the streets and alleys must be cleared of all machinery, wood, ect., before May 20th, 1919, or the work will be done by the order of the council at the owner's or occupant's expense.

The house fly is one of the most dangerous of human pests. It multiplys by the million and every fly becomes a sprender of dangerous disease germs, says Dr. W. A. Riley, head of the entomology division of the Minnesota college of agriculture. The only thing to do, therefore, is to fight the fly in season and out of season by keeping the premises clean, destroying breeding places, screening houses to keep the flies out, and swatting the flies that get inside. Community co-operation in fly fighting is one of the best moves toward public health.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

TOMMY IN HUMOROUS MOOD

And Possibly There Was a Little Sarcasm in Remark Credited to Real Soldier.

"Don't ever imagine that the British haven't some sense of humor," said Robert Chambers, the author, recently. "A friend of mine, just back from London, relates an incident that shows that the Tommy, at least, has a funnybone somewhere in his anatomy.

"These two Tommies, disheveled, torn with wounds and altogether untidy, were on leave in London. As they stood in Trafalgar square there approached a detachment of the Windsor guard in silver trappings, waving plumes, red coats, long varnished boots shining like mirrors, and kid gloves.

"The Tommies looked on in silence for a moment and then one nudged his mate.

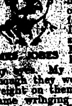
"'Looka, Bill,' he whispered in an awed voice. 'Them's sojers.'"

The Proper Vehicle.

"How foolish some of these poets are in their imagery! Now, how can a lover's lady drink to him with her eyes?" "Couldn't she use a looking-glass?"

They Still Exist.

"The peace-at-any-price man doesn't exist any more." "Doesn't, eh? Don't the married men count at all?"



WAS IN MISERY

Mrs. Jobes Was in Serious Condition From Dropsy. Doan's Made Her Well.

"I don't think many have gone through such misery as I," says Mrs. C. Jobes, 130 Federal St., Burlington, N. J. "That awful pain in my back felt as though my spine were crushed. My head [illegible] and I had reeling and falling sensations when everything would turn black. Though the kidney secretions passed ten or fifteen times in an hour, only a few drops came at a time and they felt like boiling water. I soon found I had dropsy. I bloated all over. My face was so swollen I could hardly see out of my eyes. My ankles and feet felt as though they would burst if I put any weight on them. My night clothes became wringing wet with sweat and I would get chilly and shake all over. Doan's Kidney Pills soon had me feeling like a different woman. My kidneys were regulated and all the swelling went away. The aches and pains left me and after I had finished my eighth box of Doan's, I was as well as ever. GERMAN TROOPS OCCUPY MUNICH

ORDER BEING RESTORED

Berlin Government Officials Declare That the Soldiers Will Be Withdrawn as Soon as Danger of Further Trouble Is Over.

Berlin, May 6.—Government troops have captured practically the whole of Munich. Gustave Landauer, Bavarian soviet minister, has been shot by government troops.

The Roumanian, Czech and Serbian commanders have decided not to occupy Budapest, though it is reported that the Hungarian capital is in the throes of a counter revolution. Budapest soviets are making one last stand.

Berlin, May 6.—Government troops have captured the whole of Munich with the exception of the Ganhen quarter, where the Communists have made frequent attempts to negotiate in order to secure more favorable conditions. Premier Hoffmann has reiterated his demand for their unconditional surrender.

The Communists made a bitter defense. The dead are estimated at two hundred. The Berlin government has declared that its troops will be withdrawn as soon as order has been restored.

The failure of the Munich insurrection marks the collapse of the last important Communist stronghold in Germany, and for the time being the Ebert and Scheidemann government is heaving a deep sigh of relief, for which it can thank Herr Noske, minister of defense.

The irony of fate decreed that at the moment when Field Marshal von Hindenburg announced his retirement as chief of the army, Noske, six months ago an unknown person of military caliber, with the ragged remnants of former battalions hurriedly recruited volunteer regiments, should be winning the nation's acclaim in the sordid internecine guerrilla warfare that is not wholly without its opera bouffe setting.

Munich Given Ample Dose.

Munich, the gayest and best fed of the capitals, has been given an amplified dose of Communistic antics, when compared with Bremen, Hamburg, Halle, Dusseldorf and Brunswick. Prussia, still mindful of the arbitrary export embargo maintained by Bavaria when Berlin went hungry, today is marveling at the lack of the intrepidity of the Bavarians and their utter impotence in the face of a handful of Bolsheviki. Now that the latter have apparently been defeated and scattered, government circles in Berlin are not expecting insurrections in other sections on an equally violent scale.

The commander of the Bavarian Red army, Herr Eglhofer, was killed after being sentenced to death by court-martial, according to a message to the Tageblatt.

The Hoffman government has announced, the Tageblatt says, that the Communist leaders are being treated as they treated the hostages they took, 10 of whom were shot in the Luitpold gymnasium.

FEDERAL LAND BANK PAYS

St. Paul Institution Plans 6 Per Cent Dividend in August.

St. Paul, May 6.—The Federal Land bank, which celebrated its second anniversary last Thursday, is in such a sound condition and is making such good profits from its steady growing business that payment of a 6 per cent cumulative dividend on Aug. 1 is contemplated, President E. G. Quamme announced.

This dividend payment would be in addition to the bank's setting aside the surplus required by law. Dividends will be paid annually hereafter, said President Quamme.

BELGIAN PEOPLE AROUSED

Dissatisfaction Exists Over Peace Conference Decisions.

Brussels, May 6.—Public opinion in Belgium has been upset by the news from Paris concerning what is described as the unsatisfactory decisions reached by the Peace conference respecting Belgium.

Newspapers express their disappointment and it is said the Belgian government may appeal to public opinion in the United States and in Great Britain, recalling the formal promises made to Belgium by the responsible heads of both those countries.

Quits Peace Conference.

Paris, May 6.—Leon Jouhaux, secretary general of the Federation of Labor, who was among those injured in the May day riots, has resigned from the Peace conference, in which he was a supplementary member representing the working classes. M. Jouhaux has sent a letter to Premier Clemenceau, saying it was impossible to continue co-operation after the day "your government brutally prohibited the French workers from expressing their thoughts and manifesting their aspirations."

FINE CROPS SURE

Outlook in Western Canada Never More Favorable.

Perfect Weather Conditions Enabled Early Seeding and Wheat Has Long Been Above Ground in the Land of Opportunity.

The greatest optimism prevails throughout every district in Western Canada. From the eastern boundary of Manitoba to the slopes of the Rocky Mountains the farmers have been busy for three weeks in seeding operations. Last fall, even for Western Canada, was an exceptional one. Threshing was completed at an early date and the amount of fall plowing made ready for crop from fifteen to twenty-five per cent more acreage than in any year in the brief history of the country. Therefore there was ready for seeding this spring an acreage away beyond anything ever before experienced in that country.

On April 20 Calgary (Alta.) reported that in south country points there was a notable spirit of optimism amongst the farmers there. Moisture and weather conditions were good, while land in most places was in the best possible condition. More tractors were being put into operation than in any previous year. In some parts of the south country, however, there was a marked shortage of labor, but in the consideration of the country as a whole the labor outlook was bright.

Seeding operations were well under way in every part of Western Canada by the fifteenth of April. The practice of the farmers in that country is to commence as soon as the frost is out of the ground enough to allow the few inch seed bed to be worked up well. Beneath this the ground may still be frozen, but from this frost the young and tender wheat roots get the moisture at first so necessary to its existence. The warm days of spring and the long hours of sunlight that are ushered in with it thaw the frost out day by day and pay to the growing plant the moisture as it is needed. Nature's way of producing moisture to the young wheat plant is one of the chief reasons why Western Canada has become world famous as a wheat producing country. What may be said of wheat can as truly be said of oats and barley, and yes, in fact, corn too. Rapid and strong growth is stimulated in this manner. Heavy spring rains usually occur after seeding is over and the grain well above ground.

Already a report has been received, dated April 20, that a farmer near Cabri, Saskatchewan, had 180 acres of wheat showing above the ground.

A good, strong and sturdy wheat plant is necessary when it is expected that there will be produced a forty-bushel-to-the-acre crop of wheat of a quality that will weigh out its sixty-five pounds to the "measured" bushel.

These spring wheat conditions represent but one of the reasons why Western Canada has been able to produce, with so little effort, world's record grain crops, wheat and oats that have carried off all championship awards at America's largest expositions.

Western Canada has this spring shipped ten thousand bushels of Marquis wheat, the variety that holds most of the world's championships, to Australia, where it is to be tried out. Seventy-five thousand bushels of the same variety has been sent to France to be used for seed.

The wheat lands of Western Canada are probably the most undervalued of any on the continent.

A comparatively small acreage of Western Canada's lands has been sold as high as $60 an acre. The greater portion of the best farming land in its unimproved state may be purchased at $25 an acre. The comparison between these prices and an annual revenue derived from grain-growing alone, with big yields and present prices, cannot but more firmly impress one with the certainty of a rapid increase within the next few years.—Advertisement.

ITALIAN ENVOYS RETURN TO PARIS

Compromise on Fiume Seen as Orlando and Sonnino Rejoin Peace Conference.

TREATY BY THURSDAY

Announcement Made That Document Will Be Solemnly Handed to German Delegates That Day—New Port Proposed for Slavs.

Paris, May 6.—It is now certain, according to the French press, that the treaty of peace will be solemnly handed to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German foreign minister, by Premier Clemenceau at Versailles on Thursday afternoon.

Paris, May 6.—The Italian ambassador to France has informed Foreign Minister Stephen Pichon that Premier Vittorio Orlando and Foreign Minister Sidney Sonnino are leaving Rome and will arrive here early Wednesday.

The Big Three is considering a plan for making Fiume a free port under control of the League of Nations for a period of three years. While the Italians and Jugo-Slavs would thus enjoy equal commercial privileges in the disputed city during this period, work would be hurried on construction of another port for the Jugo-Slavs on the Dalmatian coast. At the expiration of three years, it is assumed Fiume would be formally annexed to Italy.

Italy's Consent Expected.

While this does not positively assure Italy's immediate resumption in her place in the peace conference, it is believed this will follow, in view of the apparent acceptable compromise formulated by the Big Three, together with the spirit of conciliation evinced by both the Italians and Allies in the last few days.

The Italians officially announced their temporary withdrawal from the peace conference April 23, following publication of a statement by President Wilson in which he declared that he would not consent to Italy having Fiume, inasmuch as such a concession would be in violation of the armistice terms and the 14 principles.

Orlando Backed by Parliament.

Returning to Rome, Orlando laid his case before the Italian parliament and was given a vote of confidence. Since that time unofficial reports have been received of overtures by both Italy and the Allies toward getting together on a common basis that would permit the Italians to come back to Paris in time for signing of the German peace treaty.

These negotiations were given additional impetus by the imminence of the arrival of the Austrian peace delegates, now unofficially reported to be set for May 12.

Italian at League Meeting.

Marquis Imperiali, Italian ambassador to Great Britain, was expected to attend the business meeting of the League of Nations.

A secret plenary session of the peace conference will take place, at which the complete German treaty will be discussed. The meeting is expected to be brief.

Credentials of the German peace delegates have been accepted. The German envoys are empowered to represent the entire country, including Bavaria, by a law enacted at Weimar, transferring all of the former kaiser's treaty making rights to the government. The Germans have also accepted the Allies' credentials, including those of the Jugo-Slavs.

3,000,000 IN GARDEN ARMY

May Day Enrollment Swells Total for Entire Country.

Washington, May 6.—May day enlistments in the United School Garden army brought the total number of children enrolled to nearly 3,000,000. In announcing the total membership, the bureau of education said it indicated that the 1919 goal of $100,000,000 of foodstuffs produced on 100,000 acres of otherwise unproductive land would be reached. Fifty thousand teachers, it was said, are directing the army of children gardeners.

Illinois leads in membership, it was said, with a total of 171,300 in 137 cities. State enrollments include: Ohio 149,000, Michigan 56,000, Wisconsin 30,756, and Kansas 40,000. The membership in the Philippines has reached 7,500.

Probably no man in America was ever better qualified to successfully treat the diseases peculiar to women than Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. The cases that come to him run into many thousands, giving him an experience that rarely comes to any one man. Dr. Pierce found that in nearly every case there were certain vegetable growths which rarely failed to give prompt relief in those feminine disorders from which so many women suffer. He combined these roots and herbs into a temperance medicine that he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is sold in both liquid and tablet form by druggists everywhere. A weakly, sickly, backachy, headachy, nervous, despondent woman, with regular or irregular pains—with feminine disorders that come in youth or middle age—is pretty sure to find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the exact remedy that her condition calls for.

UNSPOILED BY HIGH HONOR

Officers and Men Alike Recognize in General Pershing Qualities That Compel Their Affection.

"Why do we swear by Pershing?" countered a staff officer in Washington one day in response to a question. "Well, I guess it's because he's the real thing—a regular American, if you know what I mean.

"You can easily figure out the sort of man he is by the stories they tell of him. I was with him when he was on his way to Washington to receive his orders for France. On the way we passed through the town in which he lived when he was a boy. On the station platform was the same old negro porter Pershing had thrown stones at in his boyhood. The general chatted with the old man. Afterward I asked the porter what happened. He said:

"'He done wanted ter know all 'bout the folks he uster know, an' when he was gettin' on the car again he picked up a pebble as big as my thumb an' hove it at me, jes' like he uster when he was an ornery kid.'"

Aerial Hunt for Whales.

With his airplane equipped with a machine gun, an army lieutenant recently went out on a whale-hunting expedition. Flying at an altitude of about a thousand feet above the Pacific ocean, the airman saw his quarry about four miles out at sea, and swooped down before the great animal could submerge. A short round from the machine gun was sufficient, and a motorboat was soon on its way to pick up the carcass, which yielded the hunter a considerable profit.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Bullet Meets Bullet.

So many bullets flew through the air in both directions in large battles of the great war that some of them were bound to bump into each other. A pair of fighting bullets were picked up by an English soldier one day after he and his comrades had pushed the Germans back several hundred yards. In their perilous journey over No Man's land they struck barbed-wire entanglements with varied results.

WITH AN EYE TO THE FUTURE

Prima Donna Had Good Business Reasons for Asking for Slight Change in Contract.

Senator Lodge sounded the warning that the articles of the league of nations should be weighed carefully before being adopted. He asserted that too many ties might well jeopardize our future.

"Indeed," we may well follow the example of the prima donna who was reading a rough draft of her new contract.

"When she came to the paragraph providing that she should have transportation for herself and maid, her dog and Signor Gazibeni, her husband, she drew a line through the singer's name.

"'Just make that husband,' she said.

"'Yes, madam,' asserted the manager, 'but may I ask why?'

"The diva blushed and coyly fingered her hair. 'I might wish to make a change,' she answered."

Out of Order.

The village was all agog. Flossie Flatfeet was marrying William Giles. The church was crowded. Flossie, looking as pale as her somewhat highly colored countenance would allow, bore up until the plain band ring was safely on her finger, and then, overcome, burst into tears.

The villagers were touched, but not anxious. All girls cry at weddings.

Then suddenly William Giles screwed up his face and broke into howls. Tears poured down his face and dripped off his whiskers.

"What's up? Hush, man!" those nearest him urged. But Giles continued to howl, and at last burst out:

"Let me be! I feel wuss 'an 'er about it!"—London Tit-Bits.

STATE BREVITIES

Hibbing.—Hibbing is the first big village on the Mesaba range to go over the top in the Victory loan drive. The total amount subscribed here is $689,000.

St. Paul.—Victory Loan subscriptions totaling $3,600 were reported by officials on the staff of the St. Cloud state reformatory. Inmates of the institution were not canvassed.

Red Lake Falls.—The First Presbyterian church here has received the banner awarded it by Adams Presbytery in recognition of its being the first church in northwestern Minnesota to raise the budget assigned to it in the New Era campaign, recently conducted by the church.

St. Paul.—Minnesota began May business with $8,450,725 in its cash box, according to Henry Rines, state treasurer. Funds holding more than $500,000, were the revenue fund with $5,818,669, the road and bridge fund with $839,164, and the forest fire relief fund with $538,832.

Pipestone.—Pipestone's paving program for this year is to go forward immediately. The city council has let the contract for the work to the Campbell Construction company of Minneapolis. The price of $2.10 a square yard was quoted. More than two miles of paving will be laid this season.

Fairmont.—Herbert Brie took his car to a garage, bought two new tires, a new battery and other fixtures for the 1919 season, the bill amounting to $99. The next day he found that thieves had stolen the machine. A Minneapolis paper stamped with a railway news agent's mark indicated that the robbers had come from the twin cities.

Duluth.—J. A. Todd, former board of trade member and well known in financial circles in the Northwest, has been named as defendant in a $30,000 suit brought by Claire Luhn, a clerk in a local store, for alleged breach of promise. On April 24, 1918, the complainant alleges, Todd promised to marry her, but failed to carry out his agreement.

St. Paul.—The State Board of Investment has voted to invest $500,000 in state trust funds in the Victory Loan, and to ask for bids on $500,000 Massachusetts state bonds now held for the same funds. Applications from schools and cities for loans aggregating $470,000 were approved and early payments were ordered on previously authorized loans of $42,200.

Faribault.—Beginning this week all city employes who desired to continue in their official position climbed on the old water wagon. The new city administration issued sweeping orders declaring that no person who is not "on the wagon" may be employed by the city. Some employes have inquired into the possibility of the ban being removed just for one day, June 30th.

Wykoff.—Case M. Allen, local banker, is reported to be dying at his home here as a result of having been struck twice by the same automobile, driven by a woman. Mr. Allen took a short cut across the main street. The automobile rounded a corner and struck him squarely. He fell heavily, but was apparently not seriously hurt. In the act of arising, however, he was struck again, the woman evidently in her excitement losing control of the car.

Duluth.—A second John Dietz case has developed at Floodwood. George H. Kramer, a settler, is alleged to have shot and seriously wounded James Ryan, one of a crew of drivers attempting to run logs through land owned by Kramer. Ryan was hit three times, once in the wrist, again in the arm and through the body. He is in a Duluth Hospital. Kramer was arrested and brought to this city. Other settlers are reported to be offering resistance.

St. Paul.—Some $10,000,000 of negotiable securities and other tangible evidences of the state's great wealth, now scattered in safety deposit boxes in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth banks, soon will be rounded up and placed in a new safety deposit vault to be built in the treasury department offices in the capitol, Henry Rines, state treasurer, announced. A fund of $25,000 for the new safety deposit vault was provided by the 1919 legislature and the building contract is to be awarded soon by the state board of control.

St. Paul.—Funds totalling $128,350, appropriated by the 1919 Legislature for immediate relief, compensation and refundments have been paid out by Henry Rines, state treasurer. Dependents of guardsmen dying from injuries or sickness suffered in the forest fire zone and others who died in state service will receive $40,410. Compensation voted those injured in state service aggregated $27,057. Reimbursements of $35,472 and refundments of $25,411, to cover overpayments and funds advanced the state, made up the total.

Virginia.—John Severon is showing his friends a pot of gold which fell at his feet out of a foundation near Chandlerville. Severon bought the old Robert Morgan estate north of Chandlerville recently. He was sounding the stone underpinning of the house, built before the Civil War, recently. He dislodged an ancient kettle and it contained 140 $20 gold pieces.

Duluth.—Alfred Jaques, of this city, United States district attorney for Minnesota, has received a parchment signed by President Wilson, reappointing him to his position for four years.

Indigestion, Gas and Bloat From Acid-Stomach

An acid-stomach cannot digest food properly. Instead, the food sours and ferments and, passing into the intestines, becomes a breeding place for countless millions of deadly germs—toxic poisons they are called. These poisons are absorbed into the system and cause untold misery. So, you see, it is just acid-stomach, nothing else—that makes so many people weak, listless and unfit; saps their strength and energy; robs them of their vigor and vitality. Biliousness, bad liver, nervousness, blinding, splitting headaches, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica—these and many other still more serious ailments often are traced to the common source—an acid-stomach.

Take EATONIC and get rid quickly of the pains of indigestion, heartburn, that horrible, lumpy, bloated feeling after eating; disgusting, belching, food-repeating; sour, gassy stomach. These stomach miseries are caused by what doctors call "Hyperacidity." It's just ACID-STOMACH. And in addition to the pains and miseries it causes, ACID-STOMACH is the starter of a long train of ailments that most people never dreamed are in any way connected with the stomach.

Pleasant tasting EATONIC TABLETS that you eat like a bit of candy, quickly put an end to your stomach troubles. They act as an absorbent—literally wipe up the excess hurtful acid and make the stomach pure, sweet and strong. Help digestion so that you get all the power and energy from your food. You cannot be well without it!

If you are one of those who have "tried everything" but in spite of it still suffer all kinds of acid-stomach miseries—if you lack physical and mental strength and vigor—begin at once to take EATONIC. Get back your physical and mental punch and enjoy the good things of life. Like thousands of others you will say you never dreamed that such amazingly quick relief and such a remarkable improvement in your general health was possible.

Your druggist has EATONIC. We authorize him to guarantee it to give you instant relief or refund your money. Get a big box of EATONIC today, it costs but little and the results are wonderful!

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. Crumling, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. Elise Heim, R. No. 6, Box 83, Lowell, Mich.

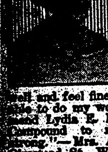
WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.



Winona, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night—would lie awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around and in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—Mrs. ALBERT SULTZE, 603 Olmstead St., Winona, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep," or, "it seems as though I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sultze's experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

ENVOYS CONFER; HOPE TO AGREE

Colonel House and Sonnino Trying to Settle Muddle Over Fiume Question.

COUNCIL OF FOUR BUSY

Considering Replies to Third and Fourth Notes From Germans—Preparing for Arrival of Austrian Peace Delegates.

Paris, May 13.—Baron Sidney Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister, had a conference with Colonel E. M. House of the American peace delegation. The conferees went over the Italian situation with a view of reaching a basis of adjustment before the Austrians arrived.

The conference took place at a luncheon at which Colonel House was the Italian diplomat's guest.

The Council of Four of the peace conference took up consideration of the replies to be made to the latest German notes, those regarding labor matters and prisoners of war.

The council decided to refer the German notes on labor and war prisoners to experts for consideration instead of answering them at once as it did with the first two communications from the German delegation.

Allied Armies to Parade Paris.

A triumphal march of the Allied armies through Paris will take place June 6, according to the present understanding.

Work is being hastened on the quarters at St. Germain, where the palace of Francis I is being put in order for the reception of the Austrian peace delegates. Used for years as a museum, it contains a wonderful collection of Gallic relics ranging from prehistoric times to the era of the Gallic kings.

To Present Terms in Palace.

It is planned that the presentation of the peace terms will take place in the most beautiful apartment of the old palace, which is located on the first floor and approached by a grand staircase, the walls of which are emblazoned with royal devices.

Two groups of nearby villas have been requisitioned for the Austrian and Hungarian delegates. It is purposed to conduct the negotiations separately, but if possible they will be carried on simultaneously.

Rantzau Writes Two Notes.

Two additional notes were filed with the French foreign office by Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the enemy delegation. The first stated that Germany already has many of the reforms contained in the labor section of the treaty and proposed that an international law conference be called in Versailles at once to revise this article.

The second asked that the 400,000 German war prisoners who are to be repatriated be guaranteed adequate food and clothing.

Couriers Sent to Berlin.

Couriers are rushing back and forth between Versailles and Berlin like shuttlecocks, keeping the German government posted on progress of the official translation of the treaty and whatever information is gathered by the delegates.

NAVY PLANES WAIT JUMP-OFF

Weather Conditions in Mid-Ocean Are Rough, Delaying Start.

Aboard the U. S. S. Prairie, Trepassey, N. F., May 13.—Commander J. H. Towers awaited information as to the probable time of arrival of the seaplane NC4 before giving orders for the start of the attempted trans-Atlantic flight. The NC1 and the NC3 are ready to go, but the NC4 was delayed at Chatham, Mass., by engine trouble. Towers suggested that Lieutenant Commander Read of the NC4 make a nonstop flight from Chatham to Trepassey so as to arrive in time for the getaway.

Weather conditions in midocean are rough, according to latest reports; there is a northwesterly wind. Rain is expected along this coast.

TAKE WHAT BELONGS TO YOU

Urged by Radicals at I. W. W. Mass Meeting in Chicago.

Chicago, May 13.—"Organize, march on and take what belongs to you," was the advice given at a radical mass meeting staged by the national convention of the I. W. W. here. Roberta Bruner pleaded for an organization to help the unemployed and gain the freedom of imprisoned radicals. Police of Gary and Hammond, Ind., put a quietus on demonstrations planned in those places. A mass meeting in Hammond was broken up by a force of armed officers, while three radicals were arrested in Gary and the others dispersed.

Foe Helmets Used to Sell Bonds.

El Paso, Texas, May 13.—German helmets which were made for the anticipated grand goose-step entry into Paris are worth from $2,000 to $2,500 on the local market. Each night when the Victory Loan mass meeting was held in the Plaza, the sales manager offered at auction one of these helmets to the person buying the greatest amount of Victory bonds. The first night a helmet was offered at auction it brought $2,000 in bonds. The second night the price was raised to $2,500 worth of bonds.

Delegates and pastors voted to appoint a commission of twenty-five to superintend the raising of $140,000 during the year as a fund to handle various conference activities. Duggan retained his senses sufficient to yell for help and then collapsed. The men were arrested.

Crookston.—After returning to his farm home near Girard following a visit to Crookston, Fred Layton found six sets of harness valued at $500 cut to ribbons. Although having no knowledge of any enemies who would attempt such a trick Layton believes the act was committed by some one who has been nursing a grudge against him for some time.

Bagley.—F. A. Simpson, deputy state fire marshal, was here to sell two buildings condemned and ordered destroyed by Judge C. W. Stanton.

Two Harbors.—John Lindquist, single, 34, living at Maple, northwest of here, was found dead underneath his auto at the bottom of a road embankment by Andrew Sonju of Finland. The body was brought here. Minneapolis.—Of four Johnson brothers—two sets of twins—who went to the war from Bemidji, three were killed in battle. The fourth, George Johnson, was held in this country and served a year with the One Hundred and Thirteenth engineers in the spruce division in Washington state. He will then retire from the state office to manage a St. Paul concern manufacturing a portable power saw.

Cass Lake.—A hotel in which guests will register their names and addresses upon the wall is the novel affair promised here by W. C. Northway, formerly of Los Angeles, who proposes to erect the structure fronting on the Mississippi Scenic and Roosevelt Memorial highways and three blocks from the Mississippi Valley scenic highway from New Orleans [illegible], Minn. He will call it the Autograph hotel. The novel manner of registering guests was started by Mr. Northway in a similar venture elsewhere, when for fifteen years he had all people stopping with him write their names on the walls. This unique autograph collection will decorate the walls of his proposed hostelry here, as will a large pen drawing thirty feet square.

Marshall.—Carl R. Swanson, a farmer residing near here, will spend the next six months in the Lyon county jail as a result of having been found guilty of using the mails to defraud. Last spring, when the farmers of this section were looking everywhere for good seed corn, Swanson inserted advertisements in many newspapers throughout the Northwest offering for sale seed which he guaranteed would test 96 per cent or better. In a very short time he received a great number of orders, but the farmers, upon testing the corn, found that it did not run better than 20 per cent. Complaint was made to the Federal authorities and Swanson was taken into custody and his trial took place a few days ago.

Virginia.—The board of education has hired the first of the teachers for the new vocational school to be opened next fall. In all, seven were engaged. More will be hired later. Plans for looking after pupils who did not keep up to their classes were also discussed.

WHEN BUYING ASPIRIN ALWAYS SAY "BAYER"

Ask for "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in a Bayer package—marked with "Bayer Cross."

Don't buy Aspirin tablets in a pill box. Insist on getting the Bayer package with the safety "Bayer Cross" on both package and on tablets. No other way!

You must say "Bayer." Never ask for merely Aspirin tablets. The name "Bayer" means you are getting the genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," proven safe by millions of people.

Beware of counterfeits! Only recently a Brooklyn manufacturer was sent to the penitentiary for flooding the country with talcum powder tablets, which he claimed to be Aspirin.

In the Bayer package are proper directions and the dose for Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Colds, Grippe, Influenzal-Colds, Neuritis and pain generally.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," American made and owned, are sold in vest pocket boxes of 12 tablets, which cost only a few cents, also in bottles of 24 and bottles of 100—also capsules. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

Danger in Abbreviation.

Even the school nurse has her fun. In a talk before the central philanthropic council the other day, Miss Helen R. Stewart of the board of health told of one little boy, who, after he had been examined by the nurse, went to the teacher in tears, complaining that the nurse called him names.

When the teacher expressed her surprise, the boy sought to prove his case by handing her the card the nurse had given to him as her record of the examination.

"Look at that!" he cried.

"Poor nut," read the card.

"Poor nutrition," explained the teacher, finally sending the child away with a better opinion of the nurse.—Dallas News.

Von Tirpitz a Pauper.

The Tribune de Geneve is informed that Grand Admiral von Tirpitz is staying at Wildegg, Switzerland, as the guest of Lieut.-Colonel Wille, son of the former commander-in-chief of the Swiss army.

Tirpitz has lost all his fortune. His son is a clerk in a bank at Zurich, and his daughter is a governess in a Zurich family.

To avoid paying the German war tax of 1918 Tirpitz invested his money in Italian securities, with the result that he is now penniless. What a patriot!

Information Needs Confirmation.

"Old Dursey Dudgeon prides himself on knowing where the conflagration is as soon as he hears the fire-bell ring," related the landlord of the Petunia tavern.

"By the time half a dozen whangs have changed he has scrabbled into a garment or two and is out on his front porch, hollering to the people running by just where he knows the fire is."

"He should be of considerable assistance to the volunteer firemen and others in sending them in the proper direction," commented the interested guest.

"Yes, pa."

"The dictionary says a euphemism is 'a figure of speech by which a word or phrase more agreeable or less offensive is substituted for one more accurately expressive of what is meant,' as in the case of the society reporter who states that a widow who has been married three or four times is led to the altar by a wealthy old codger who never had the slightest notion of getting married until he faced the preacher."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Flow of Meat

Two-thirds of the live stock in the United States has to be raised in the West.

One-half of the consumers of meat live in the East.

In other words, most of the live stock is one or two thousand miles distant from most of the people who need it in the form of food.

Fifty years ago, when live stock was raised close to every consuming center, the country butcher could handle the job after a fashion.

But the job got too big.

Now millions of animals have to be moved hundreds of miles to millions of people. Somewhere on the way they have to be turned into meat.

The packers solved the problem. They set up plants where the "live haul" and the "meat haul" were in the right balance. They built up distributing systems—refrigerator cars, refrigerating plants, branch houses. They saved time, money and meat everywhere. The stockraiser benefited in better markets and higher prices; the consumer, in better meat and lower prices.

As the country grew, the packers had to grow, or break down. Because of its present size and efficiency, Swift & Company is able to perform its part in this service at a fraction of a cent per pound profit.

PEACE TREATY GIVEN GERMAN

Pact Handed to Enemy Envoys at Versailles.

SHORN OF MILITARY POWER

Enemy Must Pay $5,000,000,000 as Initial Payment for Damages; Return Alsace-Lorraine and Agree to Trial of Former Kaiser.

Paris, May 8.—Following is the official brief summary of the peace treaty as presented to the German plenipotentiaries at a memorable assemblage at Versailles on Wednesday afternoon, attended by the delegates of the twenty-seven nations which are parties to the peace pact:

Following the preamble and deposition of powers comes the covenant of the league of nations as the first section of the treaty.

The frontiers of Germany in Europe are defined in the second section; European political classes given in the third; European political classes in the fourth.

Next are the military, naval and air terms as the fifth section, followed by a section on prisoners of war and military graves and a seventh on responsibilities.

Alsace-Lorraine Restored.

Germany, by the terms of the treaty, restores Alsace-Lorraine to France, accepts the internationalization of the Sarre Basin temporarily and of Danzig permanently, agrees to territorial changes toward Belgium and Denmark and in East Prussia, cedes most of upper Silesia to Poland, and renounces all territorial and political rights outside Europe, as to her own or her allies' territories, and especially to Morocco, Egypt, Siam, Liberia and Shantung.

She also recognizes the total independence of German-Austria, Czecho-Slovakia and Poland.

Her army is reduced to 100,000 men, including officers.

Conscription within her territories is abolished.

All forts 50 kilometers east of the Rhine are to be razed.

German Navy Is Reduced.

Allied occupation of parts of Germany will continue till reparation is made, but will be reduced at the end of each of three five-year periods if Germany is fulfilling her obligations.

Any violation by Germany of the conditions as to the zone 50 kilometers east of the Rhine will be regarded as an act of war.

The German navy is reduced to six battleships, six light cruisers and twelve torpedo boats, without submarines, and a personnel of not over 15,000.

All other vessels must be surrendered or destroyed.

Germany is forbidden to build forts controlling the Baltic, must demolish Heligoland, open the Kiel canal to all nations and surrender her fourteen submarine cables.

She may have no military or naval air forces except 100 unarmed seaplanes until October 1 to detect mines.

Responsible for All Damage.

Germany may manufacture aviation material for only six months.

Germany accepts full responsibility for all damages caused to allied and associated governments and nationals, agrees specifically to reimburse all civilian damages beginning with an initial payment of 20,000,000,000 marks, subsequent payments to be secured by bonds to be issued at the discretion of the reparation commission.

Germany is to pay shipping damage on a ton-for-ton basis by cession of a large part of her merchant, coasting and river fleets and by new construction, and to devote her economic resources to the rebuilding of devastated regions.

Germany agrees to return to the 1914 most-favored-nation tariffs without discrimination of any sort; to allow allied and associated nationals freedom of transit through her territories, and to accept highly detailed provisions as pre-war debts, unfair competition, internationalization of roads and rivers, and other economic and financial clauses.

She also agrees to the trial of the ex-kaiser by an international high court for a supreme offense against international morality and of other nationals for violation of the laws and customs of war, Holland to be asked to extradite the former and Germany being responsible for delivering the latter.

The league of nations is accepted by the allied and associated powers as operative, and by Germany in principle, but without membership.

Similarly an international labor body is brought into being with a permanent office and an annual convention.

Still Talk of Special Pledge.

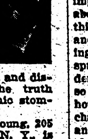
Paris.—The revival of the story that some special pledge of security to France is to be made by Great Britain and the United States is due, probably, to an utterance of Marshal Foch. What element of truth there is in it should be disclosed soon.

Denial was made from Washington, when the story of a Franco-British-American treaty was first published, that the United States contemplated any arrangement of the sort. The Echo de Paris is responsible for giving new currency to the rumor.

SAVED BY A FAITHFUL WIFE

Suffered Thirty Years With Stomach Trouble and Hemorrhages of the Bowels.

The Story of a Wonderful Recovery



There is hardly any one who does not experience some trouble with the stomach. It is so common that we frequently pay little or no attention to it. Yet, the stomach is very easily upset, and catarrhal inflammation of the mucous lining develops, grows worse—the pain and distress is incessant and the truth dawns that we have chronic stomach trouble.

The case of Mr. Louis Young, 205 Merrimac St., Rochester, N. Y., is typical. He writes: "I suffered for thirty years with chronic bowel trouble, stomach trouble and hemorrhages of the bowels. We bought a bottle of Peruna and I took it faithfully. I began to feel better. My wife persuaded me to continue and I did for some time as directed. Now I am a well man." Mr. Young's experience is not unusual.

If you suffer from catarrh in any form, whether of the head, stomach, bowels or any other part of the body, try Peruna. It may be just what you need. Peruna comes in either liquid or tablet form and is sold everywhere. Your dealer has it or will get it for you. Ask for Dr. Hartman's World-Famous Peruna Tonic and insist upon having it. If you want your health accept nothing else.

All the sick and suffering are invited to write The Peruna Company, Dept. 78, Columbus, Ohio, for Dr. Hartman's Health Book. The book is free and may help you. Ask your dealer for a Peruna Almanac.

Proper Procedure.

Back Lame and Achy?

There's little peace when your kidneys are weak and while at first there may be nothing more serious than dull backache, sharp, stabbing pains, headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities, you must act quickly to avoid the more serious trouble, dropsy, gravel, heart disease, Bright's disease. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that is so warmly recommended everywhere by grateful users.

The pains through my back and limbs were so terrible I had to give up work. At times I had dizzy spells and was miserable. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they took hold better than any of the other remedies I had tried and the trouble disappeared. Now my back is stronger and better than in years before."

YIELD BIG CROPS

Grain Seeds From Western Canada Do Well in Ohio.

Demand for Them Is Bound to Add Value to the Land of Our Northern Neighbor, Now to Be Had Cheap.

A large area of the land in several counties in Ohio prepared for spring seeding will be seeded with Marquis wheat—a spring variety. This wheat is imported from Western Canada. It was about three years ago that the first of this seed was imported into the States, and the result, watched each succeeding year, proved that Ohio soil and spring seeding was a success. The demand for the seed has now become so great that one of the largest seed houses in the state, that has been purchasing from Western Canada farmers and importing it, has decided to purchase a large block of land in that country for the purpose of growing the grain themselves. They will devote a considerable portion of their Western Canada holdings to growing oats, barley and rye. Their action is a strong indorsement of the product. For some time past a considerable quantity of seed oats has also been imported. The prolific yield reported was what probably gave an impetus to the introduction of wheat.

It was found, though, after a couple of years the quality of the oats, as well as the yield, began to deteriorate when grown seed was used, making it necessary for fresh importations every couple of years. It is possible that the same experience may follow the growing of Western Canada wheat. In fact it is quite probable, and the Ohio farmer will find it necessary to import every two years.

With the success that has followed the Ohio farmers' experiments with this imported seed it is possible other states now growing winter wheat will begin growing spring wheat. It may therefore be taken for granted that Western Canada, in addition to its ability to produce hundreds of millions of bushels of wheat possessing the greatest percentage of gluten of any wheat in the world, will shortly be called upon to provide the seed that will be grown on the additional acres in the United States that may be devoted to spring wheat.

It is a well-established fact that the further north any product of the farm can be brought to a state of maturity, the more vigorous it becomes. This has been proven in the grains that have been produced in Western Canada; it has been shown in the development of its horses, its cattle, its sheep and its hogs; also in its people. The neighbor to the north really has a splendid future before him, and many years will not have passed before the lands that are selling today at much less than their producing value will bring prices more commensurate with their true worth than they do today. Think of lands that yield in their operation a profit of from fifteen to twenty-five dollars an acre a year, selling at figures less than $40 an acre. It does not require a mathematician to figure the percentage of profit. It is unfair to these lands to ask them to continue these profits for long. So it is safe to make the prediction that in a very few years they will place themselves on a parity with other lands that today produce less and sell for much more.—Advertisement.

Appropriate Food.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

Now Is the Time to Buy a Farm in Good Old U.S.A.

Although the war is over, the demand for food continues. The business of producing things to eat, therefore, gives promise of paying satisfactory dividends.

The U. S. RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION offers the co-operation of its HOMESEEKERS' BUREAU to those who wish to engage in farming, stock-raising, dairying, poultry raising, fruit growing, and kindred pursuits. Free information will be furnished about farm opportunities in any State on request.

Write today. Give me the name of the State you want information about; say what line of farm activity you wish to follow, and the number of acres you will need, and let me know what kind of terms you desire. The more particulars you can send regarding your requirements, the better I can serve you.

Nothing to Sell. Only Information to Give.

The house fly is one of the most dangerous of human pests. It multiplys by the million and every fly becomes a spreader of dangerous disease germs, says Dr. W. A. Riley, head of the entomology division of the Minnesota college of agriculture. The only thing to do, therefore, is to fight the fly in season and out of season by keeping the premises clean, destroying breeding places, screening houses to keep the flies out, and swatting the flies that get inside. Community co-operation in fly fighting is one of the best moves toward public health.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

Make This Test For Acid-Stomach

There are millions of people who suffer almost daily from the horrors of an acid-stomach—indigestion; sour, gassy, stomach; distressing heartburn; sickening food-repeating; painful bloat and that miserable, puffed up, lumpy feeling after eating. Many of these people have tried treatment after treatment; medicine after medicine; others have gone to doctors and stomach specialists and some to hospitals, but in spite of all of their efforts they have obtained no lasting relief or a permanent cure.

These symptoms simply mean acid-stomach. If allowed to run on, they are very likely to cause a lot of serious trouble. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sciatica, splitting headache, dizzy spells, nervousness, sleeplessness, mental depression, melancholia, a feeling of listlessness and all-goneness—these are just a few of the disorders which can be traced to acid-stomach. As a matter of fact, acid-stomach is often the direct cause of those almost incurable conditions known as catarrh of the stomach, intestinal ulcer, and cancer of the stomach. The lives of those who suffer from these serious troubles are nothing short of daily agony. Surely, then, you must see how important it is to go at once to the seat of the trouble—acid-stomach. You know what acid-mouth does to the teeth—how it eats right through the hard enamel and causes them to decay. Think then of the havoc that must be caused by excess acid in the stomach!

Even if you are not suffering any immediate stomach pains, but are not feeling just as fit and fine as you should, you should by all means make this test: Go to your drug store at once and get a big box of EATONIC. It is in the form of pleasant-tasting tablets—you eat them like a bit of candy. EATONIC is prepared for just one purpose—correcting acid-stomach by driving out the excess acid. EATONIC literally absorbs the excess acid. It brings instant relief from the pains of indigestion, heartburn, belching, sour, gassy stomach, bloat, etc. It makes the stomach pure, sweet, cool and comfortable, puts it in a normal, healthy condition, so that your food is properly digested. You need every bit of strength you can possibly get out of the food you eat—and EATONIC helps you get it.

Don't put this test off if you value your future good health and happiness. You run no chance at all because EATONIC is absolutely guaranteed to give you relief or your druggist will refund your money. The cost is a mere trifle.

Proposals will be opened on the contract for a $75,000 building for employes at the Faribault State School for Feeble Minded, and on contracts for similar buildings to cost $50,000 each at St. Peter and Hastings State Institutions for the Insane.

St. Paul.—Contracts for the erection of a new building for employees at the Faribault state school for feeble-minded, probably will be awarded soon on bids opened by the state board of control. The lowest bids in each class total $63,608. The preliminary fees, superintendence and other items, was $75,000, a sum provided by the last legislature. The building is made necessary, board members said, by the new law fixing an eight-hour day in state institutions.

The resignation followed his acceptance of a commission as surgeon in the Reserve corps of the United States Public Health service. Cox, state forester, announced, following additions of 35 men to the organization. The majority of the men are qualified as deputy scalers of logs and lumber under M. J. Thornton, as well as forest rangers, Mr. Cox said. The federal forestry department is continuing assistance to the state by furnishing the services of rangers and sharing in the expense of the prevention and other work.

St. Paul.—Declaring that no adequate public demand was to be found, the State Securities commission denied applications for charters to the Farmers' State bank of Adrian, represented by Nick Schultz, and to the Kandiyohi State bank, represented by P. M. Burns.

St. Paul.—Fifty-two cases of influenza in Minnesota were reported to the State Board of Health last week, an increase of 42 over the previous week. The increase is attributed to an outbreak of the malady at Brook Park, Pine county, where more than half of the 42 cases are quarantined.

Crookston.—Knights of Columbus Council No. 1216, at regular meeting decided to invest $500 in the Fifth Liberty loan.

Marshall.—Fifty employes of the Marshall flour mill went on strike because of the refusal of the company to meet the demands of newly organized union men for increase in wages.

Theodore Quale's contention that he is entitled to pay for services in the latter capacity in spite of having assumed the post of county attorney on Jan. 4 is therefore denied.

Embarrass—Rain fell and put out small brush and slashing fires in this district as it did on the Hinsdale Ridge, in the Dinka river district. The fire at the latter place burned over several tracts of already burned lands, but was boxed and kept out of good timber, according to reports received here. Fire fighters had the Dinka blaze under control and the rain finished it.

Sandstone.—Messrs. Hawley, Pearson and Dean of the local Boosters' club have been delegated to wait on officials of the Great Northern Railway company, owning the Kettle River Quarry company, here, and ascertain under what terms the plant can be leased to local interests so that it can be reopened, as it is feared the industry will never be worked again, plans being afoot for dismantling it.

Keeping It Up.

A maid servant applied for a week-end off, as her home was distant, for the purpose of being at home on her parents' silver wedding day.

The leave was granted, and the maid returned.

"Well," said her mistress, "did everything go off satisfactory?"

"Oh, yes, thank you, ma'am," said the girl, "and mother told me to say she is very grateful to you for letting me off."

"And what did your father say?" asked the lady.

"Oh, lor! ma'am," replied the girl, "he wasn't there. He's been dead this 20 years."

That Friend!

"Mother doesn't think she'll go to the theater with us tonight, Albert."

"Is that so? I have got three tickets. What shall I do with the third one?"

"Give it to the man you always go out to see between the acts. He can sit with us and you won't have to go out and see him."

Complimentary to Him.

He—But I asked you, dearest, to keep our engagement a secret for the present.

She—I couldn't help it. That hateful Miss Oldum said the reason I wasn't married was because no fool had proposed to me, so I up and told her you had.—Brooklyn Citizen.

Mystery Explained.

He stood amid the blaze and splendor of his magnificent mansion, and in his hand he held the portrait of a beautiful woman. His face was pale and haggard, and his lips moved convulsively.

What was this mystery. Was this the picture of his departed wife?

No.

Was it the portrait of his dead but dearly remembered daughter.

No.

What, then, was the cause of his haggard face?

Was it not the same portrait that two minutes ago had fallen from its nail, and raised a lump as big as a hen's egg on his head?

It was.

A Diagnosis.

"Oh, doctor," said a worried looking agrarian, "My wife is in an awful condition! From a medium fat woman she has been reduced to skin and bones. She talks incessantly in a loud squawking voice, begins a sentence and never finishes it, and jumps from subject to subject without uttering anything that has the least sense to it."

"H'm! I see!" returned the physician. "Go home, Mr. Gabbleby, and take out your party line telephone at once. Your wife has been listening in on it too much."—Kansas City Star.

Bobby was entertaining the air pilot who was waiting to see his sister.

MERELY PIECE OF FOOLING

Course Taken by Germany Resembles Closely Neat Trick That Is Credited to Sheridan.

"The Germans, by fooling us with German bolshevism, hoped to escape the payment of war indemnities," said a congressman.

"It reminds me of a story about Sheridan, the spendthrift playwright.

"Gunter, the confectioner, left his statement with Sheridan one morning, and a few hours later Hanson, the ironmonger, called.

"Hanson was very pressing on the subject of his account. He harangued and he harangued. Sheridan, broke, as usual, paced the floor in despair.

"But suddenly an idea struck the spendthrift and he said:

"'You know Gunter?'

"'Then you will be satisfied if I give you his bill for the amount?'

"'Certainly.'

"Sheridan thereupon handed the ironmonger Gunter's neatly folded account, snatched up his hat and rushed forth."

"That so?"

Suffered for Years

Miserable From Kidney Trouble. Doan's Made Mr. Barnett Strong and Well.

"I suffered untold agony with my kidneys for years," says John Barnett, 30 Virginia Place, Buffalo, N. Y. "Sometimes I felt that I would burn up with fever, but every now and then would have a severe chill. Often my clothes were wringing wet with perspiration. The kidney secretions were unnatural in color and odor and burned terribly. At night my shoes were so tight on my feet that I could hardly get them off and my hands swelled so I couldn't hold a teacup. My back! Oh, how it ached! I walked with two canes and was all bent over like an aged man. When the terrible pains shot through my kidneys, my knees would give way and many times I had to be lifted to my feet by people on the street. I didn't care whether I lived or died, I was so miserable. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of all kidney trouble. Doan's made me strong and well."

Well Meant, No Doubt.

"Ah, friends," said the minister to a little group after the service, "ours is a constant fight with the devil. We find him hard to overcome. His resistance is stubborn, but persistence will finally win."

"Indeed, it is well, Brother Gooden True," rejoined a sister of the flock, "but it took a whole hour of coaxing this morning to get him to come to church."

LOOKED LIKE LABOR WASTED

Board's Visit Over, Small Boy Couldn't See Further Necessity for So Much Soap antd Water.

He was a new little boy at the orphanage and was much impressed by all the scrubbing and cleaning he saw done there, more so because he had come from a home in which disorder and dirt had held sway. He could not understand it; more than that, it irritated him, and when he got the job of scrubbing the dining-room steps he was almost ready to leave.

But just then came a new excitement to the home. The board was coming to make its annual tour of inspection, and the cleaning was doubled. "Get ready for the board," was the home watchword, it seemed, and he, being very human, decided to stay until that big event was over.

The day of visiting came and passed. The next morning the new youngster sought the matron. "Now that them boards has been here, I don't see no use of scrubbing them steps so often—do you?" he asked.

SEAPLANE NC3 AND CREW SAFE

Located Seven Miles North of Ponto del Gada Under Its Own Power.

HAWKER NEAR IRELAND

Unofficial Word Says Australian Flier Has Been Sighted Off Coast—NC1 Is Definitely Out of Flight Owing to Damage.

Washington, May 20.—The NC3 has been located seven miles north of Ponta del Gada under its own power.

Washington, May 20. — A message from Ponta del Gada said the NC1 was definitely out of the race because of damage and that the NC4 would proceed to Lisbon and Plymouth.

An earlier report was that the NC4, which is at Horta, Azores, has been ordered to aid in the search for the NC3, Commander John Towers' flagship, missing more than 60 hours.

The NC4 was tuning up preparatory to its flight to Ponta del Gada.

An official report to the department from Trepassey Bay said Commander John Towers had discarded the radio telephone installation of the NC3 before leaving Newfoundland so as to reduce weight. The plane retained, however, the long distance radio set and should have been able to communicate the fact that it was landing and probably to continue radio communication for a limited distance after it was on the surface.

Secretary Josephus Daniels expressed confidence that Commander Towers and his ship would be found, but many naval officers made no effort to conceal their anxiety for the safety of the flight commander and the four men with him.

Hawker Nearing Ireland.

London, May 20.—Harry G. Hawker, in his airplane, has been sighted off Ireland, according to an unofficial report received by American Navy here.

The manager of the Sopwith Airplane company received a report at 5 p. m. that Aviator Hawker was 150 miles off Ireland at 4 p. m.

The British air ministry had received no news of the whereabouts of Hawker, who jumped off from Newfoundland in a Sopwith airplane, for the nonstop jump of nearly 2,200 miles over the ocean.

Many rumors concerning Hawker's flight were circulated here. One report had it that he had been sighted 400 miles off the Irish coast. Another report was that the British airman had been seen off the Irish coast at 2:30 p. m.

A map shop in Fleet street was showing a chart purporting to give Hawker's position at 4:30 a. m., at about longitude 32, latitude 52. There was no confirmation of this report, however, from any other source.

Anxiety over Hawker's safety is increasing in official circles.

DECLARES WAR ON RUMANIA

Moscow Says Bolshevik Troops Cross Dneister River.

London, May 20.—Owing to Rumania's disregard of the ultimatum from the Russian soviet government, demanding an evacuation of Bessarabia, a state of war exists between Russia and Rumania, according to a wireless dispatch from Moscow. Bolshevik troops have crossed the Dneister river in the Tiraspol district, where they have defeated the Rumanians and occupied Tchegrutchi and Bender, the dispatch says. Tiraspol is situated on the Dneister river, 53 miles northwest of Odessa. Bender is on the west side of the Dneister and 58 miles from Odessa.

MAY SETTLE WINNIPEG STRIKE

Officials and Merchants Make Proposition to Unions.

Winnipeg, May 20.—Draft of a plan for the settlement of the general strike here will be submitted to the unions at once, it is expected. The plan, it is said, was worked out at meetings of officials, professional men and merchants which were attended by men friendly to the unions.

The plan embraces a compromise of some of the leading demands of the unions on strike. Adjustment of other issues involved in the dispute would be attempted after the men returned to their jobs, it was stated.

New Auto Road Planned.

Washington, May 20.—Secretary Lane announced plans for establishing an automobile line from Denver, Col., through Rocky Mountain, Yellowstone and Glacier National parks, by way of Boulder and Loveland, Col., Cheyenne, Douglas, Caspar, Thermopolis and Cody, Wyoming, and Livingston, Bozeman, Boulder, Townsend, Helena, and Choteau, Montana. Secretary Lane said improved road conditions would make it possible to change the route so as to include several other important cities.

Are You Waiting for Prices to Come Down?

1866
CURTIS
WOODWORK
"The Permanent Furniture for Your Home"

ABOUT 320,000 houses are built each normal year in this country.

Last year home-building was at a standstill, for patriotic reasons.

The year before that and the year before that, home-building was below normal because "prices were too high." As a result, there is a shortage in this country of about 700,000 houses!

Consequently, there is a "hungry market" for building materials. General Demand is about to launch a campaign for home-building. What will General Supply do? What effect will a big demand have on prices? You can draw your own conclusions.

You can decide now whether you want to take advantage of the present favorable prices of materials and build now, or whether you want to wait three, five, ten or fifteen years until "prices are right" and then build, in the meantime, doing without the comfort, convenience, and satisfaction of a home of your own.

Think it over. Our advice is, Build Now! not because the Government asks you to, but because

A Good Entertainment

Again the people of Holt and vicinity were privileged to listen to a fine program, rendered by the young people of Middle River last Saturday evening at the Woodman hall, which delighted both young and old. The performers were greeted with a large and appreciative audience and the rendering of song, recitations and the Home Play brot forth bursts of applause which confirms the above statement.

One of the fine features of the performance, was the Middle River band which gripped the hearts of the people. We regret to state that many were obliged to turn away as all available room both for seating and standing were taken. We wish to congratulate this little company for the talent displayed in song, speech and in impersonating, and we extend to them a most hearty invitation to return to our town sometime in the near future.

This bank is in a very prosperous condition and their buisness is increasing steadily, so that they are obliged to hire more help. Their time certificates of deposit at present, equals their total resources less than five years ago, and the deposits subject to check are almost as large, besides the amount of reserve on hand far exceeds the amount required by law. This is a record that the bank, its officials and everyone else can be justly proud of.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Peru, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METERIANO, 36 West 10th St., Peru, Ind.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

HOW CAN YOU TELL YOUR FAVORITE TOBACCO?

As Plain as the Nose on Your Face—Just Smell It

Smokers do not have to put tobacco in their pipes to find out if they like it. They can just rub the tobacco between the palms of their hands and smell it. The nose is an infallible guide to smoking enjoyment.

All smoking tobaccos employ some flavoring "to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves", to quote the Encyclopædia Britannica. Naturally, there is considerable difference in the kind of flavorings used, and the nose quickly detects this difference. TUXEDO Tobacco uses the purest, most wholesome, and delicious of all flavorings—chocolate. And the almost universal liking for chocolate in a great measure explains the widespread popularity of TUXEDO Tobacco.

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

HUNGARY RED CHIEF IS SLAIN

Counter Revolution Breaks Out in Budapest Is Report From Vienna.

HUNGER CRISIS IS NEAR

Basle, April 8.—Rumors are being circulated that a counter revolution has broken out in Budapest, according to a dispatch from Vienna. Foreign Minister Bela Kun is said to have been assassinated.

Basle, April 8.—A dispatch from Berlin said the workmen's and soldiers' council there had decided to arrest influential persons of the bourgeoise and press and occupy the war ministry, after which a soviet republic would be proclaimed simultaneously with a general strike.

Communists Plans Are for Strike.

Berlin, April 8.—Communists are completing plans for a general strike early next week.

Government forces are on the alert to oppose a coup d'etat.

Plots in Several Towns.

Copenhagen, April 8.—The German government has discovered plots in several towns for establishment of a soviet republic, a semi-official dispatch, from Berlin announces. Repressive measures are being taken.

The Krupp works are reported to be idle and its officials have been instructed to arm themselves against an emergency.

A dispatch from Berlin Saturday night said the government had discovered a plot to proclaim a soviet republic in that city.

Arming of Krupp officials may seem that a Spartacan attack is plotted on the works in an effort to obtain a large supply of arms and ammunitions.

Revolt in Austria.

Washington, April 8.—Advices reaching the state department indirectly from Vienna said a communistic revolution seemed imminent in German Austria.

New Difficulty.

Weimar, April 8.—After announcement was made that Polish troops would cross Germany, railway men presented new demands to the government, threatening a general strike if their demands were not granted. Newspapers urge that the government must make the strike impossible, since the Entente Powers have declared that if transportation is delayed or made difficult they will insist on landing Polish troops at Danzig.

STRIKE MARKED BY RIOTING

Shooting and Bomb Explosion Keep Lawrence Police Busy.

Lawrence, Mass., April 8.—Rioting marked by promiscuous shooting by strike sympathizers and police opened the 10th week of the textile strike here. The outbreak occurred near the Everett mills, a few hours after the city had been stirred by the explosion of a bomb in a tenement house in the same neighborhood.

The rioting began when strike sympathizers began throwing stones at mill windows and then shifted their attack to policemen. When the police found their clubs ineffective they drew pistols and their shots were answered by others from the crowd. Men and women also appeared at windows with missles. The bomb explosion occurred before daylight. The property damage was small. Twenty-three arrests were made.

WILSON ORDERS SHIP READY

Steamer George Washington to Proceed to French Port.

Paris, April 8.—Orders which it is learned have been given for the United States transport George Washington to proceed from America to a French port, are not taken to mean that President Wilson is contemplating a premature departure from France. They are thought rather to reflect a belief that the peace conference will be able to effect an adjustment of outstanding problems at a comparatively early date.

CHINESE WOMAN PEACE ENVOY

Only 23 Years Old, Arrives in Paris for Conference.

Paris, April 8.—Miss S. Cheng, a Chinese woman only 23 years of age, but with a record of several years' activity as a republican leader in China, has arrived here to attend the peace conference. Miss Cheng was three times condemned to death in 1916 and 1917 in connection with her activities. She was formerly a law student here.

Probe Body Members Named.

Paris, April 8.—Dr. Henry C. King, president of Oberlin college, and Charles R. Crane have been named as the American Members of the inter-Allied commission designated by the Peace conference to investigate conditions in Syria, take a plebiscite and submit recommendations on the disposition of Syria. The investigation probably will require several months and it is certain no disposition will be made of Syria until after the signing of the peace treaty.

Health Was Shattered

Mrs. Hayes Was Discouraged Until Doan's Made Her Well.

"I was in awful shape from kidney trouble," says Mrs. Frank Hayes, 42 Dover St., Boston, Mass. "When I got up out of a chair, I felt as though someone had stuck a knife into the small of my back and it fairly took my breath away.

Mrs. Hayes

"The kidney secretions passed often and only a little at a time. They were so scalding I would scream so I believe I could be heard a block away. They deposited brick-dust-like sediment and their odor was something awful. My complexion became sallow and I had large puffs under my eyes.

"I was troubled with spells of gasping for breath and had such dizzy attacks I often fell right over. Spots floated before my eyes and I got so nervous I couldn't stand any noise. I cried over nothing at all, became irritable and imagined all sorts of things. My health was shattered and I became discouraged.

"I continued to grow worse in spite of any treatment and came pretty near dying several times. After several months of this horror, I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills. I used a dozen boxes of Doan's and was cured. I was entirely well and have enjoyed good health ever since."

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—headaches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of the trouble.

Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloat out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.

Third Answer to His Question Must Have Left School Superintendent Gasping for Breath.

Superintendent of Schools Shiels of Los Angeles, while endeavoring to teach a class of boys the composition of sentences, said to them:

"If I ask you 'What have I in my hand?' you must not answer 'chalk,' but compose a complete sentence such as, 'You have a piece of chalk in your hand.' Now we will continue.

"What have I on my feet?"

"Boots," was the immediate answer.

"Wrong, you haven't listened to my directions."

"Socks," answered another heedless one. "Wrong again; worse than ever," protested Shiels in exasperation.

"Well?" as another pupil raised his hand.

"Please, sir," then he paused. Perhaps he thought his answer might seem funny, but convinced that it was right, he gasped out recklessly, "corns!"

STATE BREVITIES

Pine River.—Twelve-year-old George Mellen was brought from Hackensack to the hospital for treatment for an injured ankle, broken when logs fell on him.

Winona.—Navigation on the Upper Mississippi river was officially opened today when the steamer Ideal left her slip here for Hannibal, Mo., on the first trip of the season.

Virginia.—The Whippet tanks sent by the Ninth Federal Reserve district to stimulate interest in the Victory Loan will visit Virginia April 14. Other towns of the range will also be visited.

Goodridge.—The Goodridge Co-operative creamery is now prepared to handle large amounts of cream for patrons. Its books for the last month show a very substantial increase over former months.

International Falls.—George P. Watson and others who failed to secure a restraining order stopping the city from buying a site for a water pumping plant, have now restrained the city from paying for the site.

St. Paul.—George H. Nettleton of St. Paul has been appointed state fire marshal by John B. Sanborn, state insurance commissioner. All present deputies were reappointed. The fire marshal's salary has been increased from $2,400 to $3,000 yearly.

Rochester.—Dr. Isaac Vandowlin of Virginia, past grand master of the I. O. O. F. of Minnesota, died at St. Mary's hospital here, following an operation. His remains were taken to Virginia by his wife. He was buried with I. O. O. F. honors.

St. Paul.—There were 7,958,645 fowls in the state last year. Although the figures issued by poultry fanciers give the number for 1917 as 7,959,595, it is thought more fowls were marketed early in 1918 than during the corresponding period in 1917, because of high prices.

Red Lake Falls.—To boost the sheep growing industry in Red Lake county Col. Frank Jeffers, stock breeder and vice president of the Red River Valley Livestock Breeders' association, proposes to organize a sheep club with a limited number of boys and girls under 21, each member to try to raise the best sheep.

Willmar.—Great Northern train No. 10, the Winnepeg-St. Paul mail and passenger, suffered its second wreck in two days, when it jumped the track two miles east of Pennock. Twenty-two passengers were more or less injured. All except seven were able to proceed on their journey after receiving medical attention. These seven were brought to the three hospitals here.

St. Paul.—Minnesota state banks in the process of organization and without state charters March 21 must be approved by the state securities commission before they can begin business. St. Paul.—Minnesota begins April business with $9,744,816.56, nearly $2,500,000 more than a year ago, according to Henry Rines, state treasurer. Sales of state securities and increases in railroad gross earnings tax payments make up the big increase in the balance of cash on hand. During March the receipts were $3,827,359 and the disbursements totaled $3,845,164. More than $1,200,000 from sales of certificates of indebtedness issued by the forest fire relief commission was the largest single receipt.

Fergus Falls.—The boys at Pelican Rapids, 20 miles north of here, have discovered a gold mine in the frog crop there. For some unexplained reason the frogs are coming out of the river banks or the river bottom in large numbers this spring. They are cold and stiff after their winter's sleep and are easily caught with improvised nets. Three boys working after school three evenings cleared up between $63 and $64. A brakeman on the Pelican Rapids branch, with his son, caught enough frogs in several hours Sunday to net him $61.20. It is thought the townspeople will net several thousands of dollars.

St. Paul.—Countess Iva proved herself to be the finest specimen of cowhood at the prize sale at South St. Paul. The countess, which was exhibited by Hagen & Covington of Kennedy, Minn., brought $1,400 from the pocketbook of J. L. Bady of Kellogg, Minn. Avon Chief, consigned by C. B. Grimes of Winnebago, Minn., took highest honors among the bulls when it was sold to Robert Bjorkland of Henning, Minn., for $630. Altogether, ninety head of prize cattle figured in the ring and the average sale price was $349.11, with the entire proceeds close to $31,400. The average price for the forty-two cows was $504, while the forty-eight bulls averaged $222. The sale was held by the Minnesota Short Horn Breeders' association.

Bemidji.—More than fifty beaver will be trapped by game warden, skinned and the skins prepared and shipped to St. Paul, where they will be sold because of the damage they are doing in the vicinity of Big Falls, Koochiching county. Game Warden Bailey has been authorized to supervise the trapping.

Wilwerschied, St. Paul, was elected first vice president; George Forrester, second vice president; A. P. Knaeble, third vice president; R. E. Dare, secretary, and Joseph Gross, treasurer.

Crookston.—Lee R. Boyd, formerly a lieutenant in the Three Hundred and Thirteenth engineers, has received his commission as captain, according to word received by his parents. Capt. Boyd is the son of State Representative John Boyd and won his commission as captain as a direct reward for merit in the completion of a difficult job of railroad engineering in the devastated region in France.

The increase in corn acreage was 2,814,982 in 1917, to 2,658,515 in 1918. Potatoes were planted on 261,303 acres last year, as against 234,554 in 1917.

Greater sheep raising was indicated by 318,414 in 1918, as against 239,781 in 1917. Despite the large number of tractors and automobiles, there were 764,336 horses in the state in 1918, compared with 716,372 the year preceding. Hogs dropped from 2,028,349 in 1917 to 1,887,939 in 1918.

St. Paul.—Otter Tail county, with 35,248 cows, led the other counties of the state last year. It was closely followed by Stearns, which has 33,585. Fillmore was the banner county for other cattle, having 49,398, and nosing Otter Tail out of first place by 65 Stearns was first in horses, with 19,490, which was 468 more than had Fillmore. With 69,730, Renville county was the leader in hogs last year. It was hard pressed by Rock county, which had 68,718. These counties were the leaders in 1917, also. Otter Tail was first in 1918 in poultry, with 239,881, and led in 1917, also, with 233,900.

St. Paul.—Thousands of wild ducks and other migratory water fowl may now be seen on Minnesota lakes and rivers on their northward spring flight, Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner, said and barring a repetition of conditions late last year, Minnesota sportmen will enjoy good hunting next fall. Commissioner Avery explained that the poor hunting last fall was due to unfavorable flight conditions and not to a scarcity of birds. Canadian lakes were open until December and the flight was unusually late and rapid as a result. The birds either took new routes or made no stops in Minnesota and hunting suffered accordingly.

Hibbing.—The extra income tax aliens are obliged to pay is said here to be causing numerous noncitizens on the Minnesota iron ranges to return to their native land. No one nationality predominates, at least seven being represented. Figures at the local postoffice savings department show a decrease in savings of $3,000 for March, as compared with February, due, Postmaster J. B. Connors says, to heavy withdrawals by foreigners, who, when asked for a reason, state they are going home. The past several weeks has witnessed the greatest exodus in years, it is said.

Are You Waiting for Prices to Come Down?

CURTIS WOODWORK

ABOUT 320,000 houses are built each normal year in this country.

Last year home-building was at a standstill, for patriotic reasons.

The year before that and the year before that, home-building was below normal because "prices were too high." As a result, there is a shortage in this country of about 700,000 houses!

Consequently, there is a "hungry market" for building materials. General Demand is about to launch a campaign for home-building. What will General Supply do? What effect will a big demand have on prices? You can draw your own conclusions.

You can decide now whether you want to take advantage of the present favorable prices of materials and build now, or whether you want to wait three, five, ten or fifteen years until "prices are right" and then build, in the meantime, doing without the comfort, convenience, and satisfaction of a home of your own.

Think it over. Our advice is, Build Now! not because the Government asks you to, but because

It Is Wise to Build Now

Everybody boost for the BIG CHAUTAUQUA

We wish to extend our hearty thanks to the Ringbo Red Cross auxiliary for the very substantial donation of $9.20 given us on Sunday, May 18, also for the many expressions of good will. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Erickson.

Miss June Fitch and her friend, Ruben Johnson, arrived here Friday to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Fitch, also other relatives. These young people have been students at Oak Park academy, Nevada, Iowa, and they are greatly enjoying their vacation

The public school gave a fine program at the hall last Thursday night which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The proceeds from the sale of novelties and lunch amounted to over $80. Ole Breuna was the auctioneer and he knows how to get a good price for what he sells.

Mrs. Fitch and Mrs. Adams attended the Red Cross convention at Warren last week Thursday. The Red Cross in the county will be re-organized as a county chapter with headquarters at Warren. Also a county nurse will employed and a few slight changes made. The work of the Red Cross is not finished and there is an urgent call for workers right now.

It is encouraging to hear of the large number of farmers who are planting all the way from one and two acres of potatoes and several are planting up to five acres. We believe this is a good move on their part. Also we should very much like to see them try a little patch of corn and see how much good fodder can be raised from a single acre of corn. Diversified farming and rotation of crops have proved a success, while on the other hand it has been proven that the single crop system will bring ruin to any country.

Memorial Day in Holt.

A big crowd of people attended the Memorial Day exercises in our little village last Friday afternoon.

On account of the windy weather the program was given in the Mission church, which wouldn't hold half of those who desired to get in. Two splendid addresses were given by Mr. Silverness and Rev. Ordahl. Miss Mayme Flak recited, "America for Me," the school children furnished a short program and there was music by Miss Mickelson, Oscar Hagglund and Ernest Phillipson. The entire program was good and greatly enjoyed by everybody.

The soldiers, led by the Middle River band, followed by the Red Cross, school children and citizens. A short service in memory of the brave soldier boys was held at the cemetery, the band furnishing music.

After the services at the cemetery the soldiers marched to the school grounds where they gave an exhibition drill and the Middle River band furnished music, both of which was greatly enjoyed by all the people present.

Just as the ladies were almost ready to serve lunch a rain and wind storm came up and a large part of the crowd left for their homes, but enough remained to tax the capacity of the the school house to hold them.

Altho Memorial Day brings up many sad memories we believe everyone enjoyed the exercises, especially the soldiers and the bereaved parents and relatives who were guests of the Red Cross that day.

The Holt Red Cross auxiliary desires to thank everyone who contributed in any way toward helping them with the Memorial Day exercises, the decorating, lunches and the numberless jobs that had to be done.

Tom and Richard Larson came up from Thief River Falls Monday to paint their mother's house, grade up the yard, etc. When this work is finished their mother, Mrs. Anderson, will have a nice little home, in a good location, in a good little village.

Among those who have been painting their houses this spring are: Mrs. T. Sollom, Mrs. Carrie Anderson, P. O. Reierson and R. L. Olson; and Gust Peterson is painting the big barn that he built last fall. We hope a lot more of our people will catch the painting fever.

A Narrow Escape

Little Ambrose Kieffer, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horn who makes his home with them, narrowly escaped drowning Sunday evening. Mrs. Horn and the children were out walking and picking flowers, when the little fellow in trying to walk a plank laid across the ditch which is a half mile from town, lost his balance and fell into the water which was about eight feet deep at that place. Mrs. Horn who was several rods away, hearing their screams, ran back just in time to see the little fellow come up the second time. With presence of mind but with much difficulty she drew him out and immediately commenced to roll him on the ground to expell the water from his lungs.

Mrs. Horn's skill as a trained nurse stood her well in hand at this critical time, for after a good rubbing down and wrapped in a blanket, he was placed in an oven until thorougly warm. We are glad to report that after receiving this ideal treatment, little Ambrose came out of the ordeal none the worst for his experience, yet at the same time, had there been no grown person near to have rescued him, there would have been a pretty sad event which would been a great calamity for Holt.

Parents should take warning at this experience and keep their young children away from this ditch one half mile south of Holt.
